At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D.C., on the 27th day of December 1961;

The Commission having under consideration the applications of West Michigan Telecasters, Inc. (BPCT–2956); MKO Broadcasting Corporation (BPCT–2959); Major Television Company (BPCT–2960); and Peninsular Broadcasting Company (BPCT–2962), captioned above, each requesting a construction permit for a new television broadcast station to operate on Channel 13 in Grand Rapids, Michigan; and

It appearing, that on November 21, 1961, the Commission designated for hearing two applications (BPCT–2928 and BPCT–2950) each requesting a construction permit for Channel 13 in Grand Rapids, Michigan (FCC 61–1399, Docket Nos. 14407 and 14408); and

It further appearing, that the above-captioned applications (BPCT–2956, BPCT–2959, BPCT 2960 and BPCT–2962) were on file on November 20, 1961, the day preceding the date on which the prior applications were designated for hearing, and are mutually exclusive and entitled to comparative consideration therewith; and

It further appearing, that the following matters are to be considered in connection with the issues specified below:

(a) The proposal of West Michigan Telecasters, Inc. (BPCT–2956).

(1) Cash in the approximate amount of $656,000 will be required for down payment on the equipment, for buildings, miscellaneous items and for initial working capital. The applicant proposes to finance the construction and initial operation by means of a bank loan of $250,000, stock subscriptions of $340,000, and existing capital of $24,114; total $614,114. It appears that applicant has not shown the availability of sufficient funds for construction and initial operation. Consequently, the Commission cannot make the finding that West Michigan Telecasters, Inc. is financially qualified.

(2) No determination has yet been made as to whether the proposed antenna system and site may constitute a menace to air navigation.

(b) The proposal of MKO Broadcasting Corporation (BPCT–2959).

(1) It appears that cash in the amount of $794,000 will be required for down payment on equipment, land, transmitter buildings, miscellaneous and initial working capital. It also appears that additional funds will be needed for the studio building in an amount which the Commission is unable to determine. The applicant proposes to finance the construction and initial operation from existing capital of $13,500, stock subscriptions of $121,500, bank loan of $600,000, and debentures in the amount of $500,000. The subscribers to the stock and debentures, with the exception of Ivor F. Johnson, John S. Vanderplow, and John W. Bertsch, have failed to comply with the requirements of Section III, Page 2, Paragraph (d), FCC Form 301, in that the assets relied upon are not described in sufficient detail. Therefore, it cannot be determined that they have sufficient funds with which to meet their commitments. It cannot be determined that $13,500 in existing capital is available since there are offsetting liabilities in the approximate amount of $10,000. It cannot be determined that the bank loan of $600,000 is available to applicant since it has not been shown how the conditions of the loan are to be met. Consequently, the Commission cannot make the finding that the applicant is financially qualified.

(2) No determination has yet been made as to whether the proposed antenna system and site may constitute a menace to air navigation.

(c) The proposal of Major Television Company (BPCT–2960).

No determination has yet been made as to whether the proposed antenna system and site may constitute a menace to air navigation.

(d) The proposal of Peninsular Broadcasting Company (BPCT–2962).

(1) Cash in the approximate amount of $828,000 will be required for down payment on equipment, land, buildings, miscellaneous and for initial working capital. The applicant proposes to finance the construction and initial operation by a bank loan of $175,000, existing capital of $76,000, stock subscription of $304,000, and loans by major stockholders of $275,000. However, Fred J. Barr, William K. McInerney and John D. Loeks have not shown sufficient funds in compliance with Section III, Page 2, Paragraph (d) of FCC Form 301, to meet their commitments. Consequently, the Commission cannot make the finding that the applicant is financially qualified.

(2) No determination has yet been made as to whether the proposed antenna system and site may constitute a menace to air navigation.

It further appearing, that upon due consideration of the above-captioned applications (BPCT–2956, 2959, 2960, and 2962), the Commission finds that West Michigan Telecasters, Inc., is legally qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station, and is technically so qualified except with respect to issue "2" specified below, and is otherwise qualified except with respect to issue "1" below; that MKO Broadcasting Corporation is legally qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station, and is technically so qualified except with respect to issue "4" specified below, and is otherwise qualified except with respect to issue "3" below; that Major Television Company is legally and financially qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station, and is technically so qualified except with respect to issue "5" below; and that Peninsular Broadcasting Company is legally qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station, and is technically so qualified except with respect to issue "7" below, and is otherwise qualified except with respect to issue "6" below.

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309(e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-captioned applications are designated for hearing and consolidated into the pending proceeding in Docket Nos. 14407 and 14408, upon the following issues:

1. To determine whether West Michigan Telecasters, Inc., is financially qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station.

2. To determine whether there is a reasonable possibility that the tower height and location proposed by West Michigan Telecasters, Inc., would constitute a menace to air navigation.

3. To determine whether MKO Broadcasting Corporation is financially qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station.

4. To determine whether there is a reasonable possibility that the tower height and location proposed by MKO Broadcasting Corporation would constitute a menace to air navigation.

5. To determine whether there is a reasonable possibility that the tower height and location proposed by Major Television Company would constitute a menace to air navigation.

6. To determine whether Peninsular Broadcasting Company is financially qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station.

7. To determine whether there is a reasonable possibility that the tower height and location proposed by Peninsular Broadcasting Company would constitute a menace to air navigation.

8. To determine, on a comparative basis, which of the proposed operations would better serve the public interest, convenience and necessity in light of the significant differences among the applicants as to:

(a) The background and experience of each bearing on its ability to own and operate the proposed television broadcast station.

(b) The proposals of each with respect to the management and operation of the proposed television broadcast stations.

(c) The programming service proposed in each of the above-mentioned applications.

9. To determine, in light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which, if any, of the applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That Issues "8" and "9" of this Order shall supersede Issues "5" and "6" specified in the Commission's Order of November 21, 1961 (FCC 61–1399), in Docket Nos. 14407 and 14408.

It is further ordered, That the time and place of the consolidated hearing will be specified in a subsequent Order.

It is further ordered, That the issues in the above-entitled proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding and upon a sufficient allegation of facts in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue:

To determine whether the funds available to the applicants will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the applications will be effectuated.

It is further ordered, That the Federal Aviation Agency is hereby made a party to the proceeding.

It is further ordered, That to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants and party respondent herein, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission's rules, in person or by attorney, shall within twenty (20) days of the mailing of this Order, file with the Commission in triplicate a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this Order.

It is further ordered, That, the applicants herein and the applicants previously designated for hearing in Docket Nos. 14407 and 14408 shall pursuant to section 311(a)(2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 1.362(b) of the Commission's rules, give notice of the hearing, either individually, or, if feasible, jointly, within the time and in the manner prescribed in such Rule, and shall advise the Commission of the publication of such notice as required by § 1.362(c) of the rules.

Released: January 2, 1962.

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

[Docket No. 954 (Sub-2)]

INVESTIGATION OF INCREASED RATES ON SUGAR, REFINED OR TURBINATED, IN BAGS IN ATLANTIC/GULF PUERTO RICO TRADE

Notice of Supplemental Order

On December 14, 1961, the Federal Maritime Commission entered the following First Supplemental Order to the original order in this proceeding dated December 7, 1961:

It appearing, that there is currently pending in this proceeding an investigation of an increase in rates on Sugar, refined or turbinated, in bags from Puerto Rico ports to Atlantic and Gulf ports, which said rates have been suspended and are now to become effective on April 8, 1962; and

It further appearing, that on November 15, 1961, A. H. Bull Steamship Co. filed with the Federal Maritime Commission (Commission) a tariff schedule designated Fifth Revised Page No. 27 to Homeward Freight Tariff No. 1, FMB–F No. 2, to become effective December 16, 1961, which said schedule published increased commodity rates on Sugar, refined or turbinated, in bags; and

It further appearing, that protests have been received petitioning the Commission to suspend said increased rates; and

It further appearing, that upon consideration of said rates and protests thereto, there is reason to believe that said rates would, if permitted to become effective, result in rates which would be unjust, unreasonable, or otherwise unlawful in violation of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended, or the Intercoastal Shipping Act, 1933, as amended; and

It further appearing, that the Commission is of the opinion that the new rates on sugar, refined or turbinated, in bags named in said schedule should be made the subject of a public investigation and hearing to determine whether they are just, reasonable, and otherwise lawful under the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended, or the Intercoastal Shipping Act, 1933, as amended; and

It further appearing, that the effective date of the said rates should be suspended pending such investigation;

Now therefore it is ordered, That this proceeding be, and it hereby is, expanded to include, in addition to the matters now under investigation, an investigation into and concerning the lawfulness of the increased rates on sugar, refined or turbinated, in bags named in the said schedule, with a view to making such findings and orders in the premises as the facts and circumstances shall warrant; and

It is further ordered, That said rates be, and they are hereby, suspended and that the use of the said rates, be, and they are hereby, deferred to and including April 17, 1962, unless otherwise authorized by the Commission, and that the rates heretofore in effect, and which were to be changed by the suspended rates, shall remain in effect during the period of suspension; and

It is further ordered, That no change shall be made in the matter hereby suspended nor the matter which is continued in effect as a result of such suspension until the period of suspension or any extension thereof has expired, or until this investigation and suspension proceeding has been disposed of, whichever first occurs, unless otherwise authorized by the Commission; and

It is further ordered, That there shall be filed immediately with the Commission by A. H. Bull Steamship Co. a consecutively numbered supplement to the aforesaid tariff schedule which supplement shall bear no effective date, shall reproduce the portion of this order wherein the suspended matter is described, and shall state that the aforesaid rates are suspended and may not be used until the 18th day of April 1962, unless otherwise authorized by the Commission, and that the rates heretofore in effect, and which were to be changed by the suspended rates, shall remain in effect during the period of suspension, and neither the matter suspended, nor the matter which is continued in effect as a result of such suspension, may be changed until the period of suspension or any extension thereof has expired, or until this investigation and suspension proceeding has been disposed of, whichever first occurs, unless otherwise authorized by the Commission; and

It is further ordered, That copies of this order shall be filed with the said tariff schedule in the Bureau of Domestic Regulation of the Federal Maritime Commission; and

It is further ordered, That (I) the investigation herein ordered be assigned for public hearing before an examiner of the Commission's Office of Hearing Examiners, at a date and place to be determined and announced by the Chief Examiner, to receive evidence in this proceeding, which will provide an adequate record for proper disposition of the issues and that an initial decision be issued; (II) A. H. Bull Steamship Co., be and it is hereby made respondent in this proceeding; (III) a copy of this order shall forthwith be served upon the protestants, the A. H. Bull Steamship Co., and all others heretofore named respondents hereto; (IV) the said respondents and protestants be duly notified of the time and place of the hearing ordered; and (V) this order and notice of the said hearing be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By order of the Federal Martime Commission.

Dated: December 29, 1961.

[Docket No. 965]

PACIFIC COAST TERMINALS

Investigation of and Proposed Rules Relating to Practices in Granting Free Time and Collecting Wharf Demurrage and Storage Charges

Notice is hereby given that on December 14, 1961 the Federal Maritime Commission entered the following order:

It appearing, that, except for the requirements of the orders outstanding as a result of Docket No. 555 (2 U.S.M.C. 588 and 709), (1) the water terminals on the United States Pacific Coast may be granting free time of such length as to be prejudicial, unjust, and unreasonable within the meaning of sections 16 and 17 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended; (2) said terminals may be assessing and collecting wharf demurrage and storage charges so low as to be prejudicial, unjust, unreasonable, preferential or disadvantageous within the meaning of sections 16 and 17 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended: (3) there appears to be no uniformity among the practices and rates relating to free time, wharf demurrage, and storage among the aforesaid terminals; and (4) in order for just and reasonable practices, as required by section 17 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended, to exist at the aforesaid terminals it may be necessary that uniform rules for all terminals be established;

It further appearing, that, in order that just and reasonable regulations and practices may prevail at said Pacific Ports the Commission should promulgate rules requiring that all terminal operators at all Pacific Coast Ports establish practices, regulations and rates which:

(1) Permit no more than 10 days free time to any and all commodities, without regard to their nature and without regard to whether they are being exported from or imported into the United States or being transported in the interstate commerce of the United States;

(2) Charge rates for wharf demurrage and/or storage which do not discriminate unfairly among or between commodities and which exact charges bearing a fair relation to the cost of the service provided;

(3) Permit the waiver of the aforesaid 10 days free storage rule and charges for wharf demurrage and/or storage only upon the special permission of the Federal Maritime Commission for good cause shown and only in the instance of specific and individual cargo movements; and

(4) Prohibit (a) making or giving any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any particular person, locality, or description of traffic in any respect whatsoever, and (b) subjecting any particular person, locality, or description of traffic to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That pursuant to sections 16, 17, 22, and 43 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended, there is hereby instituted an investigation to determine the necessity and advisability of promulgating rules requiring that persons (including common carriers by water) carrying on the business of furnishing wharfage, dock, warehouse, or other terminal facilities at Pacific Coast ports establish practices, regulations, and rates as aforesaid; and

It is further ordered, That, all interested persons, including but not limited to the persons named in Appendix A below, may submit written data, views, and arguments relative to the advisability and propriety of the promulgation of rules such as the aforesaid. All arguments and views should be supported by written data and/or statements of act. Requests for opportunity to present evidence and argument at a public hearing will be given due consideration by the Commission provided such requests are accompanied by a written summary of the facts intended to be proved at such public hearing if it is held. All views, data, arguments, and requests for hearing submitted in accordance herewith should be forwarded to the Federal Maritime Commission, Washington, D.C., and, to be entitled to consideration, must be received no later than 60 days from the publication of this order and notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That, a copy of this order shall be served upon all persons named in Appendix A below.

It is further ordered, That, a copy of the order shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

Dated: January 2, 1962.

Secretary.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. CP62-43]

ATLANTIC SEABOARD CORP.

Notice of Application

DECEMBER 28, 1961.

Take notice that on August 22, 1961, as supplemented on October 17, 1961, Atlantic Seaboard Corporation (Applicant), P.O. Box 1273, Charleston 25, West Virginia, filed in Docket No. CP62-43 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing (1) the construction and operation of approximately 40.3 miles of 30-inch gas transmission pipeline extending in a northeasterly direction from Applicant's 26-inch pipelines at Leesburg Gate, Loudoun County, Virginia, to a point of interconnection with Applicant's 20-inch and 26-inch pipelines at Linden Church, Howard County, Maryland, and (2) installation and operation of an additional 1320 horsepower at Applicant's Lost River Compressor Station, Hardy County, West Virgina, by the turbocharging of six existing compressor units from 1100 h.p. to 1320 h.p. each, all as more fully set forth in the application, as supplemented, which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

The application states that the estimated peak day gas requirements for the 1962-1963 winter season will increase approximately 45,800 Mcf over and above the estimated peak day gas requirements for the 1961-1962 winter season and that the proposed transmission facilities are necessary to provide sufficient transmission capacity to meet such increased requirements.

The application further states that Applicant's proposed 30-inch gas transmission pipeline is necessary in that it will permit Applicant to remove any additional pipeline operations from the urban area surrounding Washington, D.C.

Applicant does not propose to increase its present contract demand from United Fuel Gas Company, its principal source of supply.

The estimated cost of the proposed facilities is $5,476,000 which would be financed by The Columbia Gas System, Inc., Applicant's parent.

Protests, requests for hearing or petitions to intervene in this proceeding may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before January 22, 1962.

Secretary.

[Docket No. G-19115 etc.]

HASSIE HUNT TRUST ET AL.

Order Denying Rehearing and Fixing Date for Hearing

DECEMBER 28, 1961.

Hassie Hunt Trust, Operator, et al., Docket No. G-19115; H. L. Hunt, Operator, et al., Docket No. G-19116; Hunt Oil Company, Docket No. G-19117; William Herbert Hunt Trust Estate, Operator, Docket No. G-19118; Lamar Hunt Trust Estate, Docket No. G-19119; George W. Graham, Inc., Operator, et al., Docket No. G-19123; Placid Oil Company, Operator, et al., Docket Nos. G-19124, G-19125.

On December 1, 1961, Placid Oil Company filed an Application for Rehearing of our Order Granting Intervention, Setting Aside Certificates and Issuing Temporary Authorizations, issued November 2, 1961, and Hassie Hunt Trust, H. L. Hunt, Hunt Oil Company, William Herbert Hunt Trust Estate, Lamar Hunt Trust Estate, and George W. Graham, Inc., filed an Application for Rehearing and Reconsideration of said order.[1] Petitioners allege that the Commission erred in vacating the certificate of public convenience and necessity theretofore issued to them in the above-listed dockets, that it erred in vacating the certificates without full hearing, that the Commission has no authority to issue temporary authorizations for the period during which service may be continued without permanent certificates outstanding, that the refund provision set forth in the aforesaid order was improper, and that we have no authority to order the filing of a copy of said order with Petitioners' rate schedules.

We have considered Petitioners' arguments, and find no reason to grant rehearing or to reconsider our order.

On November 24, 1961, the Public Service Commission of the State of New York filed, pursuant to ordering paragraph (B) of the aforesaid order a statement setting forth its position on the issues involved and its position thereon. In view of said position, and in order that the public interest be adequately served, we deem it necessary that a hearing be held concerning the applications in the above-listed dockets in order that it may be determined whether or not the public convenience and necessity require that permanent certificates should issue to Petitioners upon the terms and at the price sought.

On June 15, 1961, the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit reversed our denial of intervention to the New York Commission and ordered that the instant cases be "remanded for such further proceedings as are not inconsistent with this opinion." Public Service Commission of New York v. F.P.C., 295 F. 2d 140, 144. In view of prior judicial determinations, we have taken in this proceeding the only action we could have taken to protect the right of the New York Commission to intervene in this case.

Petitioners argue that we should not have vacated the certificates, that they had become final because no appeal had been taken from them and that the court had no power to rule upon the effectiveness of the certificates. Petitioners ignore the fact that the New York Commission had sought to intervene to protect its rights, that the intervention had been denied, and that an appeal from said denial was pending before the courts at the time certificates were issued to Petitioners. Petitioners were undoubtedly aware of these facts, or should have been. The denial of intervention was reversed. To allow the certificates now to become final, in derogation of the New York Commission's right to intervene, would thwart completely the judgment of the Court. This we cannot do. In a similar case, Public Service Commission of New York v. F.P.C., 284 F. 2d 220, the same Court of Appeals made this clear when it stated:

> If a person has applied for intervention in a proceeding and been denied intervention, and has validly brought the order of denial to this court for review, the administrative agency cannot destroy the jurisdiction of this court by simply taking final action in the proceeding, the would-be intervenor being absent from that proceeding. Such a holding would create too ready a means by which the administrative agencies could thwart the power of a reviewing court to pass upon the validity of orders denying intervention. Such applicants for intervention have a right to judicial review of such denials.
> If it be decided • • • that the order denying intervention was in error and that the New York Commission should have been allowed to intervene in the opening stages of the proceeding before the Federal Commission, it will follow that the proceeding before the Commission would have to be reopened to permit the New York Commission to become a full participant in the proceeding and to present whatever evidence and argument it might choose to present.

In view of this clear pronouncement, it is plain that the proceedings should be reopened so that the New York Commission may have its day in court and an opportunity to contest the initial prices sought by Petitioners. U.S. v. Seatrain Lines, Inc., 329 U.S. 424 and other cases cited by Petitioners are inapposite.

Nor are we foreclosed from the issuance of temporary certificates in cases of this kind. Once service in interstate commerce has been initiated, it must be continued unless permission to abandon has been received from the Commission under section 7(b) of the Natural Gas Act. In view of the requirement that we vacate the permanent certificates under the Court's order, as set forth above, and that we hold further hearings to determine the Petitioners' applications for certificates of public convenience and necessity, we found it necessary to issue temporary authorizations in order to maintain adequate service to Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America. This may be done without notice or hearing under the authority granted us in sections 7 and 16 of the Act.

The Commission's order provided for possible refunds in the event Petitioners failed to justify the price sought in the certificates. The power of the Commission to impose conditions upon certificates of public convenience and necessity has been held to extend to temporary certificates. Sunray Mid-Continent Oil Co. v. F.P.C., 270 F. 2d 404; Texaco Inc. v. F.P.C., 290 F. 2d 149; J. M. Huber Corp. v. F.P.C., — F. 2d — (Sept. 14, 1961). In ordering that refunds be made for revenues collected in excess of the amount computed at the rate determined to be required by the public convenience and necessity, we believe that we have "protected all interests pending [final] determination" The Pure Oil Co. v. F.P.C., — F. 2d — (July 7, 1961) of the application for permanent authority.

Petitioners further contend that we have no authority to order that a copy of our November 2, 1961, order be filed as part of their applicable rate schedules. Section 16 of the Natural Gas Act gives us the power to perform all acts necessary to carry out the provisions of that Act. We have ample authority to require that the rate schedule under which an independent producer will be collecting revenues be on file with us and that it truly represent the terms and conditions under which said revenues are being collected. We have accomplished this by requiring that the aforesaid order be filed as part of the Petitioners' rate schedules.

The Commission finds:

(1) The applications for rehearing and reconsideration filed by Petitioners set forth no new facts or legal considerations which were not fully considered by the Commission prior to the issuance of our order of November 2, 1961, or which have now been considered warrant the modification of said order.

(2) It is necessary and proper that a hearing be held in the above consolidated dockets to determine whether certificates of public convenience and necessity should issue to Petitioners on the terms and at the price sought.

The Commission orders:

(A) The applications for rehearing filed by Petitioners be and they hereby are denied.

(B) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and regulations thereunder and the rules of practice and procedure of the Commission, a hearing will be held commencing March 28, 1962, at 10:00 a.m., e.s.t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented in the applications filed by Petitioners in the above-listed dockets.

(C) Any person heretofore permitted to intervene in the above-listed dockets shall be considered an intervenor in the reopened matter. Further protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before February 28, 1962.

SHELL OIL CO. ET AL.

Order Providing for Hearings on and Suspension of Proposed Changes in Rates, and Allowing Rate Changes to Become Effective Subject to Refund

DECEMBER 28, 1961.

Shell Oil Company (Operator), et al., Docket No. RI62-243; Shell Oil Company, Docket No. RI62-247.

On November 29, 1961, Shell Oil Company (Shell)[1] tendered for filing proposed changes in rates for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. These changes represent increases from 15.5017 cents[2] to 15.55987 cents per Mcf[3] to El Paso Natural Gas Company. The filings, designated Supplement No. 9 to Shell's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 33, Supplement No. 5 to Shell's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 40 and Supplement No. 5 to Shell's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 95, from the producing areas of Langmat Field, Tubb-Blinebry Field, and Bagley Field, respectively, in Lea County, New Mexico, reflect annual increases of $10, $65, and $20, respectively. Shell requests an effective date of December 30, 1961.

Concurrently with the above filings Shell Oil Company (Operator), et al.[4], tendered for filing Supplement No. 10 to its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 34 and Supplement No. 16 to its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 41, reflecting increases of the amounts described above to El Paso Natural Gas Company.[4] These increases relate to sales from the Langmat and Tubb-Blinebry, et al. Fields, Lea County, New Mexico, and represent annual increases of $182 and $2,011, respectively. The requested effective date is December 30, 1961.

The subject rate changes result from increase in tax reimbursement provided for by Shell's contract of sale, which Shell, however, did not file at the time of tendering its renegotiated rate changes currently in effect subject to refund in Docket No. RI61-475. The subject increases are, therefore, being suspended for one day.

The increased rates and charges so proposed may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon hearings concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed changes and that the above-designated supplements be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR, Ch. I), public hearings shall be held upon dates to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed increased rates and charges contained in the above-designated supplements.

(B) Pending hearings and decisions thereon, each of the above-designated rate supplements is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until December 31, 1961, and thereafter until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act: Provided, however, That said supplements shall become effective subject to refund on the date and in the manner herein prescribed if within 20 days from the date of issuance of this order Shell shall execute and file under the appropriate above-designated docket numbers with the Secretary of the Commission its agreement and undertaking to comply with the refunding and reporting procedure required by the Natural Gas Act and § 154.102 of the regulations thereunder, accompanied by a certificate showing service of copies thereof upon all purchasers under the rate schedules involved. Unless Shell is advised to the contrary within 15 days after the filing of its agreement and undertaking, such agreement and undertaking shall be deemed to have been accepted.

(C) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37) on or before February 1, 1962.

[Docket No. E-7019]

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA EDISON CO.

Order Providing for Hearing and Suspension of Proposed Rate Schedule Change

DECEMBER 28, 1961.

Southern California Edison Company (Edison) on December 1, 1961, tendered for filing pursuant to section 205 of the Federal Power Act, a proposed change in rate schedule to supersede as of January 1, 1962, Edison's Rate Schedule FPC No. 1, as supplemented.[1] The proffered superseding rate schedule designated as Edison's Rate Schedule FPC No. 2, would increase Edison's rates and charges for wholesale electric service to the City of Colton, California, by an estimated $130,892 based upon Edison's 1960 deliveries of power and energy to the City of Colton. For the twelve-month period ending December 31, 1960, Edison furnished 27,211,200 kwh to the City of Colton. Based upon the schedule of rates and charges reflected in Edison's Rate Schedule FPC No. 1, the total charges to the City of Colton would be $215,817 and under the proposed increased rates and charges would be $346,709.[2]

The proposed rate schedule change and increased rates and charges may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, preferential or otherwise unlawful. Unless suspended by order of the Commission, Edison's Rate Schedule FPC No. 2 will become effective pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Power Act on January 1, 1962. Examination of that rate schedule and other data currently before the Commission indicates that the rates and charges embodied in Rate Schedule FPC No. 2 inter alia may produce an excessive return upon Edison's net investment properly allocated as a rate base to its service to the City of Colton; may reflect averaging of plant balances upon an improper basis for test year rate base purposes; may reflect improper inclusion in Edison's net investment rate base of amounts of construction work in progress; may reflect an insufficient credit of tax accruals to claimed working capital allowances; may reflect improper allocation of demand responsibility to the City of Colton; may reflect an insufficiently stated fuel adjustment clause; and may reflect improper inclusion of items in claimed production expenses of Edison.

The City of Colton on October 25, 1961, protested the filing of the proposed rate schedule change and requested that the proposed rate increase be suspended and the lawfulness, under the Federal Power Act, of Edison's Rate Schedule FPC No. 2 be determined following a hearing thereon.

The Commission finds: In view of the foregoing, it is necessary and appropriate for the purposes of the Federal Power Act that the Commission pursuant to the authority of that Act, particularly sections 205, 308, and 309 thereof, enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of Edison's proposed Rate Schedule FPC No. 2 and that the operation of such proposed rate schedule be suspended and the use thereof deferred all as hereinafter provided.

The Commission orders:

(A) A public hearing be held concerning the lawfulness of Edison's proposed Rate Schedule FPC No. 2 at a time and place to be specified by notice of the Secretary.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, the operation of the proposed Rate Schedule referred to in Paragraph (A) above, hereby is suspended and the use thereof deferred until June 1, 1962. On that date the proposed rate schedule shall take effect in the manner prescribed by the Federal Power Act, subject to further order of the Commission, unless this proceeding has been disposed of previously.

(C) During the period of suspension Edison's Rate Schedule FPC No. 1, and Supplement No. 1 thereto, on file with the Commission shall remain and continue in effect.

(D) Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, Edison shall not change the terms or provisions of its proposed Rate Schedule FPC No. 2 or its Rate Schedule FPC No. 1, and Supplement No. 1 thereto, until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired.

(E) Notice of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37) on or before January 31, 1962.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

[Docket No. CP60-122 etc.]

TEXAS EASTERN TRANSMISSION CORP ET AL.

Notice of Applications, Further Consolidations and Date of Hearing

DECEMBER 28, 1961.

Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, Docket Nos. CP60-122, CP61-203; Algonquin Gas Transmission Company, Docket Nos. CP60-124, CP61-220; United Gas Pipe Line Company, Docket No. CP61-151; Southern Natural Gas Company, Docket No. CP61-206; Texas Gas Transmission Corporation, Docket No. CP61-247; Arkansas-Missouri Power Company, Docket No. CP62-20.

Take notice that, on November 23, 1960, United Gas Pipe Line Company (United) filed an application in Docket No. CP61-151, as supplemented on January 3, 1961, March 3, 1961, March 20, 1961, April 13, 1961, and October 16, 1961, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act (Act) to construct, in two phases, and operate facilities, hereinafter more fully described, to enable United to replace declining gas supplies used to serve its northeast Texas and north Louisiana market areas with more abundant supplies from southern Louisiana.

Phase I, 1961 construction, consists of 317.3 miles of 30-inch pipeline and appurtenant facilities. These proposed facilities begin at a point in St. Mary Parish, Louisiana, where United's 20-inch Lafayette-Bayou Sale pipeline connects to United's 26 and 30-inch Eugene Island-Kosciusko pipeline, and extend in a northwesterly direction paralleling said Lafayette-Bayou Sale pipeline to the point at which United's 16-inch pipeline to Weeks Island Field connects to said 20-inch pipeline. The proposed facilities then proceed in a northerly direction ending at a point in Ouchita Parish, Louisiana, near Milepost 131 on United's 24 and 20-inch Carthage-Sterlington pipeline.

Phase II, 1962 construction, is a proposed 5,600 HP compressor station on United's proposed new 30-inch pipeline near Marksville, Avoyelles Parish, Louisiana. The total capacity of these new facilities will be approximately 453,000 Mcf per day.[3] The proposed facilities will enable United to supplement, with gas from south Louisiana, declining sources of supply in northeast Texas and north Louisiana.

United also proposes to sell and deliver increased quantities of natural gas to three of its existing pipeline customers, including Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation (Texas Eastern) and Texas Gas Transmission Corporation (Texas Gas).[1] Texas Eastern has agreed to purchase an additional 100,000 Mcf per day commencing on November 1, 1962, and 25,000 Mcf per day additional in 1963. These additional supplies will contribute to Texas Eastern's supply for the service it proposes to render in Docket No. CP61-203, a companion application. Texas Gas has agreed to purchase an additional 50,000 Mcf per day from United commencing on the same date, in order to render service proposed by it in Docket No. CP61-247.

United estimates the total capital cost of its proposed facilities at $34,188,000, which will be financed from retained earnings, depreciation and amortization accruals and from the issuance and sale of 4½ percent notes and 5⅛ percent first mortgage bonds to its parent, United Gas Corporation.

On May 11, 1961, United was granted temporary authority to construct and operate only those facilities designated as Phase I of its project, namely, the new 217 mile 30-inch pipeline and compressor facilities of 2,800 horsepower. On November 2, 1961, United was granted temporary authority to commence the proposed additional deliveries to Texas Eastern so that the latter could commence the service proposed in Docket No. CP61-203.[2]

Texas Eastern, on January 27, 1961, filed an application in Docket No. CP61-203, as supplemented on March 6, 1961, March 13, 1961, June 5, 1961, July 17, 1961, September 5, 1961, and September 29, 1961, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7(c) of the Act to construct and operate 473 miles of pipelines of various sizes and lengths and approximately 97,300 horsepower of additional compressor facilities at various stations in order to increase its peak day system capacity by approximately 230,000 Mcf per day (at 14.73 psia) and to serve additional quantities of gas to 40 percent customers and to initiate service to four new resale customers.[3] These proposed new sales will be made under long term service agreements and Texas Eastern's firm gas rate schedules and will total 224,617 Mcf per day. Approximately 4,900 Mcf of peak day capacity will be uncommitted and available for section 7(a) applicants or other customers. Approximately half of the additional volumes will be delivered commencing November 1, 1961, the remainder commencing November 1, 1962.

The facilities of Texas Eastern proposed herein are described as follows:

(1) Approximately 57.0 miles of 14-inch pipeline from Castor, Louisiana, to West Monroe, Louisiana.

(2) Approximately 165.0 miles of 20-inch pipeline from West Monroe, Louisiana, to Kosciusko, Mississippi.

(3) Approximately 215.0 miles of 30-inch pipeline loops on Texas Eastern's pipeline system at various locations and in various lengths between Kosciusko, Mississippi, and Lambertville, New Jersey.

(4) Approximately 12.5 miles of 14-inch and 13.5 miles of 12¾-inch pipeline extending north from a point on Texas Eastern's 36-inch pipeline in New Jersey between compressor stations 26 and 27.

(5) Approximately 11.0 miles of 10¾-inch pipeline from a point on Texas Eastern's 36-inch pipeline near Manville, New Jersey, to a point near Helmetta, New Jersey.

(6) A new compressor station near West Monroe, Louisiana, of approximately 7,500 horsepower.

(7) Approximately 12,500 additional horsepower at the Kosciusko, Mississippi, compressor station.

(8) Approximately 15,000 additional horsepower at the Gladeville, Tennessee, compressor station.

(9) Approximately 16,000 additional horsepower at the Danville, Kentucky, compressor station.

(10) Approximately 15,000 additional horsepower at the Wheelersburg, Ohio, compressor station.

(11) Approximately 15,000 additional horsepower at the Berne, Ohio, compressor station.

(12) Approximately 10,500 additional horsepower at the Delmont, Pennsylvania, compressor station.

(13) Approximately 2,050 additional horsepower at Station No. 16, Lebanon, Ohio.

(14) Approximately 2,000 additional horsepower at Station No. 17, Circleville, Ohio.

(15) Approximately 1,750 additional horsepower at Station No. 20, Wind Ridge, Pennsylvania.

(16) Change impellers at various existing compressors and add various meter and regulating stations for deliveries of natural gas in connection with the expansion program.

The total capital cost of Texas Eastern's proposed facilities is estimated at $84,521,000 to be financed through the issuance of $60,000,000 of 20 year First Mortgage Pipe Line Bonds, $15,000,000 of 5½ percent sinking fund preferred stock, and $20,000,000 of 5.1 percent subordinate convertible preferred stock. The total of $95,000,000 to be obtained through the issuance of these securities will be used for construction of other facilities in the future in addition to the subject proposal.

Texas Eastern will increase its daily pipeline purchases from United by 126,446 Mcf (Docket No. CP61-151); from Texas Gas by 50,000 Mcf (Docket No. CP61-247); and from Southern Natural Gas Company (Southern) by approximately 41,000 Mcf (Docket No. CP61-206).

Temporary authority was issued to Texas Eastern on June 29, 1961, as amended on August 2, 1961, authorizing construction and operation of facilities necessary to make the deliveries proposed commencing November 1, 1961. On November 2, 1961, temporary authority to sell and deliver the proposed increased volumes for the 1961-62 winter was issued to this applicant.

On February 3, 1961, Southern filed an application as supplemented on March 29, 1961, for certificate authority to construct and operate a total of 14.4 miles of 20-inch transmission loop line on its Gwinville-Pickens line in the State of Mississippi and an additional metering and regulating station at an existing interconnection with the facilities of Texas Eastern near Kosciusko, Mississippi. The proposed facilities would enable Southern to deliver approximately 40,000 Mcf of additional gas per day to Texas Eastern, an existing customer, under a proposed new rate schedule CDL-1, which will provide for the same demand and commodity charges as Southern's Rate Schedule CD-1.

Southern states that there will be available to it at Gwinville, Mississippi, some 190,000 Mcf per day of gas from reserves in south Louisiana along its Canfield line and from the Gwinville Field, which its present system lacks the capacity to move past Gwinville Station. It therefore proposes to complete the looping of the Gwinville-Pickens Line, which will enable 75,638 additional Mcf per day to be transported north from Gwinville to Pickens. Southern states that this will result in an excess capacity of 35,638 Mcf per day which will be needed; however, within the next one to three years to offset declines in deliverability from supply sources in North Louisiana and Texas. Further, Southern states that $61,000 in construction costs will be saved by the complete looping of the Gwinville-Pickens line now, instead of constructing only enough loop for the sale to Texas Eastern and completing the remainder at a later date.

[1] The proposed change in rate schedule was received, physically, in the Office of the Commission on October 2, 1961. Edison subsequently requested that the documents comprising the submittal be deemed to have been tendered for filing with the Commission as a change in rate schedule on December 1, 1961.

[2] Edison's actual billing to the City of Colton during the twelve-month period ending December 31, 1960, was at a schedule of rates and charges higher than those reflected in Edison's Rate Schedule FPC No. 1. These higher rates and charges were not filed with this Commission. See Commission Opinion No. 346 issued July 31, 1961, Docket No. E-6821, City of Colton, California v. Southern California Edison Company.

[1] United also has a precedent agreement with Mississippi River Fuel Corporation (Mississippi River) for increased gas supplies as follows:

Daily Volume (Mcf at 14.9 psia)

1962	1963	1964	1965
10,000	30,000	80,000	100,000

United, in its application herein states that Mississippi will need no certificate to handle these proposed increases.

[2] Temporary authority to construct and operate these facilities was granted to Texas Eastern on June 29, 1961, subject to condition that all costs associated with the installation of these facilities shall not be placed in Texas Eastern's rate base until such inclusion is permitted by further action of this Commission in this proceeding. Temporary authority to make the additional sales proposed for the 1961-62 winter was issued on November 2, 1961.

[3] See Appendix A below for customers and related proposed new volumes.

Southern estimates the total capital cost of construction of its proposed facilities at $1,049,420 to be financed from cash on hand or cash available from current operations.

Texas Gas, on March 20, 1961, filed an application in Docket No. CP61–247 for certificate authority to construct and operate 56.5 miles of 30-inch and 20.75 miles of 26-inch pipeline, looping its existing 26-inch transmission system at various points in Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky and Ohio; two 24-inch river crossings, and 4,000 additional compressor horsepower at its existing Hardinsburg, Kentucky, compressor station.

The proposed facilities are for the purpose of enabling applicant to increase its deliveries to Texas Eastern, as of November 1, 1962, by 50,000 Mcf per day to be delivered at an existing delivery point near Middletown, Ohio. The sale to Texas Eastern will be made under its existing rate schedule CD–4.

Texas Gas has contracted to purchase 50,000 additional Mcf per day from United (Docket No. CP61–151) beginning on November 1, 1961.

Texas Gas estimates the total capital cost of its proposed facilities at $12,913,600. It states, however, that since the proposed facilities need not be constructed until the summer of 1962, it plans to finance the construction in conjunction with the financing of such other facilities as may be needed to meet the requirements of its other customers during the 1962–1963 winter season. Therefore, the plans for financing the subject facilities are not known at this time.

Algonquin Gas Transmission Company (Algonquin) on February 23, 1961, filed an application in Docket No. CP61–220, as supplemented on March 27, 1961, and October 4, 1961, for certificate authority to construct and operate certain additional facilities in order to sell and deliver additional volumes of natural gas to certain of its existing customers.[4] Algonquin proposes to build a new 8,100 horsepower compressor station at Burrillville, Rhode Island and approximately 5.6 miles of 8-inch pipeline loop on its existing 6-inch G–8 lateral in order to commence deliveries of 10,061 Mcf per day on November 1, 1961. Further, it proposes to construct and operate an addition of 4,000 compressor horsepower at its existing Cromwell, Connecticut compressor station and approximately 5.8 miles of 20-inch pipeline loop on its existing G–1 lateral in order to commence deliveries of an additional 17,203 Mcf per day on November 1, 1962.

The total capital cost of Algonquin's proposed facilities is estimated at $4,848,900 to be financed through the use of retained earnings and a bank loan of $4,000,000 at 4½ percent.

The additional volumes proposed to be sold by Algonquin and for which the facilities are a necessary adjunct, will be made available by Texas Eastern as set forth in its application in Docket No. CP61–203.

Temporary authority to construct and operate the facilities necessary to commence the November 1, 1961, service was issued to Algonquin on June 29, 1961,[5] and temporary authority to sell up to 10,061 Mcf per day to certain existing customers was issued on November 2, 1961.

In Docket No. CP62–20, Arkansas-Missouri Power Company (Arkansas-Missouri) filed on July 24, 1961,[6] as supplemented on August 21, 1961, and October 16, 1961, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity under section 7(c) to construct and operate 20.96 miles of 3-inch lateral pipeline and distribution systems in four Arkansas cities.[7] These systems are to be constructed and owned by the cities but will be operated by Arkansas-Missouri. Arkansas-Missouri's estimate of the total cost to construct these facilities is $433,500, to be financed by the individual cities concerned. Arkansas-Missouri will operate, maintain the facilities, and make the retail deliveries. It will make annual lease and rental payments to each of the cities.

The estimated peak day requirements of the four communities for the first three years of service are 421,554 and 689 Mcf respectively.

Arkansas-Missouri owns and operates two separate and unconnected pipeline transmission systems. The main integrated system, from which the proposed new service will be rendered, receives its gas supply from Texas Eastern and Texas Gas. Arkansas-Missouri's ability to render the service proposed herein may be dependent upon certification of Texas Eastern's application in Docket No. CP61–203 wherein sales of 6,000 Mcf per day to applicant are proposed.

On September 15, 1960, there was issued notice of applications and consolidation in Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, Docket No. CP60–122 and Algonquin Gas Transmission Company, Docket No. CP60–124, companion applications. Texas Eastern proposes to construct and operate a total of 66.28 miles of 30-inch pipeline loops at various places along its pipeline system between Vidor, Texas and Lambertville, New Jersey and install 33,710 additional compressor horsepower at four existing stations[8] as well as a change of centrifugal compressor impellers at various compressor stations.

Algonquin in its application in Docket No. CP61–124 seeks authority to construct and operate facilities so as to deliver an additional quantity of 13,432 Mcf per day to ten of its existing customers as further described in said notice. The availability of this additional service is dependent upon Texas Eastern's receiving certification of its application in Docket No. CP60–122 which contains a proposed additional allocation of 20,000 Mcf per day to Algonquin.

Temporary authority to construct and operate the proposed facilities in Docket No. CP60–122 and deliver the proposed additional gas volumes was issued to Texas Eastern by letter order of October 28, 1960. This authorization was subject to the condition that Texas Eastern eliminate its proposed investment from its rate base and that its stockholders bear all costs associated with such investment should the Commission ultimately deny the certificate requested in Docket No. CP60–122. This authorization was further conditioned on acceptance by Algonquin of the temporary authority concurrently issued to it in Docket No. CP60–124. This conditional temporary authorization was accepted by Texas Eastern by letter of November 25, 1960.

Temporary authority to construct and operate facilities and sell natural gas as proposed in Docket No. CP60–124 was granted to Algonquin by Commission letter order of October 28, 1960. This contained conditions similar to those in the temporary authorization issued to Texas Eastern, in Docket No. CP60–122. Algonquin accepted this temporary certificate and the attached conditions on November 25, 1960.

These matters are all interrelated and should be disposed of on a consolidated record, and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on February 26, 1962, at 10:00 a.m., e.s.t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications.

Protests or petitions to intervene in these consolidated proceedings may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before February 1, 1962. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

Secretary.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 1–3842]

BLACK BEAR INDUSTRIES, INC.

Order Summarily Suspending Trading

DECEMBER 29, 1961.

In the matter of trading on the San Francisco Mining Exchange in the common stock, par value 15 cents a share of Black Bear Industries, Inc. (formerly Black Bear Consolidated Mining Co.).

The common stock, par value 15 cents a share, of Black Bear Industries, Inc. (formerly Black Bear Consolidated Mining Co.), being listed and registered on the San Francisco Mining Exchange, a national securities exchange; and

The Commission being of the opinion that the public interest requires the summary suspension of trading in such security on such Exchange and that such action is necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors; and

The Commission being of the opinion further that such suspension is necessary in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative acts or practices, with the result that it will be unlawful under section 15(c)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Commission's Rule 15c2–2 thereunder for any broker or dealer to make use of the mails or of any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce to effect any transaction in, or to induce or attempt to induce the purchase or sale of such security, otherwise than on a national securities exchange;

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 19(a)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that trading in said security on the San Francisco Mining Exchange be summarily suspended in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative acts or practices, this order to be effective for a period of ten (10) days, December 30, 1961, to January 8, 1962, both dates inclusive.

TARIFF COMMISSION

SAFETY PINS

Report to the President

JANUARY 2, 1962.

The U.S. Tariff Commission today submited to the President its third periodic report on the developments in the trade in safety pins since the "escape clause" action, on December 30, 1957, modifying the concession granted in the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade on such pins classifiable under paragraph 350 of the Tariff Act of 1930. This report was made pursuant to paragraph 1 of Executive Order 10401 of October 14, 1962, which order prescribes procedures for the periodic review of escape-clause actions. Such review is limited to the determination of whether a concession that has been modified or withdrawn can be restored in whole or in part without causing or threatening serious injury to the domestic industry concerned.

In submitting its report, the Commission advised the President that the conditions of competition between imported and domestic safety pins had not so changed as to warrant the institution of a formal investigation under the provisions of paragraph 2 of Executive Order 10401. This means that, in the Commission's view, the developments in the trade in safety pins do not warrant a formal inquiry into the question of whether a reduction in the duties on safety pins could be made without resulting in serious injury to the domestic industry concerned.

Copies of the Commission's report are available upon request as long as the limited supply lasts. Requests should be addressed to the U.S. Tariff Commission, Eighth and E Streets NW., Washington 25, D.C.

By direction of the Commission.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Land Management

[W–0170311]

WYOMING

Notice of Proposed Withdrawal and Reservation of Lands

DECEMBER 29, 1961.

The Forest Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, has filed an application, serial number Wyoming 0170311, for withdrawal of the lands described below from location and entry under the general mining laws of the United States.

The applicant desires the lands for recreational facilities and water influence zones.

For a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice, persons having cause may present their objections in writing to the State Director, Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, P.O. Box 929, Cheyenne, Wyoming.

If the circumstances warrant it, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced.

The determination of the Secretary on the application will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. A separate notice will be sent to each interested party of record.

The lands involved in the application are:

SIXTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN, WYOMING

BLACK HILLS NATIONAL FOREST

Cook Lake Recreation Area

T. 53 N., R. 63 W.,
Sec. 10: SE¼SE¼SW¼, SW¼NW¼SE¼, SW¼SE¼;

Southern estimates the total capital cost of construction of its proposed facilities at $1,049,420 to be financed from cash on hand or cash available from current operations.

Texas Gas, on March 20, 1961, filed an application in Docket No. CP61–247 for certificate authority to construct and operate 56.5 miles of 30-inch and 20.75 miles of 26-inch pipeline, looping its existing 26-inch transmission system at various points in Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky and Ohio; two 24-inch river crossings, and 4,000 additional compressor horsepower at its existing Hardinsburg, Kentucky, compressor station.

The proposed facilities are for the purpose of enabling applicant to increase its deliveries to Texas Eastern, as of November 1, 1962, by 50,000 Mcf per day to be delivered at an existing delivery point near Middletown, Ohio. The sale to Texas Eastern will be made under its existing rate schedule CD–4.

Texas Gas has contracted to purchase 50,000 additional Mcf per day from United (Docket No. CP61–151) beginning on November 1, 1961.

Texas Gas estimates the total capital cost of its proposed facilities at $12,913,600. It states, however, that since the proposed facilities need not be constructed until the summer of 1962, it plans to finance the construction in conjunction with the financing of such other facilities as may be needed to meet the requirements of its other customers during the 1962–1963 winter season. Therefore, the plans for financing the subject facilities are not known at this time.

Algonquin Gas Transmission Company (Algonquin) on February 23, 1961, filed an application in Docket No. CP61–220, as supplemented on March 27, 1961, and October 4, 1961, for certificate authority to construct and operate certain additional facilities in order to sell and deliver additional volumes of natural gas to certain of its existing customers.[1] Algonquin proposes to build a new 8,100 horsepower compressor station at Burrillville, Rhode Island and approximately 5.6 miles of 8-inch pipeline loop on its existing 6-inch G–8 lateral in order to commence deliveries of 10,061 Mcf per day on November 1, 1961. Further, it proposes to construct and operate an addition of 4,000 compressor horsepower at its existing Cromwell, Connecticut compressor station and approximately 5.8 miles of 20-inch pipeline loop on its existing G–1 lateral in order to commence deliveries of an additional 17,203 Mcf per day on November 1, 1962.

The total capital cost of Algonquin's proposed facilities is estimated at $4,848,900 to be financed through the use of retained earnings and a bank loan of $4,000,000 at 4½ percent.

The additional volumes proposed to be sold by Algonquin and for which the facilities are a necessary adjunct, will be made available by Texas Eastern as set forth in its application in Docket No. CP61–203.

Temporary authority to construct and operate the facilities necessary to commence the November 1, 1961, service was issued to Algonquin on June 29, 1961,[2] and temporary authority to sell up to 10,061 Mcf per day to certain existing customers was issued on November 2, 1961.

In Docket No. CP62–20, Arkansas-Missouri Power Company (Arkansas-Missouri) filed on July 24, 1961,[3] as supplemented on August 21, 1961, and October 16, 1961, an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity under section 7(c) to construct and operate 20.96 miles of 3-inch lateral pipeline and distribution systems in four Arkansas cities.[4] These systems are to be constructed and owned by the cities but will be operated by Arkansas-Missouri. Arkansas-Missouri's estimate of the total cost to construct these facilities is $433,500, to be financed by the individual cities concerned. Arkansas-Missouri will operate, maintain the facilities, and make the retail deliveries. It will make annual lease and rental payments to each of the cities.

The estimated peak day requirements of the four communities for the first three years of service are 421,554 and 689 Mcf respectively.

Arkansas-Missouri owns and operates two separate and unconnected pipeline transmission systems. The main integrated system, from which the proposed new service will be rendered, receives its gas supply from Texas Eastern and Texas Gas. Arkansas-Missouri's ability to render the service proposed herein may be dependent upon certification of Texas Eastern's application in Docket No. CP61–203 wherein sales of 6,000 Mcf per day to applicant are proposed.

On September 15, 1960, there was issued notice of applications and consolidation in Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, Docket No. CP60–122 and Algonquin Gas Transmission Company, Docket No. CP60–124, companion applications. Texas Eastern proposes to construct and operate a total of 66.28 miles of 30-inch pipeline loops at various places along its pipeline system between Vidor, Texas and Lambertville, New Jersey and install 33,710 additional compressor horsepower at four existing stations[5] as well as a change of centrifugal compressor impellers at various compressor stations.

Algonquin in its application in Docket No. CP61–124 seeks authority to construct and operate facilities so as to deliver an additional quantity of 13,432 Mcf per day to ten of its existing customers as further described in said notice. The availability of this additional service is dependent upon Texas Eastern's receiving certification of its application in Docket No. CP60–122 which contains a proposed additional allocation of 20,000 Mcf per day to Algonquin.

Temporary authority to construct and operate the proposed facilities in Docket No. CP60–122 and deliver the proposed additional gas volumes was issued to Texas Eastern by letter order of October 28, 1960. This authorization was subject to the condition that Texas Eastern eliminate its proposed investment from its rate base and that its stockholders bear all costs associated with such investment should the Commission ultimately deny the certificate requested in Docket No. CP60–122. This authorization was further conditioned on acceptance by Algonquin of the temporary authority concurrently issued to it in Docket No. CP60–124. This conditional temporary authorization was accepted by Texas Eastern by letter of November 25, 1960.

Temporary authority to construct and operate facilities and sell natural gas as proposed in Docket No. CP60–124 was granted to Algonquin by Commission letter order of October 28, 1960. This contained conditions similar to those in the temporary authorization issued to Texas Eastern, in Docket No. CP60–122. Algonquin accepted this temporary certificate and the attached conditions on November 25, 1960.

These matters are all interrelated and should be disposed of on a consolidated record, and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on February 26, 1962, at 10:00 a.m., e.s.t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications.

Protests or petitions to intervene in these consolidated proceedings may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before February 1, 1962. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

JOSEPH H. GUTRIDE,
Secretary.

BLACK BEAR INDUSTRIES, INC.

Order Summarily Suspending Trading

DECEMBER 29, 1961.

In the matter of trading on the San Francisco Mining Exchange in the common stock, par value 15 cents a share of Black Bear Industries, Inc. (formerly Black Bear Consolidated Mining Co.).

The common stock, par value 15 cents a share, of Black Bear Industries, Inc. (formerly Black Bear Consolidated Mining Co.), being listed and registered on the San Francisco Mining Exchange, a national securities exchange; and

The Commission being of the opinion that the public interest requires the summary suspension of trading in such security on such Exchange and that such action is necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors; and

The Commission being of the opinion further that such suspension is necessary in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative acts or practices, with the result that it will be unlawful under section 15(c)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Commission's Rule 15c2–2 thereunder for any broker or dealer to make use of the mails or of any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce to effect any transaction in, or to induce or attempt to induce the purchase or sale of such security, otherwise than on a national securities exchange;

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 19(a)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that trading in said security on the San Francisco Mining Exchange be summarily suspended in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative acts or practices, this order to be effective for a period of ten (10) days, December 30, 1961, to January 8, 1962, both dates inclusive.

TARIFF COMMISSION

SAFETY PINS

Report to the President

JANUARY 2, 1962.

The U.S. Tariff Commission today submited to the President its third periodic report on the developments in the trade in safety pins since the "escape clause" action, on December 30, 1957, modifying the concession granted in the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade on such pins classifiable under paragraph 350 of the Tariff Act of 1930. This report was made pursuant to paragraph 1 of Executive Order 10401 of October 14, 1952, which order prescribes procedures for the periodic review of escape-clause actions. Such review is limited to the determination of whether a concession that has been modified or withdrawn can be restored in whole or in part without causing or threatening serious injury to the domestic industry concerned.

In submitting its report, the Commission advised the President that the conditions of competition between imported and domestic safety pins had not so changed as to warrant the institution of a formal investigation under the provisions of paragraph 2 of Executive Order 10401. This means that, in the Commission's view, the developments in the trade in safety pins do not warrant a formal inquiry into the question of whether a reduction in the duties on safety pins could be made without resulting in serious injury to the domestic industry concerned.

Copies of the Commission's report are available upon request as long as the limited supply lasts. Requests should be addressed to the U.S. Tariff Commission, Eighth and E Streets NW., Washington 25, D.C.

By direction of the Commission.

AUTHORITY: §§ 730.1301 to 730.1304 issued under secs. 301, 352, 353, 354, 375, 52 Stat. 38, 60, 61, 66, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1301, 1352, 1353, 1354, 1375.

§ 730.1301 Basis and purpose.

(a)(1) Section 730.1302 is issued under and in accordance with sections 301 and 354 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, to proclaim the total supply and normal supply of rice for the marketing year beginning August 1, 1961, and to proclaim that marketing quotas will be applicable to the 1962 crop of rice. Section 730.1303 is issued under and in accordance with sections 352 and 353 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, to proclaim the national acreage allotment of rice for the calendar year 1962. Section 353(c)(6) of the act, as amended by section 301 of Public Law 85–835, 72 Stat. 994, provides that the national acreage allotment of rice for 1962 shall be not less than the total acreage allotted in 1956.

(2) Section 730.1304 is issued under and in accordance with section 353 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, to apportion among the several States the national acreage allotment of rice for 1962 as proclaimed in § 730.1303 hereof. Section 353 of the act provides that the national acreage allotment of rice for 1962, less a reserve of not to exceed one per centum for apportionment to farms receiving inadequate allotments, shall be apportioned among the States in the same proportion that they shared in the total acreage allotted in 1956.

(3) Section 353(b) of the act, as amended by Public Law 85–443, authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture under certain circumstances to divide any State into two administrative areas to be designated "producer administrative area" and "farm administrative area", and provides that if any State is so divided into administrative areas the term "State acreage allotment" for the purposes of section 353 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, shall be deemed to mean that part of the State acreage allotment apportioned to each administrative area. For each of the 1959–60, 1960–61, and 1961–62 marketing years, the State of Louisiana was divided into a "farm administrative area" and a "producer administrative area" pursuant to section 353(b) of the act. Notice was given (26 F.R. 8982) pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act that for the 1962–63 marketing year it was expected that farm acreage allotments in the entire State of Louisiana would be determined on a "producer" basis, which would have the effect of discontinuing the division of the State into administrative areas for such year; however it was stated that a public hearing would be held in Crowley, Louisiana, on October 3, 1961, in order to give interested producers the opportunity to express their views as to such change. After consideration of the oral data, views, and recommendations expressed at that meeting, as well as of written data, views, and recommendations submitted at that hearing and by mail pursuant to the FEDERAL REGISTER notice, and in view of the adverse effect which the discontinuance of the "farm administrative area" in the State of Louisiana would possibly have on the production and processing of rice in such area, it has been determined, upon recommendation of the Louisiana State Committee, that the State of Louisiana shall for the 1962–63 marketing year be divided into a "farm administrative area" and a "producer administrative area", each such area to comprise the same parishes as were applicable to it for the 1959–60, 1960–61, and 1961–62 marketing years.

(4) Section 353(c)(1) of the act, as amended by Public Law 85–443, provides that if any State is divided into administrative areas the allotment for each area shall be determined by apportioning the State acreage allotment among counties as provided in section 353(c) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and totaling the allotments for the counties in such area. The acreage allotments for the "farm administrative area" and "producer administrative area" in the State of Louisiana which are set out in § 730.1304 were determined by apportioning the State acreage allotment for Louisiana among the counties in the State in the same proportion which each such county shared in the total acreage allotted in the State in 1956, as provided in section 353(c)(1) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, and totaling the allotments for the counties in each such area.

(b) The findings and determinations made in §§ 730.1302, 730.1303, and 730.1304 have been made on the basis of the latest available statistics of the Federal Government. The findings in § 730.1302 show that marketing quotas are required for the 1962 crop of rice. The determinations made in § 730.1303 indicate the amount of the 1962 national acreage allotment of rice.

(c) Prior to taking action herein, public notice (26 F.R. 8675) was given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003), that the Secretary was preparing to determine whether marketing quotas are required for the 1962 crop of rice, to determine and proclaim the national acreage allotment of rice for 1962, and to apportion among the States the 1962 national acreage allotment of rice. The data, views, or recommendations pertaining thereto which were submitted pursuant to such notice have been duly considered within the limits permitted by the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

(d) The Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, requires that the proclamation with respect to marketing quotas for the 1962 crop of rice be issued not later than December 31, 1961; that the referendum to determine whether farmers are in favor of or opposed to such quotas be held within 30 days after the issuance of the proclamation; and that insofar as practicable operators of farms be notified of their farm rice acreage allotments prior to the holding of the referendum. Therefore, it is necessary to waive the 30-day effective date provision of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act and such provision is hereby waived. Accordingly, the regulations in §§ 730.1301 to 730.1304, inclusive, shall become effective upon the date of their publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 730.1302 Marketing quotas on 1962 crop of rice.

The total supply of rice in the United States for the marketing year beginning August 1, 1961, is determined to be 64,038 thousand hundredweight (rough basis). The normal supply of rice for such marketing year is determined to be 62,700 thousand hundredweight. Since the total supply of rice for the 1961–62 marketing year exceeds the normal supply for such marketing year, marketing quotas shall be in effect on the 1962 crop of rice.

§ 730.1303 National acreage allotment of rice for 1962.

The normal supply of rice for the marketing year commencing August 1, 1962, is determined to be 65,711 thousand hundredweight (rough basis). The carry-over of rice on August 1, 1962, is determined to be 6,540 thousand hundredweight. Therefore, the production of rice needed in 1962 to make available a total supply of rice for the 1962–63 marketing year equal to the normal supply for such marketing year is 59,171 thousand hundredweight. The national average yield of rice for the five calendar years, 1957 through 1961 is determined to be 3,255 pounds per planted acre. The national acreage allotment of rice for 1962 computed on the basis of the production of rice needed in 1962 and the national average yield per planted acre of rice for the five calendar years, 1957 through 1961, is 1,817,856 acres. Since this amount is more than the total acreage allotted in 1956, which is the minimum for 1962 provided by law, the national acreage allotment of rice for the calendar year 1962 shall be 1,817,856 acres.

The national acreage allotment proclaimed in § 730.1303, less a reserve of 300 acres, is hereby apportioned among the several rice-producing States as follows:

State	Acres
Arizona	252
Arkansas	438,920
California	329,748
Florida	1,052
Illinois	22
Louisiana:
Producer administrative area	18,646
Farm administrative area	503,871
State total	522,517
Mississippi	51,343
Missouri	5,244
North Carolina	42
Oklahoma	164
South Carolina	3,131
Tennessee	569
Texas	464,552

Effective upon date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Signed at Washington, D.C., on December 27, 1961.

ORVILLE L. FREEMAN,
Secretary.

GENERAL

§ 775.101 Purpose.

The regulations in this subpart provide terms and conditions for the 1962 Feed Grain Program, a special agricultural conservation program for 1962 under which conservation payments are made to producers who divert acreage from the production of corn and grain sorghums, and barley, respectively, to an approved conservation use and increase their average acreage of cropland devoted in 1959 and 1960 to designated soil conserving crops or practices by an equal amount. Producers may elect in lieu of such payment to devote the diverted acreage to castor beans, guar, safflower, sunflower or sesame. Supplement 2 to these regulations provides for payments to be made by the delivery or constructive delivery of negotiable certificates which Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) shall redeem in feed grains and for cash advances to be made to producers who wish CCC's assistance in the marketing of certificates earned by them. The 1962 Feed Grain Program provided in this subpart is referred to herein as the "program." Participation in the program to the extent provided in 1962 CCC grain price support regulations is required as a condition of eligibility for price support on corn, grain sorghums, barley, oats and rye.

§ 775.102 Definitions.

As used in the regulations in this subpart and in all instructions, forms and documents in connection therewith, the words and phrases defined in this section shall have the meaning assigned to them herein unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires.

(a) The following words or phrases are defined in Part 719 of this chapter, Reconstitution of Farms, Farm Allotments, and Farm History and Soil Bank Base Acreages (23 F.R. 6731), as amended, and shall have the meaning assigned to them by such regulations: "combination," "county," "county committee," "county office," "county office manager," "cropland," "Department," "Deputy Administrator," "division," "farm(s)," "farm serial number," "field," "operator," "person," "reconstitution," "Secretary," "soil bank contract," "State committee" and "subdivision."

(b) "Barley acreage" means:

(1) For 1959 and 1960—any acreage planted to barley for harvest in 1959 and 1960 as grain and any acreage of barley used as silage. It does not include barley used for hay, pasture, green manure or as a protective conservation cover, except where the county committee determines that such acreage was seeded for harvest as grain, but due to abnormal conditions over which the producer had no control, harvesting was not carried out.

(2) For 1962—any acreage as defined in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph which was planted for harvest in 1962 but excluding (i) any acreage of barley planted on a farm as an approved conservation use in accordance with § 775.106 and (ii) any acreage of barley which is planted on the farm in excess of the permitted acreage and which is destroyed by the producer or from some cause beyond his control not later than the applicable date for the disposal of excess acreage. Such date is the same as the applicable disposal date for wheat specified in the wheat marketing quota regulations (26 F.R. 4716), as amended, or if no date is specified, such date shall be as established by the State committee.

(3) An acreage devoted to a mixture of barley and other grains is considered barley acreage for the purpose of this subpart, provided the barley meets the requirements of this paragraph (b), and the county committee determines that 50 percent or more of the crop is barley, except that an acreage devoted to a mixture of barley and wheat shall not be considered as barley acreage if the crop is considered as wheat under the wheat marketing quota program.

(c) "Corn acreage" means:

(1) For 1959 and 1960—any acreage planted to field corn for harvest in 1959 and 1960, and any acreage of sweet corn harvested in 1959 and 1960 primarily for silage. It does not include close sown corn used for pasture or green manure, sweet corn harvested primarily for market even though the forage is used for silage, popcorn, irrespective of use, and corn on a wildlife farm (consisting solely of Federal or State-owned land) not harvested but left on the land for wildlife feed.

(2) For 1962—any acreage as defined in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph planted for harvest in 1962, but excluding (i) any acreage of corn planted on a farm as a conservation use in accordance with the provisions of § 775.106, and (ii) any acreage of corn which is planted on the farm in excess of the permitted acreage and which is destroyed by the producer or by some cause beyond his control not later than the applicable date for the disposal of excess acreage as provided in Part 718 of this chapter, Determination of Acreage and Performance (22 F.R. 3747), and any amendments thereto.

(d) "Grain sorghum acreage" means:

(1) For 1959 and 1960—any acreage planted to grain sorghums of a feed grain or dual purpose variety that was planted for harvest in 1959 and 1960 as grain, silage or fodder, and any acreage of sweet sorghums harvested in 1959 and 1960 for silage. It does not include sweet sorghums harvested for other than silage and grain sorghums on a wildlife farm consisting solely of Federal or State-owned land not harvested but left on the land for wildlife feed.

(2) For 1962—any acreage as defined in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph planted for harvest in 1962, but excluding (i) any acreage of grain sorghums planted on a farm as an approved conservation use in accordance with the provisions of § 775.106, and (ii) any acreage of grain sorghums planted on the farm which is in excess of the permitted acreage and which is destroyed by the producer or from some cause beyond his control not later than the applicable date for the disposal of excess acreage as provided in Part 718 of this chapter, Determination of Acreage and Performance (22 F.R. 3747), and any amendments thereto.

(e) "Conservation Reserve Program" means the program formulated under regulations issued pursuant to the Soil Bank Act, 6 CFR Part 485, recodified in Part 750 of this chapter.

(f) "Intended diverted acreage" means the number of acres that the operator (or owner) of a farm intends to divert in 1962 from the production of corn and grain sorghums, or barley, as indicated on Form 477.

(g) "Minimum diversion acres" means the minimum number of acres which must be diverted in 1962 from the production of corn and grain sorghums, or barley, as the case may be, by producers on a farm in order to be eligible to participate in the program.

(h) "1962 Wheat Stabilization Program" means the program formulated under section 124 of the Agricultural Act of 1961 under which producers divert acreage from the production of wheat.

(i) "Producer" means a person who produces corn, grain sorghums, barley, oats or rye in 1962 as landowner, landlord, tenant or sharecropper.

(j) "Representative of the county committee" means a member of the county committee or any employee of the county committee.

(k) "Representative of the State committee" means a member of the State committee or any employee of the State committee.

§ 775.103 Geographical applicability.

The program is applicable throughout the United States wherever a person complies with the pertinent provisions of these regulations, except in such areas as may be designated by the Administrator, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS).

§ 775.104 Administration.

(a) The program, other than that portion thereof relating to redemption of certificates, will be administered under the general supervision of the Administrator, ASCS, and in the field will be carried out by Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State Committees and Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation county committees (herein called State and county committees). Feed grain bases, yields, payment rates and productivity indexes will be established by the county committee and will be approved by a representative of the State committee before notices are mailed to producers. Applications for advance and final payments will be approved by the county committee or an authorized representative thereof.

(b) That portion of the program relating to redemption of certificates will be administered by ASCS, under the general direction and supervision of the Executive Vice President, CCC, and in the field will be carried out by State and county committees and ASCS commodity offices.

(c) State and county committees, ASCS commodity offices, and representatives and employees thereof, do not have authority to modify or waive any of the provisions of this subpart or any amendments or supplements to this subpart.

REQUIREMENTS FOR PARTICIPATION IN PROGRAM

§ 775.105 Requirements of eligibility.

(a) General. A person is eligible to participate in the corn and grain sorghum program and in the barley program if he is a producer on a farm which meets the applicable requirements of paragraph (b) of this section and if he fulfills the applicable requirements of paragraph (c) of this section.

(b) Farm requirements. (1) A 1962 Feed Grain Program—Intention To Participate and Application for Advance Payment, Form ASCS-477 (herein referred to as Form 477) must be filed for the farm by the operator or the owner in accordance with § 775.118.

(2) Subject to the requirements of § 775.121, in the case of a producer who participates in the corn and grain sorghum program, an acreage equivalent to at least 20 percent of the corn and grain sorghum feed grain base established for the farm must be diverted from the production of corn and grain sorghums in 1962, and in the case of a producer who participates in the barley program, an acreage equivalent to at least 20 percent of the barley feed grain base established for the farm must be diverted from the production of barley in 1962. Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to any farm under a conservation reserve contract, if the total permitted acreage of soil bank base crops minus (i) the acreage diverted under the 1962 Wheat Stabilization Program and (ii) the acreage diverted under the barley program in the case of the corn-grain sorghum program, or the acreage diverted under the corn-grain sorghum program in the case of the barley program, is less than the minimum acreage otherwise required for participation in the corn-grain sorghum or barley program, as applicable, participation to the extent of such acreage shall satisfy the minimum acreage requirements.

(3) An acreage equivalent in area to the acreage diverted in 1962 from the production of corn and grain sorghums, and barley, respectively, must be devoted in 1962 to one or more of the approved conservation uses specified in § 775.106 and must comply with the requirements of § 775.107.

(4) In addition to the acreage referred to in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph and the acreage diverted under the 1962 Wheat Stabilization Program, an acreage equal to the normal conserving acreage for the farm must be devoted to an approved conservation use on the farm in 1962. Land devoted to both a depleting and conserving use in the same year shall not be considered as devoted to an approved conservation use for this purpose. The normal conserving acreage for a farm is the average of the cropland acreage devoted in 1959 and 1960 to the approved conservation uses specified in § 775.106 as adjusted by the county committee for abnormal weather conditions or other factors affecting production, established crop-rotation practices on the farm, changes in the constitution of the farm, or participation in other Federal farm programs. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in counties designated by the State committee, the normal conserving acreage required to be devoted to an approved conservation use may be adjusted downward by the county committee upon request of the producer to the extent that the conserving use on such acreage is destroyed in 1962 by flood, drought, insects, or other natural causes.

(5) In case of a producer participating in the corn and grain sorghum program, other than a producer of malting barley as described in § 775.111, the acreage of barley on the farm for 1962 in which he has an interest as producer must not exceed the barley feed grain base established for the farm, unless it is determined as provided in § 775.110, that the barley feed grain base was not knowingly exceeded. In the case of a producer participating in the barley program, the acreage of corn and grain sorghums on the farm for 1962 in which he has an interest as producer must not exceed the corn and grain sorghum feed grain base established for the farm, unless it is determined as provided in § 775.110 that the corn and grain sorghum feed grain base was not knowingly exceeded.

(6) A farm on which a conservation reserve contract has been cancelled since January 1, 1960, because of a scheme or device to exceed the $5,000 payment limitation under the Conservation Reserve Program shall not be eligible for participation: Provided, That in any case where the Deputy Administrator determines that participation in the program would not be against the public interest, acceptance of such farm may be authorized.

(7) Land owned by the Federal government which has been leased subject to restrictions prohibiting the production of the applicable feed grain commodity or commodities or requiring the use of land for other purposes, or prohibiting the receipt of Federal payments for diversion of such acreage, will not be eligible for participation in corn and grain sorghum or barley program, as applicable. In addition, land owned by the Federal government being occupied without a lease, permit, or other right of possession, shall not be eligible for participation in the program.

(c) Producer requirements. (1) In the case of a producer who participates in the corn and grain sorghum program, the producer must be a person who would have had an interest as producer in 1962-crop corn and grain sorghums had such crops been produced on the diverted acreage referred to in paragraph (b) of this section, and in the case of a producer who participates in the barley program, the producer must be a person who would have had an interest as producer in 1962-crop barley had such crop been produced on the diverted acreage referred to in paragraph (b) of this section.

(2) Each other farm in which the producer shares in the production of corn and grain sorghums and in the production of barley in 1962 must be in compliance with the provisions of this program; or the corn and grain sorghum feed grain base and the barley feed grain base for each such farm (if established, otherwise the average acreage of corn and grain sorghums, and of barley, for 1959–1960) must not have been exceeded. This requirement as to barley does not apply to a producer of malting barley as defined in § 775.111. For the purpose of this subparagraph (2), a producer shall not be considered as violating the foregoing requirement as to a farm other than the one with respect to which an application for payment is made if the producer satisfies the county committee that he did not have control of the management of the operations of such farm, that he has made a reasonable effort to encourage compliance with the requirements of this paragraph, and that it was through no fault of his own that such farm was not in compliance.

(3) A minor who otherwise meets the requirements of this program will be eligible for payment only if he also meets one of the following requirements: (i) The right of majority has been conferred on him by court proceedings; (ii) a guardian has been appointed to manage his property and the applicable documents are signed by the guardian; or (iii) a bond is furnished under which a surety guarantees to protect ASCS from any loss incurred for which the minor would be liable had he been an adult. Notwithstanding the foregoing, payment may be made to a minor after December 31, 1962, upon a determination by the county committee that the minor has met the requirements of the program.

§ 775.106 Approved conservation uses.

(a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section, the approved conservation uses under this program are as follows:

(1) Permanent or rotation cover of grasses and legumes consisting of perennial grasses, perennial or biennial legumes or mixtures of legumes and perennial grasses.

(2) Summer cover crops consisting of small grains, legumes, or grasses. (Wheat and barley may be used as a cover crop only under the condition stated in subparagraph (11) of this paragraph.)

(3) Winter cover crops consisting of small grains, legumes, or grasses (seeded in the fall of 1961 or seeded in the fall of 1962). However, other approved conservation uses will be required in conjunction with the winter cover crop, if necessary to protect the land throughout the 1962 cropping season. (Wheat and barley may be used as a cover crop only under the condition stated in subparagraph (11) of this paragraph.)

(4) Trees or shrubs for erosion control, shelter belts, or other forestry purposes.

(5) Water storage for any purpose, including fish or wildlife habitat.

(6) Wildlife food plots or habitat when plantings are for wildlife food plots or establishment of wildlife habitat. An acreage devoted to wheat, barley or rice may not be considered as wildlife food plots or wildlife habitat under the program. Corn and grain sorghums may qualify if planted in small plots and designated for such purpose and approved by the county committee for such purpose.

(7) Idle cropland (necessary protective measures, including volunteer cover, must be carried out on diverted acreage).

(8) Summer fallowed cropland (prescribed protective measures must be carried out on summer fallow designated as diverted acreage).

(9) Corn or grain sorghums may be plowed down as green manure and considered as a conservation use on diverted acreage provided other approved conservation measures are carried out if necessary to protect the land throughout the 1962 cropping season.

(10) In those counties where the practice is applicable and customarily carried out, grain sorghums may be planted as a cover or litter crop in preparation of a seedbed for establishing permanent cover under ACP and CRP A–2 and GP Practice GP–1, provided the grain sorghums are clipped while still green and left on the land in preparation of the seedbed.

(11) Wheat or barley plowed down as green manure or clipped and left on the land before the disposal date specified in the Wheat Marketing Quota Regulations (26 F.R. 4716), as amended, may be considered as a conserving use provided other approved conservation measures are carried out if necessary to protect the land throughout the 1962 cropping season.

(12) Other uses approved by the State committee which are not in conflict with other provisions of the program.

(b) Idle cropland and summer fallowed land may be used in meeting the conservation use requirement on diverted acres only where the county committee determines that it would not be practicable to devote the diverted acres to other approved conserving uses in view of the conditions prevailing on the farm in 1962 or where such a determination has been made for an area by the State committee.

§ 775.107 Designation and use of diverted acreage.

(a) General. Land diverted from the production of corn and grain sorghums, and barley, respectively, under the program must be designated by the operator of the farm and must be (1) cropland that was intensively cultivated during at least one of the years 1959, 1960, or 1961, (2) cropland that was devoted to a conservation use other than a water storage facility or trees under a conservation reserve contract which has been terminated or has expired with respect to such land, or (3) cropland which was designated and approved as diverted acreage under the 1961 Feed Grain Program, except acreage devoted to trees. Any land retired to noncrop use, including any land retired to replace noncropland in accordance with § 775.108, any land devoted in 1962 to asparagus, strawberries, or bush fruits (including new plantings of such crops) shall not be eligible for designation as diverted acreage. Any acreage diverted from the production of corn and grain sorghums, or of barley, respectively, to conservation uses for which payment is made under the program shall be in addition to any acreage diverted to conservation uses for which payment is made under any other Federal program except that the foregoing shall not preclude the making of cost-sharing payments under the Agricultural Conservation Program or the Great Plains Program for conservation practices carried out on any acreage devoted to soil-conserving uses under the program.

(b) Restriction on harvesting. No crop shall be harvested from the designated diverted acreage in 1962 for which payment is made under the program except (1) where the Secretary considers it necessary to permit harvesting the diverted acreage in order to alleviate a shortage of forage for use in the area resulting from severe drought, flood, or other natural disaster, or (2) an acreage approved for double-cropping (information as to such areas and the conditions under which such harvesting is permitted may be obtained from the county office). If there is unauthorized harvesting of a crop from the designated diverted acreage and it is determined that such harvesting was intentional or the result of gross negligence, the entire amount of payment to the operator and any other producer on the farm shall be forfeited or refunded: Provided, That such forfeiture or refund shall not apply to a producer (other than the operator) if it is determined that such producer did not cause, aid in, or benefit from, the harvesting of the crop. If there is unauthorized harvesting of a crop from the designated diverted acreage and it is determined that such harvesting was done under circumstances other than those specified in the preceding sentence, payments shall be forfeited or refunded by an amount determined by multiplying the number of acres from which a crop is harvested by the applicable lowest minimum payment rate per acre established for the farm: Provided, That such forfeiture or refund shall apply first to the extent possible to payments to producers who cause, aid in, or benefit from, the harvesting of the crop, in the proportion in which they share in the payment to such producers. In addition, no grain or oilseed crop which matures in 1962 shall be harvested from the designated diverted acreage after December 31, 1962. If there is harvesting in violation of the provisions of the preceding sentence, the entire amount of payment for the farm shall be forfeited or refunded. For restrictions on the use of diverted acreage devoted to castor beans, guar, safflower, sunflower, or sesame in lieu of payment, see paragraph (d) of this section.

(c) Restriction on grazing. The designated diverted acreage shall not be grazed after May 1, 1962, and on acreage approved for double-cropping none of the designated diverted acreage may be grazed during the entire year of 1962. Notwithstanding these provisions, the Secretary may permit the diverted acreage to be grazed when he considers it necessary in order to alleviate a shortage of forage for use in the area resulting from severe drought, flood, or other natural disaster. If there is unauthorized grazing of the designated diverted acreage and it is determined that such grazing was intentional or the result of gross negligence, the entire amount of payment to the operator and any other producer on the farm shall be forfeited or refunded: Provided, That such forfeiture or refund shall not apply to a producer (other than the operator) if it is determined that such producer did not cause, aid in, or benefit from, the grazing of the designated diverted acreage. If there is unauthorized grazing of the designated diverted acreage and it is determined that such grazing was done under circumstances other than those specified in the preceding sentence, payments shall be forfeited or refunded by an amount representing the value of the grazing on the diverted acreage: Provided, That such forfeiture or refund shall apply first to the extent possible to payments to producers who cause, aid in, or benefit from, the grazing, in the proportion in which they share in the payment to such producers. If the grazing is determined to have no value, no forfeiture or adjustment of payment is required.

(d) Restriction on use of crops planted in lieu of receiving payment. Castor beans, guar, safflower, sunflower or sesame planted on the designated diverted acreage in lieu of receiving payment under the program shall not be grazed, and violation of this provision shall render the acreage ineligible for designation as diverted acreage.

(e) Use of land. Measures normally carried out in the fall for the area in connection with the production of a crop for harvest in a subsequent year may be carried out on the diverted acreage in the fall of 1962. New orchards consisting of fruits or nut trees may be planted on the designated diverted acreage provided other required conservation measures are carried out on such land.

(f) Control of insects, weeds and rodents. The county committee will prescribe measures and methods of application that are appropriate for the county in controlling insects, weeds and rodents on the designated diverted acreage if such measures are needed. If insects, weeds, and rodents are not timely controlled in a manner satisfactory to and as required by the county committee, the designated diverted acreage shall, for purposes of determining the total diverted acreage on which payment is based under § 775.121, be deemed reduced by the number of acres on which insects, weeds, and rodents are not controlled.

§ 775.108 Noncropland used for crops in 1962.

The number of acres of noncropland which is planted to crops for harvest in 1962 (excluding noncropland planted to perennial grasses and perennial legumes on which no nurse crop is harvested for grain or oilseed), shall be subtracted from the acreage otherwise eligible for payment to the extent that an equal acreage of cropland on the farm is not retired to permanent cover of trees, perennial grasses, or perennial legumes. Any acreage so retired to non-crop use shall not be eligible for designation as diverted acreage or considered as meeting the normal conserving acreage requirements for the farm in 1962.

§ 775.109 Use of normal conserving acreage in 1962.

(a) Use of crops. There are no restrictions on the use of crops produced on land used in meeting the normal conserving acreage requirements for the farm in 1962, except as follows:

(1) An acreage of small grains seeded alone and harvested for grain, hay or silage shall not be considered as devoted to an approved conservation use in 1962; however, an acreage of small grains seeded as a nurse crop with grass or legumes and cut green for hay or silage by a date well ahead of maturity of the grain as established for the area by the State committee, and in the case of wheat and barley not later than the disposal date under the wheat marketing quota regulations, will be considered as meeting the normal conserving acreage requirements in 1962. An acreage of small grain used as a nurse crop and harvested for any purpose after such date shall not be considered as devoted to an approved conservation use in 1962.

(2) An acreage of annual grasses (including millet) and soybeans, cowpeas, field and canning peas and field and canning beans harvested as seed or grain, or for processing purposes shall not be considered as devoted to an approved conservation use in 1962.

(3) An acreage of barley, wheat or rice which is left standing as of the final disposition date shall not be considered as devoted to an approved conservation use in 1962. The final disposition dates for wheat and rice are set forth in the applicable marketing quota regulations. The disposition date for barley shall be the same as the disposition date established for wheat.

(b) Use of land. Measures normally carried out in the fall for the area in connection with the production of a crop for harvest in a subsequent year may be carried out in the fall of 1962 on acreage used in meeting the normal conserving acreage requirements in 1962. New orchards consisting of fruit or nut trees may be planted on such acreage provided other required conservation measures are carried out on such land.

If the barley feed grain base for the farm, or the corn and grain sorghum feed grain base for the farm is exceeded in 1962, such feed grain base shall be considered as having been knowingly exceeded by a producer participating in the corn and grain sorghum program, or barley program, respectively, for the purpose of § 775.105, unless the operator of the farm establishes to the satisfaction of the county committee in accordance with paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of this section that he has not knowingly exceeded the applicable feed grain base for the farm and the determination of the county committee is approved on review by the State executive director.

(a) Erroneous notice of feed grain base acreage. The applicable feed grain base for the farm will not be considered to be knowingly exceeded in any case where through error in a county or State office, the farm operator was officially notified in writing on Form 471 of a feed grain base which was larger than the finally-approved feed grain base and the farm operator or any producer on the farm acting solely on the information contained in the erroneous notice planted an acreage to the commodity in excess of the finally-approved feed grain base and where the other conditions of this paragraph are satisfied. The determination of eligibility under the foregoing circumstances will be based on the feed grain base contained in the erroneous notice, and if the acreage planted to the commodity on the farm is adjusted to the feed grain base contained in the erroneous notice within the time limits for disposal of excess acreages provided in 7 CFR Part 718 of this chapter (Determination of Acreage and Performance, 22 F.R. 3747), and any amendments thereto, the farm will not be considered to be overplanted. Before the farm operator or any producer on the farm can be said to have relied upon the erroneous notice, the circumstances must have been such that he had no cause to believe that the feed grain base was in error. To determine this fact, the date of any corrected notice in relation to the time of planting, the size of the farm, the amount of the commodity customarily planted and all other pertinent facts shall be taken into consideration.

(b) Erroneous notice of measured acreage. The feed grain base for the farm will not be considered to be knowingly exceeded in any case where (1) the lack of compliance was caused by reliance in good faith by the farm operator on an erroneous notice of measured acreage issued in accordance with applicable regulations; (2) neither the farm operator nor any producer on the farm had actual knowledge of the error in time to adjust the excess acreage in accordance with applicable regulations; (3) the incorrect notice was the result of an error made by the performance reporter or by another employee of the county or State office in reporting, computing or recording the acreage for the farm; (4) neither the farm operator nor any producer on the farm was in any way responsible for the error; and (5) the extent of the error in the erroneous notice was such that the farm operator would not reasonably be expected to question the acreage of which he was erroneously notified.

(c) Failure to measure acreage or notify operator. The feed grain base for the farm will not be considered to be knowingly exceeded in any case where through no fault of the farm operator or any producer on the farm the acreage was not measured or the farm operator was not notified of the measured acreage prior to the time the crop is harvested from the acreage: Provided, That the excess acreage was relatively small and the farm operator establishes that because of the relative smallness of the excess and the unavailability to him of any recent measurements of the field acreages on the farm, he had no reason to believe the acreage was in excess of the feed grain base for the farm.

§ 775.111 Producers of malting barley.

(a) A producer of malting barley may participate in the corn and grain sorghum program without regard to whether he has exceeded his barley feed grain base in 1962 if (1) the owner or operator of the farm in 1962 planted an acceptable malting variety of barley during one or more of the years 1957 through 1961, or if he was prevented from planting such barley during this period because the farm was participating in the Soil Bank Program, he planted barley of an acceptable malting variety in any one of five years prior to the soil bank contract; (2) a barley feed grain base has been established for the farm in 1962; (3) a Form 477 has been timely filed in which the producer has requested a malting barley exemption under this paragraph for the farm; (4) barley only of an acceptable malting variety is planted by the producer for harvest in 1962 on a farm located in an area for which such variety is approved; and (5) an acreage of barley is not knowingly produced in excess of 110 percent of the barley feed grain base for the farm. If the barley feed grain base is, in fact, exceeded, such acreage shall be considered as having been knowingly exceeded, unless the operator of the farm establishes to the satisfaction of the county committee in accordance with paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of § 775.110 that the barley feed grain base has not been knowingly exceeded and the determination of the county committee is approved on review by the State executive director.

(b) The approved malting varieties of barley are Atlas, Barbless, Betzes, Forrest, Hanna, Haisa II, Hannchen, Heines Hanna, Idaho Club, Kindred, Larker, Manchuria, Montcalm, Moravian, O.A.C. 21, Oderbrucker, Odessa, Parkland, Traill, Trophy, White Winter, Winter Club, and Winter Tennessee. The malting barley exemption applies only to approved malting varieties of barley produced in California, Colorado, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Washington, and Wisconsin.

The maximum number of acres of corn and grain sorghums, or barley, respectively, which may be planted on a farm for harvest in 1962 by producers eligible to participate in the program (herein referred to as "maximum permitted acreage") shall not exceed the acreage obtained by multiplying the applicable feed grain grain base by 80 percent, except as otherwise provided in § 775.121. The permitted acreage (based on intention) is the acreage obtained by subtracting the intended diverted acres on the farm from the applicable feed grain base established for the farm and is indicated on Form 477. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of any farm participating in the Conservation Reserve Program, the acreage of corn and grain sorghums, barley, and of other soil bank base crops (excluding designated diverted acreage under the Wheat Stabilization Program and this program on which soil bank base crops are accepted as an approved conservation use) shall not exceed the acreage determined by subtracting the sum of the number of acres diverted from the production of feed grains under this program and the number of acres diverted from the production of wheat under the 1962 Wheat Stabilization Program from the acreage of soil bank base crops permitted under the conservation reserve contract.

NOTICE OF FEED GRAIN BASE, PAYMENT RATES, AND YIELDS—APPEALS

§ 775.113 Farm feed grain base.

(a) How obtained. The corn and grain sorghum feed grain base shall be the sum of the feed grain bases established for corn and grain sorghums on the farm. A separate feed grain base shall be established for barley. The feed grain base for each such commodity shall be the average of the 1959 and 1960 acreages of the commodity produced on the farm, as established from information obtained from producers and other information available to the county committee, adjusted in such amounts deemed necessary by the county committee with the approval of a representative of the State committee for producer overstatement and to correct for abnormal factors affecting production and to give due consideration to tillable acreage, crop-rotation practices, type of soil, soil and water conservation measures, and topography. On farms with recognized irrigated and non-irrigated corn, grain sorghum or barley history for 1959 or 1960, and where irrigation was extensively used during such period on only a part of the acreage of the commodity, the feed grain base for each applicable commodity shall be divided into separate irrigated and non-irrigated feed grain bases upon such history. Separate irrigated and non-irrigated feed grain bases shall not be established for farms where irrigation is used intermittently in dryer years only. In those counties where the Department of Agriculture has estabilshed the average adjusted acreage of the commodity produced in the county in 1959 and 1960 for use as a guide in determining the feed grain base of the commodity for farms in the county, the total feed grain base of the commodity for all farms in the county (excluding any increase in farm feed grain bases resulting from corrections, requests for reconsideration, or appeals pursuant to the provisions of § 775.117) to the extent practicable, shall not exceed 105 percent of such average adjusted acreage.

(b) Final dates for establishing feed grain bases. If a farm feed grain base has not been established for a farm and the operator or owner is interested in participating in the program, such person must file a Feed Grain Acreage Report, Form CSS–532, hereinafter referred to as Form 532, not later than ten calendar days prior to the final date for filing the applicable Form 477. If after such date the producer requests the establishment of a feed grain base for any such farm for the purpose of determining cross compliance with acreage requirements on farms other than the farm with respect to which payment is requested, a base shall be established for such cross-compliance purposes. A producer may obtain the date referred to herein from the county committee.

(c) Farms with no 1959 and 1960 production. A farm shall not qualify for payment under the corn and grain sorghum program if there was no acreage of such commodities on the farm in 1959 and 1960, and a farm shall not qualify for payment under the barley program if there was no acreage of barley on the farm in 1959 and 1960, unless cropland on the farm was in the Conservation Reserve Program during either or both of the years 1959 and 1960 and the conservation reserve contract is no longer in effect for all or part of such land. A feed grain base may be established for a farm on which the applicable commodity was grown in 1957 or 1958 for cross-compliance purposes, as specified in § 775.105 (b)(5) and (c)(2) even though an acreage was not devoted to the commodity on the farm in 1959 and 1960 if the county committee determines that failure to plant the commodity was due to (1) a definite crop-rotation practice which did not provide for planting of feed grains in 1959 and 1960, but does provide for planting of feed grains in 1962, (2) practices carried out to eradicate or control weeds, or (3) extreme floods or droughts not common for the farm. The feed grain base established as provided in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph shall not exceed the acreage that otherwise would have been devoted to the commodity in 1959 and 1960.

(d) Feed grain bases on farms removed from agricultural production because of acquisition by Federal, State or other agency having right of eminent domain. If the owner of a farm on which there was an acreage of corn or grain sorghums in 1959 or 1960 or on which there was an acreage of barley in 1959 or 1960 is displaced because the farm has been acquired for any purpose other than for the continued production of agricultural crops, by any Federal, State or other agency having the right of eminent domain and the owner has acquired another farm in lieu thereof, the following provisions shall apply. If the owner had such an acreage of corn or grain sorghums in 1959 or 1960, the corn and grain sorghum feed grain base for the new farm shall be established by adjusting, if necessary, the base otherwise applicable to the new farm to reflect the applicable feed grain base of similar farms in the area, taking into consideration similarities in tillable acreage, crop-rotation practices, type of soil, soil and water conservation measures, and topography. If the owner had such an acreage of barley in 1959 or 1960, the barley feed grain base for the new farm shall be established in a similar manner.

§ 775.114 Payment rates, productivity index and county average yields.

(a) Payment rates used in computing advance and final payments shall be determined as provided in paragraph (b) of this section. Separate payment rates shall be established for corn, grain sorghums and barley.

(b) The applicable minimum acre payment rate for the farm shall be obtained by multiplying the productivity index for the farm applicable to the commodity by the applicable minimum acre payment rate, as set forth in Supplement 1 to this program, for the county in which the farm is located. The minimum acre payment rate for the county has been obtained by multiplying 50 percent of the county average yield for the commodity, as set forth in Supplement 1 to this program, by the basic county support rate for the commodity. The applicable additional acre payment rate for the farm shall be obtained by multiplying the productivity index for the farm applicable to the commodity by the applicable payment rate, as set forth in Supplement 1 to this program, for the additional diversion acres for the county in which the farm is located. The additional acre payment rate for the county has been obtained by multiplying 60 percent of the county average yield for the commodity, as set forth in Supplement 1 to this program, by the basic county support rate for the commodity.

(c) The productivity index for the commodity represents, as nearly as it is practicable to classify, the farm's relationship in productivity to the average of the farms in the county. In arriving at the productivity index for the commodity on the farm, the county and community committees will take into consideration the relative production capabilities of the farm for the commodity. Such productivity index shall reflect the relative production capabilities of the farm in a normal crop year under usual cultural practices with such adjustment as the committee considers proper to provide equitable treatment for the farm. In the event both irrigated and non-irrigated feed grain bases were established for a commodity on the same farm, separate productivity indexes for the respective practices will be established.

(d) The county average yield for corn, grain sorghums, and barley shall be the average yield per acre for the 1959 and 1960 crop acreages of the commodity in the county, adjusted in such amounts as may be deemed necessary to correct for abnormal factors affecting production, and to give due consideration to tillable acreage, crop rotation practices, type of soil, soil and water conservation measures and topography. Separate county average yields shall be established for corn, grain sorghums and barley in each county in which such crops are produced and shall be contained in Supplement 1 to this program.

(e) The rate of payment under the program with respect to land which is leased or rented on a cash-rent basis from the Federal, State, county, or local government, or subdivisions thereof, if such land is not otherwise ineligible for participation in the program, shall not exceed a fair payment rate as determined by the county committee. Such payment rate shall be the smaller of (1) the minimum acre payment rate for the farm, or (2) one-half the minimum acre payment rate plus the actual cash rent per acre of the land adjusted to take into account the quality of the acres actually diverted when compared with the total acres rented, and the services performed and improvements made at the producer's expense which are in addition to rent.

§ 775.115 Maximum diversion acreage.

The maximum number of acres which may be diverted on the farm from corn and grain sorghums and from barley for which payment may be received under this program shall be:

(a) The applicable farm feed grain base if such base is 25 acres or less;

(b) Twenty acres plus 20 percent of the applicable farm feed grain base if such base is in excess of 25 acres but not in excess of 100 acres; and

(c) Forty percent of the applicable farm feed grain base if such base is 100 acres or more. Such acreage is herein called the maximum diversion acreage. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of a producer participating in the Conservation Reserve Program, the maximum number of acres which may be diverted from feed grains and wheat shall not exceed the acreage of soil bank base crops permitted under the conservation reserve contract.

§ 775.116 Notice of feed grain base acreage, yields and payment rates.

Each operator and owner of a farm for which a feed grain base is established will be notified in writing of the applicable feed grain base for the farm, and the established yield per acre, the minimum acre payment rate and the additional acre payment rate for corn, grain sorghums and barley, as applicable. Such notice will be on Form ASCS–471, hereinafter referred to as Form 471.

§ 775.117 Appeals and proof of acreages and yields.

(a) Any producer may request in writing a reconsideration of the applicable feed grain base, yields or payment rates established for his farm if he believes that such feed grain base, yields or payment rates were not correctly established as required under these regulations or that they are inequitable as compared with feed grain bases, yields, or payment rates determined for similar farms. Such request must be submitted within 15 days from the date of mailing appearing on the Form 471. If dissatisfied with the decision of the county committee, the producer may appeal in writing to the State committee within 15 days from the date of the mailing of the notice of the decision of the county committee. The determination of the State committee shall be final. If the producer fails to request reconsideration by the county committee or appeal from its decision as provided herein, the determination as provided in Form 471 shall be final. Any request for reconsideration or appeal shall not operate to extend the applicable closing date for filing Form 477 in the program. Each appeal must be supported by a written statement of fact outlining the basis for the appeal. Nothing herein shall preclude the county committee or the State committee on its own motion or on request at any time, from revising or requiring revision of a feed grain base or payment rate established for any farm to correct mechanical or clerical errors resulting from action solely on the part of a county or State committee representative.

(b) To the extent that a producer proves the actual acreages and yields for the farm for the 1959 and 1960 crop years prior to receipt of a notice of his feed grain base and yields on Form 471 or pursuant to a request for reconsideration by the county committee or an appeal under paragraph (a) thereof, such acreages and yields shall be used in making determinations.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (a) of this section, a producer may request a reconsideration of any determination of a county or State committee concerning a question of fact or may appeal such determination in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph. The producer shall first request a reconsideration by the committee initially making the determination. If the producer is dissatisfied with a determination of the county committee with respect to his request for reconsideration, he may then appeal the determination to the State committee. If the producer is dissatisfied with a determination of the State committee (1) with respect to his appeal from the determination of the county committee, or (2) with respect to his request for reconsideration by the State committee, he may then appeal to the Deputy Administrator. The determination of the Deputy Administrator shall be final. Each request for reconsideration or appeal shall be in writing and shall be supported by a written statement of facts upon which it is based. Each request for reconsideration or appeal shall be filed with the committee or person to which it is made within 15 days after notice of the determination is mailed to or otherwise made available to the producer: Provided, That a request for reconsideration or appeal may be accepted and acted upon even though not filed within such time limit if, in the judgment of the committee or person to which such request for reconsideration or appeal is made, the circumstances warrant such action.

(d) In any request for reconsideration or appeal, the producer or his representative shall be afforded an opportunity to appear before the person or committee to which the request for reconsideration or appeal is made and present and submit written or oral evidence.

DETERMINATION AND DIVISION OF PAYMENTS

§ 775.118 Intention to participate in the program.

(a) Who may file. A Form 477 may be filed for corn and grain sorghums and for barley by the operator or the owner of any farm who wishes to participate in the program for such commodities after he has received an applicable Form 471 for the farm.

(b) Where to file. Such form shall be filed with the office of the county committee with jurisdiction over the county where the farm is located.

(c) When to file. Such form shall be filed not later than December 1, 1961, for fall-seeded barley and not later than the date established by the Administrator, ASCS, for spring-seeded barley and for corn and grain sorghums, except that in counties where barley is both fall and spring seeded, such form may be filed not later than the closing date established for either fall or spring-seeded barley unless the State committee determines that only one signup period is practicable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the closing date may be extended by the county committee if the producers on the farm establish to the satisfaction of the county committee that they intended to participate in the program and their failure to file by such date is due to a cause beyond their control. A producer may obtain the applicable closing date from the county office.

(d) Contents. The operator or owner shall provide in Form 477 the following information: The acreage which is intended to be diverted from the production of the applicable feed grain for the farm for which the form is filed; the acreage, if any, of castor beans, guar, safflower, sunflower or sesame which is intended to be produced on the diverted acreage; the serial number or location of other farms in which he has an interest as a producer in 1962; and whether or not an advance payment is desired for the farm. The total intended diversion acreage specified on Form 477 shall not exceed the maximum diversion acres.

§ 775.119 Advance payments.

(a) Who may apply. Producers who intend to comply with the requirements of eligibility of the program may apply for an advance payment upon the filing of a Form 477 for the farm. There shall be listed the names of all persons on the farm who would have had an interest as producer in 1962 crop corn or grain sorghums, or barley, as applicable, had such crop(s) been produced on the diverted acreage, together with the share of the advance payment that such person is to receive determined in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section. The sum of the total percentage shares so determined shall equal 100 percent.

(b) Requirements. Before an advance payment is made to a producer he must agree to comply with the provisions of the 1962 Feed Grain Program and that he will refund all or any part of such payment to which he is not entitled under the program. In the event the farm does not comply with at least the minimum participation requirements, he must refund the entire advance payment with interest at the rate of 6 percent per annum from the issue date of the advance payment to the date it is refunded.

(c) Amount of advance payment. The total advance payment to be made on a farm under the corn and grain sorghums program shall be the sum of (1) 50 percent of the result obtained by multiplying the acreage intended to be diverted from corn by the minimum acre payment rate per acre for corn for the farm and (2) 50 percent of the result obtained by multiplying the acreage intended to be diverted from grain sorghums by the minimum acre payment rate per acre for grain sorghums for the farm. The total advance payments to be made on a farm under the barley program shall be 50 percent of the result obtained by multiplying the acreage intended to be diverted from barley by the minimum acre payment rate per acre for barley for the farm. Each producer's share of the advance payment for the farm shall be obtained by multiplying his percentage share of the payment as specified on Form 477 by the total advance payment for the farm.

§ 775.120 Determination of compliance.

(a) Determinations with respect to the acreage planted to the commodity and the designated diverted acreage shall be made by a representative of the county or State committee in accordance with the regulations governing Determination of Acreage and Performance, Part 718 of this chapter (22 F.R. 3747), as amended.

(b) Before final payments are made, producers on the farm shall be required to certify that they have complied with all requirements of the program. If the county committee has reason to question whether the normal conserving acreage for the farm has been devoted to an approved conservation use on the farm for 1962, or whether the producer has otherwise complied with the program, it shall take the necessary action to verify the facts.

(c) A representative of the county or State committee or any authorized representative of the Secretary shall have the right at any reasonable time to enter a farm, concerning which representations have been made on any forms filed under the program, in order to measure the acreage planted to the commodity and the designated diverted acreage, to examine any records pertaining thereto, and otherwise to determine the accuracy of a producer's representations and the performance of his obligations under the program.

§ 775.121 Final payment.

(a) Payment of any amounts due the producers on a farm participating in the corn-grain sorghum program and to producers on a farm participating in the barley program shall be made when it has been determined by the county committee that the producers and the farm are in compliance with the applicable requirements of this program. To be eligible for payment the producer must complete Form 477-2 not later than May 1, 1963, unless otherwise approved by the Administrator, ASCS, or his designee. The percentage shares of all producers who would have had an interest in the applicable commodity on the farm in 1962 had such commodity been produced on the diverted acreage must equal 100 percent.

(b) The total diverted acreage of corn and grain sorghums, or of barley, on the farm shall be determined by subtracting the 1962 corn and grain sorghum acreage or the 1962 barley acreage on the farm from the applicable farm feed grain base. The total acreage diverted from corn and grain sorghums, and the total acreage diverted from barley, on which payments shall be based shall be the smallest of:

(1) The total diverted acreage of the applicable crop(s) on the farm determined as provided above;

(2) The total intended diverted acreage of the applicable crop(s) as specified on Form 477;

(3) The increased acreage devoted in 1962 to approved conservation uses on the farm, excluding (i) in the case of the corn-grain sorghum program, the designated diverted acreage under the barley program, and in the case of the barley program, the designated diverted acreage under the corn-grain sorghum program, (ii) designated diverted acreage under the 1962 Wheat Stabilization Program and (iii) cropland retired to replace non-cropland in accordance with § 775.108;

(4) The number of acres in the designated diverted acreage of the applicable crop(s) less any acreage on which castor beans, guar, safflower, sunflower or sesame are planted; or

(5) If the farm is covered by a Soil Bank Conservation Reserve contract, the number of permitted acres of soil bank base crops minus (a) in the case of the corn-grain sorghum program, the acreage diverted under the barley program, or in the case of the barley program, the acreage diverted under the corn-grain sorghum program; (b) the acreage diverted under the 1962 Wheat Stabilization Program, and (c) the acreage devoted in 1962 to soil bank base crops, excluding designated diverted acreage under the Wheat Stabilization Program and this program on which soil bank base crops are planted as a conservation use in accordance with the provisions of § 775.106.

Notwithstanding subparagraphs (1) through (5) of this paragraph, a reduction in diverted acreage otherwise eligible for payment will be made for each acre of non-cropland which is planted to crops for harvest in 1962 (excluding non-cropland planted to perennial grasses and legumes on which no nurse crop is harvested for grain or oilseed) that is not replaced by cropland retired to permanent cover of trees, or perennial grasses and/or perennial legumes. Except as provided below, no payment shall be made on any farm on which the total diverted acreage on which the payment is based (including acreage devoted to castor beans, guar, safflower, sunflower or sesame which has not been grazed as provided in § 775.107(d)) is less than 20 percent of the farm feed grain base. The provisions of the foregoing sentence shall not apply if (i) the farm is covered by a soil bank conservation reserve contract and the provisions of the second sentence in § 775.105(b)(2) are applicable, or (ii) noncompliance with such provisions was caused solely by (a) an understatement made in good faith by producers in supplying data to the county committees, or (b) an error, and the county committee determines that (1) producers on the farm were in no way responsible for the error, (2) the extent of the error was such that the producers would not reasonably be expected to question it, and (3) the producers in good faith complied with the program on the basis of the error.

(c) The amount of the total earned payment for the farm for the corn-grain sorghum program and for the barley program shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of the following subparagraphs (1) through (5) of this paragraph, as applicable:

(1) If the corn-grain sorghum feed grain base or the barley feed grain base, as applicable, on the farm is less than 100 acres, the total diverted acreage on which payment is based shall be divided into the following three categories for the purpose of computing the acreage eligible for payment at the minimum and additional acre payment rates:

(i) The number of acres equal to 20 percent of the total applicable feed grain base shall be computed at the applicable minimum acre payment rate per acre;

(ii) The number of acres, if any, between 20 percent of the total applicable feed grain base and 40 percent of such total feed grain base shall be computed at the applicable additional acre payment rate per acre; and

(iii) The number of acres, if any, in excess of 40 percent of the total applicable feed grain base shall be computed at the applicable minimum acre payment rate per acre.

(2) If the corn-grain sorghum feed grain base or the barley feed grain base, as applicable, on the farm is 100 acres or more, the total diverted acreage on which payment is based under the applicable program shall be divided into the following two categories for the purpose of computing the acreage eligible for payment at the minimum and additional acre payment rates:

(i) The number of acres equal to the first 20 percent of the total applicable feed grain base shall be computed at the applicable minimum acre payment rate per acre, and

(ii) The number of acres, if any, in excess of the first 20 percent of the total applicable feed grain base shall be computed at the applicable additional acre payment rate per acre.

(3) If the actual diverted acreage consists of an acreage of corn and an acreage of grain sorghums and the provisions of subparagraph (4) of this paragraph are not applicable, the acreage of each commodity eligible for payment shall be determined by crediting the commodity with the higher payment rate with an acreage equivalent to the smaller of the actual acres diverted from that crop, or the total corn-grain sorghum diverted acreage on which payment is based, and then crediting the balance of the eligible acres for payment to the commodity with the lower payment rate.

(4) On farms where separate irrigated and non-irrigated feed grain bases have been established for the commodity, the irrigated and non-irrigated acreages of such commodity eligible for payment shall be determined as follows:

(i) In the case of corn and grain sorghums, the commodity and practice category having the highest payment rate shall be credited with an acreage equivalent to the smaller of the actual acreage diverted from such crop and practice or the total corn-grain sorghum farm diverted acreage on which payment is based. Each of the remaining commodity and practice categories shall be credited with the smaller of the actual acreage diverted from such crop and practice or the remainder of the total corn-grain sorghum farm diverted acreage on which payment is based. Such computation shall be made for each commodity and practice category in the order of their payment rates. The total acres eligible for payment at the irrigated rate shall not exceed the total actual irrigated diverted acreage.

(ii) Irrigated barley shall be credited with an acreage equivalent to the smaller of the actual barley acreage diverted from such practice category or the total barley farm diverted acreage on which payment is based and non-irrigated barley shall be credited with the remainder, if any, of the barley farm diverted acreage on which payment is based.

(5) In the case of corn and grain sorghums, the acreage of each commodity and practice category eligible for payment at the minimum and additional acre payment rates shall be determined by multiplying the acreage eligible for payment for each crop and practice category by the ratio of the corn-grain sorghum acreage eligible for payment at the minimum or additional rate, as applicable, determined under subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph to the total corn-grain sorghum acreage eligible for payment on the farm. In the case of barley, the acreage of each practice category eligible for payment at the minimum and additional payment rates shall be determined by multiplying the barley acreage eligible for payment in each practice category by the ratio of the barley acreage eligible for payment at the minimum or additional rate, as applicable, determined under subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph to the total applicable barley acreage eligible for payment on the farm.

(d) The balance of the total earned payment due each eligible producer under the corn-grain sorghum program and under the barley program shall be determined by multiplying the total earned payment under the applicable program for the farm by the producer's share of the total payment under the corn-grain sorghum program or under the barley program, as applicable, and subtracting therefrom the advance payment made to such producer under the applicable program. Producers shall refund any payment previously made to which they are not entitled.

(e) Notwithstanding any provision of these regulations, if a producer declines, for personal reasons, to accept all or any part of his share of the payment computed for a farm in accordance with the provisions of this section, such payment or portion thereof shall not become available for any other producer on the farm.

§ 775.122 Division of payment.

(a) Payments made under this program shall be divided in such a way that all eligible producers will share in the payments on a fair and equitable basis and in keeping with existing rental and cropping contracts. The names of all persons on the farm who would have had an interest as producers in 1962-crop corn or grain sorghums, or in 1962-crop barley, as applicable, had it been produced on the diverted acreage shall be entered in Part IV of Form 477 and on Form 477-2. If all such producers agree to their respective percentage shares of the advance and final payments and certify that their shares of the payments are fair and equitable, the division of payments so determined shall be approved by a representative of the county committee subject to the provisions of §§ 775.123 and 775.124.

(b) The following factors should be given consideration in arriving at the division of payments:

(1) The basis on which producers would have shared in the production of the corn and grain sorghums, or barley, as applicable, had such crops been produced on the diverted acreage;

(2) The savings or benefits accruing to each producer on the diverted acreage;

(3) The respective contributions of each producer to the establishment and maintenance of the conservation uses on the acreage designated as diverted from production; and

(4) The respective relationship of the diverted acreages and increased conservation acreage to the various ownership tracts comprising a farm.

(c) In those cases where a person who would have had an interest as producer in corn or grain sorghums, or in barley, as applicable, had such crops been produced on the diverted acreage, refuses or fails to sign an application for payment, or is ineligible because of being out of compliance on other farms, the share of the payment to which he would otherwise be entitled shall be shown on the applicable Forms 477 and 477–2. Payment shall not be made for the farm until the sum of the percentage shares equals 100 percent.

(d) If producers whose names are listed on Forms 477 and 477–2 cannot agree on the division of the payment among eligible producers on the farm, the county committee will determine the sharing of payments among such producers on a fair and equitable basis and in keeping with existing rental and cropping contracts based on the factors provided in this section. Payment of amounts so determined shall be made to eligible producers upon their request.

§ 775.123 Additional provisions and requirements relative to tenants and sharecroppers.

(a) No Form 477 or Form 477–2 shall be approved by the county committee or payments made for any individual farm if the county committee determines:

(1) That the landlord or operator has not afforded his tenants and sharecroppers, if any, an opportunity to participate in the program.

(2) That the landlord or operator has, in anticipation or because of participating in the program, reduced the number of tenants and sharecroppers on the farm. (If a tenant or sharecropper leaves the farm voluntarily, or for some reason other than being forced off the farm by the landlord or operator in anticipation or because of participation in the program, the failure to replace such tenant or sharecropper shall not be considered as a reduction in anticipation or because of participating in the program.)

(3) That there exists between the operator or landlord and any tenant or sharecropper any lease, contract, agreement or understanding unfairly exacted or required by the operator or landlord which was entered into in anticipation of participating in the program, the effect of which is:

(i) To force the tenant or sharecropper to pay over to the landlord or operator any payment earned by him under the program;

(ii) To change the status of any tenant or sharecropper so as to deprive him of any payment or right which he would otherwise have had under the program;

(iii) To reduce the size of the tenant's or sharecropper's producer unit; or

(iv) To increase the rent to be paid by the tenant or decrease the share of the crop or its proceeds to be received by the sharecropper.

(4) That any other scheme or device has been adopted for the purpose of depriving any tenant or sharecropper of the payment to which he would otherwise be entitled to receive under this program.

(b) If prior to making an advance payment, the county committee determines that the Form 477 has been improperly prepared, it shall not approve the application for payment. The producers will be afforded an opportunity to agree mutually to a proper division of payments in accordance with the factors specified in § 775.122 hereof. If the producers cannot agree to a proper division of payment, the county committee shall determine the division of payments among eligible producers on the farm on a fair and equitable basis, in accordance with the factors specified in § 775.122.

(c) If the county committee determines after affording the producers on a farm an opportunity to present evidence that any payment which it has made has been improperly divided among the eligible producers for the reasons specified in paragraph (a) of this section, the county committee shall determine the sharing of payments to be made among the eligible producers on the farm on a fair and equitable basis in accordance with the factors specified in § 775.122. Persons shall refund to the county committee any payment received to which they are not entitled. In the event of fraud, the person involved shall be subject to the provisions of § 775.125.

§ 775.124 Successors-in-interest.

(a) In case of the death, incompetency, or disappearance of any producer who is entitled to a payment under this program, the payment due him shall be made to his successor, as determined in accordance with provisions of the regulations in ACP 122, as amended, issued by the Secretary (Part 1108 of this title), or any amendments thereto, for payments made pursuant to section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended.

(b) When any person who would have had an interest as producer (herein called "predecessor") in corn or grain sorghums or in barley, as applicable, if it had been produced on the diverted acreage leaves the farm after Form 477 has been filed and has been succeeded on the farm by another producer (herein called "successor") whose name is listed on Form 477–2, their share of the advance and final payment shall be divided on such basis as the predecessor and successor agree is fair and equitable. If such persons are unable to agree to a division of their payments, the county committee shall determine the division taking into consideration the following, among other factors it deems pertinent:

(1) The respective interests which the predecessor and successor would have had in corn and grain sorghums if they had been produced on the diverted acreage;

(2) The respective contributions to the diversion in acreage which have been made by the predecessor and by the successor; and

(3) The respective contributions of the predecessor and successor to the establishment and maintenance of the conservation uses on the additional acreage devoted to soil conserving crops in 1961.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a tenant or sharecropper who would have had an interest in the applicable commodity if it had been produced on the diverted acreage leaves a farm after Form 477 has been filed for the farm, but before the final payment has been made and is not succeeded on the farm by another person, his name shall be included on Part IV of Form 477 and on Form 477–2 and the division of payment to which he is entitled shall be determined as provided in § 775.122.

MISCELLANEOUS

§ 775.125 Scheme or device and fraudulent representation.

(a) A producer who is determined by the State committee or by the county committee with the approval of the State committee to have adopted any scheme or device which tends to defeat the purposes of this program shall not be entitled to receive a payment under the program and shall refund any payment received by him.

(b) The making of a fraudulent representation by a person in the payment documents or otherwise for the purpose of obtaining a payment from the county committee shall render the person liable, aside from any additional liability under criminal and civil frauds statutes, for a refund of the payments received by him with respect to which the fraudulent representation was made.

§ 775.126 Reconstitution of farms.

(a) Reconstitution of farms shall be in accordance with the regulations governing reconstitution of farms, farm allotments and farm history and soil bank base acreages (Part 719 of this chapter, 23 F.R. 6731) and any amendments thereto. If, under such regulations, two or more farms as constituted at the time a feed grain base and a productivity index were established are combined into one farm, or if one farm as constituted at such time is later divided into two more farms, feed grain bases shall be determined for such farm(s) in accordance with such regulations. The productivity index for such farms will be determined by the county committee in accordance with § 775.114.

(b) The feed grain base for corn and grain sorghums and for barley on the combined farm shall not exceed the sum of the applicable feed grain bases for the component parts. The productivity index established for the commodity for a combined farm shall not exceed the weighted average of the indexes established for the commodity for the component parts. When a parent farm is divided into two or more parts, the sum of the feed grain bases for corn and grain sorghums and for barley established for the component parts shall not exceed the applicable feed grain base for the parent farm. The weighted average of the productivity indexes established for the component parts shall not exceed the applicable productivity index established for the farm prior to being divided. The normal conserving acreages shall be credited to the reconstituted farm(s) by the county committee in a fair and equitable manner.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, a farm shall not be reconstituted for the purpose of this program after the final date for filing a Form 477 in the county, unless the farm(s) was not properly constituted as of such date. In such event, a corrected Form(s) 477 may be prepared for the farm(s) as properly constituted even though this action is necessary after the closing date.

§ 775.127 Provision for handling exceptional cases.

Where a producer, in reasonable reliance upon any instruction or commitment of any member, employee, or representative of a county or State committee, in good faith, substantially performs under the program, the Deputy Administrator may review the requirements of any provision of the regulations in this subpart and if, in his judgment, relief from the requirements of such provision is justified under all the circumstances of the case to permit a proper disposition thereof, allow payment for such substantial performance in an amount not to exceed the amount which would have been due for the required performance, provided such action is not prohibited by statute.

§ 775.128 Delegation of authority.

No delegation herein to a State or county committee shall preclude the Administrator, ASCS, or his designee, from determining any question arising under the program, or from reversing or modifying any determination made by a State or county committee.

NOTE: The recordkeeping and reporting requirements of these regulations have been approved by, and subsequent recordkeeping and reporting requirements will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 28th day of December 1961.

ORVILLE L. FREEMAN,
Secretary.

[1962 Feed Grain Program, Supplement 1]

PART 775—FEED GRAINS

Subpart—1962 Feed Grain Program Regulations

Sec.
775.151 Purpose.
775.152 County average yields and county payment rates for barley.

AUTHORITY: §§ 775.151 and 775.152 issued under Sec. 16(d) 49 Stat. 1151, as amended; Sec. 105, 72 Stat. 993, as amended; Sec. 133, 75 Stat. 303, 7; 16 U.S.C. 590p; 7 U.S.C. 1441 note.

§ 775.151 Purpose.

Sections 775.151 to 775.152, supplement the 1962 Feed Grain Program Regulations, which provide terms and conditions for a special agricultural conservation program for 1962 under which conservation payments are made to producers who divert acreage from the production of corn and grain sorghums, and barley, respectively, to an approved conservation use and increase their average acreage of cropland devoted in 1959 and 1960 to designated soil conserving crops or practices by an equal amount. This supplement contains county average yields and county payment rates used in determining payment rates for the farm, which are the basis for computing payments to producers under the 1962 Feed Grain Program. County average yields are also used as provided in 1962 CCC grain price support regulations and any amendments thereto, in determining the maximum quantity of 1962 crop corn and grain sorghums, and barley on which price support may be received on each eligible farm.

§ 775.152 County average yields and county payment rates for barley.

County average yields and county minimum acre payment rates (50 percent payment rate per acre) and additional acre payment rates (60 percent payment rate per acre) for barley are as follows:

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 905, as amended (7 CFR Part 905), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, tangerines, and tangelos grown in Florida effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of oranges, including Temple oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of oranges, including Temple oranges, grown in the production area, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on January 2, 1962, such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of oranges, including Temple oranges, and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of the persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) Terms used in the amended marketing agreement and order shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in said amended marketing agreement and order; and terms relating to grade, diameter, standard pack, and standard box, as used herein, shall have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in the United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos (§§ 51.1140–51.1178 of this title; 25 F.R. 8211).

(2) During the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., e.s.t., January 8, 1962, and ending at 12:01 a.m., e.s.t., January 22, 1962, no handler shall ship between the production area and any point outside thereof in the continental United States, Canada, or Mexico:

§ 905.304 Tangelo Regulation 1.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 905, as amended (7 CFR Part 905), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, tangerines, and tangelos grown in Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of tangelos, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of tangelos, grown in the production area, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on January 2, 1962, such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such tangelos; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of tangelos, and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of the persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) Terms used in the amended marketing agreement and order shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in said amended marketing agreement and order; and terms relating to grade, diameter, standard pack, and standard box, as used herein, shall have the same meaning as is given to the respective term in the United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos (§§ 51.1140–51.1178 of this title; 25 F.R. 8211).

(2) During the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., e.s.t., January 8, 1962, and ending at 12:01 a.m., e.s.t., January 22, 1962, no handler shall ship between the production area and any point outside thereof in the continental United States, Canada, or Mexico:

(i) Any tangelos, grown in the production area, which do not grade at least U.S. No. 1 Russet; or

(ii) Any tangelos, grown in the production area, which are of a size smaller than 2⁵⁄₁₆ inches in diameter, except that a tolerance of 10 percent, by count, of tangelos smaller than such minimum diameter shall be permitted, which tolerance shall be applied in accordance with the provisions for the application of tolerances specified in said United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos.

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter II—Civil Aeronautics Board

SUBCHAPTER B—PROCEDURAL REGULATIONS

[Reg. No. PR-57]

PART 302—RULES OF PRACTICE IN ECONOMIC PROCEEDINGS

Subpart H—Rules Applicable to the Loan Guaranty Program

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 26th day of December 1961.

At the present time, the Board's Loan Guaranty Program as provided in the Act of September 7, 1957, 71 Stat. 629, is administered without formal rules of practice. The Board finds that the experience gained in this field indicates the need for procedural regulations.

Under this regulation, the procedural steps will remain essentially the same as those presently followed in the present informal procedure. However, the formalization of the procedural methods will facilitate and speed up the steps which must be taken to obtain such loan guaranties.

Under the rule, a proceeding to obtain Board approval for government guaranty of aircraft purchase loans may be instituted by the filing of appropriate CAB application forms by the lender and air carrier, together with supporting documents. The rule sets forth the contents of such application forms. Action taken on applications will continue to be on an informal basis. Requests for formal hearing will not be entertained. Upon receipt of such material, the Board will make its determination and issue its decision in the form of a Board Order. Where necessary, the Board will communicate with both lenders and air carriers in order to avail itself of additional or clarifying information prior to its disposition of the applications. The rule also states the procedure to be followed in obtaining Board approval for any deviations from the terms of the guaranty and loan agreements.

Since this amendment is not a substantive rule, but one of agency procedure, notice and public procedure hereon are not required and the amendment may become effective upon less than 30 days' notice.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 302 of the Board's Procedural Regulations (14 CFR Part 302), effective January 6, 1962, by adding a new Subpart H to read as follows:

Subpart H—Rules Applicable to the Loan Guaranty Program

Sec.

302.800 Applicability of this subpart.
302.801 Institution of proceedings.
302.802 Contents of applications.
302.803 Action taken on applications.
302.804 Deviations from the terms of loan agreements.

AUTHORITY: §§ 302.800 to 302.804 issued under sec. 204(a), 72 Stat. 743; 49 U.S.C. 1324. Interpret or apply sec. 3, Act of September 7, 1957, 71 Stat. 629.

§ 302.800 Applicability of this subpart.

This subpart sets forth the special rules applicable to the filing and processing of applications for loan guaranties as provided in the Act of September 7, 1957, 71 Stat. 629 or any extensions thereof.

§ 302.801 Institution of proceedings.

A proceeding to obtain Board approval for government guaranty of an aircraft purchase loan may be instituted by the filing of CAB Forms 411A and 411B by the lender and air carrier, respectively, together with supporting documents. The provisions of Subpart A of this part respecting documents apply; however, only an original and four copies of supporting documents are required.

§ 302.802 Contents of applications.

Chapter III—Federal Aviation Agency

SUBCHAPTER E—AIR NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

[Airspace Docket No. 61-WA-106]

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

Alteration of Federal Airway

On June 29, 1961, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (26 F.R. 5833), stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to alter the segment of intermediate altitude VOR Federal airway No. 1530 between Farmington, N. Mex., VOR and Cimarron, N. Mex., VOR. It was proposed to realign this segment from the Farmington VOR via the Taos, N. Mex., VOR to the Cimarron VOR.

The Air Transport Association of America objected to the proposal on the basis that the navigational guidance between Cimarron VOR and Farmington VOR is satisfactory and realignment via Taos VOR would require an additional compulsory reporting point, navigational frequency change and heading changes. No other adverse comments were received.

The present minimum en route altitude between Farmington VOR and Cimarron VOR is 20,000 feet MSL. Subsequent to the publishing of the notice, the Federal Aviation Agency has determined that realignment of Victor 1530 via the Taos VOR would reduce the minimum en route altitude to 14,500 feet MSL between Farmington VOR and Taos VOR and 15,200 feet between Taos VOR and Cimarron VOR. The availability of additional altitudes along this segment is considered to compensate for the inconvenience of a navigational frequency change and a minor heading change.

The Federal Aviation Agency is cognizant of the position reporting requirements currently being imposed upon the user by the incorporation of additional NAVAIDS into the intermediate altitude system. A study is now being conducted to alleviate this condition and the results of the study will be the subject of separate airspace action.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendment having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (25 F.R. 12582) and for the reasons stated herein and in the notice, the following action is taken:

In the text of § 600.1530 (26 F.R. 1084, 10874) "Farmington, N. Mex., VOR; Cimarron, N. Mex., VOR;" is deleted and "Farmington, N. Mex., VOR; Taos, N. Mex., VOR; Cimarron, N. Mex., VOR;" is substituted therefor.

This amendment shall become effective 0001 e.s.t., March 8, 1962.

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, REPORTING POINTS, POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL AREAS

Alteration of Federal Airways and Associated Control Areas; Alteration of Control Area Extension

On August 16, 1961, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (26 F.R. 7607), stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to alter low altitude VOR Federal airway No. 9 from Memphis, Tenn., to Malden, Mo., and Victor 11 from Memphis to Dyersburg, Tenn. In addition, it was proposed to make minor alterations to the Memphis control area extension and the Blytheville, Ark., control area extension. No formal action is taken regarding the Blytheville control area extension; this control area extension is so designated that it would automatically conform to the alteration of VOR Federal airway No. 9 taken herein.

Subsequent to publication of the notice, the Memphis control area extension was altered in Airspace Docket No. 61-WA-160 (26 F.R. 12285). This action obviates the requirement to redefine the Memphis control area extension in this document.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendments.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rules herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendments having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (25 F.R. 12582) and for the reasons stated in the notice, the following actions are taken:

1. In the text of § 600.6009 (14 CFR 600.6009) "Memphis, Tenn., VOR, including an east alternate via the INT of the Greenwood VOR 027° and the Memphis VOR 168° radials and also a west alternate; INT Memphis VOR 322° and the Malden VOR 195° radials; Malden, Mo., VOR, including an east alternate from the Memphis VOR to the Malden VOR via the INT of the Memphis VOR 345° and the Malden VOR 185° radials;" is deleted and "Memphis, Tenn., VORTAC, including an E alternate via the INT of the Greenwood VOR 027° and the Memphis VORTAC 168° radials and also a W alternate; INT Memphis VORTAC 345° and the Blytheville, Ark., Air Force Base VOR 186° radials; Blytheville VOR, including a W alternate from Memphis to Blytheville via the INT of the Memphis VORTAC 322° and the Blytheville VOR 201° radials; Malden VOR," is substituted therefor.

2. In the text of § 600.6011 (14 CFR 600.6011, 26 F.R. 2220) "From the Memphis, Tenn., VOR via the point of INT of the Memphis VOR 345° and the Malden, Mo., VOR 185° radials; point of INT of the Malden, Mo., VOR 185° and the Dyersburg VOR 235° radials; Dyersburg, Tenn., VOR;" is deleted and "From the Memphis, Tenn., VORTAC via the INT of the Memphis VORTAC 322° and the Blytheville Air Force Base VOR 201° radials; the INT of the Blytheville VOR 201° and the Dyersburg VORTAC 235° radials; Dyersburg, Tenn., VORTAC;" is substituted therefor.

These amendments shall become effective 0001 e.s.t., March 8, 1962.

ORGANIZATION AND SCOPE OF OPERATIONS

§ 1600.1 General.

The Federal National Mortgage Association (called "FNMA" or "the corporation" in this part) purchases and sells mortgages (including home improvement loans) and makes short-term loans on the security of mortgages. All such mortgages are ordinarily Government-insured or guaranteed (FHA or VA). A mortgage may not be purchased at a rate in excess of par, nor in the usual instance if it is offered by, or covers property held by, a Federal, State, territorial, or municipal instrumentality. FNMA itself is a corporation that had its inception in 1938. In 1954 FNMA was rechartered by the Congress as a mixed-ownership corporation. All of the common stock of the corporation is owned by private shareholders, and the preferred stock is owned by the Federal Government (Secretary of the Treasury). The charter contemplates that in due course the preferred stock will be retired and the Secondary Market Operations (hereinafter described) will qualify to become privately owned and managed. The corporation is required to pay a full Federal income tax equivalent on the earnings of its Secondary Market Operations. Under its charter, known as the Federal National Mortgage Association Charter Act, 12 U.S.C. 1716 et seq., the corporation has established and maintained, dating from November 1, 1954, three independent portfolios of FNMA-owned mortgages, with separate accountability. These three portfolios resulted from three separate operations predicated on different purposes and objectives. FNMA is authorized to conduct:

(a) Secondary market operations, basically a privately financed activity, to provide supplementary assistance to the secondary market for home mortgages by providing a degree of liquidity for mortgage investments, thereby improving the distribution of investment capital available for home mortgage financing (described further in §§ 1600.11 to 1600.15);

(b) Special assistance functions, operated exclusively for the account of the Government, which, upon specific authorization by the President of the United States, or by the Congress, provide special assistance for financing selected types of home mortgages that qualify under special programs; the charter also makes provisions for special assistance through the purchase of home mortgages generally as a means of retarding or stopping a decline in mortgage lending and home building activities which threatens materially the stability of a high level national economy (described further in §§ 1600.21 to 1600.25); and

(c) Management and liquidating functions, under which FNMA manages and liquidates for the account of the Government the remaining portfolio of mortgages acquired pursuant to contracts entered into between February 10, 1938, and November 1, 1954, and certain other mortgages that have been or may be acquired from authorized sources, in an orderly manner, with a minimum of adverse effect upon the home mortgage market and minimum loss to the Federal Government (described further in §§ 1600.31 and 1600.32).

§ 1600.2 Area of operations.

FNMA is authorized to conduct its business in any State of the United States, including the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the territories and possessions of the United States. FNMA functions through its principal office located at 811 Vermont Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C., and through the offices of its Agencies listed in § 1600.0. All inquiries concerning offerings of mortgages to FNMA should be directed to the office of the Agency serving the territory in which the mortgaged property is located. Inquiries concerning short-term loans should be made to the Agency serving the area in which the principal office of the prospective borrower is located.

SECONDARY MARKET OPERATIONS

§ 1600.11 General.

In accomplishing the purposes of the Secondary Market Operations FNMA purchases mortgages in areas where market funds are needed, holds such mortgages available for sale to private investors, and makes short-term loans on the security of mortgages. Certain fees and charges are imposed under these operations with the objective that they will reasonably prevent excessive use of FNMA's facilities and that the conduct of the operations will be within the income derived therefrom and will be fully self-supporting. The users of FNMA's Secondary Market Operations are required to subscribe for FNMA common stock as stated in § 1600.15(a).

§ 1600.12 Mortgage purchases.

Mortgage purchases are confined, insofar as practicable, to mortgages which are of such quality, type, and class as to meet, generally, the purchase standards imposed by private institutional mortgage investors. FNMA is not authorized to purchase participations under its Secondary Market Operations. Purchases are made by FNMA under the terms of specific contracts, and in accordance with certain conditions and requirements stated therein.

(a) Immediate Purchase Contract. A Seller may offer a mortgage to FNMA for immediate purchase by executing an Immediate Purchase Contract and delivering therewith required documents and forms. With each offer, the Seller must agree to subscribe for common stock in FNMA (as stated in § 1600.15 (a)) and to pay a Purchase and Marketing Fee.

(b) Repurchase option. With respect to Immediate Purchase Contract transactions, the Seller may obtain an Option Contract which will permit the Seller to repurchase, at Seller's election, the mortgages sold to FNMA, at a stated repurchase price rate or rates which may be the same as paid by FNMA. The Option Contract is issued for a stated period after the date of purchase of the mortgages by FNMA, upon payment by the Seller of an Option Fee.

(c) Standby Commitment Contract. A Seller may offer mortgages for future purchase by FNMA by executing a Standby Commitment Contract which, when accepted, obligates FNMA to purchase any or all mortgages specified in the contract that the Seller elects to deliver within the commitment period. With each such offer the Seller must pay a Commitment Fee which is nonrefundable if the contract is accepted by FNMA. The Seller is required to subscribe for common stock in FNMA as stated in § 1600.15(a). A part of the stock must be paid for at the time of the offer; the remainder must be paid for if and when the mortgage purchase is effected under the contract. A Seller is not required to pay a Purchase and Marketing Fee on mortgages purchased under a Standby Commitment Contract.

(d) Eligible mortgages. The insurance or guaranty of each mortgage purchased under FNMA's Secondary Market Operations must be pursuant to a section, as specified by FNMA, of the National Housing Act or of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944 or chapter 37 of title 38, United States Code. If required by FNMA, each such mortgage offered under an Immediate Purchase Contract must have been insured or guaranteed within such period as may be prescribed.

(e) Special acceptability requirements. On the date of the offer of a mortgage to FNMA, (1) subject to some exceptions, the unpaid principal balance may not be less than $5,000 and the unexpired term may not be less than 10 years, and (2) the rate of interest must be currently acceptable to FNMA. In addition, the mortgage must meet general acceptability requirements, as indicated in §§ 1600.41 to 1600.53.

§ 1600.13 Purchase price.

(a) Immediate Purchase Contracts. The price to be paid under an Immediate Purchase Contract for a mortgage purchased by FNMA in its Secondary Market Operations is established within the range of market prices for the particular class of mortgages involved, as determined by FNMA. The price paid by FNMA for a mortgage may vary according to its interest rate, the location of the mortgaged property, the relative equity of the mortgagor, the term of the loan, and other factors. Information as to current prices at which FNMA purchases mortgages may be obtained by application to the FNMA Agency serving the area in which the mortgaged property is located. All prices quoted by FNMA are subject to change without notice. A quotation of prices is not to be considered as an offer by FNMA; it is solely an invitation to the Seller to make an offer to FNMA. FNMA is under no obligation to purchase any mortgage until the Seller has submitted, and FNMA has executed and delivered, a specific contract covering such purchase.

(b) Standby Commitment Contracts. FNMA issues Standby Commitment Contracts at prices which are sufficient to facilitate home financing, but which are sufficiently below the price then offered by the corporation for immediate purchase to prevent excessive sales to the corporation pursuant to such commitments.

§ 1600.14 Loans on mortgages.

FNMA, under its Secondary Market Operations, may make bank-type short-term loans which are secured by FHA-insured or VA-guaranteed mortgages. Loans may not have a term in excess of 12 months; consideration will be given to requests for extensions not in excess of 12 months. The volume of lending activities and the establishment of loan ratios, interest rates, maturities, and charges or fees are determined by FNMA from time to time with the objective of preventing excessive use of the facilities and of assuring that the Secondary Market Operations will remain fully self-supporting.

§ 1600.15 Financing of Secondary Market Operations.

Funds for the conduct of FNMA's Secondary Market Operations are obtained from subscriptions for FNMA capital stock, borrowings, and net proceeds from such operations.

(a) Capital stock. The corporation issues nonvoting common and preferred stock (par value $100 per share); the common stock is issued to lenders and other institutions that sell mortgages to, or that borrow funds from, FNMA in the Secondary Market Operations; the preferred stock, in its entirety, is held by the Secretary of the Treasury. The users of the Secondary Market Operations are required to subscribe for common stock in amounts determined by FNMA as prescribed by law. With respect to such subscriptions, the corporation issues to each subscriber shares of common stock (only in denominations of $100, or multiples thereof). The amount of any subscription that cannot be evidenced by a whole share of common stock may not be withdrawn by the subscriber, but the subscriber will be permitted to supplement any such amount by payment of an additional sum sufficient to pay for a full share. FNMA imposes no restrictions as to who may be the holder of such shares of common stock; however, the shares are transferable only on the books of the corporation. (Under the FNMA Charter Act any institution, including a National Bank or State member bank of the Federal Reserve System, or any member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, trust company, or other banking organization, organized under any law of the United States, including the laws relating to the District of Columbia, is authorized to subscribe to FNMA's common stock under conditions described in this paragraph and to receive, hold or dispose of such stock.)

(b) Borrowings. FNMA may issue, and have outstanding at any one time, obligations in an aggregate amount not exceeding ten times the sum of its capital and surplus, and not in excess of its ownership under its Secondary Market Operations, free from any liens or encumbrances, of cash, mortgages, short-term notes secured by mortgages, and other holdings of securities in which the corporation is authorized to invest. Although the issuance of such obligations is subject to the prior approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, the obligations themselves are not guaranteed by the United States and do not constitute a debt or obligation of the United States. FNMA's obligations are available from time to time for sale to private investors. The Secretary of the Treasury may, within certain limitations, purchase these obligations of FNMA's Secondary Market Operations until such time as all of the preferred stock of FNMA held by the Secretary of the Treasury has been retired.

SPECIAL ASSISTANCE FUNCTIONS

§ 1600.21 General.

To carry out the purposes of the Special Assistance Functions, FNMA makes commitments to purchase and purchases mortgages for such periods of time and to such extent as the President of the United States has determined to be in the public interest, and as otherwise authorized by law. The operations under the Special Assistance Functions are confined, so far as practicable, to mortgages which are deemed by FNMA to be of such quality as to meet, substantially and generally, the purchase standards imposed by private institutional mortgage investors but which, at the time the mortgages are offered to FNMA for purchase, are not necessarily readily acceptable to such investors. When and as authorized by the President of the United States or by the Congress, FNMA will announce the inauguration of Special Assistance Programs specifying the types of mortgages that will be purchased, the prices to be paid therefor, and any special acceptability requirements relating to such Programs. Purchases may be made under Immediate Purchase Contracts or Commitment Contracts, as announced in the Special Assistance Programs. Consideration will be given to Sellers' requests for the purchase of participations in mortgages by FNMA.

§ 1600.22 Original mortgagee.

Under the Special Assistance Functions, the Seller must be the original mortgagee, and must not have made any prior sale of the mortgage offered to FNMA.

§ 1600.23 Mortgage interest rate.

Each mortgage must bear interest at the highest rate permitted by FHA or VA rules and regulations for that type of mortgage at the time of issuance of the FHA insurance commitment or the VA Certificate of Reasonable Value.

§ 1600.24 Fees or charges.

Fees or charges for FNMA's services under the Special Assistance Functions are established with the objective that all costs and expenses of its operations thereunder will be within its income derived from such operations and that such operations will be fully self-supporting. In connection with the purchase of a mortgage by FNMA under these functions, unless otherwise specified in the Special Assistance Program, the Seller is required to pay a Purchase and Marketing Fee. As to commitments to purchase a mortgage in the future, a Commitment Fee is charged.

§ 1600.25 Financing of Special Assistance Functions.

Mortgage Sellers are not required to purchase common stock of FNMA in connection with purchases or contracts for purchases under these Special Assistance Functions, nor is there any recourse to the capitalization of FNMA with respect to such functions. Funds required for the operation of these functions are obtained principally through borrowings from the Secretary of the Treasury. All of the benefits and burdens incident to the administration of the Special Assistance Functions inure solely to the Secretary of the Treasury.

MANAGEMENT AND LIQUIDATING FUNCTIONS

§ 1600.31 General.

The Federal National Mortgage Association Charter Act authorizes FNMA to manage and liquidate its portfolio of mortgages acquired pursuant to contracts entered into prior to November 1, 1954, and those other mortgages that have been or may be acquired from authorized sources, in an orderly manner, with a minimum of adverse effect upon the home mortgage market and minimum loss to the Federal Government.

§ 1600.32 Financing of Management and Liquidating Functions.

Funds required for the Management and Liquidating Functions are obtained through borrowings from the Secretary of the Treasury, and from time to time through the sale to private investors of FNMA's obligations issued under its Management and Liquidating Functions. The aggregate amount of such separate obligations issued to private investors, the proceeds of which are paid to the Secretary of the Treasury in reduction of the corporation's indebtedness under the Management and Liquidating Functions, may not exceed FNMA's ownership under such functions, free from any liens or encumbrances, of cash, mortgages, and other holdings of securities in which the corporation is authorized to invest. Such separate obligations are not guaranteed by the United States and do not constitute a debt or obligation of the United States. With respect to the Management and Liquidating Functions, there is no recourse to the capitalization of FNMA. All of the benefits and burdens incident to the administration of the Management and Liquidating Functions inure solely to the Secretary of the Treasury.

GENERAL ACCEPTABILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR MORTGAGES

§ 1600.41 General requirements.

As a condition precedent to the offering of a mortgage to FNMA for purchase, a designated Seller must have executed a Selling Agreement. Any mortgage offered or submitted to FNMA under the Secondary Market Operations or Special Assistance Functions must meet the conditions contained in such Agreement. The mortgage must also conform to special acceptability requirements prescribed by FNMA, and to general acceptability requirements, as indicated in §§ 1600.42 to 1600.53.

§ 1600.42 Ownership.

On the date of the Seller's offer to enter into an Immediate Purchase Contract with FNMA, the Seller must be the owner of the mortgage, and the mortgage must have been insured by FHA or guaranteed by VA.

§ 1600.43 Offering period.

(a) Immediate Purchase Contract. An offer of a mortgage under an Immediate Purchase Contract must be delivered subsequent to the date which precedes by one month the due date of the first installment of principal and interest and within such time as FNMA may require following the date of the FHA final insurance endorsement or the VA Loan Guaranty Certificate.

(b) Standby Commitment Contract or Commitment Contract. An offer of a Standby Commitment Contract or a Commitment Contract covering a home mortgage must be delivered subsequent to the issuance of the FHA insurance commitment or the VA Certificate of Reasonable Value and prior to the date of the FHA final insurance endorsement or the date of the VA Loan Guaranty Certificate. An offer of a Standby Commitment Contract or a Commitment Contract covering a multifamily housing mortgage must be delivered subsequent to the issuance of the FHA insurance commitment or the VA Certificate of Reasonable Value and prior to the commencement of construction.

§ 1600.44 Maximum mortgage.

Under the Secondary Market Operations the principal obligation must not exceed $20,000 for each family residence or dwelling unit covered by the mortgage. Under the Special Assistance Functions the original principal obligation of a mortgage must not exceed, or have exceeded, $17,500 for each family residence or dwelling unit covered by the mortgage. Such limitations do not apply to mortgages covering properties located in Alaska, Guam, or Hawaii, or to any mortgage insured by FHA under § 213 and covering property located in an urban renewal area, or under § 220, or under title VIII of the National Housing Act.

§ 1600.45 VA mortgages, extent of guaranty and other matters.

The extent of the VA guaranty must, in all cases, meet current FNMA requirements; and in cases in which there is more than one mortgagor, (a) all of the mortgagors must be jointly and severally liable on the mortgage indebtedness, (b) the original amount of the loan must not have exceeded $50,000, and (c) the number of living units must not exceed four.

§ 1600.46 Maturity.

The mortgage must mature within the period prescribed by law or the applicable FHA or VA regulations.

§ 1600.47 Advances by Seller.

On the date of submission to FNMA, the mortgage must be current with respect to matured installments of principal, interest, and deposits. Interest accruing to the date which precedes by one month the due date of the first installment of principal and interest shall have been paid by or for the account of the mortgagor. The Seller, within the immediately preceding 3 months, must not have advanced funds, nor have induced or solicited any advance of funds by another, directly or indirectly, for the payment of any amount required by the note or mortgage, except for interest accruing from the date of the note or the date of disbursement of the loan proceeds, whichever is later, to the day which precedes by one month the due date of the first full installment of principal and interest.

§ 1600.48 Credit.

There should not be any circumstances of, or conditions affecting, the mortgagor, the present owner, or their affairs, that would cause the mortgage to become delinquent.

§ 1600.49 Property.

There should not be any circumstances of, or conditions affecting, the mortgaged premises, that adversely affects the value or marketability of the mortgage, or that would cause private investors to regard the mortgage as unacceptable for prudent investment.

§ 1600.50 Occupancy.

Subject to specific contractual treatment otherwise, the property covered by a home mortgage must be occupied at the time the mortgage is submitted to FNMA for purchase, and the property covered by a multifamily housing mortgage must, at the time the mortgage is submitted to FNMA for purchase, be occupied to the extent that the income therefrom will cover all property expenses, carrying charges, and payments required by the mortgage.

§ 1600.51 Mortgage lien.

Except in the case of certain home improvement loans, the mortgage must be a first and paramount lien on the real property, and on the personal property if any is required to be covered, subject only to liens for taxes not due and payable, acceptable special assessments not in arrears, and conditions, restrictions and encumbrances not deemed by FNMA to be material.

§ 1600.52 Title evidence.

The title evidence to be delivered by the Seller must meet the requirements of the National Housing Act or the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944 or chapter 37 of title 38, United States Code, as the case may be, and the applicable rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto. The title evidence must also be in such form and substance as to meet FNMA's title evidence requirements.

§ 1600.53 Hazard insurance.

Property securing each mortgage must be covered by hazard insurance that meets all of the hazard insurance requirements of FNMA including FNMA's specifications as to kinds and amounts of hazard insurance.

ELIGIBLE SELLERS

§ 1600.61 General.

Designation of an eligible Seller to sell mortgages to FNMA under its Secondary Market Operations and Special Assistance Functions is consummated by the execution of a Selling Agreement. The Selling Agreement, consistent with § 1600.71, requires the Seller, with respect to each mortgage offered or submitted for purchase, either to be qualified as a FNMA Servicer by the execution of a Servicing Agreement and agree to service, or to proffer facilities satisfactory to FNMA for servicing the mortgage. Sellers are not required to furnish servicing facilities in connection with the purchase by FNMA of multifamily housing mortgages.

§ 1600.62 VA-guaranteed mortgages.

In order to be eligible to sell a VA-guaranteed mortgage to FNMA, a Seller must be acceptable to FNMA and also must come within one of the following three classifications:

(a) Any lender that is classified by VA as a supervised lender under section 500(d) of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act or Chapter 37, title 38, United States Code, as applicable, including any National bank, State bank, private bank, building and loan association, insurance company, credit union, or mortgage and loan company, that is subject to examination and supervision by an agency of the United States, or of any State, including the District of Columbia.

(b) Any lender that is an FHA-approved mortgagee, as defined in section 1600.63; or

(c) Any other lender, if such lender has a net worth of not less than $100,000 in assets acceptable to FNMA. This net worth must be maintained at all times.

§ 1600.63 FHA-insured mortgages.

In order to be eligible to sell an FHA-insured mortgage to FNMA, a Seller must be acceptable to FNMA, and must be an FHA approved mortgagee, which term does not include a mortgagee that has been approved on the basis of being a duly authorized loan correspondent of an approved mortgagee that has qualified with FHA to originate loans under the National Housing Act.

MORTGAGE SERVICING

§ 1600.71 Servicing requirements.

A Seller may not service a mortgage purchased by FNMA under its Secondary Market Operations or Special Assistance Functions unless it has qualified as an eligible Servicer and has executed a Servicing Agreement. With respect to each mortgage that is offered by the Seller to FNMA for purchase, either the Seller must be a Servicer having an outstanding Servicing Agreement with FNMA and shall consent to service the mortgage, or the Seller shall represent that when the mortgage is submitted to FNMA for purchase it will proffer the facilities of a Servicer having an outstanding Servicing Agreement with FNMA that will consent to service the mortgage. The Seller must also represent that, in either instance, there is an office with servicing facilities satisfactory to FNMA located within 100 miles of the mortgaged property. When the mortgage is submitted to FNMA for purchase, the Servicer (whether the Seller, or another Servicer that the Seller has previously ascertained is satisfactory to FNMA) must have consented to service the mortgage, and must have executed documentary evidence of such consent. This requirement does not apply to multifamily housing mortgages.

§ 1600.72 Servicer's compensation.

As compensation for the performance of its servicing duties, a Servicer may retain from each full monthly installment collected by it an amount equal to one-half of 1 percent per annum computed on the same principal amount and for the same period as the interest portion of said installment, and may also retain the late charges, if any, paid by the mortgagor. However, no compensation will be due the Servicer with respect to any period either prior to the date of commencement of its servicing duties or subsequent to the date of termination of its servicing duties.

MORTGAGE SALES

§ 1600.81 Eligible purchasers.

Any investor that is an FHA-approved mortagee is eligible to purchase FHA-insured mortgages, and any investor that in the opinion of FNMA has satisfactory facilities to service mortgages is eligible to purchase VA-guaranteed mortgages.

§ 1600.82 Mortgages for sale and prices.

Lists of mortgages owned by FNMA and available for sale, together with the current sale prices, may be obtained by prospective purchasers upon application to the FNMA Agency Office serving the area in which the investor desires to purchase mortgages.

§ 1600.83 Reservations.

Except for multifamily housing mortgages, FNMA does not issue firm options; instead, available mortgages may be reserved for a prospective purchaser and will not be available for sale to any other investor for a period of 15 calendar days. During such period, mortgaged properties may be inspected and the mortgage documents examined in FNMA's Agency Office.

§ 1600.84 Consummating sales.

FNMA will endeavor to comply with the wishes of purchasers with respect to arranging closing schedules and other matters incident to consummating sales. Unusual expenses that may be incurred by FNMA at the request of the purchaser, in connection with the transfer of mortgages, must be assumed by the purchaser. All sales of mortgages by FNMA shall be made pursuant to the terms and conditions of a form of contract furnished by FNMA, to be executed by the purchaser and FNMA. Since existing servicing arrangements, that are transferable with the mortgages as may be provided in the sales contract, are cancellable on 30 days' notice to the Servicer, at the option of the owner of the mortgages, purchasers will always be able to effect their own arrangements for future servicing.

EXCEPTIONS

§ 1600.91 Exceptions.

In the conduct of its affairs, in individual cases or classes of cases, FNMA reserves the right, consistent with law, to alter or waive any of the requirements contained in this part, or to impose other and additional requirements; it further reserves the right to amend or rescind any or all of the material set forth in this part.

AUTHORITY: §§ 525.1 to 525.16 issued under sec. 14, 25 Stat. 1068, as amended; 29 U.S.C. 214. Additional authority cited in parentheses following sections affected.

§ 525.1 Applicability of regulations.

The regulations contained in this part are issued pursuant to section 14 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, to provide for the employment by sheltered workshops of handicapped workers, as those terms are defined in § 525.2, at wages lower than the minimum wage applicable under section 6 of the Act. Such special certificates issued to sheltered workshops for handicapped clients engaged in or producing goods for interstate commerce shall state the special minimum wages permitted and the duration of the special certificate, and, in addition, shall be subject to the conditions prescribed in the regulations in this part.

§ 525.2 Definitions.

(a) "Administrator" means the Administrator of Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, United States Department of Labor.

(b) "Sheltered workshop" or "workshop" means a charitable organization or institution conducted not for profit, but for the purpose of carrying out a recognized program of rehabilitation for individuals whose earning capacity is impaired by age or physical or mental deficiency or injury, and of providing such individuals with remunerative employment or other occupational rehabilitating activity of an educational or therapeutic nature.

(c) "Handicapped client" or "client" means an individual whose earning capacity is impaired by age or physical or mental deficiency or injury, and who is being served in accordance with the recognized rehabilitation program of a sheltered workshop within the facilities of such agency or in or about the home of a client.

(d) "Act" means the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938.

§ 525.3 Advisory Committee on Sheltered Workshops.

(a) The Advisory Committee on Sheltered Workshops appointed from time to time by administrative orders published in the FEDERAL REGISTER shall advise and make recommendations to the Administrator concerning the administration and enforcement of this part and the need for amendments thereof from time to time and for such other purposes as may be desired by the Administrator.

(b) The Administrator or his authorized representative may notify the Advisory Committee on Sheltered Workshops prior to the denial or cancellation of any special certificate under §§ 525.6, 525.8, or 525.12 and may afford the Committee 15 days, or such additional time as he may allow, to present its views. The Administrator or his authorized representative may also afford the Committee an opportunity to present its views in connection with any petition for review filed under § 525.13, any hearing held under § 525.14, or any petition for amendment of this part filed under § 525.16.

§ 525.4 Application for a special certificate.

(a) Application for a special certificate may be filed by any sheltered workshop with the Regional Director of the administrative region of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, United States Department of Labor, in which the workship is located. Application forms may be obtained from the appropriate Regional Director.

(b) The application shall contain, among other things, a description of the nature of the disabilities of the clients served by the workshop, a description of the types of employment and the rehabilitation program provided clients by the workshop, and the earnings of each handicapped client engaged in work covered by the Act.

(c) The application shall be signed by the president of the board of directors and a duly authorized official of the workshop.

(d) Application during the life of a special certificate for an individual rate for a client who is unable to earn the applicable certificate rate may be filed by a workshop with the appropriate Regional Director. Such application may be made on forms which can be obtained from the Regional Director or by a letter from the workshop executive or his authorized representative stating the name of the client, his straight-time hourly earnings during the most recent payroll period, whether he is paid at piece rates or time rates, the type of work he is doing, the hourly rate the workshop proposes to guarantee, and the reason for requesting such rate when the proposed rate is substantially less than the client's actual earnings. An individual client rate does not become effective until authorized by the Administrator or his authorized representative.

§ 525.5 Criteria for consideration in issuance of a special certificate.

The following criteria may be considered by the Administrator or his authorized representative in determining the necessity of issuing a special certificate and the conditions to be specified therein:

(a) The present and previous earnings of handicapped clients of the workshop engaged in work covered by the Act;

(b) The nature and extent of the disabilities of clients served by the workshop;

(c) The wages of non-handicapped employees employed in private industry engaged in work comparable to that performed in the workshop;

(d) The types and duration of medical, educational, therapeutic, social work and other rehabilitative services given to handicapped clients;

(e) The extent to which clients share, through wages, in the receipts for work done in the workshop;

(f) The extent to which the handicapped clients may be learners or otherwise inexperienced;

(g) The extent to which earned operating income, other than normal depreciation allowances, is used for capital expenditures for equipment, buildings or expansion of activities in situations where the adequacy of the wage rates proposed by the workshop cannot clearly be established;

(h) Whether there exists any workshop-customer arrangement or subcontract agreement which constitutes an unfair method of competition in commerce and which tends to spread or perpetuate substandard wage levels;

(i) Whether, in the case of non-government operated workshops, the organization has obtained an exemption under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. 501(c)(3)) and has registered as a non-profit organization with the appropriate state or local agencies providing for such registration.

§ 525.6 Issuance of a special certificate.

(a) If the application and other available information indicate that the applicant is a sheltered workshop within the meaning of § 525.2(a), that the clients of the workshop are paid commensurate with their productivity at the prevailing rates in the vicinity in regular commercial industry maintaining approved labor standards for the type of work being performed, and that the clients are unable to earn the applicable statutory minimum wage, the Administrator or his authorized representative shall issue a special certificate. Otherwise he shall deny a special certificate.

(b) If a special certificate is issued, a copy shall be sent to the workshop. If denied, the workshop shall be notified in writing of the denial.

(c) A special certificate may be issued for the entire workshop, a department of the workshop, an individual handicapped client or any combination thereof.

§ 525.7 Terms and conditions of a special certificate.

(a) A special certificate shall specify the terms and conditions under which it is granted.

(b) A special certificate shall apply to every handicapped client of the sheltered workshop or department thereof, for which the special certificate is granted.

(c) A special certificate shall be effective for a period to be designated by the Administrator or his authorized representative. Clients may be paid wages lower than the statutory minimum only during the effective period of a special certificate.

(d) A special certificate may provide a minimum wage rate below which a client may not be paid during a specified period or periods, designated as "training period" or "training periods", to allow for evaluation of the client's capacities and for job-training. Such rate may apply during the training period or periods specified to a client who has never previously worked in the workshop, or to a client who is transferred to a skilled or semi-skilled job in the workshop at which he has never previously worked, or to a client who has returned to the workshop after such period of separation as would require retraining.

(e) A special certificate may provide a minimum wage rate for the workshop or minimum wage rates for departments of the workshop below which a client may not be paid following completion of the specified training period or periods, unless a lower special individual wage rate has been authorized in such a special certificate for a client who is unable to earn the workshop or applicable department minimum wage rate.

(f) The wage rates paid clients working at time rates shall be based on the prevailing rates in the vicinity in regular commercial industry maintaining approved labor standards, taking into account the type, quality, and quantity of the work produced by the client. In no instance, however, shall wage rates be less than the hourly rate or rates specified in the special certificate.

(g) The wage rates paid clients working at piece rates shall not be less than prevailing piece rates paid non-handicapped employees in the same work in the vicinity in regular commercial industry maintaining approved labor standards. In the absence of industry piece rates, time studies or other tests may be used by the workshop to establish piece rates. Such time studies should be made with non-handicapped persons, although clients may be used in those situations where they are not handicapped for the type of work being tested and their production is comparable to that of non-handicapped persons of average ability. The base hourly rate used in making time studies should be not less than the prevailing rate in regular commercial industry for work requiring similar skill.

(h) Each client working at piece rates must be paid his full piece-rate earnings but not less than the hourly rate specified in the special certificate. Pooling of earnings is not permitted except where piece rates cannot be established for each individual worker, e.g., in a team operation where each worker's individual contribution to the finished product cannot be separately tallied.

(i) Clients of the workshop shall be paid not less than time and one-half the regular rate for all hours over forty worked in the workweek.

(j) The terms of any special certificate may be amended for cause upon request of the sheltered workshop or handicapped client or upon the initiative of the Administrator or his authorized representative.

§ 525.8 Renewal of a special certificate.

(a) Application may be filed for renewal of any special certificate. It shall be filed in the same manner as an original application.

(b) If an application for renewal has been properly and timely filed prior to the expiration date of a special certificate, the certificate shall remain in effect until the application for renewal has been granted or denied.

(c) Handicapped clients may be paid wages less than the statutory minimum after notice that the application for renewal has been denied, if review of such denial is requested in accordance with § 525.13: Provided, however, That if the denial is affirmed on review, the sheltered workshop shall reimburse any person covered by the special certificate in an amount equal to the difference between the applicable minimum wage and any lower wage paid such person subsequent to the effective date of denial.

§ 525.9 Workers other than handicapped clients in sheltered workshops.

No individual who is not a handicapped client within the meaning of § 525.2(b) shall be employed under any special certificate issued pursuant to this part at wages lower than the minimum required under section 6 of the Act.

§ 525.10 Industrial homework.

A special certificate issued pursuant to this part authorizes a sheltered workshop to employ a handicapped client in or about a home, apartment, tenement, or room in a residential establishment, without the necessity of obtaining a special industrial homeworker's certificate for such client under regulations of the Administrator governing the employment of industrial homeworkers; nor shall it be necessary for a sheltered workshop to obtain a special industrial homeworker's certificate for clients working in or about a home, apartment, tenement, or room in a residential establishment, who are earning the minimum required under section 6 of the Act.

(Sec. 11, 52 Stat. 1066, as amended; 29 U.S.C. 211)

§ 525.11 Records to be kept.

(a) Every sheltered workshop shall keep, maintain and have available for inspection by the Administrator or his authorized representative at all times a record of the nature of each client's disability and records that reflect the productivity of each client on a continuing basis or at periodic intervals not exceeding 6 months, and in addition the records required under all of the applicable provisions of Part 516 of this chapter, except that any provision pertaining to homeworker's handbooks shall not be applicable to clients of a sheltered workshop working in or about a home, apartment, tenement, or room in a residential establishment.

(b) Every sheltered workshop engaged in interstate commerce or in the production of goods for interstate commerce shall at all times post a poster, as prescribed by the Administrator, in a conspicuous place in the workshop where it may be observed readily by the handicapped clients and other workers in the workshop.

(Sec. 11, 51 Stat. 1066, as amended; 29 U.S.C. 211)

§ 525.12 Cancellation of a special certificate.

(a) The Administrator or his authorized representative may cancel any special certificate for cause. A special certificate may be canceled (1) as of the date of issuance, if it is found that fraud has been exercised in obtaining the special certificate or in permitting a handicapped client to work thereunder; (2) as of the date of violation, if it is found that any of the provisions of the Act or of the terms of the special certificate have been violated; or (3) as of the date of notice of cancellation, if it is found that the special certificate is no longer necessary in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment, or that the requirements of this part have not been complied with.

(b) If a petition for review is filed under § 525.13, the effective date of the cancellation shall be postponed until action is taken thereon: Provided, however, That if the cancellation order is affirmed on review, the workshop shall reimburse any person covered by the special certificate in an amount equal to the difference between the applicable minimum wage and any lower wage paid such person subsequent to the effective date of cancellation.

(c) Except in cases of willfulness or those in which the public interest requires otherwise, before any special certificate shall be canceled, facts or conduct which may warrant such action shall be called to the attention of the sheltered workshop in writing and it shall be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate or achieve compliance with all lawful requirements.

§ 525.13 Review.

Any person aggrieved by any action of an authorized representative of the Administrator taken pursuant to this part may, within 15 days or such additional time as the Administrator may allow, file with the Administrator a petition for review. Such review, if granted, shall be made either by the Administrator or by an authorized representative who took no part in the action under review, who may, to the extent he deems it appropriate, afford other interested persons an opportunity to present data and views.

§ 525.14 Submission of information, investigations, and hearings.

The Administrator or his authorized representative may require at any time the submission of such information, other than that specified elsewhere in this part, as is deemed appropriate, or may conduct an investigation, which may include a hearing prior to taking any action pursuant to this part. To the extent he deems appropriate, the Administrator or his authorized representative may provide an opportunity to other interested persons to present data and views.

§ 525.15 Relation to other laws.

Nothing contained in this part shall be construed as authorizing any act that is contrary to any Federal or State law or municipal ordinance.

§ 525.16 Amendment of this part.

The Administrator may at any time upon his own motion or upon written request of any interested person setting forth reasonable ground therefor, and after opportunity has been given to interested persons to present their views, amend or revoke any of the terms of this part.

Title 46—SHIPPING

Chapter I—Coast Guard, Department of the Treasury

SUBCHAPTER Q—SPECIFICATIONS

[CGFR 61-62]

PART 164—MATERIALS

Costs of Pre-Approval Tests of Materials, and Statutory Authorities for Material Specifications

The purpose for the amendments to 46 CFR 164.006-5(c)(4), 164.008-4(c)(2), and 164.009-4(c) is to change the procedures for approval to agree with present practices followed by the National Bureau of Standards. In lieu of requiring a check to cover estimated costs of the tests the manufacturer will be required to submit a commitment stating he will reimburse the National Bureau of Standards for the costs of the tests when billed by them. The National Bureau of Standards no longer requires advance payment of estimated costs of tests to be made by check payable to the Treasurer of the United States. The revised procedures require the payment be made direct to the National Bureau of Standards.

In accordance with 1 CFR 13.46, the citations of authority in 46 CFR Part 164 are brought up to date.

Because the amendments to the regulations in this document are changes in procedures, or changes considered to be editorial in nature, it is hereby found that compliance with the Administrative Procedure Act (respecting notice of proposed rule making, public rule making procedures thereon and effective date requirements thereof) is impracticable and unnecessary.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by Treasury Department Orders 120, dated July 31, 1950 (15 F.R. 6521), 167-14, dated November 26, 1954 (19 F.R. 8026), 167-20, dated June 18, 1956 (21 F.R. 4894), CGFR 56-28, dated July 24, 1956 (21 F.R. 5659), and 167-38, dated October 26, 1959 (24 F.R. 8857), the following amendments are prescribed and shall be in effect on and after the date of publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER:

PUMPS AND COMPRESSORS INDUSTRY

Hearing to Determine Prevailing Minimum Wages

Pursuant to section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003), notice is hereby given that a hearing to determine the prevailing minimum wages in the Pumps and Compressors Industry under section 1 of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (41 U.S.C. 35) will be held on January 30, 1962, at 10 o'clock, a.m. in Room 2325, United States Department of Labor Building, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D.C.

The Pumps and Compressors Industry is defined tentatively as that industry which manufactures hand and power-driven pumps, compressors, and pumping equipment, including parts especially designed therefor. Products of this industry include, but without limitation, industrial pumps, pumps for fluid power systems, hydraulic pumps, vacuum pumps, domestic water systems and pumps, domestic hand and windmill pumps, oil well and oil field pumps, air and gas compressors, tire inflators, and dusting and spraying outfits for metals, paints, and chemicals (except agricultural dusting and spraying machinery and equipment).

Excluded is the manufacture of refrigerating and air conditioning compressors, laboratory vacuum pumps, fuel pumps for motor vehicles, aircraft engine pumps, propeller feathering pumps, gasoline and oil measuring and dispensing pumps, grease guns, and agricultural dusting and spraying machinery and equipment.

Interested persons may appear at the hearing to submit evidence relative to the following subjects and issues: (1) Any amendments which should be made in the tentative definition of the industry, (2) whether the geographic area of competition for contracts subject to the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act for products in the industry extends to all the area in which the industry has its plants, so as to require industry-wide determination, or whether such competition is limited to smaller geographic areas (including the boundaries of such areas) so as to authorize separate wage determinations for each area or locality, and (3) what are the prevailing minimum wages for the areas for which determinations should be made. Interested persons may also submit evidence on the question of whether there is good cause to delay the effective date of any prevailing minimum wage determination made in a final decision in this proceeding for more than seven days after it is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. In two recent decisions in similar proceedings relating to the Manifold Business Forms Industry (26 F.R. 7698) and the Paper and Pulp Industry (26 F.R. 7699) good cause was found to shorten the delay in effective date to seven days since such determinations are only applicable to contracts for which bids are solicited or negotiations otherwise commenced on or after its effective date (26 F.R. 9042; 41 CFR 50–201.1) and consequently there would be sufficient time for potential contractors to adjust to any minimum wage obligations resulting from such a determination without undue postponement in the application of such a determination.

Data relating to competition in this industry for contracts subject to the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act have been collected by the Department of Labor. Employment and wage data in this industry for the payroll period ending nearest September 15, 1961, have also been gathered. This information will be submitted for consideration at the hearing, and is now available to interested persons.

Written statements may be filed with the Chief Hearing Examiner at any time prior to the hearing by persons who cannot appear personally. An original and three copies of any such statement shall be filed and shall include the reason or reasons for non-appearance. Such statements shall be under oath or affirmation, and will be offered in evidence at the hearing. If objection is made to the admission of any such statement, the presiding officer shall determine whether it will be received in evidence.

To the extent possible, the evidence of each witness and any sworn or affirmed statements of persons who cannot appear personally should permit evaluation on a plant-by-plant basis, and should state: (1) The number and location of establishments in the industry to which the testimony of such witness or such written statement is applicable, (2) the number of workers in each such establishment, (3) the minimum wage paid to covered workers presently and, if possible, on or about September 15, 1961, and the number of covered workers (41 CFR 50–201.-102) at each such establishment receiving such wages, and (4) the identity of any product not now included in the tentative definition of the industry which should be included and of any product now included which should be excluded.

The hearing shall be conducted pursuant to the rules of practice for minimum wage determinations under the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (41 CFR 50–203.15—203.22), and the amendments thereto published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 22, 1961 (26 F.R. 8945).

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 28th day of December 1961.

W. WILLARD WIRTZ,
Acting Secretary of Labor.

TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

Terpene Polychlorinates; Notice of Proposal To Establish a Higher Tolerance

An order was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of August 31, 1961 (26 F.R. 8172), establishing a tolerance of 3 parts per million for residues of terpene polychlorinates (chlorinated mixture of camphene, pinene, and related terpenes, containing 65–66 percent chlorine), calculated as a chlorinated terpene of molecular weight 396.6 containing 67 percent chlorine, in or on cottonseed. On December 8, 1961, an order was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (26 F.R. 11799) establishing a tolerance of 5 parts per million for residues of toxaphene (chlorinated camphene containing 67–69 percent chlorine), calculated as a chlorinated terpene of molecular weight 396.6 containing 67 percent chlorine, in or on cottonseed.

Since residues of these two pesticides are practically indistinguishable analytically, tolerances on cottonseed were established in terms of the same chlorinated intermediary. When the tolerance for toxaphene was established, the order provided that where tolerances are established for both terpene polychlorinates and toxaphene on the same raw agricultural commodities, the total amount of such pesticides shall not yield more residue than that permitted by the larger of the two tolerances, calculated as the chlorinated intermediary. In effect, this provision increased the tolerance limit for terpene polychlorinates on cottonseed to 5 parts per million. Consequently, for clarification the tolerance for terpene polychlorinates on cottonseed should be established at this level.

Available data show that residues of terpene polychlorinates on cottonseed at 5 parts per million will not be concentrated at a higher level in cottonseed oil or flour prepared for human consumption. The data also show that residues at this level in cottonseed meal and hulls from such cottonseed, when fed to livestock, will not result in residues in meat and milk, and that the proposed increase in tolerance will involve no hazard to health.

Accordingly, notice is given that the Commissioner of Food and Drugs, on his own initiative, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408(e), 68 Stat. 514; 21 U.S.C. 348(e)) and in accordance with the authority delegated to him by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (25 F.R. 8625), proposes to amend § 120.164 (21 CFR 120.164; 26 F.R. 8172) by changing the terpene polychlorinates residue tolerance in or on cottonseed to read as follows:

§ 120.164 Tolerance for terpene polychlorinates.

A tolerance of 5 parts per million is established for residues of terpene polychlorinates (chlorinated mixture of camphene, pinene, and related terpenes, containing 65–66 percent chlorine), calculated as a chlorinated terpene of molecular weight 396.6 containing 67 percent chlorine, in or on cottonseed.

Any person who has registered or who has submitted an application for the registration of an economic poison under the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act containing terpene polychlorinates may request, within 30 days from the publication of this proposal in the FEDERAL REGISTER, that the proposal be referred to an advisory committee in accordance with section 408(e) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act. Any interested person is invited at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER to file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D.C., written comments on the proposal. Comments may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof.

All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Dated: December 29, 1961.

JOHN L. HARVEY,
Deputy Commissioner of Food and Drugs.

RICE

Notice of Marketing Quota Referendum for 1962 Crop

Marketing quotas for the crop of rice to be produced in 1962 have been duly proclaimed pursuant to provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended. Said act requires a referendum to be conducted within 30 days after the date of the insurance of said proclamation of farmers who were engaged in the production of rice in 1961 to determine whether such farmers are in favor of or opposed to such quotas. Prior to establishing the date for the referendum on the 1962 crop of rice, public notice (26 F.R. 8675) was given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003) that it was proposed to hold the referendum on December 12, 1961. No data, views, or recommendations pertaining thereto were submitted pursuant to such notice. However, it was found necessary to delay the proclamation with respect to marketing quotas beyond the date originally anticipated and likewise to delay the date of the referendum. Such proclamation has now been made and it is hereby determined that the rice marketing quota referendum under said act for the 1962 crop of rice shall be held on January 23, 1962, which is within thirty days from the date of issuance of the proclamation of marketing quotas.

RETAILERS' INVENTORIES, SALES, NUMBER OF STORES

Notice of Determination To Continue Survey

Pursuant to the Act of Congress approved August 31, 1954, 13 U.S.C. 181, 224, and 225, and due Notice of Consideration having been published November 30, 1961 (26 F.R. 11301), I have determined that certain 1961 annual data for retail trade establishments are needed to provide a sound statistical basis for the formation of policy by various government agencies and are also applicable to a variety of public and business needs. The survey is part of a continuing Census series on retail trade, and for 1961 will cover year-end inventories, annual sales, and number of retail stores operated as of the end of the year. The data are not publicly available from non-governmental or other governmental sources.

Reports will be required only from a selected sample of retail establishments in the United States. The sample will provide, with measurable reliability, statistics on the subjects specified above. Reports will be requested from sampled stores on the basis of their sales size and/or location in Census Sample Areas. A group of the largest firms, in terms of number of retail stores, will be requested to report their sales summarized by geographic areas.

Report forms will be furnished to the firms covered by the survey and will be due 15 days after receipt. Additional copies of the forms are available on request to the Director, Bureau of the Census, Washington 25, D.C.

I have therefore directed that an annual survey be conducted for the purpose of collecting these data.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. CP62-110]

SOUTHWEST GAS CORP.

Notice of Application and Date of Hearing

DECEMBER 29, 1961.

Take notice that on October 30, 1961, as supplemented on November 3, 14 and 21, 1961, and December 6, 1961, Southwest Gas Corporation (Applicant), P.O. Box 271, Las Vegas, Nevada, filed in Docket No. CP62-110 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing Applicant to acquire by merger and to operate all of the facilities of Nevada Natural Gas Pipe Line Co. (Nevada Natural), to perform all acts and services now being performed by Nevada Natural, and to make all sales now being made by Nevada Natural, to the extent that such facilities, acts, services and sales are subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully set forth in the application, as supplemented, on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant is a public utility distributing natural gas at retail to some 40,000 customers in the States of Arizona, California and Nevada. Applicant buys gas from (1) El Paso Natural Gas Company (El Paso) for service in several towns in Arizona, (2) Pacific Gas and Electric Company for service in several towns in California and (3) Nevada Natural for service in Las Vegas, Nevada, and vicinity.

Nevada Natural owns and operates two parallel transmission lines extending from a connection with El Paso near the Arizona-Nevada state line north through a portion of California to the Las Vegas area where it sells gas to Applicant for resale in and near Las Vegas and to California-Pacific Utilities Company for resale in Henderson, Nevada, and to Boulder City, Nevada, for resale in Boulder City. Nevada Natural also transports and sells gas directly to six industrial customers near Las Vegas. Nevada Natural's facilities consist of approximately 223 miles of main transmission lines, 32.5 miles of sales laterals and other appurtenant facilities. In addition, Nevada Natural owns all the outstanding stock of the Utility Financial Corp. and the Carson Water Company.

The application shows that pursuant to the agreement of merger, dated August 15, 1961, Applicant proposes to issue on the effective date of the merger:

(1) 240,000 shares of $1.00 Dividend Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock, $5.00 par value, in exchange for 480,000 shares of $1.00 par value Common Capital Stock of Nevada Natural, or on a basis of one share for two shares.

(2) 19,806 shares of $1.50 Dividend Cumulative Preferred Capital Stock, $21.00 par value, in exchange for 19,806 shares of $1.50 Dividend Cumulative Preferred Capital Stock, $21.00 par value, issued and outstanding of Nevada Natural.

The application further shows that as of August 31, 1961, the total depreciated plants of Applicant and Nevada Natural were $12,434,167 and $5,893,404, respectively.

Required authorizations have been received from the appropriate regulatory agencies of Arizona and California.

Applicant as the surviving corporation will continue all services presently being rendered by Nevada Natural at the latters existing filed FPC rates; therefore, Applicant states that there will be no interruption or abandonment of service now being rendered by Nevada Natural.

Applicant requests that its name be substituted for that of Nevada Natural in all certificate authorizations heretofore granted to Nevada Natural by this Commission.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on January 25, 1962, at 9:30 a.m., e.s.t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30(c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before January 22, 1962. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

ARKANSAS FUEL OIL CORP. AND CITIES SERVICE CO.

Order Approving and Releasing Jurisdiction in Respect of Certain Fees and Expenses and Continuing Reservation of Jurisdiction in Respect of Other Requests for Allowances

DECEMBER 20, 1961.

In the matter of Arkansas Fuel Oil Corporation (Shreveport, Louisiana), Cities Service Company (New York, New York); File Nos. 54-223; 54-226; 54-227; 31-622; 54-186; 59-93; 70-1804.

In the above consolidated proceedings the Commission; pursuant to section 11(d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act"), among other things, approved a plan, as modified (Holding Company Act Release No. 14260, July 14, 1960, approved and enforced by the United States District Court for District of Delaware, No. 2223, September 2, 1960), to effectuate compliance with the order issued September 20, 1957 (Holding Company Act Release No. 13549) under section 11(b)(2) of the Act. Under the plan, as modified, the 48.5 percent publicly-held minority stock interest in Arkansas Fuel Oil Corporation ("Arkansas"), a subsidiary company of Cities Service Company ("Cities"), a registered holding company, was eliminated by the payment to the public stockholders of Arkansas, of $41 in cash per share, or a total of $75,577,186. In the order approving the section 11(d) plan, the Commission reserved jurisdiction in respect of the allowance and allocation of fees and expenses, incurred in connection with the consolidated proceedings, which are to be paid by Cities.

Pursuant to notice given by the Commission, applications for the allowance of the fees and expenses or the approval of sums paid therefor, have been filed by the various parties to and participants in the consolidated proceedings.

Subsequently, as a first step in the procedure for determining whether the fees requested are for compensable services rendered and whether the amounts of fees and expenses requested are reasonable, the Commission, in order to expedite the proceeding in respect thereof, and to assist it in making such determinations, requested Cities in writing (with a copy to each of the applicants) to advise the Commission, on or before July 25, 1961 (later extended to September 11, 1961), as to the amounts of fees and expenses which the Company is willing to pay and which each of the applicants, after negotiations with the company, has indicated a willingness to accept as settlement in full of his request for allowance of fees and expenses in connection with the consolidated proceeding. TOWNSEND MANAGEMENT CO.

Notice of Filing of Application for Order Permitting Closed-End Investment Company To Purchase Stock Issued by It

DECEMBER 28, 1961.

Notice is hereby given that Townsend Management Company ("TMC"), 38 Chatham Road, Short Hills, N.J., a registered closed-end, non-diversified investment company has filed an application under section 23(c)(3) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "Act") for an order exempting from the provisions of section 23(c) the proposed acquisition by TMC of 20,000 shares of its stock at $31 per share from Pennsylvania Investment and Real Estate Corporation ("PIRE").

The request of TMC is based upon the following representations and information contained in its application:

TMC owns (a) 163,431 shares of Class A common stock (non-voting) of FIF Associates, Inc. ("Associates"), (b) 18,159 shares (33.9 percent) of the Class B common stock (voting) of Associates, (c) 163,431 shares of Class A common stock (non-voting) of FIF Management Company ("Management"), and (d) 18,159 shares (32.7 percent) of the Class B common stock (voting) of Management.

Under an agreement dated November 10, 1959, TMC sold to PIRE 20,000 shares of TMC stock at $25 a share, and agreed to repurchase such shares upon demand two years thereafter at $31 per share, which is in excess of its current net asset value. The repurchase obligation was secured by a pledge of 36,000 shares of Class A common stock of Associates, 4,000 shares of Class B common stock of Associates, 36,000 shares of Class A common stock of Management, and 4,000 shares of Class B stock of Management.

TMC registered as an investment Company pursuant to the Act on June 19, 1960, and on April 24, 1961, this Commission commenced an action against TMC in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey ("Court") seeking injunctive relief with respect to alleged violations of, and seeking to enforce compliance with, certain sections of the Act. TMC consented to the entry of a final decree enjoining certain violations of the Act, specifying the procedure required for compliance with the Act, and appointing an interim board of directors ("Interim Board").

The decree directed that TMC take prompt action to divest itself, through sale or other distribution, of all of its holdings of Class A and Class B common stock in both Management and Associates, including the securities pledged under the repurchase agreement. The Interim Board has discussed many alternative methods of divesting TMC of these Securities, and has taken steps to investigate the possibility of a public offering as well as the possibility of a private sale. After negotiations, the Interim Board, subject to the Court's approval, has entered into contracts for the sale of all the securities, including the pledged securities, with two insurance companies and five individuals associated with them. In order to make delivery to the purchasers of all of the stock of Associates and Management that TMC owns, it must perform its agreement to repurchase the 20,000 shares of its stock held by PIRE.

The Application states that while the repurchase of the shares from PIRE would be at a price in excess of the current net asset value of TMC shares, it would not be an unfair discrimination against other shareholders since the purchase would be made pursuant to the terms of an agreement under which PIRE has contractual rights, secured by portfolio securities of TMC, beyond those of a shareholder.

Section 23(c)(3) of the Act prohibits a registered investment company from purchasing its own securities other than on a securities exchange or pursuant to tenders, except under such circumstances as the Commission may permit by order to insure that such purchases are made in a manner or on a basis which does not unfairly discriminate against any holders of the class of securities to be purchased. Since the proposed purchase by TCA from PIRE of the 20,000 shares of its stock does not involve purchase on a securities exchange or pursuant to tenders, such purchase is prohibited unless the Commission issues its order permitting it.

Notice is further given that any interested person may not later than January 11, 1962, submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (airmail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon TMC. Proof of such service (by affidavit or in case of an attorney-at-law by certificate) should be filed contemporaneously with the request. At any time after said date, as provided by Rule 0-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the showing contained in said application, unless an order or hearing upon said application shall be issued on request or upon the Commission's own motion.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter III—Federal Aviation Agency

SUBCHAPTER C—AIRCRAFT REGULATIONS

[Regulatory Docket No. 1019; Amdt. 383]

PART 507—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Fairchild Model F–27 Aircraft

Amendment 253, 26 F.R. 1241, requires replacement of the Walter Kidde chemical drier housing on Fairchild F–27 Series aircraft every 2,000 hours' time in service. Subsequently, the manufacturer has redesigned the housing to provide improved service life. Therefore, Amendment 253 is being superseded by a new directive which continues the provisions of Amendment 253, and, in addition, provides for the use of the new housing with longer replacement intervals.

Since this amendment imposes no additional burden on any person, and affords an alternative means of compliance, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and it may be made effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (25 F.R. 6489), § 507.10(a) of Part 507 (14 CFR Part 507) is hereby amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

FAIRCHILD. Applies to Walter Kidde Company Chemical Drier Housings, P/N 890395 and P/N 890800–0001, used on Fairchild F–27 Series aircraft.

Compliance required as indicated.

It has been determined that Walter Kidde Company Chemical Drier Housing, P/N 890395, is subject to cycling failure at a time limit lower than originally established by the manufacturer. Accordingly, the following shall be accomplished:

Chemical Drier Housing, P/N 890395, shall be removed from service at each 2,000 hours' time in service, or 2 years, whichever occurs first.

Chemical Drier Housing, P/N 890800–0001, may be installed as a replacement for P/N 890395. This replacement housing shall be removed from service at each 4,300 hours' time in service.

All housings shall be visually inspected at each cartridge change during their service life. If cracking, distortion or corrosion is evidenced, remove the housing for a detail inspection. If cracks or distortion are found in either the housing tube or end caps, or if corrosion is found in the threaded areas, the entire unit shall be replaced prior to further flight. Any surface corrosion, other than in the threaded areas, may be removed provided the wall thickness is not reduced below the following:

P/N 890800–0001: 0.206 inch.

After the removal of corrosion, clean the surface and apply a corrosive resistant finish.

(Fairchild Aircraft and Missiles Division Service Bulletin No. 36–6, Revision 1, covers this same subject.)

This supersedes AD 61–4–3.

This amendment shall become effective January 9, 1962.

PART 507—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Lockheed 49, 149, 649, 749, and 1049 Series Aircraft

Amendment 23 (AD 59–7–3) 24 F.R. 4651, as amended by Amendment 353, 26 F.R. 10097, requires inspection of the main landing gear cylinder cap weld on certain Lockheed 49, 149, 649, 749, and 1049 Series aircraft. As a result of additional failures it has been determined that the inspection techniques, procedures, and rejection criteria specified are not adequate. Better inspection techniques and different rejection criteria have been developed, and accordingly Amendment 23, as amended, is being superseded by a new directive.

As a situation exists which demands immediate action in the interest of safety, it is found that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable and good cause exists for making this amendment effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

In consideration of the foregoing and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (25 F.R. 6489), § 507.10(a) of Part 507 (14 CFR Part 507), is hereby amended by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

LOCKHEED. Applies to all Models 49, 149, 649, 749, and 1049 Series aircraft incorporating Cleveland Pneumatic Tool Company main landing gear cylinders, P/N's 9040–2, 9040A–2, 9106–2, 9291–2, 9291B–2, 9291B–2B, or 9291D–2.

Compliance required as indicated.

As a result of failures of the cap weld on main landing gear cylinders which have been returned to service following compliance with the provisions of AD 59–7–3, as amended (24 F.R. 4651 and 26 F.R. 10097) all aircraft shall be inspected and/or modified as follows:

(a) Within the next 400 hours' time in service after the effective date of this AD, unless already accomplished, all landing gear cylinders with cap welds which previously have been inspected by the double-wall gamma radiographic technique in compliance with AD 59–7–3, shall be reinspected in accordance with (c), or shall be replaced with cylinders which have been inspected in accordance with (c) and found to exhibit no evidence of cracks.

(b) Within the next 1,200 hours' time in service after the effective date of this AD, unless already accomplished, all landing gear cylinders with cap welds which previously have been radiographically inspected by a method other than the double-wall gamma technique in compliance with AD 59–7–3, shall be reinspected in accordance with (c), or shall be replaced with cylinders which have been inspected in accordance with (c) and found to exhibit no evidence of cracks.

(c) The inspection techniques and procedures to be applied to all cylinders noted in (a) and (b) shall be those prescribed by section B of Lockheed Field Service Letter No. FS/254049L, dated August 29, 1961, or FAA engineering approved equivalent. The entire periphery of the cap weld shall be inspected.

(d) Any cylinder with a cap weld which is found to exhibit any evidence of cracks when inspected as required by (a) or (b), shall be replaced prior to further flight of the aircraft. Cracked cylinders are not eligible for any further use in certificated aircraft.

(e) The cap welds on all cylinders which have been installed or which have been inspected, found to exhibit no evidence of cracks, and returned to service in accordance with (a) or (b), shall be reinspected in accordance with (c), at periods thereafter not to exceed 5,000 hours' time in service. The first periodic reinspection of any cylinder in service which, prior to the effective date of this AD, was inspected in the manner prescribed by (c) shall be accomplished within 5,000 hours' time in service following the date of that inspection.

(f) Cylinders with the cap welds which exhibit any evidence of cracks during any of these periodic reinspections shall be replaced prior to further flight of the aircraft. Cracked cylinders are not eligible for any further use in certificated aircraft.

(g) Upon request of the operator, an FAA maintenance inspector, subject to prior approval of the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, FAA Western Region, may adjust the repetitive inspection intervals specified in this Airworthiness Directive to permit compliance at an established inspection period of the operator if the request contains substantiating data to justify the increase for such operator.

(h) When the cylinders described above are replaced with new cylinders, TPC Co. P/N's 9040A–2A, 9106–2A, and 9291D–2A, incorporating flash welded caps, the inspections specified in (a) through (g), may be discontinued.

(Lockheed Field Service Letter FS/254049L covers this same subject.)

This supersedes AD 59–7–3.

This amendment shall become effective January 9, 1962.

(Sec. 313(a), 601, 603; 72 Stat. 752, 775, 776; 49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, 1423)

SUBCHAPTER E—AIR NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

[Airspace Docket No. 61–WA–119]

PART 602—DESIGNATION OF JET ROUTES, JET ADVISORY AREAS, AND HIGH ALTITUDE NAVIGATIONAL AIDS

Designation of Jet Advisory Area

On August 26, 1961, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (26 F.R. 8040), stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was considering the designation of a radar jet advisory area within 16 miles either side of Jet Route No. 50 from flight level 240 to flight level 390 inclusive, between Alexandria, La., and Crestview, Fla.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendment.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendment having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (25 F.R. 12582) and for reasons stated in the notice, the following action is taken:

In the text of § 602.200 Enroute Jet Advisory Areas (26 F.R. 7079) the following is added:

Jet Route No. 50 jet advisory area. Radar—Alexandria, La., to Crestview, Fla.

This amendment shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. March 8, 1962.

(Sec. 307(a), 72 Stat. 749; 49 U.S.C. 1348)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on January 3, 1962.

Director, Air Traffic Service.

[Airspace Docket No. 61–WA–234]

PART 608—SPECIAL USE AIRSPACE

Alteration of Restricted Area

The purpose of this amendment to § 608.48 of the regulations of the Administrator is to alter the descriptions of the Las Vegas, Nev., Restricted Areas R–4806 and R–4808 and the Tonopah, Nev., Restricted Area R–4807.

The Department of the Air Force has stated an urgent and immediate requirement for the alteration of R–4808. This alteration would include portions of R–4806 and R–4807 and would also entail the inclusion of approximately 145 square miles of airspace not previously designated. The Department of the Air Force has stated that this alteration and inclusion of additional airspace is required in support of a classified project and has justified this requirement as a matter of military urgency and necessity, and in the interest of national defense.

For the reasons stated above, the Administrator finds that a condition exists which requires expeditious action in the interest of national defense and safety and that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and that good cause exists for making this amendment effective on less than 30 days' notice.

In consideration of the foregoing and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (25 F.R. 12582), the following actions are taken:

In § 608.48 Nevada, the following changes are made:

PART 609—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

Miscellaneous Amendments

The amendments to standard instrument approach procedures contained herein are being adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety. The revised procedures supersede the existing procedures of the same classification now in effect for the airports specified therein. For the convenience of the users, the revised procedures specify the complete procedure and indicate the changes to the existing procedures.

As a situation exists which demands immediate action in the interests of safety in air commerce, I find that compliance with the notice, procedure and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be contrary to the public interest and is therefore not required.

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 5662), Part 609 is amended as follows:

1. The low or medium frequency range procedures prescribed in § 609.100(a) are amended to read in part:

LFR STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURE

Bearings, headings, courses and radials are magnetic. Elevations and altitudes are in feet MSL. Ceilings are in feet above airport elevation. Distances are in nautical miles unless otherwise indicated, except visibilities which are in statute miles.
If an instrument approach procedure of the above type is conducted at the below named airport, it shall be in accordance with the following instrument approach procedure, unless an approach is conducted in accordance with a different procedure for such airport authorized by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency. Initial approaches shall be made over specified routes. Minimum altitudes shall correspond with those estal lished for en route operation in the particular area or as set forth below.

Transition				Ceiling and visibility minimums
From—	To—	Course and distance	Minimum altitude (feet)	Condition	2-engine or less		More than 2-engine, more than 65 knots

Initial approaches shall be made over specified routes. Minimum altitude(s) shall correspond with those established for en route operation in the particular area or as set forth below. Positive identification must be established with the radar controller. From initial contact with radar to final authorized landing minimums, the instructions of the radar controller are mandatory except when (A) visual contact is established on final approach at or before descent to the authorized landing minimums, or (B) at pilot's discretion if it appears desirable to discontinue the approach, except when the radar controller may direct otherwise prior to final approach, a missed approach shall be executed as provided below when (A) communication on final approach is lost for more than 5 seconds during a precision approach, or for more than 30 seconds during a surveillance approach; (B) directed by radar controller; (C) visual contact is not established upon descent to authorized landing minimums; or (D) if landing is not accomplished.

PART 609—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

Miscellaneous Amendments

The amendments to standard instrument approach procedures contained herein are being adopted to become effective when indicated in order to promote safety. The revised procedures supersede the existing procedures of the same classification now in effect for the airports specified therein. For the convenience of the users, the revised procedures specify the complete procedure and indicate the changes to the existing procedures.

As a situation exists which demands immediate action in the interests of safety in air commerce, I find that compliance with the notice, procedure and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be contrary to the public interest and is therefore not required.

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 5662), Part 609 is amended as follows:

1. The low or medium frequency range procedures prescribed in § 609.100(a) are amended to read in part:

7. The radar procedures prescribed in § 609.500 are amended to read in part:

RADAR STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURE

Bearings, headings, courses and radials are magnetic. Elevations and altitudes are in feet, MSL. Ceilings are in feet above airport elevation. Distances are in nautical miles unless otherwise indicated, except visibilities which are in statute miles.

If a radar instrument approach is conducted at the below named airport, it shall be in accordance with the following instrument procedure, unless an approach is conducted in accordance with a different procedure for such airport authorized by the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency. Initial approaches shall be made over specified routes. Minimum altitude(s) shall correspond with those established for en route operation in the particular area or as set forth below. Positive identification must be established with the radar controller. From initial contact with radar to final authorized landing minimums, the instructions of the radar controller are mandatory except when (A) visual contact is established on final approach at or before descent to the authorized landing minimums, or (B) at pilot's discretion if it appears desirable to discontinue the approach, except when the radar controller may direct otherwise prior to final approach, a missed approach shall be executed as provided below when (A) communication on final approach is lost for more than 5 seconds during a precision approach, or for more than 30 seconds during a surveillance approach; (B) directed by radar controller; (C) visual contact is not established upon descent to authorized landing minimums or (D) if landing is not accomplished.

PART 3—DOCUMENTATION OF VESSELS

Trade With Noncontiguous Territory—Home Ports

Definition of noncontiguous territory; definition of home port; and clearances of vessels in trade with noncontiguous territories; §§ 3.1, 3.17, and 4.84, Customs Regulations, amended.

In view of an apparent inadvertency in amending the regulations following the admission of Alaska to the Union, § 3.1(g), Customs Regulations, is amended by deleting the words "Alaska and".

In view of the further amendment of section 1 of the Act of February 16, 1925 (46 U.S.C. 18), by Public Law 86-624 (74 Stat. 421), footnote 9 to § 3.17(a), Customs Regulations, which quotes section 1 in part, is similarly amended by striking out the words "Alaska, Hawaii, and".

(R.S. 161, sec. 2, 23 Stat. 118, as amended; 5 U.S.C. 22, 46 U.S.C. 2)

Section 4.84(a), Customs Regulations, provides for clearances of vessels in trade with noncontiguous territory of the United States, pursuant to the provisions of the Act of April 29, 1902, as amended (46 U.S.C. 95), but provides for an exception for Alaska and Hawaii pursuant to the amendment of April 7, 1948 (62 Stat. 161), to the above-cited act adopted when Alaska and Hawaii were territories of the United States. Upon the admission of Alaska and Hawaii to the Union, the provisions of the Act of April 29, 1902, as amended, became applicable to them as States. Accordingly, the first sentence of § 4.84 (a), Customs Regulations, is amended to delete the word "continental" in the phrase "the continental United States" appearing therein and to delete the clause of exception for Alaska and Hawaii at the end thereof so that that sentence will read as follows: "No vessel shall depart from a port in noncontiguous territory of the United States for any other port in such territory or for any port in the United States,[113a] nor from any port in the United States for any port in such territory, until a clearance for the vessel has been granted.[114]"

Part 4 is amended to add a new footnote designated as footnote 113a reading as follows:

[113a] The term "United States" as used in this section includes all the States and the District of Columbia.

[Lemon Reg. 932, Amdt. 1]

PART 910—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

Limitation of Handling

Findings. 1. Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 910, as amended (7 CFR Part 910), regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such lemons as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

2. It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this regulation until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001-1011) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and this amendment relieves restriction on the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona.

Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b)(1)(i) and (ii) of § 910.1039 (Lemon Regulation 932, 26 F.R. 12752) are hereby amended to read as follows:

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

SUBCHAPTER B—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

PART 121—FOOD ADDITIVES

Subpart D—Food Additives Permitted in Food for Human Consumption

FOOD STARCH-MODIFIED

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs has evaluated the data submitted in petitions submitted by the Corn Industries Research Foundation, Inc., 1001 Connecticut Avenue NW., Washington 6, D.C., Stein Hall and Company, Inc., 285 Madison Avenue, New York, New York, and A. E. Staley Manufacturing Company, Decatur, Illinois, proposing amendments to § 121.1031 of the food additive regulations for modified starch. In addition to requesting the amendments to provide for certain additional modifications of starch, the Corn Industries Research Foundation, Inc., requested that the name of the additive be changed to "food starch-modified." The petitioner also requested modification of paragraph (b)(2) of the regulations to permit substitution of a code number to fulfill the label requirement of how the starch has been modified.

Based upon the evidence submitted and after consideration of other relevant material, the Commissioner has concluded that the label of the additive should provide information as to how the starch has been modified, that the name of the additive should be changed as indicated, and that the following amendment to § 121.1031 should issue. Therefore, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 409(c)(1), 72 Stat. 1786; 21 U.S.C. 348(c)(1)), and under the authority delegated to the Commissioner by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (25 F.R. 8625), § 121.1031 (21 CFR 121.1031; 26 F.R. 6583, 7580) is amended in the following respects:

1. The name of the additive is changed to read "food starch-modified" in the section title, the introduction to the section, and paragraph (a), and paragraph (a) is further amended by adding thereto new subparagraphs (9) through (17) as follows:

§ 121.1031 Food starch-modified.

Food starch-modified may be safely used in foods as a thickener, to improve texture and palatability, and to impart stability, under the following prescribed conditions:

(a) Food starch-modified is a food starch which, in accordance with good manufacturing practice, has been structurally altered in part, in one of the following ways:

• • • • • •

(9) By treatment with hydrochloric acid or sulfuric acid.

(10) By treatment with not more than 5.0 percent acetic anhydride.

(11) By treatment with not more than 0.3 percent epichlorohydrin in the presence of not more than 5.0 percent acetic anhydride.

(12) By treatment with not more than 0.16 percent active oxygen obtained from hydrogen peroxide and/or peracetic acid.

(13) By treatment with not more than 7.5 percent vinyl acetate so as to provide no more than 2.5 percent acetyl groups.

(14) By treatment with not more than 0.1 percent phosphorus oxychloride and 8.0 percent propylene oxide and so processed as to remove unreacted residues of these ingredients.

(15) By treatment with not more than 0.5 percent sodium chlorite.

(16) By treatment with not more than 0.2 percent potassium permanganate and so processed that residues of manganese do not exceed 50 parts per million.

(17) By treatment with not more than 0.12 percent adipic anhydride in the presence of not more than 5.0 percent acetic anhydride.

2. Subparagraph (1) in paragraph (b) is changed to read as follows:

(b) • • •

(1) The name of the additive, "food starch-modified".

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington 25, D.C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by the order and specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and the grounds for the objections. If a hearing is requested, the objections must state the issues for the hearing. A hearing will be granted if the objections are supported by grounds legally sufficient to justify the relief sought. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall be effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 121—FOOD ADDITIVES

Subpart F—Food Additives Resulting From Contact With Containers or Equipment and Food Additives Otherwise Affecting Food

INDUSTRIAL STARCH-MODIFIED

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs, having evaluated the data submitted in a petition filed by the Corn Industries Research Foundation, Inc., 1001 Connecticut Avenue NW., Washington 6, D.C., and other relevant material has concluded that the following amendment to § 121.2506 of the food additives regulations should issue with respect to changing the name of the food additive "packaging starch" to "industrial starch-modified," permitting substitution of a code number to fulfill the label requirement as to how the starch is modified, and permitting use of the additive on textiles. Therefore, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 409(c)(1), 72 Stat. 1786; 21 U.S.C. 348(c)(1)), and under the authority delegated to the Commissioner by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (25 F.R. 8625), § 121.2506 of the food additive regulations (21 CFR 121.2506; 26 F.R. 189, 7581) is amended to read as follows:

§ 121.2506 Industrial starch-modified.

Industrial starch-modified may be safely used in the preparation of packaging materials under the following prescribed conditions:

(a) Industrial starch-modified is food starch-modified or starch which in accordance with good manufacturing practice has been structurally altered in part in one of the following ways:

(2) By treatment with not more than 3.0 percent β-diethylamino-ethylchloride hydrochloride.

(3) By treatment of food starch-modified (§ 121.1031(a)(1)) with not more than 0.3 percent epichlorohydrin.

(4) By treatment with not more than 1.0 percent sodium hydroxide.

(b) It is intended for use as follows:

(1) In the preparation of surface sizing or coatings for paper, paperboard, or textiles intended for food packaging.

(2) In the fabrication of other food packaging materials when so authorized by the regulations in this subpart f.

(c) To assure safe use of the additive, the label of the food additive container shall bear, in addition to the other information required by the act:

(1) The name of the additive.

(2) Information describing how the starch is modified.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D.C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by the order and specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and the grounds for the objections. If a hearing is requested, the objections must state the issues for the hearing. A hearing will be granted if the objections are supported by grounds legally sufficient to justify the relief sought. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall be effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(c) When a depositor whose account has been transferred to the regional controller as unclaimed requests payment, furnish him a Form 315 and instruct him to complete and send it, together with the endorsed certificates, to the regional controller where the account is held. Payment will be made by the regional controller direct to the depositor. Partial payment of unclaimed accounts will not be made; they must be paid in full.

The application must not be certified in the postmaster's name until the identification data in section E, page 4 has been verified with that on Form PS 600 to identify the applicant as the true depositor. Depositors must not be asked to apply for reissue of certificates to determine if the account record is correct. Any difference between item 39 of the postal savings records and the total of the Forms PS 600 should be shown on Form PS 607.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

§ 309.5 Adjustments for condition, equipment, and other considerations.

The basic values provided in § 309.3 shall be adjusted for individual vessels to the extent provided in paragraphs (a) to (d) of this section. The basic values provided in § 309.4 shall be adjusted for individual vessels to the extent provided in paragraphs (a) to (f) of this section.

(a) Adjustment for a vessel of substandard condition. If the Maritime Administrator is of the opinion that a vessel is not in class or is in substandard condition for a vessel of her type or subtype and age, there shall be subtracted from the basic value of such vessel, as determined pursuant to §§ 309.3 and 309.4, the amount estimated by the Administrator as the cost of putting the vessel in class or the amount estimated by the Administrator as the difference in value of the substandard vessel and a vessel in standard condition.

(b) Special equipment. For any special equipment of material utility in the handling of cargo or utilization of the vessel, not otherwise included in determining the basic value pursuant to § 309.3 or § 309.4, if the depreciated reproduction cost less construction subsidy, if any, of all such special equipment is in excess of $50,000.00, an allowance in such amount as the Maritime Administrator shall determine to be the fair and reasonable value of such equipment less construction-differential subsidy thereon, shall be added to the basic value.

(c) Government installations. The values provided by this part shall not include any allowance for any special installations or equipment to the extent that their cost was borne by the United States.

(d) Construction subsidized vessel. In the case of a construction subsidized vessel, for the period of insurance prior to requisition for title or use the valuation determined in accordance with § 309.3 shall be reduced by such proportion as the amount of construction subsidy paid with respect to the vessel bears to the entire construction cost and capital improvements thereof (excluding the cost of national defense features), and for the period of insurance after requisition for use the valuation determined in accordance with § 309.3 shall not exceed the amount which would be payable under section 802 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended (46 U.S.C. 1212), in the case of requisition for title or use.

(e) Speed. The basic values determined pursuant to § 309.4 for vessels built prior to 1939 shall be adjusted as provided in subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph.

(1) Allowance for speed or more than 11 knots. For vessels having a speed of more than 11 knots, there shall be added to the basic values provided in § 309.4 $0.15 per deadweight ton for each knot thereof in excess of 11 knots (fractions of knots to be prorated to the nearest one-fourth).

(2) Deductions for speeds of less than 9 knots. For vessels having a speed of less than 9 knots, there shall be deducted from the basic values provided in § 309.4 $0.15 per deadweight ton for each knot thereof less than 9 knots (fractions of knots to be prorated to the nearest one-fourth).

(f) Refrigeration. (1) The basic values determined pursuant to § 309.4 shall be adjusted for refrigerated space as provided in this paragraph, subject to the limitation provided in paragraph (c) of this section:

(2) The net cubic capacity of each separately insulated refrigerated compartment of the vessel, exclusive of any refrigerated space ordinarily required for vessel's stores, shall be computed, and the total cubic capacity of all such compartments shall then be ascertained.

(3) The number of net cubic feet of the sum of all refrigerated compartments of the vessel, exclusive of the refrigerated space ordinarily required for the vessel's stores, shall then be multiplied by $0.05 for vessels built prior to 1939.

§ 309.6 Definitions.

(a) Date vessel is built. The date a vessel is built is the date upon which the vessel is delivered by the shipbuilder.

(b) Deadweight tonnage. The deadweight tonnage of a vessel means her deadweight capacity established in accordance with normal Summer Freeboard as assigned pursuant to the International Load Line Convention, 1930, and shall be her capacity (in tons of 2,240 pounds) for cargo, fuel, fresh water, spare parts and stores, but exclusive of permanent ballast.

Notice is hereby given that the Securities and Exchange Commission has under consideration a proposed new rule, to be designated Rule 236 (§ 230.236), which would exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, under certain conditions, shares of stock of a corporation which are publicly offered to provide funds to be distributed in lieu of issuing fractional shares, script certificates or order forms, in connection with a stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, merger or similar transaction. The proposed new rule would be adopted pursuant to section 3(b) of the Act.

The condition of the proposed exemption are that the issuer files reports with the Commission pursuant to section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that the aggregate market value of all shares so offered in the transaction does not exceed $50,000 and that the issuer furnish certain information to the Commission at least ten days prior to the offering of the shares.

The text of the proposed rule follows:

§ 230.236 Exemption of shares offered in connection with transactions.

Shares of stock of a corporation offered to provide funds to be distributed to shareholders in lieu of issuing fractional shares, script certificates or order forms, in connection with a stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split, merger or similar transaction, shall be exempt from registration under the Act if the following conditions are met:

(a) The issuer of such shares files reports with the Commission pursuant to section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934;

(b) The aggregate market value of all shares offered in connection with the transaction for the purpose of providing such funds, computed upon the basis of such value at the time of the offering, does not exceed $50,000; and

(c) At least ten days prior to the offering of the shares, the issuer shall furnish to the Commission in writing the following information: (i) That it proposes to offer shares in reliance upon the exemption provided by this rule; (ii) the estimated number of shares to be so offered; (iii) the aggregate market value of such shares as of the latest practicable date; and (iv) a brief description of the transaction in connection with which the shares are to be offered.

(Secs. 3(b) and 19(a), 48 Stat. 75, 85, as amended, 15 U.S.C. 77c, 77s)

All interested persons are invited to submit their views and comments in writing to the Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C., on or before January 30, 1962. Except where nondisclosure is requested, all such communications will be considered available for public inspection.

[SEAL] MORTIMER M. CAPLIN, Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to conform the Estate Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 20) to Act of August 7, 1959 (Public Law 86-141, 73 Stat. 288); Act of August 21, 1959 (Public Law 86-175, 73 Stat. 396); to prescribe Estate Tax Regulations and Gift Tax Regulations under section 6165 of the Internal Revenue Code relating to bonds, and under sections 6061, 6065, and 6091 relating to signing, verification, and place for filing of returns and other documents; and to change cross-references such regulations are amended as follows:

ESTATE TAX REGULATIONS

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 20.2011 is amended by revising section 2011(e) and the historical note to read as follows:

§ 20.2011 Statutory provisions; credit for State death taxes.

SEC. 2011. Credit for State death taxes • • •

(e) Limitation in cases involving deduction under section 2053(d). In any case where a deduction is allowed under section 2053(d) for an estate, succession, legacy, or inheritance tax imposed by a State or Territory or the District of Columbia upon a transfer for public, charitable, or religious uses described in section 2055 or 2106(a)(2), the allowance of the credit under this section shall be subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The taxes described in subsection (a) shall not include any estate, succession, legacy, or inheritance tax for which such deduction is allowed under section 2053(d).

(2) The credit shall not exceed the lesser of—

(A) The amount stated in subsection (b) on a taxable estate determined by allowing such deduction authorized by section 2053(d), or

(B) That proportion of the amount stated in subsection (b) on a taxable estate determined without regard to such deduction authorized by section 2053(d) as (i) the amount of the taxes described in subsection (a), as limited by the provisions of paragraph (1) of this subsection, bears to (ii) the amount of the taxes described in subsection (a) before applying the limitation contained in paragraph (1) of this subsection.

(3) If the amount determined under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) is less than the amount determined under subparagraph (A) of that paragraph, then for purposes of subsection (d) such lesser amount shall be the maximum credit provided by subsection (b).

[Sec. 2011 as amended by sec. 3, Act of Feb. 20, 1956 (Public Law 414, 84th Cong., 70 Stat. 24); secs. 65(a) and 102(c)(1), Technical Amendments Act 1958 (72 Stat. 1657, 1674); sec. 3, Act of Aug. 21, 1959 (Public Law 86-175, 73 Stat. 397)]

PAR. 2. Section 20.2011-2 is revised to read as follows:

§ 20.2011-2 Limitation on credit if a deduction for State death taxes is allowed under section 2053(d).

If a deduction is allowed under section 2053(d) for State death taxes paid with respect to a charitable gift, the credit for State death taxes is subject to special limitations. Under these limitations, the credit cannot exceed the least of the following:

(a) The amount of State death taxes paid other than those for which a deduction is allowed under section 2053(d);

(b) The amount indicated in section 2011(b) to be the maximum credit allowable with respect to the decedent's taxable estate; or

(c) An amount, A, which bears the same ratio to B (the amount which would be the maximum credit allowable under section 2011(b) if the deduction under section 2053(d) for State death taxes were not allowed in computing the decedent's taxable estate) as C (the amount of State death taxes paid other than those for which a deduction is allowed under section 2053(d)) bears to D (the total amount of State death taxes paid). For the purpose of this computation, in determining what the decedent's taxable estate would be if the deduction for State death taxes under section 2053(d) were not allowed, adjustment must be made for the decrease in the deduction for charitable gifts under section 2055 or 2106(a)(2) (for estates of nonresidents not citizens) by reason of any increase in Federal estate tax which would be charged against the charitable gifts.

The application of this section may be illustrated by the following example:

EXAMPLE. The decedent died January 1, 1955, leaving a gross estate of $925,000. Expenses, indebtedness, etc., amounted to $25,000. The decedent bequeathed $400,000 to his son with the direction that the son bear the State death taxes on the bequest. The residuary estate was left to a charitable organization. Except as noted above, all Federal and State death taxes were payable out of the residuary estate. The State imposed death taxes of $60,000 on the son's bequest and death taxes of $75,000 on the bequest to charity. No death taxes were imposed by a foreign country with respect to any property in the gross estate. The decedent's taxable estate (determined without regard to the limitation imposed by section 2011(e)(2)(B)) is computed as follows:

PAR. 3. In § 20.2014 section 2014 is revised by deleting subsection (f) and the historical note and by substituting the following:

§ 20.2014 Statutory provisions; credit for foreign death taxes.

SEC. 2014. Credit for foreign death taxes • • •

(f) Additional limitation in cases involving a deduction under section 2053(d). In any case where a deduction is allowed under section 2053(d) for an estate, succession, legacy, or inheritance tax imposed by and actually paid to any foreign country upon a transfer by the decedent for public, charitable, or religious uses described in section 2055, the property described in subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) of paragraphs (1) and (2) of subsection (b) of this section shall not include any property in respect of which such deduction is allowed under section 2053(d).

(g) Possession of United States deemed a foreign country. For purposes of the credits authorized by this section, each possession of the United States shall be deemed to be a foreign country.

[Sec. 2014 as amended by sec. 102(c)(2), Technical Amendments Act 1958 (72 Stat. 1674); sec. 2, Act of Aug. 21, 1959 (Public Law 86-175, 73 Stat. 397)]

PAR. 4. Paragraph (a) of § 20.2014-1 is amended by inserting new subparagraph (4) to read as follows:

§ 20.2014-1 Credit for foreign death taxes.

(a) In general. • • •

(4) Where a deduction is allowed under section 2053(d) for foreign death taxes paid with respect to a charitable gift, the credit for foreign death taxes is subject to further limitations as explained in § 20.2014-7.

PAR. 5. Paragraph (a) of § 20.2014-2 is amended to read as follows:

§ 20.2014-2 "First limitation".

(a) The amount of a particular foreign death tax attributable to property situated in the country imposing the tax and included in the decedent's gross estate for Federal estate tax purposes is the "first limitation." Thus, the credit for any foreign death tax is limited to an amount, A, which bears the same ratio to B (the amount of the foreign death tax without allowance of credit, if any, for Federal estate tax) as C (the value of the property situated in the country imposing the foreign death tax, subjected to the foreign death tax, included in the gross estate and for which a deduction is not allowed under section 2053(d)) bears to D (the value of all property subjected to the foreign death tax). Stated algebraically, the "first limitation" (A) equals—

$$\frac{\text{Value of property in foreign country subjected to foreign death tax, included in gross estate and for which a deduction is not allowed under section 2053(d) (C)}}{\text{Value of all property subjected to foreign death tax (D)}} \times \text{Amount of foreign death tax (B)}$$

The values used in this proportion are the values determined for the purpose of the foreign death tax. The amount of the foreign death tax for which credit is allowable must be converted into United States money. The application of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following example:

PAR. 6. Paragraph (b) of § 20.2014-3 is amended to read as follows:

§ 20.2014-3 "Second limitation".

(b) Adjustment is required to factor "G" of the ratio stated in paragraph (a) of this section if a deduction for foreign death taxes under section 2053(d), a charitable deduction under section 2055, or a marital deduction under section 2056 is allowed with respect to the foreign property. If a deduction for foreign death taxes is allowed, the value of the property situated in the foreign country, subjected to foreign death tax, and included in the gross estate does not include the value of any property in respect of which the deduction for foreign death taxes is allowed. See § 20.2014-7. If a charitable deduction or a marital deduction is allowed, the value of such foreign property (after exclusion of the value of any property in respect of which the deduction for foreign death taxes is allowed) is reduced as follows:

(1) If a charitable deduction or a marital deduction is allowed to a decedent's estate with respect to any part of the foreign property, except foreign property in respect of which a deduction for foreign death taxes is allowed, specifically bequeathed, devised, or otherwise specifically passing to a charitable organization or to the decedent's spouse, the value of the foreign property is reduced by the amount of the charitable deduction or marital deduction allowed with respect to such specific transfer. See example (1) of paragraph (c) of this section.

(2) If a charitable deduction or a marital deduction is allowed to a decedent's estate with respect to a bequest, devise or other transfer of an interest in a group of assets including both the foreign property and other property, the value of the foreign property is reduced by an amount, I, which bears the same ratio to J (the amount of the charitable deduction or marital deduction allowed with respect to such transfer of an interest in a group of assets) as K (the value of the foreign property, except foreign property in respect of which a deduction for foreign death taxes is allowed, included in the group of assets) bears to L (the value of the entire group of assets). As used in this subparagraph, the term "group of assets" has reference to those assets which, under applicable law, are chargeable with the charitable or marital transfer. See example (2) of paragraph (c) of this section.

Any reduction described in subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph on account of the marital deduction must proportionately take into account the 50-percent limitation on the aggregate amount of the marital deduction contained in section 2056(c), if applicable. See example (3) of paragraph (c) of this section.

PAR. 7. Immediately after § 20.2014-6 insert the following new section:

§ 20.2014-7 Limitation on credit if a deduction for foreign death taxes is allowed under section 2053(d).

If a deduction is allowed under section 2053(d) for foreign death taxes paid with respect to a charitable gift, the credit for foreign death taxes is subject to special limitations. In such a case the property described in subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) of paragraphs (1) and (2) of section 2014(b) shall not include any property with respect to which a deduction is allowed under section 2053(d). The application of this section may be illustrated by the following example:

EXAMPLE. The decedent, a citizen of the United States, died July 1, 1955, leaving a gross estate of $1,200,000 consisting of: Shares of stock issued by United States corporations, valued at $600,000; bonds issued by the United States Government physically located in the United States, valued at $300,000; and shares of stock issued by a Country X corporation, valued at $300,000. Expenses, indebtedness, etc., amounted to $40,000. The decedent made specific bequests of $400,000 of the United States corporation stock to a niece and $100,000 of the Country X corporation stock to a nephew. The residue of his estate was left to charity. There is no death tax convention in existence between the United States and Country X. The Country X tax imposed was at a 50-percent rate on all beneficiaries. A State inheritance tax of $20,000 was imposed on the niece and nephew. The decedent did not provide in his will for the payment of the death taxes, and under local law the Federal estate tax is payable from the general estate, the same as administration expenses.

PAR. 8. Section 20.2038 is amended by adding at the end of section 2038 new subsection (c) and a historical note to read as follows:

§ 20.2038 Statutory provisions; revocable transfers.

SEC. 2038. Revocable transfers • • •

(c) Effect of disability in certain cases. For purposes of this section, in the case of a decedent who was (for a continuous period beginning not less than 3 months before December 31, 1947, and ending with his death) under a mental disability to relinquish a power, the term "power" shall not include a power the relinquishment of which on or after January 1, 1940, and on or before December 31, 1947, would, by reason of section 1000(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, be deemed not to be a transfer of property for purposes of chapter 4 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939.

[Sec. 2038 as amended by Act of Aug. 7, 1959 (Public Law 86–141, 73 Stat. 288)]

PAR. 9. Section 20.2038–1 is amended by adding at the end thereof new paragraph (f) as follows:

§ 20.2038–1 Revocable transfers.

• • • • •

(f) Effect of disability to relinquish power in certain cases. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in paragraphs (a) through (e) of this section the provisions of this section do not apply to a transfer if—

(1) The relinquishment on or after January 1, 1940, and on or before December 31, 1947, of the power would, by reason of section 1000(e), of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, be deemed not a transfer of property for the purpose of the gift tax under chapter 4 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1939, and

(2) The decedent was, for a continuous period beginning on or before September 30, 1947, and ending with his death, after August 16, 1954, under a mental disability to relinquish a power.

For the purpose of the foregoing provision, the term "mental disability" means mental incompetence, in fact, to release the power whether or not there was an adjudication of incompetence. Such provision shall apply even though a guardian could have released the power for the decedent. No interest shall be allowed or paid on any overpayment allowable under section 2038(c) with respect to amounts paid before August 7, 1959.

PAR. 10. Section 20.2053 is amended by revising section 2053(d) and the historical note to read as follows:

§ 20.2053 Statutory provisions; expenses, indebtedness, and taxes.

SEC. 2053. Expenses, indebtedness, and taxes • • • (d) Certain State and foreign death taxes—(1) General rule. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (c)(1)(B) of this section, for purposes of the tax imposed by section 2001 the value of the taxable estate may be determined, if the executor so elects before the expiration of the period of limitation for assessment provided in section 6501, by deducting from the value of the gross estate the amount (as determined in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate) of—

(A) Any estate, succession, legacy, or inheritance tax imposed by a State or Territory or the District of Columbia upon a transfer by the decedent for public, charitable, or religious uses described in section 2055 or 2106(a)(2), and

(B) Any estate, succession, legacy, or inheritance tax imposed by and actually paid to any foreign country, in respect of any property situated within such foreign country and included in the gross estate of a citizen or resident of the United States, upon a transfer by the decedent for public, charitable, or religious uses described in section 2055.

The determination under subparagraph (B) of the country within which property is situated shall be made in accordance with the rules applicable under subchapter B (sec. 2101 and following) in determining whether property is situated within or without the United States. Any election under this paragraph shall be exercised in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate.

(2) Condition for allowance of deduction. No deduction shall be allowed under paragraph (1) for a State death tax or a foreign death tax specified therein unless the decrease in the tax imposed by section 2001 which results from the deduction provided in paragraph (1) will inure solely for the benefit of the public, charitable, or religious transferees described in section 2055 or section 2106(a)(2). In any case where the tax imposed by section 2001 is equitably apportioned among all the transferees of property included in the gross estate, including those described in sections 2055 and 2106(a)(2) (taking into account any exemptions, credits, or deductions allowed by this chapter), in determining such decrease, there shall be disregarded any decrease in the Federal estate tax which any transferees other than those described in sections 2055 and 2106(a)(2) are required to pay.

(3) Effect on credits for State and foreign death taxes of deduction under this subsection—(A) Election. An election under this subsection shall be deemed a waiver of the right to claim a credit, against the Federal estate tax, under a death tax convention with any foreign country for any tax or portion thereof in respect of which a deduction is taken under this subsection.

(B) Cross references. See section 2011(e) for the effect of a deduction taken under this subsection on the credit for state death taxes, and see section 2014(f) for the effect of a deduction taken under this subsection on the credit for foreign death taxes.

[Sec. 2053 as amended by sec. 2, Act of Feb. 20, 1956 (Public Law 414, 84th Cong., 70 Stat. 23); sec. 102(c)(3), Technical Amendments Act 1958 (72 Stat. 1674); sec. 1, Act of Aug. 21, 1959, Public Law 86–175 (73 Stat. 396)]

PAR. 11. Immediately after § 20.2053–9 the following new section is added:

§ 20.2053–10 Deduction for certain foreign death taxes.

(a) General rule. A deduction is allowed the estate of a decedent dying on or after July 1, 1955, under section 2053(d) for the amount of any estate, succession, legacy, or inheritance tax imposed by and actually paid to any foreign country, in respect of any property situated within such foreign country and included in the gross estate of a citizen or resident of the United States, upon a transfer by the decedent for charitable, etc., uses described in section 2055, but only if (1) the conditions stated in paragraph (b) of this section are met, and (2) an election is made in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section. The determination of the country within which property is situated is made in accordance with the rules contained in §§ 20.2104 and 20.2105 in determining whether property is situated within or without the United States. See section 2014(f) and § 20.2014–7 for the effect which the allowance of this deduction has upon the credit for foreign death taxes.

(b) Condition for allowance of deduction. (1) The deduction is not allowed unless either—

(i) The entire decrease in the Federal estate tax resulting from the allowance of the deduction inures solely to the benefit of a charitable, etc., transferee described in section 2055, or

(ii) The Federal estate tax is equitably apportioned among all the transferees (including the decedent's surviving spouse and the charitable, etc., transferees) of property included in the decedent's gross estate.

For allowance of the deduction, it is sufficient if either of these conditions is satisfied. Thus, in a case where the entire decrease in Federal estate tax inures to the benefit of a charitable transferee, the deduction is allowable even though the Federal estate tax is not equitably apportioned among all the transferees of property included in the decedent's gross estate. Similarly, if the Federal estate tax is equitably apportioned among all the transferees of property included in the decedent's gross estate, the deduction is allowable even though a noncharitable transferee receives some benefit from the allowance of the deduction.

(2) For purposes of this paragraph, the Federal estate tax is considered to be equitably apportioned among all the transferees (including the decedent's surviving spouse and the charitable, etc., transferees) of property included in the decedent's gross estate only if each transferee's share of the tax is based upon the net amount of his bequest subjected to the tax (taking into account any exemptions, credits, or deductions allowed by chapter 11). See examples (2) through (5) of paragraph (e) of § 20.2053–9.

(c) Exercise of election. The election to take a deduction for a foreign death tax imposed upon a transfer for charitable, etc. uses shall be exercised by the executor by the filing of a written notification to that effect with the district director of internal revenue in whose district the estate tax return for the decedent's estate was filed. An election to take the deduction for foreign death taxes is deemed to be a waiver of the right to claim a credit under a treaty with any foreign country for any tax or portion thereof claimed as a deduction under this section. The notification shall be filed before the expiration of the period of limitation for assessment provided in section 6501 (usually 3 years from the last day for filing the return). The election may be revoked by the executor by the filing of a written notification to that effect with the district director at any time before the expiration of such period.

(d) Amount of foreign death tax imposed upon a transfer. If a foreign death tax is imposed upon the transfer of the entire part of the decedent's estate subject to such tax and not upon the transfer of a particular share thereof, the foreign death tax imposed upon a transfer for charitable, etc., uses is deemed to be an amount, J, which bears the same ratio to K (the amount of the foreign death tax imposed with respect to the transfer of the entire part of the decedent's estate subject to such tax) as M (the value of the charitable, etc., transfer, reduced as provided in the next sentence) bears to N (the total value of the properties, interests, and benefits subjected to the foreign death tax received by all persons interested in the estate, reduced as provided in the last sentence of this paragraph). In arriving at amount M of the ratio, the value of the charitable, etc., transfer is reduced by the amount of any deduction or exclusion allowed with respect to such property in determining the amount of the foreign death tax. In arriving at amount N of the ratio, the total value of the properties, interests, and benefits subjected to foreign death tax received by all persons interested in the estate is reduced by the amount of all deductions and exclusions allowed in determining the amount of the foreign death tax on account of the nature of a beneficiary or a beneficiary's relationship to the decedent.

PAR. 12. Immediately after § 20.6036–1 insert the following new sections:

§ 20.6061 Statutory provisions; signing of returns and other documents.

SEC. 6061. Signing of returns and other documents. • • • any return, statement, or other document required to be made under any provision of the internal revenue laws or regulations shall be signed in accordance with forms or regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate.

§ 20.6061–1 Signing of returns and other documents.

Any return, statement, or other document required to be made under any provision of chapter 11 or subtitle F of the Code or regulations prescribed thereunder with respect to any tax imposed by chapter 11 of the Code shall be signed by the executor, administrator or other person required or duly authorized to sign in accordance with the regulations, forms or instructions prescribed with respect to such return, statement, or other document. FORT HALL INDIAN IRRIGATION PROJECT, IDAHO

Operation and Maintenance Regulations

Basis and purpose. Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of the Interior by the acts of March 1, 1907 (34 Stat. 1024), August 1, 1914 (38 Stat. 583), and August 31, 1954 (68 Stat. 1026), it is proposed to amend §§ 221.32 through 221.36 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 25—Indians, dealing with the management and operation of the Fort Hall Indian Irrigation Project, as set forth below.

The amendment establishes an operation and maintenance assessment rate for the irrigation system of the Michaud Division, Fort Hall Indian Reservation, and provides that the annual assessment for all lands shall be due and payable on April 1 of each year instead of the present practice permitted under existing regulations, which allows water to be delivered upon payment of 50 percent of the annual assessment on the due date and the balance on or before July 1 of each year. The amendment also provides that no water shall be delivered to non-Indian owned lands or Indian owned lands which have been under lease for a total period of three years to non-Indians or Indians who are not members of the tribe until all assessments have been paid. In the case of Indian owned lands leased to non-Indians or non-members of the tribe, an approved lease must be filed with the Superintendent of the Fort Hall Indian Agency prior to the delivery of water.

It is the policy of the Department of the Interior, whenever practicable, to afford the public an opportunity to participate in the rule making process. Accordingly, interested persons may submit written comments, suggestions or objections with respect to the proposed amendment to the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Washington 25, D.C., within thirty days of the date of publication of the notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

1. Section 221.32 is amended to read as follows:

§ 221.32 Basic and other water charges.

(a) In compliance with the provisions for the acts of March 1, 1907 (34 Stat. 1024), and August 31, 1954 (68 Stat. 1026), the annual basic water charges for the operation and maintenance of the lands in non-Indian ownership and Indian owned lands leased to a non-Indian or non-member of the Shoshone-Bannock Tribe of the Fort Hall Indian Reservation, Idaho, to which water can be delivered for irrigation are hereby fixed for the calendar year 1962 and subsequent years until further notice as follows:

	Per acre
(1) Fort Hall Project: Basic rate	$3.75
(2) Michaud Division, Fort Hall Reservation: Basic rate	6.00
Additional rate for sprinkler irrigation when pressure is supplied by the project	3.00
(3) Minor Units, Fort Hall Reservation: Basic rate	1.25

(b) In addition to the foregoing charges, there shall be collected a minimum charge of $5.00 for the first acre or fraction thereof on each tract of land for which operation and maintenance bills are prepared. The minimum bill issue on any area will, therefore, be the basic rate per acre plus $5.00.

2. Section 221.33 is amended to read as follows:

§ 221.33 Payment.

The assessments fixed in § 221.32 shall become due on April 1 of each year and are payable on or before that date. To all assessments against lands in non-Indian ownership and against lands in Indian ownership which do not qualify for free water under § 221.34, there shall be added a penalty of one-half of one per cent per month or fraction thereof from the due date until paid. No water shall be delivered to any of these lands until the entire irrigation charges have been paid. To qualify Indian owned leased lands for exemption under § 221.34 an approved lease must be on file at the Fort Hall Agency.

3. The headnote and present text of § 221.34 are amended to read as follows:

§ 221.34 Lands owned by Indians that are not subject to assessments.

When lands owned by members of the Shoshone-Bannock Tribe of Indians of the Fort Hall Indian Reservation are leased to non-Indians or non-members of the tribe such leased lands are not subject to operation and maintenance assessments for three years. The three years that the land is not subject to assessment need not run consecutively. When the land has been leased for a total of three years, whether consecutively or at intervals, the lands thereafter, when under lease to non-Indians or non-members of the tribe, are subject to operation and maintenance assessments the same as lands in non-Indian ownership and lands owned by non-members of the tribe within the project. (See Solicitor's Opinion M28701, approved September 24, 1936, and the instructions of September 19, 1938, approved September 24, 1938, and instructions of December 1, 1938, approved December 17, 1938.)

4. The headnote and present text of § 221.35 are amended to read as follows:

§ 221.35 Lands owned by Indians that are subject to assessment.

Lands owned by members of the Shoshone-Bannock Tribe of Indians of the Fort Hall Indian Reservation which are under lease to non-Indians or non-members of the tribe shall not be entitled to water without the payment of operation and maintenance assessments as prescribed in § 221.33, except where water is to be furnished as authorized by § 221.34, of this part.

MILK IN CEDAR RAPIDS-IOWA CITY MARKETING AREA

Notice of Recommended Decision and Opportunity To File Written Exceptions on Proposed Amendments to Tentative Marketing Agreement and Order

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of this recommended decision of the Assistant Secretary, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement, and order regulating the handling of milk in the Cedar Rapids-Iowa City marketing area. Interested parties may file written exceptions to this decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D.C., not later than the close of business the 10th day after publication of this decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The hearing on the record of which the proposed amendments, as hereinafter set forth, to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, were formulated, was conducted at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, on October 19, 1961, pursuant to notice thereof which was issued September 28, 1961 (26 F.R. 9347).

The material issues on the record of the hearing relate to:

1. Individual handler pooling;
2. Pool plant qualification of a plant operated by a cooperative association; and
3. Diversion of producer milk from pool plants to nonpool plants.

The notice of hearing included proposals pertaining to the pricing of Class II milk. However, no evidence was presented on the record with respect to such proposals and, therefore, no issue is presented herein.

The notice also contained a proposal to modify the allocation provision of the order. The proponent of the proposal presented testimony on the record in support of the proposal but in its brief requested that the issue be abandoned. No other supporting testimony was received. Accordingly, the issue is not presented herein.

Findings and Conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on the material issues are based on evidence presented at the hearing and the record thereof:

1. Marketwide pooling should be continued in the Cedar Rapids-Iowa City order as the method of distributing to producers the use value of their milk.

A handler proposed that the order be amended to provide for individual handler pooling. Individual handler pooling would provide for payment of uniform prices for all milk delivered by producers delivering to the same handler depending on the use of the milk by the handler. Marketwide pooling provides for payment of uniform prices for all milk delivered by all producers to all handlers based upon the marketwide use of such milk.

The class utilization of milk in the market by handlers is not uniform. One handler in the market, the Eastern Iowa Cooperative Dairy Producers Association, handles most of the milk which is not needed for fluid purposes.

Distributing pool plants in the market tend to limit their purchases of milk to that amount required for use in Class I products plus what is used in ice cream and cottage cheese. They depend on the Eastern Iowa Cooperative Dairy Producers Association to care for excess supplies during periods of flush production and to furnish supplemental supplies during periods of short production. In addition to seasonal variations, handlers vary their purchases according to the day of the week. Some handlers do not take any milk from the cooperative on Sundays.

In a market such as this where one handler cares for the reserve supply for the market, an individual handler pool would not contribute the same degree of stability to the market that is accomplished through the present marketwide pool. The marketwide pool assures that all of the producers supplying the market share equally in the Class I sales in the market and that the burden of carrying reserve supplies is likewise shared equally among all producers.

2. The qualifications for pool plant status of a plant operated by a cooperative association under the order should be modified.

The order provides pool plant status for a plant operated by a cooperative association whose members are a majority of the total number of producers shipping to pool plants, and supply half or more of the total producer milk received at all pool plants during the month.

The Eastern Iowa Cooperative Dairy Producers Association, which represents over 70 percent of the producers supplying the market, proposed that such pool plant provisions be changed to afford pool plant status to a plant located within 10 miles of the marketing area which receives milk from dairy farmers and which is operated by a cooperative association having member producers whose milk is delivered to regulated plants of other handlers.

The association operates a plant located at Marion, Iowa, which is about four miles from the marketing area. This plant has facilities for receiving, cooling and storage of milk. It is used primarily for supplying spot loads of milk to distributing pool plants and assembling milk for shipment to other markets. The association supplies milk to all of the handlers in the market, however, two of the handlers also receive milk from other producers.

During 1960 distributing pool plants received 82 percent of their total milk supply from the members of the cooperative association. The proportion of such handlers' receipts from the cooperative association's members was at least 79 percent in all months of 1960.

In February 1961 the association failed to qualify its plant for pool status since, on February 1, 1961, the two largest handlers in the market obtained their entire supplies of milk from sources other than members of the Eastern Iowa Cooperative Dairy Producers Association. This was caused by a dispute arising in negotiation of prices above those established by the order. However, by early March both of these handlers resumed receiving milk from members of the association, but in limited amounts since a greater portion of their needs were being supplied by new producers.

Due to the increased amount of milk on the market from new producers, the proportion of milk received at distributing pool plants from members of the cooperative association has declined. By June 1961 the proportion of distributing pool plant receipts from members of the cooperative had dropped to 53.5 percent.

Pool plant status for the cooperative's plant became critical in July and the provision of the order which requires a cooperative to supply at least 50 percent of the milk received at other pool plants in order to have its plant qualify as a pool plant was suspended for the months of July and August 1961. It turned out that the cooperative did supply 50 percent of the milk received at other pool plants, however, this provision of the order should be changed in order to assure continued pool status for a cooperative's plant so long as its members' milk is associated with and needed in the market.

The provision proposed by the Eastern Iowa Cooperative Dairy Producers Association would qualify its plant for pool status on the basis of its location. However, there would be no assurance that its members' milk was sufficiently associated with and needed on the market to warrant pooling its plant as is the case under the present provision. Pool status of such a plant should continue to be based on performance standards which relate the cooperative's total supply of milk with distributing pool plants.

During 1960 the Eastern Iowa Cooperative Dairy Producers Association sold 78 percent of its members' milk to other pool plants. Its sales to pool plants varied seasonally from a low of 61 percent in June to 97 percent in November. The cooperative continues to sell a substantial proportion of its members' milk to pool plants.

From March through September 1961 the cooperative association sold 53 percent of its members' milk to other pool plants. During this period the proportion of such sales on a monthly basis varied from 41 percent in June to 72 percent in September. On many days in September 1961 virtually all of the cooperative association's supply of milk was sold to pool plants. Due to daily variation in demand by handlers, the monthly proportion of the cooperative association's supply received by other handlers was only 72 percent.

The amount of milk needed for bottling purposes is fairly constant from month to month. However, the available supply of producer milk is highest in the spring and lowest in the fall. Accordingly, the performance standards should be varied seasonally.

In view of the increased supply of milk on the market and that pool plants do not process the reserve supply, it cannot be expected that a majority of the available supplies be moved to such plants except during the season of short supply. Performance standards which would require that one-half the milk of members of a cooperative association be moved to distributing pool plants during September, October and November; 30 percent during May, June and July; and 40 percent in all other months, would assure that such milk is associated with and needed on the market. A cooperative association which supplies such proportions of the total milk of its producer members should be afforded pool plant status for any plant which it operates if the plant is approved by an appropriate health authority for the handling of Grade A milk. Pool status of such a plant would contribute to orderly marketing by allowing it to be used for storage of supplies that would be available to other handlers on short notice. In addition it could be used to assemble part loads of milk from farms for shipment to pool plants or transfer to nonpool plants.

3. The diversion provisions of the order should be modified to allow more liberal diversion of producer milk from farms to nonpool plants.

The order provides unlimited diversion during the months of April, May and June. During other months milk may be diverted on as many days as it is received at pool plants and still be pooled under the order. The entry of new producers on the market has resulted in the need to divert greater amounts of milk to nonpool plants since pool plants do not process the markets reserve supply. Direct movement of this reserve milk from farms to nonpool plants is the most economical means of handling it. However, the present diversion limits of the order are not liberal enough to allow this milk to be diverted and still be pooled under the order without being shipped to a pool plant and then transferred to a nonpool plant. The Eastern Iowa Cooperative Dairy Producers Association proposed that this be corrected by allowing milk to be pooled so long as it is not diverted for the entire month.

This cooperative association is the only handler experiencing difficulty with the present diversion limits since it is the sole handler of the increased reserve supply for the market. In order to keep its members' milk pooled, the cooperative association has had to bring the milk to its own plant and then transfer it to nonpool plants for manufacturing. Handlers have displaced producer milk of the cooperative association's members with milk from other producers. Since April 1961 the receipts of milk at distributing pool plants from producers who are not members of the Eastern Iowa Cooperative Dairy Producers Association has more than doubled. During the period April-September 1961 distributing pool plants received 28.7 million pounds of milk from such producers compared to 13.6 million pounds during the same period of 1960. The difference, an increase of 15.1 million pounds, was more than offset by the drop in sales of milk to such plants from the Eastern Iowa Cooperative Dairy Producers Association which were 58.1 million pounds during April through September 1960 and 39.5 million pounds for the same period of 1961, or a decrease of 18.6 million pounds.

Further evidence that this association has the role of caring for the reserve supply is that its sales of milk to handlers are inversely related to the normal seasonal production pattern while the opposite it true of such handler's receipts from other producers. For example, from July through September 1961 monthly receipts of milk at distributing pool plants from members of the Eastern Iowa Cooperative Dairy Producers Association increased from 5.5 million pounds to 7.7 million pounds while receipts from other producers dropped from 5.1 million pounds to 4.5 million pounds.

In addition to handling the seasonal reserve for the market this cooperative association handles the market's weekly reserve supply. Handlers tend to buy only enough milk from the Eastern Iowa Cooperative Dairy Producers Association to fulfill their daily bottling requirements. Handlers receive very little of the association's milk on weekends but take large amounts on Thursdays and Fridays. On these days during September 1961 virtually all of the cooperative's available supply of milk was received at distributing pool plants.

The present diversion limit applies during the period of July through March. Unlimited diversion is permitted during April, May and June. In 1958 these three months represented the lowest percentage of producer milk utilized in Class I. However, in 1959 the percentage of producer milk in Class I during July was lower than in April. During 1960 and 1961 a lower percentage of producer milk was utilized in Class I in both July and August than in April. In 1961 the percentage of producer milk utilized in Class I was 50 percent during July and 57 percent during August compared to 48 percent in June which was the month with the lowest percentage Class I use of producer milk. In addition, deliveries to distributing pool plants by members of the Eastern Iowa Cooperative Dairy Producers Association during these two months represented 42 percent and 51 percent of the association's total available supplies. To conform to this changed condition unlimited diversion should be extended to include the months of July and August. This change in the order will enhance orderly disposal of the seasonal reserve supply on the market. It would also help preclude any recurrence of the need for emergency action to assure that producer milk which is historically associated with the market be pooled under the order as was the case in July and August 1961.

The diversion limits applicable during the months of September through March should also be modified to allow the weekly reserve supply to be moved directly from farms to nonpool plants. Most of the available producer milk is needed at least one day of the week. Accordingly, this milk should be pooled to assure its continued availability and allow it to be diverted on other days. This is accomplished by providing for diversion of up to 25 days' production of a producer during such months.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs and proposed findings and conclusions were filed on behalf of certain interested parties. These briefs, proposed findings and conclusions and the evidence in the record were considered in making the findings and conclusions set forth above. To the extent that the suggested findings and conclusions filed by interested parties are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions set forth herein, the requests to make such findings or reach such conclusions are denied for the reasons previously stated in this decision.

General findings. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Recommended marketing agreement and order amending the order. The following order amending the order regulating the handling of milk in the Cedar Rapids-Iowa City marketing area is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out. The recommended marketing agreement is not included in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be the same as those contained in the order, as hereby proposed to be amended:

1. Delete paragraph (d) of § 1070.10 and substitute therefor the following:

(d) A plant (1) which is approved by a duly constituted health authority for the handling of Grade A milk; (2) which is operated by a cooperative association; and (3) from which the quantity of milk transferred by the association to plants of other handlers specified in paragraph (a) of this section plus that delivered by such association pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section and that delivered directly from the farms of members of such association to such plants is at least the following percentages, in the months indicated, of the total quantity of Grade A milk delivered by all producers who are members of the association:

Month:	Minimum percentage
September, October and November	50
May, June, and July	30
All other months	40

If written application is filed with the market administrator on or before the 5th day of any month, such plant may be designated a nonpool plant for such month and for any subsequent months, except such plant shall be a nonpool plant during any month in which it would be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the Act, unless a greater volume of fluid milk products is disposed of from such plant to retail or wholesale outlets and pool plants in the Cedar Rapids-Iowa City marketing area than in the marketing area regulated pursuant to such other order.

2. Delete § 1070.14 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 1070.14 Producer milk.

"Producer milk" means all skim milk and butterfat produced by producers which is:

(a) Received at a pool plant directly from producers; or

(b) Diverted from a pool plant to a nonpool plant for the account of the operator of a pool plant or a cooperative association, subject to the following:

(1) Such diversions may be without limit during the months of April through August, but not be for more than 25 days' production of any producer during any other month and milk diverted in excess of this limit shall not be producer milk;

(2) Milk so diverted for the account of the operator of a pool plant shall be deemed to have been received at the plant from which diverted; and

(3) Milk so diverted from the plant of another handler for the account of a cooperative association shall be priced at the location of the plant from which diverted.

Signed at Washington, D.C., on January 3, 1962.

JAMES T. RALPH,
Assistant Secretary.

ALLKOR INDUSTRIE UND KOMMERZ IMPORT-EXPORT-BUERO AND RUDOLF ROHL

Order Denying Export Privileges for an Indefinite Period

The Director, Investigations Staff, Bureau of International Programs, U.S. Department of Commerce, applied for an order which would deny to Allkor Industrie und Kommerz Import-Export-Buero and to Rudolf Rohl, Operngasse 36/5, Vienna IV, Austria, all export privileges for an indefinite period because of their failure to furnish responsive answers to written interrogatories served upon them in connection with an investigation being conducted under the authority of the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended.

This application was made pursuant to § 382.15 of the Export Regulations, and in acordance with the practice thereunder, was referred to a Compliance Commissioner of the Bureau of International Programs who, after reviewing the application and the evidentiary materials in support thereof, recommended that it be granted.

After reviewing and considering the Compliance Commissioner's Report, the application, and the evidence submitted in support of the application, I make the following findings:

(1) The firm Allkor and Rudolph Rohl, its director, were and are engaged in business and located in Vienna, Austria, where service of a subpoena upon them was impracticable;

(2) A proper investigation was and is being conducted by the Investigations Staff of the Bureau of International Programs to determine whether there occurred, as is suspected, an unauthorized disposition by the Allkor firm and Rudolf Rohl of specific electronic equipment exported from the United States, namely, an oscilloscope, a pulse generator, and two oscilloscope record-cameras;

(3) Written interrogatories were duly served upon the Allkor firm and Rudolf Rohl; and

(4) The Allkor firm and Rudolf Rohl did not answer the interrogatories within 10 days after service as required by written notification in the letter of interrogatories, and the Allkor firm and Rudolf Rohl's response to the letter of interrogatories which was subsequently furnished was not full, direct, and responsive to the questions, and did not contain satisfactory reasons for the Allkor firm and Rudolf Rohl's not furnishing adequate and responsive answers.

It is concluded therefore that the Allkor firm and Rudolf Rohl, without reasonable cause or adequate explanation, failed and refused to furnish responsive answers to the interrogatories duly served upon them as is required by § 382.15 of the Export Regulations.

Now, therefore, in view of the foregoing and being of the opinion that the following order is reasonable and necessary to protect the public interest and to achieve effective enforcement of the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, and regulations, licenses and orders pursuant thereto: It is hereby ordered:

I. All outstanding validated export licenses in which respondents, the Allkor firm and Rudolf Rohl, or either of them, appear or participate as purchaser, intermediate or ultimate consignee, or otherwise, are hereby revoked and shall be returned forthwith to the Bureau of International Programs for cancellation.

II. Said respondents, their successors or assigns, officers, partners, representatives, agents, and employees hereby are denied all privileges of participating, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, in any exportation of any commodity or technical data from the United States to any foreign destination, including Canada. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing denial of export privileges, participation in an exportation is deemed to include and prohibit their participation, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, (a) as parties or as representatives of a party to any validated export license application, (b) in the preparation or filing of any export license application or of any document to be submitted therewith, (c) in the obtaining or using of any validated or general export license or other export control document, (d) in the receiving, ordering, buying, selling, delivering, using, or disposing in any foreign country of any commodities or technical data in whole or in part exported or to be exported from the United States, and (e) in the storing, financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of such exports from the United States.

III. This denial of export privileges shall extend not only to the respondents, but also to any person, firm, corporation, or business organization with which either of them may be now or hereafter related by affiliation, ownership, control, position of responsibility, or other connection in the conduct of trade which may involve exports from the United States or services connected therewith.

IV. This order shall remain in effect until the respondents provide satisfactory answers, written information and documents in response to the interrogatories heretofore served upon them or give adequate reasons for their failure so to do, except insofar as this order may be amended or modified hereafter in accordance with the Export Regulations.

V. During the time when any respondent or related party is prohibited from engaging in any activity within the scope of Part II hereof, no person, firm, corporation, partnership or other business organization, whether in the United States or elsewhere, without prior disclosure to and specific authorization from the Bureau of International Programs, shall do any of the following acts, directly or indirectly, in any manner or capacity, on behalf of or in any association with any such respondent or related party, or whereby any such respondent or related party may obtain any benefit therefrom or have any interest or participation therein, directly or indirectly: (a) Apply for, obtain, transfer, or use any license, shipper's export declaration, bill of lading, or other export control document relating to any exportation, reexportation, transshipment, or diversion of any commodity or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States, by, to or for any such respondent or related party denied export privileges; or (b) order, buy, receive, use, sell, deliver, store, dispose of, forward, transport, finance, or otherwise service or participate in, any exportation, reexportation, transshipment, or diversion of any commodity or technical data exported or to be exported from the United States.

Acting Director,
Office of Export Control.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket 13324 etc., Order No. E-17900]

TRANS WORLD AIRLINES, INC.

Order of Investigation and Suspension

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C. on the 4th day of January 1962.

In the matter of reduced eastbound freight rates on perishables proposed by Trans World Airlines, Inc., Dockets 13324, 13307, 13309.

By tariff revisions marked to become effective January 7, 1962, Trans World Airlines, Inc. (TWA) proposes significantly lower rates at selected weight breaks on gladioli, iris, fresh fruits and vegetables, and seafood from Los Angeles and/or San Francisco to midwest and eastern markets. The proposals, except for that on seafood, would have an expiry date of June 30, 1962. TWA asserts that gladioli and iris have considerably higher densities and are hardier than other species of flowers, that California flower growers are at a rate disadvantage, which the proposals would reduce, in eastern markets as compared with Florida growers; that the proposals on fruits and vegetables would divert "quality" shipments from surface transport; that large gains in traffic are expected to result from the filings on flowers, fruits and vegetables, and that such gains would coincide with the lowest volume of normal eastbound traffic.

American Airlines, Inc. (American) and The Flying Tiger Line Inc. (Tiger) have filed complaints requesting investigation and suspension of these proposals. In summary, the complaints allege that the proposals are below competitive levels and would dilute carrier revenues without adequate justification: that there is no difference in transportation cost characteristics, warranting rate differences between gladioli and iris and other species of cut flowers; that the proposals would still leave California growers at a substantial rate disadvantage in comparison with Florida; that large quantities of fruits and vegetables are now being flown from California, and it is very doubtful whether the proposed reductions would develop substantial additional volumes of traffic; that the Board had, in recent actions, suspended equal or even higher rates on the same commodities; and that the proposals are below TWA's operating costs.

Upon consideration of the matters of record, the Board finds that the rates proposed may be unjust or unreasonable, or unjustly discriminatory, or unduly preferential, or unduly prejudicial, and should be investigated. The rates filed would significantly undercut competitive rates in effect for other carriers, by almost 20 percent for gladioli and iris, almost 10 percent for fresh fruits and vegetables, and 6 to 18 percent for seafood. For fruits and vegetables, the yields from the proposed rates would be low even for eastbound movements (which would involve directional imbalance), averaging about 10.5 cents per ton-mile, ranging as low as 9.7 cents; the proposals would typically be the lowest 100 pound rates in effect for any commodity for any carrier in the markets in which they are to apply. For gladioli and iris, the yields would average approximately 12.5 cents per ton-mile, significantly low for flowers, which have traditionally been hauled at higher rates than numerous other commodities eastbound. Although TWA claims that costs of transporting gladioli and iris are lower than on other species of flowers, it presents no data showing that the cost decreases are reasonably related to the decreases in rates proposed. The reduced rates proposed on seafood are also on a low level, yielding 11.8 cents per ton-mile, for which TWA offers no justification. Finally, we are not convinced on the basis of the facts available that significant volumes of these commodities would be attracted to air transportation from existing surface means.

As the Board has previously stated, it is important that the industry have "maximum flexibility and opportunity to experiment with promotional rates designed to increase air cargo traffic," (Order E–16432, dated February 24, 1961), but, as the Board added at that time, such experimentation must be "within the limits imposed by the rate-making criteria of the Act." In view of the significant reductions and the low levels of the proposed rates, the Board is not satisfied that the instant proposal meets such criteria. Because of the dilution of carrier revenues which might result from the application of the foregoing rates, the Board has concluded, in addition to instituting an investigation, to suspend these portions of the tariff revisions and defer their use pending investigation.

Accordingly, pursuant to the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 and particularly sections 204(a) and 1002 thereof,

It is ordered, That:

1. An investigation is instituted to determine whether the rates and provisions described in Appendix A[1] are, or will be, unjust or unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, unduly preferential, unduly prejudicial, or otherwise unlawful, and if found to be unlawful, to determine and prescribe the lawful rates and provisions.

2. Pending hearing and decision by the Board, the rates and provisions described in Appendix A[1] are suspended and their use deferred to and including April 6, 1962, unless otherwise ordered by the Board and that no changes be made therein during the period of suspension except by order or special permission of the Board.

3. The complaints in Dockets 13307 and 13309 are consolidated herein.

4. The proceeding ordered herein be assigned for hearing before an examiner of the Board at a time and place hereafter to be designated.

5. Copies of this order shall be filed with the tariff and shall be served upon American Airlines, Inc., The Flying Tiger Line Inc., and Trans World Airlines, Inc., which are hereby made parties to this proceeding.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[SEAL] HAROLD R. SANDERSON,
Secretary.

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

[Docket No. 954 (Sub-1)]

ATLANTIC-GULF/PUERTO RICO TRADE

Investigation of Rates and Practices; Notice of Supplemental Order

On December 21, 1961, the Federal Maritime Commission entered the following Second Supplemental Order to the original order in this proceeding dated November 13, 1961.

It appearing that there is currently pending in this proceeding an investigation into and concerning certain rates and practices from Atlantic and Gulf coast ports of the United States to ports in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico which became effective November 13, 1961, and on various dates thereafter; and

It further appearing that A. H. Bull Steamship Co. and American Union Transport, Inc. have been named respondents in this proceeding; and

It further appearing that there has been filed with the Federal Maritime Commission (Commission) by the A. H. Bull Steamship Co. a 7th revised page No. 81 to its Outward Freight Tariff No. 1, FMB–F No. 1 which became effective November 14, 1961, which page contains a new provision designated as "Note G" providing that an allowance of 10 percent will be made on buses stowed "on deck" of carrier's vessel when same is for the convenience of the carrier; and

It further appearing that said allowance may result in an unjust and unreasonable rate on buses which has been instituted by A. H. Bull Steamship Co. solely to meet the competition of American Union Transport, Inc. whose tariff publishes similar provisions, i.e. Rule 25, which provides that an allowance of 10 percent will be made on vehicles stowed "on deck" of the carriers vessel when same is for the convenience of the carrier; and

It further appearing that the Commission is of the opinion that said provisions as well as the rate on buses and vehicles to which they apply should be made the subject of a public investigation and hearing to determine whether they are just, reasonable, and otherwise lawful under the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended, or the Intercoastal Shipping Act, 1933, as amended;

Now therefore it is ordered, That this proceeding be, and it hereby is, expanded to include, in addition to the matters now under investigation, an investigation of and a hearing concerning, the lawfulness under the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended, or the Intercoastal Shipping Act, 1933, as amended, of Note G and the rate on "Buses, empty, boxed or unboxed", published on seventh revised page No. 81 of A. H. Bull Steamship Co.'s Outward Freight Tariff No. 1, FMB–F No. 1, and of Rule 25 on third revised page No. 11 and the rate on vehicles published on first revised page No. 44 of American Union Transport, Inc.'s Southbound Freight Tariff No. 6, FMB–F No. 6, with a view to making such findings and orders in the premises as the facts and circumstances shall warrant; and

It is further ordered, That all subsequent revisions of the said rates and provisions subsequently filed by the respondents in this proceeding, be, and they are hereby, placed under investigation in this proceeding; and

It is further ordered, That copies of this order shall be filed with the said tariff schedules in the Bureau of Domestic Regulation of the Federal Maritime Commission; and

It is further ordered, That (I) the investigation herein ordered be assigned for public hearing before an examiner of the Commission's Office of Hearing Examiners, at a date and place to be determined and announced by the Chief Examiner, to receive evidence in this proceeding, which will provide an adequate record for proper disposition of the issues and that an initial decision be issued; (II) a copy of this order shall forthwith be served upon the American Union Transport, Inc. and the A. H. Bull Steamship Co., and all others heretofore named respondents hereto; (III) the said respondents be duly notified of the time and place of the hearing ordered; and (IV) this order and notice of the said hearing be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: January 4, 1962.

By order of the Federal Maritime Commission.

Secretary.

Applicant has made arrangements to sell the subject facilities if permission and approval to abandon are received.

The Otis compressor facilities were certificated by the Commission in Docket No. G–667 on May 28, 1946.

The original cost of the subject facilities was $101,911, which has been depreciated by $90,311. Applicant proposes to sell the facilities for $25,000.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on January 30, 1962, at 9:30 a.m., e.s.t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30(c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Take notice that on December 27, 1961, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission pursuant to section 204 of the Federal Power Act by Duke Power Company (Applicant), a corporation organized under the laws of the State of New Jersey and qualified to do business as a foreign corporation in the States of North Carolina and South Carolina, with its principal place of business at Charlotte, North Carolina, seeking an order authorizing the issuance of $50,000,000, principal amount of First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds (Bonds) due 1992.

On or about February 7, 1962, Applicant proposes to invite bids for the purchase of the Bonds, which will be dated February 1, 1962 and which will bear interest from their date at an annual rate to be fixed by competitive bidding. The Bonds will be issued under Applicant's Indenture, dated December 1, 1927, to Guaranty Trust Company of New York (now Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York), as Trustee, as heretofore supplemented and amended, and as to be further supplemented and amended by a proposed Supplemental Indenture to be executed by Applicant and the above-mentioned Trustee and to be dated as of February 1, 1962. The proceeds from the proposed sale of the Bonds will be applied and used by Applicant for the purpose of financing in part the cost of construction of additions to its electric generating, transmission and distribution facilities and also for reimbursing, in whole or in part, its treasury for expenditures heretofore made and to be made by Applicant for such purpose between September 1, 1961 and February 28, 1962, including payment by Applicant of any short-term notes heretofore or hereafter issued by Applicant for the afore-mentioned purposes pending the issuance of the Bonds.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before the 22d day of January 1962, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., petitions or protests in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). The application is on file and available for public inspection.

GORDON M. GRANT,
Acting Secretary.

[File No. 812-1419]

EQUITY ANNUITY LIFE INSURANCE CO.

Notice of Application for Relief From Undertaking

JANUARY 2, 1962.

Notice is hereby given that Equity Annuity Life Insurance Company ("Ealic"), 2480 16th Street NW., Washington, D.C., an open-end investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act") has filed, pursuant to section 6(c) of the Act, an application for an order of the Commission relieving Ealic from its undertaking to maintain reserves for variable annuity contracts in the pay-out period of not less than 125 percent of the reserves required for such contracts by the Life Insurance Act of the District of Columbia ("Insurance Act"). This undertaking was made in connection with an earlier application by Ealic to exempt Ealic's issuance of variable annuity contracts from certain provisions of the Act, including the prohibitions of section 18(f)(1) against the issuance of senior securities.

The Commission's Order of February 25, 1960 (Investment Company Act Release No. 2975), granted the requested exemption and the Commission's findings and opinion, on the basis of which such order was issued, referred to this undertaking as one of the substantial protections which exist to minimize the possibility that the risks involved in selling and administering the variable annuity and insurance contracts and the mortality risks inherent in the variable annuity contracts will not devolve upon the variable annuity contract holders.

Ealic points out that since the Commission's order of February 25, 1960, the Insurance Act has been amended to provide for the establishment of separate accounts in connection with the issuance of variable annuity contracts. Among other things, the new law provides that "Any surplus or deficit which may arise in any such separate account by virtue of mortality experience shall be adjusted by withdrawals from or additions to such account so that the assets of such account shall always equal the assets required to satisfy the company's obligations for such variable payments." The new law also provides that "the assets of such separate account shall not be chargeable with liabilities arising out of any other business the company may conduct."

The application states that because the new law insulates the assets held in the separate account from the other liabilities of the company, and requires that the assets in such segregated account must always equal the liability of the company under variable annuity contracts, maintenance of the additional reserve of 25 percent is no longer necessary to assure the financial integrity of such account.

In this connection Ealic points out that, in accordance with its undertaking in connection with the Commission's order of February 25, 1960, it will continue to reinsure all of its liabilities incurred as a result of the life and disability insurance written in connection with variable annuity contracts and that it does not presently intend to issue any other form of conventional insurance.

Section 6(c) of the Act authorizes the Commission by order upon application to exempt, conditionally or unconditionally, any transaction from any provision of the Act or of any rule or regulation thereunder, if and to the extent that the Commission finds that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than January 16, 1962, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission shall order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (airmail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon applicant. Proof of such service (by affidavit or in case of an attorney-at-law by certificate) should be filed contemporaneously with the request. At any time after said date, as provided by Rule O-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the showing contained in said application, unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

PART 728—WHEAT

Subpart—Regulations Pertaining to Farm Acreage Allotments for 1960 and Subsequent Crops of Wheat

Basis and purpose. This amendment is issued to redesignate subparagraph (8) of § 728.1017b(b) as subparagraph (7). This amendment is required because subparagraph (6) was deleted and subparagraph (7) was designated subparagraph (6) by amendment 14 published in Federal Register Doc. 61-10266 (26 F.R. 10095). Subparagraph (8) was not redesignated. Since this amendment is for the purpose of providing the proper numbering of subparagraphs of § 728.1017b(b), compliance with the public notice, procedure and 30-day effective date provisions of section 4 of the Amendment Procedure Act is impracticable and contrary to the public interest. Therefore, the amendment shall become effective upon its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Section 728.1017b(b) is amended by redesignation of subparagraph "(8)" as subparagraph "(7)."

(Secs. 334, 375, 377, 52 Stat. 53, as amended, 66, 71 Stat. 592, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1334, 1375, 1377)

PART 13—PROHIBITED TRADE PRACTICES

Neiman-Marcus Company

Subpart—Advertising falsely or misleadingly: § 13.155 Prices: § 13.155-40 Exaggerated as regular and customary; § 13.155-45 Fictitious marking; § 13.155-70 Percentage savings.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 721; 15 U.S.C. 46. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; sec. 8, 65 Stat. 179; 15 U.S.C. 45, 69f) [Cease and desist order, Neiman-Marcus Company, Dallas, Tex., Docket 8249, Sept. 28, 1961]

Consent order requiring a Dallas, Tex., department store to cease violating the Fur Products Labeling Act by advertising fictitious amounts as the usual prices for fur products in newspapers, through use of the term "comparable value" or the word "originally" with a larger figure followed by a purportedly reduced sale price; by representing prices falsely as "40% off" and "reductions---- ⅓ to ½ off"; and by failing to keep adequate records as a basis for pricing claims.

The order to cease and desist is as follows:

It is ordered, That Neiman-Marcus Company, a corporation, and its officers, and respondent's representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the introduction into commerce, or the sale, advertising, or offering for sale in commerce, or the transportation or distribution in commerce, of fur products, or in connection with the sale, advertising, offering for sale, transportation or distribution in commerce, of fur products, or in connection with the sale, advertising, offering for sale, transportation or distribution of fur products which are made in whole or in part of fur which has been shipped and received in commerce, as "commerce", "fur" and "fur product" are defined in the Fur Products Labeling Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

A. Falsely or deceptively advertising fur products through the use of any advertisement, representation, public announcement or notice which is intended to aid, promote or assist, directly or indirectly, in the sale, or the offering for sale, of fur products, and which:

1. Represents, directly or by implication, that any price is respondent's usual retail price when it is in excess of the price at which the merchandise has been usually and customarily sold by respondent at retail in the recent, regular course of business.

2. Represents, directly or by implication, that the price at which respondent offers fur products affords a savings to consumers unless such representation is true and the basis of such representation is truthfully stated.

3. Uses the term "originally" to designate prices unless they are the prices at which the merchandise has been usually and customarily sold by respondent in the recent, regular course of business.

4. Designates prices of fur products by the term "comparable value", or any other term of the same import, in connection with lower prices, in such manner as to represent that the prices so designated are respondent's usual and customary retail selling prices in the recent, regular course of business, unless they are such in fact.

5. Represents, directly or by implication, through percentage savings claims that the prices at which respondent had usually and customarily sold fur products in the recent, regular course of business were reduced in direct proportion to the amount of savings stated, when contrary to the fact.

B. Making price claims or representations respecting prices or values of fur produots unless respondent maintains full and adequate records disclosing the facts upon which such claims or representations are based.

By "Decision of the Commission", etc., report of compliance was required as follows:

It is ordered, That respondent herein shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with the order to cease and desist.

Title 18—CONSERVATION OF POWER

Chapter I—Federal Power Commission

[Docket No. R-204; Order No. 240]

PART 154—RATE SCHEDULES AND TARIFFS

Independent Producers of Natural Gas—Form of Filing for Rate Increases

JANUARY 4, 1962.

The Commission has under consideration in this proceeding the adoption of a single-page form for use by small independent producers (and in certain cases large producers) in submitting for filing proposed changes in rates pursuant to section 4(d) of the Natural Gas Act. The use of the form will obviate, in most cases, the submission of the full supporting statement now required, thereby lessening the burdens incident to rate filings.

In essence, the amendments to the regulations herein adopted provide that:

(1) Small producers, who sold 5,000,000 Mcf, or less, of gas in interstate commerce annually, in each year of their operations during the preceding five years will use the form without a further supporting statement for any proposed contractual rate change.

(2) Producers who sold more than 5,000,000 Mcf of gas in interstate commerce annually in any year during the preceding five years and are proposing a contractual rate level equal to, or less than, the applicable area price level for increased rates shall submit the information required by the form but need not submit any additional supporting statement.

(3) Producers who sold more than 5,000,000 Mcf of gas in interstate commerce annually in any year during the preceding five years and are proposing a contractual rate change to a level exceeding the announced applicable area rate level and all producers proposing an ex parte or unilateral rate change shall submit the information required by the form and a full supporting statement.

The Commission finds:

(1) Amendment of the regulations as herein ordered is appropriate and necessary for carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act.

(2) The amendments herein ordered represent matters of practice and procedure which do not require notice or hearing under section 4(a) of the Administrative Procedure Act.

The Commission, acting pursuant to authority granted by sections 4 and 16 of the Natural Gas Act (15 U.S.C. 717c, 717o), orders:

(A) Part 154 of Subchapter E, Regulations Under the Natural Gas Act, Chapter I of Title 18 of the Code of Federal Regulations, is amended as follows:

In § 154.94, paragraphs (e), (f), and (g) are amended to read as follows—

(e) With each change in rate schedule not constituting a change in rate level by any means there shall be submitted reasons, nature and basis for the proposed change and the date upon which the change is proposed to be made effective. Changes in service such as compression, dehydration, etc., by either seller or buyer shall be considered as a change in the existing rate level.

(f) Notice of change in rate level. (1) An independent producer who has sold in interstate commerce 5,000,000 Mcf of gas or less annually in each year of his operations during the preceding five years and who is proposing a contractual change in rates, charges, etc., shall file the information called for in the following form:

SUBCHAPTER D—HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES

PART 191—HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES; DEFINITIONS AND PROCEDURAL AND INTERPRETATIVE REGULATIONS

Temporary Suspension of Certain Provisions Requiring Front Panel Placement and Increase in Conspicuousness and Contrast for Warning Information

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Hazardous Substances Labeling Act (sec. 10, 74 Stat. 378; 15 U.S.C.A. 1269) and under the authority delegated to him by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (25 F.R. 8625), on August 12, 1961, promulgated regulations for the efficient enforcement of this statute. The regulations become effective February 1, 1962.

On the basis of information obtained by field investigators, and from representations by the Manufacturing Chemists' Association, Chemical Specialties Manufacturers Association, National Paint and Varnish Association, American Petroleum Institute, and other interested persons, the Commissioner concludes that more time is necessary for full compliance with the requirements of main panel placement and increased conspicuousness and contrast.

Therefore, paragraphs (a), (c), and (d) of § 191.101 (21 CFR 191.101; 26 F.R. 7333, 11214) are suspended until August 1, 1962. Articles subject to the act must bear all the mandatory labeling by February 1, 1962. But the placement, conspicuousness, and contrast requirements of the implementing regulation will not be enforced before their new effective date, August 1, 1962.

Effective date. This order shall become effective on the date of signature.

[Docket No. AO-226-A7]

MILK IN PUGET SOUND, WASHINGTON, MARKETING AREA

Decision on Proposed Amendments To Tentative Marketing Agreement and to Order

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held at Seattle, Washington, on September 11, 1961, pursuant to notice thereof issued on August 18, 1961 (26 F.R. 7836).

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Assistant Secretary, United States Department of Agriculture, on November 2, 1961 (26 F.R. 10486; F.R. Doc. 61-10623) filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision containing notice of the opportunity to file written exceptions thereto.

The material issue on the record of the hearing relates to the status of state institutions in producing milk for use of their inmates.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on the material issue are based on evidence presented at the hearing and the record thereof:

The State of Washington, in producing milk for use of inmates of its institutions, should be exempt from the limitations imposed upon producer-handlers but should be considered a producer-handler with respect to movements of milk to or from regulated plants.

Under present provisions of the Puget Sound order the milk production resources and facilities, and the milk handling, processing or distributing facilities of each producer-handler are designated. The handling in the designated facilities of fluid milk products that are not from the designated production is limited to a daily average of 100 pounds of certain packaged products from pool plants, with provision for unlimited purchases in bulk or packaged form from such plants within a single span of 45 consecutive days in any 12-month period. Use of nondesignated facilities, or receipts in excess of these limits, results in cancellation of producer-handler status and pooling of production, and sales for the ensuing 12-month period.

The Department of Institutions of the State of Washington maintains dairy herds on farms operated in connection with three State institutions located in the marketing area. The milk produced is processed at a single plant located at one of these institutions and is used in feeding inmates of these three and ten other State institutions also located in the marketing area. All institutions under the supervision of the Department are mental hospitals, children's institutions and penal or corrective institutions. In carrying out these milk production and handling operations the Department of Institutions comes within the terms specified in the present order for producer-handlers and has been treated as a producer-handler.

The Department of Institutions differs from other producer-handlers in the market in that it produces for use in public institutions and makes no private sales except to avoid waste or spoilage. The State law under which operations are carried out precludes production for profit. The policy has been to produce only enough to meet the consumption needs of the inmates. With the exception of a short period in 1959 all milk produced on Department farms has been utilized by inmates of the various institutions. Due to fluctuations in production and inmate population, there is danger that the Department might become a fully regulated handler should it be necessary to purchase milk from pool sources to supply the needs of the inmates committed to its care.

Since the Department of Institutions operates no routes in competition with regulated handlers and is not permitted by law to do so, its operations cannot affect the volume of trade sales that represents the primary Class I market for producer milk. So long as this state agency makes no Class I trade sales there is no need to subject it to full regulation in the event that supplemental purchases are necessary in excess of the limits applicable to producer-handlers. The order should be amended to exempt the state agency from the limitations applicable to other producer-handlers; the agency should, however, continue to be classed as a producer-handler in order that milk it receives from regulated plants may continue to be classified as Class I milk and any milk it delivers to a regulated plant may be other source milk.

The cooperative associations in the market approved exemption of the Department of Institutions but requested that the Department continue to file monthly reports of receipts and utilization in order that statistics compiled and published by the market administrator will continue to reflect the total amount of exempt milk. This will not be necessary because statistics regarding its production and consumption are public information and therefore available for use by anyone.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs and proposed findings and conclusions were filed on behalf of certain interested parties. These briefs, proposed findings and conclusions and the evidence in the record were considered in making the findings and conclusions set forth above. To the extent that the suggested findings and conclusions filed by interested parties are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions set forth herein, the requests to make such findings or reach such conclusions are denied for the reasons previously stated in this decision.

General findings. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest; and

(c) The tentative marketing agreement and the order, as hereby proposed to be amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Rulings on exceptions. In arriving at the findings and conclusions, and the regulatory provisions of this decision, the exception received was carefully and fully considered in conjunction with the record evidence pertaining thereto. In the light of this exception certain clarifying changes have been made in the language of the amendatory provision. To the extent that the findings and conclusions, and the regulatory provisions of this decision are at variance with the exception, such exception is hereby overruled for the reasons previously stated in this decision.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled respectively, "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Puget Sound, Washington Marketing Area", and "Order Amending the Order Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Puget Sound, Washington Marketing Area", which have been decided upon as the detailed and appropriate means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the order as hereby proposed to be amended by the attached order which will be published with this decision.

Determination of representative period. The month of September 1961 is hereby determined to be the representative period for the purpose of ascertaining whether the issuance of the attached order amending the order regulating the handling of milk in the Puget Sound, Washington marketing area, is approved or favored by producers, as defined under the terms of the order as hereby proposed to be amended, and who, during such representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sales within the aforesaid marketing area.

Signed at Washington, D.C., on January 5, 1962.

JAMES T. RALPH,
Assistant Secretary.

Order[1] Amending the Order Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Puget Sound, Washington, Marketing Area

§ 1125.0 Findings and determinations.

The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Puget Sound, Washington, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, That on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Puget Sound, Washington marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as hereby amended, and the aforesaid order is hereby amended as follows:

1. Revise § 1125.16 to read as follows:

§ 1125.16 Producer-handler.

"Producer-handler" means a person who is both a dairy farmer and a handler, and who has been so designated by the market administrator upon his determination that all of the requirements of § 1125.102 have been met, and that none of the conditions therein for cancellation of such designation exists. All designations shall remain in effect until cancelled pursuant to § 1125.102(d). The Department of Institutions, State of Washington, shall be a producer-handler exempt from the provisions of §§ 1125.102 (other than paragraph (g) thereof), 1125.30 and 1125.32 with respect to milk of its own production and receipts from fluid milk plants and country plants processed or received for consumption in state institutions and with respect to movements of milk to or from a fluid milk plant or country plant.

[F.R. Doc. 62-275; Filed, Jan. 9, 1962; 8:55 a.m.]

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[47 CFR Part 2]

[Docket No. 14476; FCC 62-6]

INTERNATIONAL TELECOMMUNICATION UNION

Notification Relative to Radio Astronomy Observatories and Frequencies; Notice of Proposed Rule Making

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Administrative Radio Conference, Geneva (1959), conferred recognition on the Radio Astronomy Service. Pursuant to ratification of the Geneva (1959) Radio Regulations by this country on October 4, 1961, Part 2 of the Commission's rules was amended to reflect, among other things, most of the Geneva provision for the radio astronomy service.

3. The ability of the radio astronomy service to share frequencies with other services has not been specifically determined. However, in view of the extremely low-level signals involved in radio astronomical observations, this service requires a considerable degree of protection from man-made radio emissions.

4. Recommendation 32 of the International Radio Regulations recognizes the necessity for protection of the radio astronomy service and paragraph 4 of that Recommendation reads in part as follows: "administrations should notify to the Secretary General the locations of observatories in their countries and those of the bands allocated in the Table of Frequency Allocations that are in use at each observatory; and that the Secretary General should communicate this information to Members and Associate Members * * *".

5. Although paragraph 4 of Recommendation 32 requests notification of radio astronomical observations only in those bands allocated to the radio astronomy service, a list of all frequencies being observed during a particular period is considered of value for the purpose of information. Observations on out-of-band frequencies cannot normally be expected to receive any measure of protection from interference caused by duly authorized radio stations, inasmuch as such bands cannot be permitted to go unused in the normal assignment of frequencies to stations in the various radio services. However, if an extremely important out-of-band requirement develops, radio astronomers may petition the Commission to amend the rules to afford recognition of the radio astronomy service in the new band(s) for whatever possible protection can be extended to the service.

6. Nationally, the following bands have been allocated exclusively to the radio astronomy service. In the two lowest bands, 40.66–40.7 and 73–74.6 Mc/s, stations authorized prior to December 1, 1961, and still holding a valid authorization as of that date, are permitted to continue to operate. No new stations will be authorized in any of these bands however.

RADIO ASTRONOMY SERVICE

40.66–40.7 Mc/s	10,680–10,700 Mc/s
73.0–74.6 Mc/s	15,350–15,400 Mc/s
1400–1427 Mc/s	19,300–19,400 Mc/s
2690–2700 Mc/s	31,300–31,500 Mc/s
4990–5000 Mc/s

In addition, the following bands may be used nationally for radio astronomy observations on a secondary basis:

2495–2505 kc/s	19990–20010 kc/s
4995–5005 kc/s	24990–25010 kc/s
9995–10005 kc/s	404–406 Mc/s
14990–15010 kc/s

It should be noted, pursuant to § 2.105 (g) (Note 2) set forth below, that as a secondary service in the above bands the radio astronomy service: (a) Cannot claim protection from harmful interference from stations of a primary or permitted service to which frequencies are already assigned or may be assigned at a later date; and (b) can claim protection, however, from harmful interference from stations of other secondary service(s) to which frequencies may be assigned at a later date.

7. In view of the foregoing, it is proposed to amend Subpart B of Part 2, as set forth in the Appendix below, pursuant to the authority contained in sections 303(c), (f), and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

8. All interested persons are invited to file, on or before February 16, 1962, comments supporting or opposing the proposal set out below, or outlining any modifications or counter-proposals the parties may wish to submit. Comments in reply thereto may be submitted on or before February 26, 1962. The Commission will consider all comments filed hereunder prior to taking final action in this matter provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of § 1.213 of the rules, the Commission will not be limited solely to the comments filed in this proceeding.

9. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.54 of the Commission's rules and regulations, the original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs or comments filed shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: January 3, 1962.

Released: January 5, 1962.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] BEN F. WAPLE,
Acting Secretary.

It is proposed that Subpart B of Part 2 of the Commission's rules and regulations be amended as follows:

Subpart B of Part 2 of the Commission's rules and regulations is revised as follows:

The provisions of §§ 2.104 and 2.105 are incorporated into amended § 2.105 and a new § 2.104 is added as follows:

§ 2.104 Radio Astronomy notification.

Paragraph 4 of Recommendation 32 adopted by the International Telecommunication Union's Ordinary Administrative Radio Conference, Geneva (1959), provides for the notification of Members and Associate Members relative to radio astronomy observations being conducted throughout the world. Pursuant to this Recommendation, it is requested that each radio astronomy observatory file an annual report with the Federal Communications Commission, Washington, D.C., each January 1, supplying the following information, which will be forwarded to the International Telecommunication Union for distribution to its various Members and Associate Members.

(a) Location of observatory (nearest city, town, or recognizable hamlet).

(b) Geographic coordinates of observatory.

(c) Frequencies allocated nationally to the radio astronomy service on which observations are being made, and a brief statement of the purpose(s) of the observations.

(d) Frequencies allocated nationally to the radio astronomy service on which observations are planned to be made during the forthcoming calendar year, and a brief statement of the purpose(s) of the observations.

(f) Frequencies not allocated nationally to the radio astronomy service on which observations are planned to be made during the forthcoming calendar year, and a brief statement of the purpose(s) of the observations.

§ 2.105 Application and format of the Table of Frequency Allocations.

(a) In the Table of Frequency Allocations below 25 Mc/s, the authority extended to stations in the fixed service, unless otherwise specified, extends only to those stations in the following categories of service:

(1) Aeronautical fixed.

(2) Fixed (in U.S. possessions and Alaska).

(3) International fixed public.

(b) In the Table of Frequency Allocations between 5,000 and 25,000 kc/s, the authority extended to stations in the mobile service, unless otherwise specified, extends only to those stations in the following categories of service:

(1) Aeronautical mobile.

(2) Maritime mobile.

(c) Columns 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the Table of Frequency Allocations indicate the allocation applicable on a worldwide basis or in Region 2 in accordance with the Geneva Radio Regulations.

(d) In Column 6 (above 25 Mc/s) the letter G means Federal Government radio stations, i.e., those belonging to and operated by the United States. The symbol NG means other than Federal Government radio stations, i.e., those whose frequencies are assigned by the Commission.

(e) Column 10 lists certain frequencies which have national or international significance and are used for specific standardized purposes. These frequencies may be made available for assignment to stations which conform to the nature of service or station listed in Column 11 opposite the assignable frequency. The assignment and use of the frequencies listed in Column 10 is limited to those stations which, by definition, are included in the services and classes of stations (Column 8 or 9) to which the frequency band (Column 7) is allocated.

(f) In Column 11 "Services" are in large block print and "stations" in small print.

(g) Where, in Columns 2, 4, and 8, a band is indicated as allocated to more than one service, such services are listed in the following order:

(1) Services, the names of which are printed in all capital letters (example: FIXED); these services are called "primary" services;

(2) Services, the names of which are italicized and are printed with the first letter capitalized and all others small type (example: Radionavigation); these services are called "permitted" services;

(3) Services, the names of which are printed as in (2) above, but not italicized (example: Mobile); these are called "secondary" services, which are on a non-interference basis to the primary and permitted services.

NOTE 1. Geneva Radio Regulation No. 138: Permitted and primary services have equal rights, except that, in the preparation of frequency plans, the primary service, as compared with the permitted service, shall have prior choice of frequencies.

NOTE 2. Geneva Radio Regulation No. 139: Stations of a secondary service: (a) Shall not cause harmful interference to stations of primary or permitted services to which frequencies are already assigned or to which frequencies may be assigned at a later date; (b) cannot claim protection from harmful interference from stations of a primary or permitted service to which frequencies are already assigned or may be assigned at a later date; (c) can claim protection, however, from harmful interference from stations of the same or other secondary service(s) to which frequencies may be assigned at a later date.

(h) The following symbols are used to designate footnotes in the Table of Frequency Allocations.

(1) Any footnote consisting only of digits, e.g. (170), denotes a paragraph in the Geneva (1959) Radio Regulations. Where such a footnote is applicable, without modification, to the national Table of Frequency Allocations, the symbol appears in the national table as well as in Column 1, 2, 3, or 4.

(2) Any footnote consisting of the letters US followed by one or more digits, e.g., US1, denotes a stipulation the application of which is a matter of agreement between the Commission and other appropriate Government agencies.

(3) Any footnote consisting of the letters NG followed by one or more digits, e.g., NG1, is a stipulation applicable to non-Government stations.

TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS (PALM SPRINGS, INDIO, SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA)

Table of Assignments; Further Notice of Proposed Rule Making

1. Notice is hereby given of further proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. On July 26, 1961 the Commission granted the application of Norman H. Rogers for Channel 18 at San Bernardino, California. The proposed transmitter site of the grantee is only 50 miles from the reference point in Palm Springs to which Channel 19 is assigned and therefore the San Bernardino proposal did not meet the 55 mile adjacent channel separation required by § 3.610(c)(1) of the rules.

3. As there was no operating station, construction permit outstanding, or application on file for Channel 19 at Palm Springs the Commission on September 13, 1961 adopted a notice of proposed rule making to amend its Television Table of Assignments by deleting Channel 19 from Palm Springs and assigning it to Indio, California.

4. H & B Communications Corporation (formerly Transcontinent Communications Systems, Inc.) filed comments opposing the deletion of Channel 19 from Palm Springs stating that at the time of the issuance of the Commission's notice of proposed rule making it had for some time been preparing and intended to file in the near future an application for the Palm Springs channel; that in November 1958 when the Commission assigned Channel 19 to Palm Springs the mileage separation between the center of San Bernardino and the center of Palm Springs was 47 miles; that on July 26, 1961 when the Commission granted the application of Norman H. Rogers to operate Station KCHU at San Bernardino on Channel 18 the KCHU site was only 49.7 miles from the Palm Springs reference point whereas the rules require a separation of 55 miles; that it intends to file an application for Channel 19 at Palm Springs specifying a site located some 6½ miles east-northeast from the center of Palm Springs and 53 miles from the KCHU site; that the proposed site would be some two miles less than the 55 mile adjacent channel separation required by the rules; that prior to the issuance of the notice of proposed rule making it had made extensive local surveys to determine the availability of sites meeting the required 55 mile separation and that no such site was found to be practicable; that the only suitable area from which to serve Palm Springs is located in the Indio Hills to the east and northeast of the city; that the only site in this area found meeting the requirements of having road access and commercial power available was that which it proposed to use; that its proposed site provides a line of site path to Desert Hot Springs, California, a community of some 3,000 persons to which the proposed station would provide a first television service; and that the area along the radial from the KCHU site to the H & B proposed site is rugged mountain terrain ranging from 5,000 to 10,000 feet in the area of possible interference which area has only about 30 homes.

5. Norman H. Rogers, permittee of television Station KCHU, Channel 18, San Bernardino, California, filed reply comments stating that should H & B file an application for Channel 19 in Palm Springs it would not oppose the granting of a waiver of § 3.610(c)(1) of the rules to permit the station to be located between 53 and 55 miles from the Station KCHU site using low power, but, should higher power than now contemplated by H & B be sought it reserves the right to consider the effect of such an operation on its service area.

6. The mileage separation problem involved in this proceeding could be resolved by assigning another UHF channel to the city of Palm Springs. Since it appears that Channel 27 may be assigned to Palm Springs by deleting it from San Diego, California, in which community the channel has not been used, and that Channel 27 would be as satisfactory for use at Palm Springs as Channel 19, we have decided to invite comments on the following proposal:

City	Channel No.
	Present	Proposed
Palm Springs, Calif.	19+	27
Indio, Calif.		19+
San Diego, Calif.	8, 10, *15+, 27, 39, 51	8, 10, *15+, 39, 51

Unless an active interest is manifested we find it desirable in the public interest to defer action on making available a substitute UHF channel for San Diego, California, until decisions are reached in Docket 14229 concerning the future methods of assigning stations on UHF channels.

7. Since Palm Springs and Indio are within 200 miles of the United States-Mexican border the reassignment of these channels is subject to coordination with the Mexican authorities.

8. Pursuant to applicable procedure set out in § 1.213 of the Commission's rules, interested parties may file comments on or before February 5, 1962, and reply comments on or before February 19, 1962. In reaching its decision on the rule amendment which is proposed herein the Commission will not be limited to consideration of comments on record, but will take into account all relevant information obtained in any manner from informed sources.

9. Authority for the adoption of amendments proposed herein is contained in sections 4(i) and 303(r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

10. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.54 of the rules, an original and 14 copies of all written comments and statements shall be furnished to the Commission.

Adopted: January 3, 1962.

Released: January 5, 1962.

TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS (STERLING, COLORADO-CHEYENNE, WYOMING

Table of Assignments; Notice of Proposed Rule Making

1. Notice is hereby given of rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission has before it a petition, filed November 3, 1961, by Richard B. Steuer, requesting rule making on a proposal to shift television Channel 3 from Sterling, Colorado, to Cheyenne, Wyoming. The proposal would amend the television Table of Assignments as follows:

City	Channel No.
	Present	Proposed
Sterling, Colo.	3, 25-	25-
Cheyenne, Wyo.	5+	3, 5+

3. Station KFBC-TV operates on Channel 5 at Cheyenne. No stations are operating on the Sterling television assignments. Steuer Broadcasting Company, a corporation wholly owned by petitioner, holds a construction permit for Station KHQL-TV on Channel 3 at Sterling. Two applications, filed on May 11, 1961, by Sterling Television Booster Committee, Inc., are also pending for VHF television translator stations on Channels 11 and 13 at Sterling.

4. Channel 3 was originally assigned to Cheyenne in the television Table of Assignments adopted in 1952. In 1957 we reassigned Channel 3 from Cheyenne to Sterling in response to the request of Bi-States Company which desired to use the channel at Sterling for a satellite station, broadcasting programs originated by its Channel 13 station at Kearney, Nebraska (KHOL-TV).[1] Since Cheyenne had one operating station (KFBC-TV, Ch. 5) and there was no evidence of any interest by anyone in the retention of use of Channel 3 at Cheyenne at that time, we were then of the view that the public interest would be served by using the channel to provide a first needed television service in the Sterling area.

5. We authorized Bi-States Company to construct a station on Channel 3 at Sterling in June of 1958, but the station was never built. In February of 1961, we authorized Bi-States to assign its construction permit for Channel 3 at Sterling to Richard B. Steuer, the petitioner herein. Mr. Steuer, in turn, sought and obtained authority on October 19, 1961, to assign his construction permit for Channel 3 to the present permittee, Steuer Broadcasting Company.

6. Petitioner states that he is interested in establishing a second local VHF television service at Cheyenne, which is much larger than Sterling,[2] and that Channel 3 could be used for such purposes there if the Channel 3 assignment at Sterling is deleted. He states that if the subject proposal is adopted and Steuer Broadcasting Company is authorized to construct and operate a station on Channel 3 at Cheyenne, it plans to give the Cheyenne Board of Education an opportunity to telecast educational programs a minimum of 45 minutes per day, Monday through Friday, on a direct cost basis.

7. The Commission is of the view that a rule making proceeding should be instituted in order that all interested parties may submit their views and relevant data on petitioner's proposal.

8. If the Commission decides to adopt the rule amendments proposed herein, it will take such further action as may be appropriate with respect to Steuer Broadcast Company's outstanding authorization for Channel 3 at Sterling.

9. Authority for the adoption of the amendments proposed herein is contained in sections 4(i), 303, and 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

10. Pursuant to the applicable procedures set out in § 1.213 of the Commission's rules, interested persons may file comments on or before February 5, 1962, and reply comments on or before February 19, 1962. All submissions by parties to this proceeding or by persons acting in behalf of such parties must be made in written comments, reply comments or other appropriate pleadings.

11. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.54 of the rules, an original and 14 copies of all written comments and statements shall be furnished to the Commission.

Released: January 5, 1962.

Table of Assignments; Order Extending Time for Filing Comments and Reply Comments

1. National Educational Television and Radio Center (NET) filed a petition December 29, 1961, requesting that time for filing comments and reply comments herein be extended. This proceeding, inter alia, is to explore "the question of whether more than three VHF commercial services are needed in the Indianapolis-Bloomington area and whether it would better serve the public interest and enable more effective use of VHF assignments in this area to reserve one of them for educational use."

2. NET points out its interest in commenting and that several other educational groups desire to participate in the proceeding but that, particularly in view of the intervening holiday season, more time is needed to enable these groups to crystallize and formulate their positions in order to present meaningful proposals for the Commission's consideration.

3. It appears that the petition sets forth good cause for the extension of time requested.

4. Accordingly, it is ordered, This 2d day of January 1962, That the aforesaid petition of National Educational Television and Radio Center is granted; and that the time for filing comments herein is extended from January 10, 1962 to February 10, 1962, and that the time for filing reply comments is extended from January 25, 1962, to February 25, 1962.

5. This action is taken pursuant to authority contained in sections 4(i) and 303(r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and section 0.241(d)(8) of the Commission rules.

TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS (MODESTO AND SAN MATEO, CALIFORNIA)

Table of Assignments; Notice of Proposed Rule Making

1. Notice is hereby given of rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission has before it a petition, filed October 26, 1961, by the National Educational Television and Radio Center (NET), requesting rule making on a proposal to shift television Channel 14 from Modesto, California, to San Mateo, California, and to reserve the channel for noncommercial educational use at San Mateo. The proposal would amend the television Table of Assignments as follows:

City	Channel No.
	Present	Proposed
Modesto, Calif.	14+, 58	58
San Mateo, Calif.		*14+

3. There are no stations operating on the Modesto television channel assignments, and no applications are on file for their use. Petitioner submits that Channel 14 may be reassigned from Modesto to San Mateo in conformity with minimum spacing and other technical requirements and that it would be a desirable channel to use for a noncommercial educational station to serve San Mateo and the surrounding area, which includes hilly terrain.

4. NET states that the College of San Mateo, which is part of the California Junior College system and a tuition-free, two-year college serving the major portion of San Mateo County, has embarked on a rapid expansion program, including construction of a new twelve and a half million dollar campus now 20 percent complete and scheduled for occupancy in the fall of 1962. If Channel 14 is assigned to San Mateo, petitioner states that the College plans to apply for and use Channel 14 for a noncommercial educational station to expand its teaching program and to meet community needs for educational, cultural and informative programming that is different from that furnished by the commercial stations serving the area.

5. The Commission is of the view that a rule making proceeding should be instituted so that all interested parties may submit their views on the NET proposal.

6. Authority for the adoption of the amendments proposed herein is contained in sections 4(i), 303, and 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

7. Pursuant to the applicable procedures set out in § 1.213 of the Commission's rules, interested parties may file comments on or before February 5, 1962, and reply comments on or before February 19, 1962. [OE Docket No. 61-CE-66]

PROPOSED RADIO ANTENNA STRUCTURE

Determination of No Hazard to Air Navigation

The Federal Aviation Agency has circularized the following proposal to interested persons for aeronautical comment and has conducted a study to determine its effect upon the safe and efficient utilization of airspace: The Tri-County Broadcasting Company, Sauk Rapids, Minnesota, proposes to construct a radio antenna structure near Sauk Rapids, Minnesota, at latitude 45°35'48" north, longitude 94°09'26" west. The overall height of the structure would be 1,344 feet above mean sea level (262 feet above ground).

Objections were made in response to the circularization by the State of Minnesota Department of Aeronautics and the National Association of State Aviation Officials on the bases that the proposed structure would exceed the State of Minnesota Regulations and the horizontal surface criteria of the Joint Industry/Government Tall Structures Committee as applied to the Whitney Memorial Airport, St. Cloud, Minnesota; would be a hazard to Visual Flight Rules operations in the area; and would have an adverse effect upon a planned VOR Instrument Approach Procedure to the northeast/southwest runway of the Whitney Memorial Airport. The Airline Pilots Association objected on the bases that the proposed structure would exceed the criteria of the JIGTSC and this Agency's TSO-N18. At the FAA Kansas City Regional Airspace Meeting, the State of Minnesota Department of Aeronautics advised that the proposed structure exceeds the approach slope criteria contained in the zoning ordinances adopted by the City of St. Cloud and the State of Minnesota hopes to have a VOR instrument approach procedure approved using the State owned St. Cloud State TVOR located on this airport.

The proposed structure would be located approximately 1.7 miles northeast of the airport reference point of the Whitney Memorial Airport, St. Cloud, Minnesota. The Agency study disclosed that there is no current instrument approach procedure for this airport and no plans have been filed with this Agency for the establishment of an instrument approach procedure based on the use of the St. Cloud State TVOR. Part 626 of the regulations of the Administrator, § 626.12(b), precludes this Agency from considering the effect of a proposed structure on a prospective instrument approach procedure not on file with this Agency as of the filing date of the Notice of Proposed Construction or Alteration. The study further disclosed that although the proposed structure would penetrate the criteria of the JIGTSC and this Agency's TSO-N18, this factor would result in no substantial adverse effect upon VFR operations at the Whitney Memorial Airport.

No other aeronautical operations, procedures or minimum flight altitudes would be affected by the proposed structure.

Therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (14 CFR 626.33; 26 F.R. 5292), it is concluded that the proposed structure, at the location and mean sea level elevation specified herein, would have no substantial adverse effect upon aeronautical operations, procedures or minimum flight altitudes; and it is hereby determined that this structure would not be a hazard to air navigation provided that the structure is obstruction marked and lighted in accordance with Federal Communications Commission rules.

This determination is effective as of the date of issuance and will become final 30 days thereafter, provided that no appeal herefrom under § 626.34 (26 F.R. 5292) is granted. Unless otherwise revised or terminated a final determination hereunder will expire 18 months after its effective date or upon earlier abandonment of the construction proposal (§ 626.35; 26 F.R. 5292).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 27, 1961.

JOSEPH VIVARI,
Acting Chief,
Obstruction Evaluation Branch.

[OE Docket No. 61-CE-75]

PROPOSED TELEVISION ANTENNA STRUCTURE

Determination of No Hazard to Air Navigation

The Federal Aviation Agency has circularized the following proposal to interested persons for aeronautical comment and has conducted a study to determine its effect upon the safe and efficient utilization of airspace: The South Dakota Television, Inc., Aberdeen, South Dakota, proposes to construct a television antenna structure near Crocker, South Dakota, at latitude 45°-06'32" north, longitude 97°53'30" west. The overall height of the proposed structure would be 3,048 feet above mean sea level (1,288 feet above ground).

Objections were made in response to the circularization by the Air Transport Association of America on the basis that the proposed structure would require an increase from 3,000 feet above mean sea level to 3,500 feet above mean sea level in the minimum en route instrument flight rules altitude on VOR Federal Airway No. 24 between the Aberdeen, South Dakota, VOR and the Watertown, South Dakota, VOR. The Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association objected on the basis that the proposed structure would exceed 1,000 feet above ground and would appear to violate Part 626 of the Regulations of the Administrator. At the FAA Kansas City Informal Airspace Meeting the ATA withdrew its objection. The AOPA was not represented at this meeting. The South Dakota Aeronautics Commission requested that special consideration be given to the Visual Flight Rules flyway requirements in that area.

The proposed structure would be located 5.3 miles west of Crocker, South Dakota, and 8.7 miles southwest of the centerline of Victor 24. It would require an increase from 3,000 feet MSL to 3,500 feet MSL in the MEA on Victor 24 between the Aberdeen VOR and the Watertown VOR. The 1961 peak day instrument flight rules traffic count for this segment of airway was 1 flight. The Agency study disclosed that this increase in MEA would have no substantial adverse effect upon IFR operations. During fiscal year 1961, there were 200 VFR general aviation flight plans filed between the Aberdeen and Watertown Airports. Of these flights, 180 were filed via direct route and 20 via airways. The study disclosed that the proposed structure would not be located in close proximity to these or other known routes generally used by VFR operations. The proposed structure would exceed the criteria contained in Part 626 of the regulations of the Administrator. However, the study further disclosed that this factor would have no substantial adverse effect upon aeronautical operations.

No other aeronautical operations, procedures or minimum flight altitudes would be affected by the proposed structure.

Therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (14 CFR 626.33; 26 F.R. 5292), it is concluded that the proposed structure, at the location and mean sea level elevation specified herein, would have no substantial adverse effect upon aeronautical operations, procedures or minimum flight altitudes; and it is hereby determined that this structure would not be a hazard to air navigation, provided that the structure be obstruction marked and lighted in accordance with applicable Federal Communications Commission rules.

This determination is effective as of the date of issuance and will become final 30 days thereafter, provided that no appeal herefrom under § 626.34 (26 F.R. 5292) is granted. Unless otherwise revised or terminated a final determination hereunder will expire 18 months after its effective date or upon earlier abandonment of the construction proposal (§ 626.35; 26 F.R. 5292).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on December 28, 1961.

JOSEPH VIVARI,
Acting Chief,
Obstruction Evaluation Branch.

[Docket No. 14477; FCC 62-46]

ALLOCATION OF FREQUENCY BANDS FOR RADIO ASTRONOMY

Notice of Inquiry

1. The Administrative Radio Conference, Geneva, 1959, gave recognition to radio astronomy as a new radio service meriting status in the international Table of Frequency Allocations. The new service was permitted access to a number of frequency bands by virtue of footnotes to the Table of Frequency Allocations and only the band 1400–1427 Mc/s was allocated exclusively to the radio astronomy service on a world-wide basis.[1]

2. Subsequent to the 1959 Geneva Conference, the Commission, in consultation with the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization (recently renamed the Office of Emergency Planning (OEP)) and the Interdepartment Radio Advisory Committee (IRAC), came to the conclusion that it would be difficult to administer frequency bands wherein sharing was permitted between radio astronomy observatories and radio stations in other radio services. Consequently, the Commission's notice of proposed rule making in Docket No. 13928, adopted January 25, 1961, recommended that the national Table of Frequency Allocations be amended to provide exclusive allocations for radio astronomy in a considerable number of those frequency bands wherein the international Radio Regulations provided only footnote status. In certain other bands the Commission's proposal could recommend only secondary status for the new service. All comments filed with the Commission relative to its radio astronomy proposals in Docket No. 13928 were favorable. As a result, the Commission's Second Memorandum Opinion and Order adopted October 18, 1961, to become effective December 1, 1961, adopted its earlier radio astronomy proposals without change.

3. The Administrative Radio Conference, Geneva, 1959, also adopted Recommendation 36 wherein an Extraordinary Administrative Radio Conference (EARC) is tentatively scheduled for the latter part of 1963, to deal with the matter of frequency allocations for space radiocommunication. Although radio astronomy was not intended initially to be a subject for discussion at such an EARC, there is a rapidly growing sentiment throughout the scientific community to attempt to have it placed on the agenda, should that conference be convened, in an effort to obtain international allocation status comparable to that presently afforded within the United States.

4. The attached document, "Preliminary Views of the United States of America—Frequency Allocations for Radio Astronomy",[1] has been developed in anticipation of the above EARC and in response to the stated requirements of government and non-government radio astronomy interests. It is emphasized that this document does not constitute a U.S. position for presentation at the tentatively scheduled 1963 EARC for space radiocommunication but is designed to elicit the comments and reactions of other governments with respect to initial planning in this area. In the event the Administrative Council of the International Telecommunication Union (ITU) should take action to add frequency allocations for the radio astronomy service as a separate agenda item for the above mentioned EARC, the attached views[2] would be relevant. All parties having an interest in that conference are requested to comment specifically on the desirability of such action by the ITU.

[1] This exclusive allocation is modified somewhat by footnote No. 350 which reads as follows: "In Albania, Bulgaria, Hungary, Poland, Roumania, Czechoslovakia and the U.S.S.R., the band 1400–1427 Mc/s is also allocated to the fixed service and the mobile, except aeronautical mobile, service."

5. The preliminary views propose the allocation of the following bands to the radio astronomy service on a worldwide, exclusive basis, except as indicated:

40.66–40.70 Mc/s.
73.0–74.6
328.6–335.4 (secondary to the aeronautical radionavigation service).
1400–1427
1664.4–1668.4 (secondary to meteorological satellites).
2690–2700
4990–5000
10.68–10.7 Gc/s.
15.35–15.4
19.3–19.4

6. Ideally, an allocation structure designed for the radio astronomy service should provide spectrum space at the more important spectral lines and also provide for continuum studies by designating frequency bands in octaves throughout the spectrum. It will be noted that the above bands are not fully responsive to the desires of radio astronomers, particularly in the latter regard. The bands 1400–1427 and 1664.4–1668.4 Mc/s are associated with the spectral lines of hydrogen and the hydroxyl complex, respectively, whereas the others represent an effort to meet the octave concept with a minimum of impact upon existing radio services. The band 40.66–40.70 Mc/s, for example, is only 40 kc/s wide rather than 500 kc/s as suggested by radio astronomers. This band, however, is in a very heavily congested portion of the spectrum and it is only because of unusual circumstances that even 40 kc/s appears usable on a world-wide basis for the radio astronomy service. At the present time, the center frequency of this band, 40.68 Mc/s, is designated in the Radio Regulations and in the national Table of Frequency Allocations for industrial, scientific and medical devices (ISM), which are required to contain their emissions within the band 40.66–40.70 Mc/s. Because this places a stringent technical requirement upon ISM devices designed for 40.68 Mc/s, there has been virtually no development anywhere in the world. The preliminary views propose to delete any provision for ISM in this band, allocating it exclusively to radio astronomy.

7. The proposal at 73.0–74.6 Mc/s would make the band exclusively radio astronomy on a world-wide basis. This would be an expansion of the existing footnote status for Region 2 (the Americas). Should this be adopted by a future radio conference, those operations presently permitted to use the band on a "grandfather clause" basis would be in derogation of the new Regulations and would be required to move if they caused interference to the radio astronomy service of other countries.

8. Following the octave concept, one would expect to find additional bands proposed in the vicinity of 150–160 Mc/s and 600–650 Mc/s. The lower band, however, is in what is undoubtedly the most heavily congested portion of the spectrum with literally thousands of land mobile systems spread throughout every state in the Union. The upper band falls within the UHF TV band. A possible solution for the radio astronomy service at these orders of frequency can be considered only as a very long range objective.

9. Attention is invited to the fact that the attached views[2] would delete the existing provision for radio astronomy at 404–406 Mc/s, substituting 328.6–335.4 Mc/s in its stead. This change is proposed on the ground that 328.6–335.4 Mc/s is better suited to the needs of the radio astronomy service on a long term basis and the allocation of two bands to radio astronomy, in the same portion of the spectrum, cannot be justified. The continuing expansion of meteorological aid operations in the band 404–406 Mc/s, coupled with increasing space satellite needs, is expected to render the band less and less useful for radio astronomy observations as time goes on.

10. With the exception of the band 88–90 Gc/s, which is well above that portion of the radio spectrum allocated to specific radio services, the bands remaining which have not been discussed are precisely those radio astronomy bands now specified in footnotes to the international Table of Frequency Allocations in the Radio Regulations. The attached views[2] propose exclusive allocation to radio astronomy in each case.

11. The Commission offers herein for public comment the "Preliminary Views of the United States of America—Frequency Allocations for Radio Astronomy".[2] Following study of the comments received in response to this Notice of Inquiry, the Commission, in consultation with the Office of Emergency Planning (OEP), expects to make such modifications in the attached statement[2] as appear to be appropriate and practicable. It is anticipated that the resultant statement would then be transmitted to the Department of State with a recommendation that it be distributed abroad through appropriate channels so that the ideas and reactions of other countries can be obtained and taken into account.

12. Inasmuch as the attached statement[2] has been prepared for international study, it is inappropriate to indicate the ultimate national provisions which might be applied to any given band. Additionally, since this document represents only preliminary views, it is reasonable to expect that it may be changed somewhat before it reaches the status of a U.S. proposal to an international conference empowered to allocate frequency space for the radio astronomy service. Following such a conference, and depending upon the results thereof, it then will be appropriate to perfect domestic arrangements for implementation of the new allocations.

13. Any interested person is invited to file comments with the Commission concerning this matter on or before February 16, 1962. Comments in response to initial comments may be filed on or before February 26, 1962. Due to the interest expected to be expressed in the subject of radio astronomy and the extensive intra-governmental coordination necessary to formulate a national position on this subject, it is requested that an original and 39 copies of each comment be furnished to the Commission.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D.C., on the 27th day of December 1961;

The Commission having under consideration the applications Rochester Area Educational Television Association, Inc. (BPCT-2943), Star Television, Inc. (BPCT-2948), Community Broadcasting, Inc. (BPCT-2953), Heritage Radio and Television Broadcasting Co. (BPCT-2961), Ivy Broadcasting Company, Inc.

(BPCT-2963), Main Broadcasting Co., Inc. (BPCT-2964), The Federal Broadcasting System, Inc. (BPCT-2966), Citizens Television Corp. (BPCT-2967), Rochester Broadcasting Corporation (BPCT-2972), Rochester Telecasters, Inc. (BPCT-2974) captioned above, each requesting a construction permit for a new television broadcast station to operate on Channel 13 in Rochester, New York; and

It appearing, that on November 21, 1961, the Commission designated for hearing two applications (BPCT-2929 and BPCT-2944) each requesting a construction permit for Channel 13 in Rochester, New York (FCC-61-1367, Docket Nos. 14394 and 14395); and

It further appearing, that the above-captioned applications (BPCT-2943, 2948, 2953, 2961, 2963, 2964, 2966, 2967, 2972, 2974) were on file on November 20, 1961, the day preceding the date on which the prior applications were designated for hearing, and are mutually exclusive and entitled to comparative consideration therewith; and

It further appearing, that the above-captioned applications propose antenna locations in the vicinity of the antennas of Standard Broadcast Stations WBBF, WVET, WHEC, and WSAY; that the installation and operation of the television antennas as proposed are possible and feasible without adversely affecting the ability of the Stations WBBF, WVET, WHEC and WSAY to operate in accordance with the terms of their licenses, but that appropriate proof thereof should be submitted after installation of any of the proposed antennas; and that a grant, if made, of any of the above-captioned applications should be subject to the condition in this respect as follows:

The construction authorized herein is subject to the condition that the ability of Standard Broadcast Stations WBBF, WVET, WHEC and WSAY to operate in accordance with the terms of their licenses shall not be adversely affected thereby, particularly with respect to their radiation patterns, and that at least five field intensity measurements on each radial established during the last proof of performance for each of these standard broadcast stations shall be submitted with the television application for license to prove that such patterns have not been materially affected.

It further appearing, that Rochester Area Educational Television Association, Inc., and Rochester Telecasters, Inc., propose a share-time operation; and

It further appearing, that the above-captioned applications are mutually exclusive with the exception that the applications of Rochester Area Educational Television Association, Inc., and Rochester Telecasters, Inc. are complementary and mutually contingent and considered together are mutually exclusive with the other applications; and

It further appearing, that the following matters are to be considered in connection with the issues specified below:

(a) The proposal of Star Television, Inc. (BPCT-2948). Based on information contained in the application, it appears that cash in the approximate amount of $981,000 will be required for construction and initial operation of the proposed station. It appears that construction and operation will be financed, in part, by means of a line of credit from the Central Trust Bank in the amount of $1,000,000. This loan is subject to the condition that the applicant has paid in capital and loans by stockholders of not less than $600,000. This condition has not been met and, therefore, it cannot be determined that Star Television, Inc. is financially qualified.

(b) The proposal of Ivy Broadcasting Company, Inc. (BPCT-2963).

1. The applicant has pending an application (BPCT-2949) for a construction permit for a new television broadcast station to operate on Channel 9 in Syracuse, New York. In the event both applications were to be granted, it appears that substantial overlap would result. Under such circumstances and assuming a grant of the Syracuse application, it appears appropriate to consider the size, extent and location of the areas served and to be served; the extent of the overlap involved; the number of persons served; the number of persons residing within the overlap area; the extent of other competitive service to the areas in question; the extent to which the stations will rely on the same revenue and program sources; the nature of the programming that the stations will present, with particular reference to the particular need of the communities they are designed to serve; the advertising practices of the stations; the source of program material and talent for each station; and such other factors as will tend to demonstrate that the overlap involved will not be in contravention of § 3.636(a)(1) of the Commission's rules.

2. Based on information contained in the application, it appears that cash in the approximate amount of $1,310,000 will be required for construction and initial operation of the proposed station. Applicant proposes to finance the costs of construction and operation by means of a bank loan of $1,000,000 and existing capital of $75,000. With respect to existing capital, the applicant's balance sheet shows that current assets exceed current liabilities by only $10,000. In addition, it appears that current liabilities are understated since Commission records show that the current portion of long term debts has not been included as a current liability. Moreover, the applicant has pending an application (BPCT-2949) for a permit to construct a television broadcast station on Channel 9 in Syracuse, New York and in connection therewith proposes the use of existing capital for financing the cost of construction and initial operation. In view of the foregoing, it cannot be determined that Ivy Broadcasting, Inc., is financially qualified to construct and operate the proposed station.

(c) The proposal of Main Broadcasting Co., Inc. (BPCT-2964).

1. Based on information contained in the application, it appears that cash in the approximate amount of $570,000 will be required for construction and initial operation of the proposed station. The applicant proposes to finance the construction and initial operation by means of a bank loan of $500,000 and stock subscriptions of $100,000 from the four stockholders. The balance sheets submitted for the stockholders do not disclose current and liquid assets in excess of current liabilities sufficient in amount to meet their commitments. Consequently, it cannot be determined that applicant is financially qualified to construct and operate the proposed television broadcast station.

2. The electrical center and gain for the type antenna proposed do not correspond with data filed with the Commission by the manufacturer. It is necessary, therefore, to determine the correct antenna gain and/or electrical center of the proposed antenna.

It further appearing that upon due consideration of the above-captioned applications (BPCT-2943, 2948, 2953, 2961, 2963, 2964, 2966, 2967, 2972, and 2974), the Commission finds that Rochester Area Educational Television Association, Inc., is legally, financially, technically and otherwise qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station; that Star Television, Inc., is legally and technically qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station and is otherwise qualified except with respect to issue "1" below; that Community Broadcasting, Inc., is legally, financially, technically and otherwise qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station; that Heritage Radio and Television Broadcasting Co., Inc., is legally, financially, technically and otherwise qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station; that Ivy Broadcasting Company, Inc., is legally and technically qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station and is otherwise qualified except with respect to issues "2" and "3" below; that Main Broadcast Co., Inc., is legally qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station, is technically so qualified except with respect to issue "4" below and is otherwise qualified except with respect to issue "5" below; that The Federal Broadcasting System, Inc., is legally and financially qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station and is technically and otherwise qualified except with respect to issue "6" below; that Citizens Television Corp. is legally, financially, technically and otherwise qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station; that Rochester Broadcasting Corporation is legally, financially, technically and otherwise qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station; and that Rochester Telecasters, Inc., is legally, financially, technically and otherwise qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station.

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309(3) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-captioned applications (BPCT-2943, 2948, 2953, 2961, 2963, 2964, 2966, 2967, 2972, and 2974) are designated for hearing and consolidated into the pending proceeding in Docket Nos. 14394 and 14395 upon the following issues:

1. To determine whether Star Television, Inc., is financially qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station.

2. To determine whether Ivy Broadcasting Company, Inc., is financially qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station.

3. To determine, assuming a grant of Ivy Broadcasting Company's application (BPCT-2949) for Channel 9, Syracuse, New York, whether a grant of the subject application would contravene the provisions of § 3.636 of the Commission's rules.

4. To determine the correct antenna gain and/or electrical center of the antenna proposed by Main Broadcast Co., Inc.

5. To determine whether Main Broadcast Co., Inc., is financially qualified to construct, own and operate the proposed television broadcast station.

6. To determine the exact elevation above mean sea level of the antenna site proposed by The Federal Broadcasting System, Inc., and other elevations that would be affected thereby.

7. To determine on a comparative basis which of the mutually exclusive operations proposed in the above-captioned applications would best serve the public interest, convenience and necessity in light of the significant differences among the applicants as to:

(a) The background and experience of each bearing on its ability to own and operate the proposed television broadcast station.

(b) The proposals of each with respect to the management and operation of the proposed television station.

(c) The programming service proposed in each of the above-captioned applications.

8. To determine, in light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which of the applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That issues "7" and "8" of this order shall supersede the issues specified in the Commission's Order of November 15, 1961 (FCC 61-1367) in Docket Nos. 14394 and 14395.

It is further ordered, That the time and place of the consolidated hearing will be specified in a subsequent order.

It is further ordered, That the issues in the above-entitled proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding and upon sufficient allegations of fact in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue: To determine whether the funds available to the applicants will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the applications will be effectuated.

It is further ordered, That to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission's rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within twenty (20) days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission in triplicate a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

It is further ordered, That, the applicants herein and the applicants previously designated for hearing in Docket Nos. 14394 and 14395 shall, pursuant to § 311(a)(2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 1.362(b) of the Commission's rules, give notice of the hearing, either individually or, if feasible, jointly, within the time and in the manner prescribed in such rule, and shall advise the Commission of the publication of such notice as required by § 1.362(c) of the rules.

Released January 5, 1962.

[Docket No. 14076, etc.; FCC 61-1350]

KENT-RAVENNA BROADCASTING CO., ET AL.

Memorandum Opinion and Order Amending Issues

In re applications of Kent-Ravenna Broadcasting Co., Kent, Ohio, Docket No. 14076, File No. BP-13749; et al., for construction permits.

1. The Commission has before it for consideration a petition to enlarge, change, and clarify issues, filed May 15, 1961, by Carnegie Broadcasting Corporation; pleadings filed in response thereto; and a motion to strike, motion for leave to file reply, and reply, tendered June 23, 1961, by Carnegie.

2. This proceeding was designated for hearing by Commission order, 26 F.R. 3658, April 28, 1961. The instant pleadings principally involve four applications:

Petty Durwood Johnson, tr/as Radio Trumbull, Niles, Ohio. Requests: 1510 kc., 500 w, D.

Monroeville Broadcasting Co., Monroeville, Pa. Requests: 1510 kc., 250 w, D.

Carnegie Broadcasting Corp., Pittsburgh, Pa. Requests: 1510 kc, 50 kw, DA, D.

Miners Broadcasting Service, Inc. (WMBA), Ambridge-Aliquippa, Pa. Has: 1460 kc, 500 w, DA, D (Ambridge, Pa.). Requests: 1510 kc, 10 kw, DA, D (Ambridge, Aliquippa, Pa.).

SECTION 307(b) CONSIDERATIONS

3. A number of the hearing issues in this proceeding look toward a determination of various matters relating to the ultimate determination under section 307(b) of the Act, quoted in paragraph 6, infra. These issues read substantially as follows: [1]

9. To determine, in light of their location and urban and industrial characteristics, and other relevant factors, whether Monroeville, Pennsylvania, is a separate community with respect to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, for the purposes of 47 U.S.C. 307(b);

10. To determine, in the light of 47 U.S.C. 307(b), which of the instant proposals would best provide a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of radio service;

11. To determine, if Monroeville is a separate community with respect to Pittsburgh, and if Monroeville is selected as having the greater need for a new facility, whether the proposal of Carnegie Broadcasting Corporation will provide service to Monroeville;

12. To determine, if (a) Monroeville and Pittsburgh are separate communities, and (b) Monroeville is deemed to have a greater need for the new facility and (c) Carnegie Broadcasting Corporation will provide service to Monroeville, which of the proposals of Monroeville Broadcasting Company or Carnegie Broadcasting Corporation would better serve the public interest, convenience and necessity in the light of the evidence adduced under the issues herein and the record made with respect to the significant differences between the said applicants as to:

(a) The background and experience of each having a bearing on the applicant's ability to own and operate its proposed station;

(b) The proposals of each of the applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed station; and

(c) The programing service proposed in each of the said applications.

13. To determine, if Monroeville is found not to be a separate community, whether the proposal therefor will provide service to Pittsburgh;

14. To determine, if (a) Monroeville is not a separate community and (b) the proposal for Monroeville provides service to Pittsburgh and (c) Pittsburgh is determined to have the greater need for the new facility, which of the proposals of Monroeville Broadcasting Company or Carnegie Broadcasting Corporation would better serve the public interest, convenience and necessity in the light of the evidence adduced under the issues herein and the record made with respect to the significant differences between the said applicants as to:

(a) The background and experience of each having a bearing on the applicant's ability to own and operate its proposed station;

(b) The proposals of each of the applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed station; and

(c) The programming service proposed in each of the said applications.

4. Alleging that certain of the foregoing issues need revision and clarification, and that further issues should be added, Carnegie contends:

[1] By Order, FCC 61M-829, May 11, 1961, an application for Green Tree, Pennsylvania, was dismissed and reference thereto in the issues has been deleted. By Memorandum Opinion and Order, 26 F.R. 5378, June 15, 1961, an issue was added and existing issues 8-16 were renumbered 9-17 (the cited issues reflect this renumbering).

a. There should be a "separate community" issue and a "contingent standard comparative" issue with respect to Pittsburgh vis-a-vis Ambridge-Aliquippa;

b. The comparison contemplated by Issue 12 would literally come into play even if Carnegie's 50 kw proposal were to be ultimately preferred under 307(b) (because of greater "efficiency"), and thus, it should be made clear that this comparison becomes necessary only if section 307(b) is not determinative;

c. Engineering (coverage) factors are relevant to the contingent standard comparative issues and this should be made clear;

d. The issues overlook the possibility that Pittsburgh and Monroeville may be separate, that Pittsburgh may have the greater need and that the Monroeville applicant may serve Pittsburgh, thus requiring comparison of Carnegie and Monroeville; and

e. In Issue 14, if Monroeville and Pittsburgh are not separate, there would be no choice to make, and therefore clause (c) should be deleted.

5. Consideration of the matters at hand requires an analysis of 47 USC 307 (a) and (b) which state:

(a) The Commission, if public convenience, interest, or necessity will be served thereby, subject to the limitations of this Act, shall grant to any applicant therefor a station license provided for by this Act.

(b) In considering applications for licenses, and modifications and renewals thereof, when and insofar as there is demand for the same, the Commission shall make such distribution of licenses, frequencies, hours of operation, and of power among the several States and communities as to provide a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of radio service to each of the same.

The heart of 47 USC 307(b) is the mandate "to provide a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of radio service", and to do so "among the several States and communities". Read in the light of the requirement of 47 USC 307(a) that an application may be granted only if the "public convenience, interest, or necessity" would be served thereby, it is axiomatic that the requirements of 307(b) must be a constant consideration of the Commission and that the Commission must look to these directives in reviewing applications for broadcasting facilities. In making a choice between mutually exclusive applications, it is essential that all those relevant considerations which bear on "fair, efficient, and equitable distribution" must be weighed and balanced on the particular facts of each individual proceeding. We will here review some of those considerations and will discuss them as they relate to "fair and equitable" and "efficient" distribution.

6. The Commission has by rule [2] established, in the standard broadcast band, three broad classes of channels, designating one class for primarily local service and two classes for primarily wide area and regional service. Commission rules require each applicant to make a definitive showing of the entire area it proposes to serve, to specify some community and State as its station location, and requires certain engineering specifications to be met for such station location or "principal city". Implicit in these rules is the requirement that every station provide two types of service—a reception service for its entire proposed service area and a transmission service (i.e., outlet for local expression) for its proposed community of station location. It is recognized that some proposals may be so designed that the entire service area does not extend to any appreciable degree beyond the principal community itself; and that other proposals may contemplate an entire service area and population considerably greater than its station location. In each case, however, every proposal must look to providing both a transmission and reception service. In determining the relative needs of the proposed service areas for the respective proposed reception services where multiple applications are involved, principal reliance is had on the relative populations and extent of the areas proposed to be served and the number of reception services presently available to each of the proposed service areas and portions thereof.

7. The relative needs for a transmission service are weighed primarily in the light of the number of standard broadcast facilities in each of the communities and the populations of these communities. Whether a given concentration of population constitutes a community for purposes of 307(b) must, of course, be decided under the facts of each case and in accordance with the provisions of our Rules. It is not necessary for present purposes to list the various indicia of a "community"; that this question is present at some stage in every 307(b) determination is, however, clear. In this connection, see § 3.30 of our rules, and on order cited in 1 RR 53.156(a) (FCC 61-1157). In determining equitable distribution of broadcast facilities, the Commission will look to the relative needs of the respective proposed service areas for a reception service, and will also look to the relative needs of each of the principal communities for a new transmission service.

8. In determining which of the mutually exclusive proposals (whether for the same community or different communities) best meets the "efficient" distribution requirement of section 307(b), the types or classes of frequencies involved, the areas which would receive service, and the power and hours of operation proposed are relevant. Material to this consideration is whether a regional or local frequency is proposed for a regional or local use, as the case may be, or whether the power proposed for the frequency applied for is not suited to the use which is proposed. The importance of the transmission aspects may diminish where the proposal is designed to serve a wide area, and the importance of the reception aspects of the proposed service may be considerably secondary to its transmission aspects where the use of local channels is contemplated. In every case the amount of interference such proposals will cause and receive is relevant.

9. The application of these criteria has been complicated by the fact that in recent years there have been increasing numbers of applications for suburban area communities which conflicted with applications for those suburbs' principal cities. See, for example, Huntington Broadcasting Company, 6 RR 569 (1950); Manchester Broadcasting Co., 14 RR 219 (1958); Michigan Broadcasting Company, 20 RR 221 (1960). Recognizing the Commission's traditional view of attaching great importance to proposals that would provide a community with its first transmission service, central city applicants frequently have raised questions as to whether the suburb was in fact a community separate from the central city, and issues have been requested to permit the central city applicant to show that actually the suburb did not have that identity of interest which required a first transmission outlet, or that if it did, the proposal therefor was an inefficient use of frequency. As in the instant proceeding, such requested issues are complex and presuppose facts which are often in dispute. Since the problems underlying such requested issues are part of the overall 307(b) question, the Commission will in the future consider them as encompassed by the standard 307(b) issue. This will serve to relieve both the parties and the Commission of the necessity of attempting to predict the course of the proceeding by tailoring issues to facts not yet established, and will leave in the Hearing Examiner the responsibility of determining, on the basis of a showing made by any of the parties to the proceeding, what facets of the problem should be explored at the hearing. Should it be determined that the suburb is a separate community for 307(b) purposes, a choice between mutually exclusive proposals for the city and its suburb is to be made in the light of the criteria pertinent to a determination of which proposal would provide the more efficient and equitable distribution of broadcast facilities.

10. A second problem which has been presented with increasing frequency is the so-called reciprocal service consideration, e.g., where applicant A will by engineering standards provide primary service to applicant B's community. In some such instances, where B's community was favored under 307(b), applicant A has contended that it is entitled to comparative consideration with applicant B. To be entitled to comparative consideration, applicant A must not only provide primary service to B's community, but must also meet the same requirements imposed on applicant B by § 3.30 of our rules as to studio location and program origination. In the usual case, the latter requirements could not be met by applicant A, and should it desire comparative consideration with B it would in most instances be necessary for it to request an issue as to whether the requirements of § 3.30 should be waived. A request for such issue should be directed to the Commission. If, under such issue, it is determined that the requirements of that section should be waived, and if applicant A provides primary service to community B, comparative consideration of the two applicants is in order.

11. We wish to emphasize that those equitable and efficient factors relevant to any particular proceeding can be determined only with regard to the particular facts of the case, and they must be weighed and balanced to reach an ultimate conclusion as to which applications would best serve the public interest, convenience and necessity. In such cases as are designated for hearing it will be necessary for the Hearing Examiner to determine, under the designated 307(b) issue, the necessity for inquiry into any particular facet of this problem as it relates to the circumstances before him and to what extent any proffered evidence is desirable or necessary. When considering the multiple and complex questions involved with regard to mutually exclusive applicants, whether for the same or different communities, only in those situations in which, after the balancing of all those factors necessary in any particular case, neither proposal can be awarded a significant preference under section 307(b), will the Commission look to the standard comparative issue to make a choice between the proposals.[3]

12. With the foregoing discussion as a guide, we will now consider the specific questions raised by Carnegie. Its requested separate community issue, paragraph 4a, supra, is unnecessary, since it would only determine whether a denominated station community has such identity of interest as to require a transmission service and whether the proposal for that community constitutes an efficient use of frequencies. Henceforth, the Commission regards this matter as encompassed within the standard 307(b) issue, here Issue 10. In conformity with this view, Issue 9 will be deleted as unnecessary. Carnegie asserts, paragraph 4b, supra, that Issue 12 requires that it be compared with Monroeville under the standard comparative issue even if it is ultimately preferred on 307(b) grounds. Should it be determined that separate communities are not involved, and that the two "communities" are only one community in contemplation of section 307(b), the efficient and equitable [4] requirements nonetheless continue to be applicable.[5] As we have noted, if an applicant obtains a significant ultimate preference on a 307(b) issue, a further comparison of the applicants is unnecessary. Should it appear that a significant preference cannot be awarded under section 307(b), a comparison of the applicants under the standard comparative issue would be necessary; if such an issue was not included as a contingent issue in the designation order, a request for the addition of such an issue should be addressed to the Commission. Since, under the circumstances presented in this case, 307(b) considerations might not in every instance be decisive, we will add a contingent standard comparative issue, applicable to all applicants of this proceeding that must resort thereto. This action also meets Carnegie's request, paragraph 4a, supra, for a new standard comparative issue. In view of the scope of the matters subject to consideration under the standard 307(b) issue, and in view of our inclusion of the contingent standard comparative issue as to all of the applicants, there is no need for Issues 11 through 16, and they will accordingly be deleted. Carnegie seeks assurance, paragraph 4(c), supra, that engineering (coverage) factors will be relevant to the standard comparative issue; it is clear, from an examination of the contingent standard comparative issue, that a choice between applicants is to be made not only under the standard comparative criteria but also in the light of the "foregoing" issues, which includes the 307(b) issue and, hence, coverage considerations. The question of "reciprocal service", paragraph 4d, supra, is already encompassed by the 307(b) issue, and a separate issue is not necessary. In view of the deletion of Issue 14, Carnegie's contention in paragraph 4e, supra, becomes moot.

FINANCIAL QUALIFICATIONS

13. Carnegie seeks financial issues with regard to both Radio Trumbull and Miners. The petition in this respect fails to comply with 47 CFR 1.12(a)(2); [6] these questions are not properly addressed to the Commission and will not be considered, as neither will Carnegie's motion to strike, motion for leave to file reply, and reply; and pursuant to 47 CFR 1.12(c) the parties will be required to file additional copies with the Chief Hearing Examiner for his action.

Accordingly, it is ordered, This 15th day of November 1961, that the petition to enlarge, change, and clarify issues, filed May 15, 1961, by Carnegie Broadcasting Corporation is granted to the extent indicated by the foregoing discussion and following ordering clauses, and is denied in all other respects;

It is further ordered, That issues 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15 and issue 16 concerning Kettering, Ohio, are deleted, and that the following issue is added:

10. To determine, in the event it is concluded that a choice between the instant applications cannot be made on considerations relating to section 307(b), which of the operations proposed in the above-captioned applications would better serve the public interest in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues and the record made with respect to the significant differences between the applicants as to:

(a) The background and experience of each having a bearing on the applicant's ability to own and operate the proposed station;

(b) The proposals of each of the instant applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed station;

(c) The programming service proposed in each of the instant applications; and that the remaining issues herein are hereby renumbered as shown below:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from each of the instant proposals, except the proposal of Station WMBA, Ambridge-Aliquippa, Pennsylvania, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the proposed operation of Station WMBA and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine the nature and extent of the interference, if any, that each of the instant proposals would cause to and receive from each other and the interference that each of the instant proposals would receive from all other existing standard broadcast stations, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to the areas and populations affected by interference from any of the instant proposals.

4. To determine whether the following proposals would cause objectionable interference to the stations indicated below, or any other existing standard broadcast stations, and if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations:

Proposals and Existing Stations

BP-13783, Television Corporation of Michigan, Inc.; BP-13068 (WABJ), Adrian, Mich. Req: 1490 kc, 250 w, 1 kw-LS, U.

BP-13834, Speidel Broadcasting Corp. of Ohio; WCKY, Cincinnati, Ohio, 50 kw, DA-LS, U; BP-12725 (WKBV), Richmond, Ind. Req: 1490 kc, 250 w, 1 kw-LS, U.

BP-13846, Community Service Broadcasters, Inc.; KJBK, Detroit, Mich., 1 kw, 10 kw-LS, DA-2, U.

[2] 47 CFR 3.21.

[3] As in the past, a contingent comparative issue will be included among the issues specified in the designation order where, under the facts then available, it appears that 307(b) considerations may not be determinative. Should such an issue not be included in the designation order, the Commission will, upon request of any of the parties, consider the addition of a contingent comparative issue should it subsequently appear that 307(b) considerations may not be determinative.

[4] Because different service areas would usually be involved in the two proposals, the equitable considerations are applicable. Television Corporation of Michigan v. FCC, 21 RR 2107 (C.A.D.C., 1961).

[5] Should it be determined that the two communities are not separate, a question may arise as to whether either, or both, of the proposals continue to meet the requirements of the rules as to the service to be provided to the single, larger community.

[6] 47 CFR 1.12 states: "(a) A separate pleading should be filed: * * * (2) For each request which, under Part 0, the Commission's Statement of Organization, Delegations of Authority, and Other Information, will be acted upon by different Bureau or Offices * * *

"(c) Where pleadings are filed containing requests which should be acted upon under said Part 0 by different Bureau or Offices, the petitioner may, except in case of a request for stay, be requested to file additional copies of the original pleading within a specified period of time. In such case the action on the pleading will be held in abeyance during the period so specified. In case of failure to timely comply with said request, the original pleading will be returned without consideration. The time within which responsive pleadings to such pleadings should be filed will be computed from the date of timely compliance with said request."

5. To determine whether the interference received by each instant proposal from any of the other proposals herein and any existing station would affect more than ten percent of the percent of the population within its normally protected primary service area in contravention of § 3.28(c)(3) of the Commission rules and, if so, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section.

6. To determine whether the instant proposals of Portage County Broadcasting Corporation and Miners Broadcasting Service, Inc. are consistent with the requirements of § 3.30(b) of the Commission rules to warrant an authorization for dual city operation.

7. To determine whether James E. Vaughn, George W. Vaughn and Ralph J. Bitzer d/b as WXEN is financially qualified to construct and operate its proposed station.

8. To determine whether Portage County Broadcasting Corporation would have available to it the funds shown in its application.

9. To determine, in the light of section 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the instant proposals would best provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service.

10. To determine, in the event it is concluded that a choice between the instant applications cannot be made on considerations relating to section 307(b), which of the operations proposed in the above-captioned applications would better serve the public interest in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues and the record made with respect to the signficant differences between the applicants as to:

(a) The background and experience of each having a bearing on the applicant's ability to own and operate the proposed station.

(b) The proposals of each of the instant applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed station.

(c) The programming service proposed in each of the instant applications.

11. To determine, in the event it is concluded pursuant to Issue 9 that one of the proposals for Xeniz, Ohio should be favored, which of the proposals of James E. Vaughn, George W. Vaughn and Ralph J. Bitzer d/b as WXEN or R. Roy Stoneburner, Paul W. Stoneburner and Vernon H. Baker d/b as Greene County Radio would better serve the public interest, convenienee and necessity in the light of the evidence adduced under the issues herein and the record made with respect to the significant differences between the said applicants as to:

(a) The background and experience of each having a bearing on the applicant's ability to own and operate its proposed station.

(b) The proposals of each of the applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed station.

(c) The programming service proposed in each of the said applications.

12. To determine, in the event it is concluded pursuant to Issue 9 that either the City of Kent of Ravenna, Ohio has the greatest need for a new facility, which of the proposals of Kent-Ravenna Broadcasting Co. or Portage County Broadcasting Corp. would better serve the public interest, convenience and necessity in the light of the evidence adduced under the issues herein and the record made with respect to the significant differences between the said applicants as to:

(a) The background and experience of each having a bearing on the applicant's ability to own and operate its proposed station.

(b) The proposals of each of the applicants with respect to the management and operation of the proposed station.

(c) The programming service proposed in each of the said applications.

13. To determine whether Petty Durwood Johnson is financially qualified to construct his proposal herein, taking into consideration his existing financial status and such capital commitments as he may have undertaken.

14. To determine what efforts have been made by Petty Durwood Johnson to ascertain the programming needs and interests of the area he proposes to serve, and the manner in which he proposes to meet such needs and interests.

15. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, which, if any, of the instant applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That additional copies, expressly directed to the attention of the Chief Hearing Examiner, of the foregoing petition and related pleadings and Carnegie's motion to strike, motion for leave to file reply, tendered June 23, 1961, are to be filed within seven days of the release of this Memorandum Opinion and Order.

PENINSULA TELEVISION RELAY CORP. AND EASTERN SHORE MICROWAVE RELAY CO.

Memorandum Opinion and Order Designating Applications for Consolidated Hearing on Stated Issues

In re applications of Peninsula Television Relay Corporation, Salisbury, Maryland, Docket No. 14473, File Nos. 2604/2605-C1-P-60; Eastern Shore Microwave Relay Company, Salisbury, Maryland, Docket No. 14474, File No. 3423-C1-P-60; for construction permits for common carrier point-to-point microwave relay stations.

1. The Commission, by its Chief of the Common Carrier Bureau acting under delegation of authority, pursuant to section 0.262 of the Commission's rules, has before it for consideration, the respective applications of Peninsula Television Relay Corporation (hereinafter called Peninsula); and Martin F. Malarkey, d/b as Eastern Shore Microwave Relay Company (hereinafter called Eastern); for construction permits for point-to-point microwave relay systems.[1]

2. The Peninsula application, filed on April 6, 1960, requests authorization to construct a two-hop four-channel point-to-point common carrier microwave radio relay system originating near Claibourne, Maryland, and terminating at a point near Salisbury, Maryland, which will enable the applicant to relay off-the-air pickup of TV broadcast signals, pursuant to customers' orders, from stations in Baltimore, Maryland, and Washington, D.C., to customers at Salisbury, Maryland. In addition, the applicant will provide Radio Station WBOC, at Salisbury, Maryland, with an audio channel to be used by this customer to enable it to rebroadcast material originating over FM stations at Annapolis, Maryland; Baltimore, Maryland, and Washington, D.C. Peninsula and its proposed customer, Peninsula TV Relay Corporation, are wholly owned subsidiaries and are directly controlled by WBOC, Inc., the licensee of WBOC-TV and WBOC-FM, Peninsula's other customers. WBOC, Inc., is a wholly owned subsidiary and is directly or indirectly controlled by A. S. Abell Company, the licensee of station WMAR-TV, Baltimore, Maryland. Consequently, a question exists as to whether there is a need for the holding out of this communication common carrier service in view of the apparent absence of any present or prospective request for such service from any public subscribers, i.e., subscribers not directly controlling or controlled by, or under direct or indirect common control with the applicant.

3. The Eastern application, filed on June 24, 1960, requests authorization to construct a one-hop four-channel point-to-point common carrier microwave radio system originating at Cambridge, Maryland, and terminating at a point near Salisbury, Maryland, which will enable the applicant to relay pursuant to the customer's order, off-the-air pickup of TV broadcast signals from stations in Baltimore, Maryland, and Washington, D.C., to its customer at Salisbury, Maryland. With regard to Eastern, questions remain as to the nature and extent of the interests existing between the applicant and its proposed customer, Delmarva Community Television Corporation; and as to whether Delmarva Community Television Corporation is a public subscriber, i.e., a subscriber not directly controlling or controlled by, or under direct or indirect common control with the applicant. In the event Eastern fails to meet the burden of proof on this issue, a further question will have to be resolved, namely, whether there is a need for a holding out of this communication common carrier service in view of the apparent absence of any present or prospective request for such service from any public subscriber, as previously defined.

4. In view of the fact that the respective applicants propose to provide what appears to be an essentially identical service to its proposed customers in Salisbury, Maryland, a question is also presented as to the need for two like common carrier point-to-point microwave radio systems.

5. Except as otherwise indicated below, we find and conclude that each of the applicants is legally, financially, and technically qualified to become a licensee for the service proposed.

6. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, That pursuant to the provisions of section 309(e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above entitled application are designated for hearing, in a consolidated proceeding, to be held at the Commission's offices in Washington, D.C. on a date to be hereafter specified, upon the following issues:

(a) To determine the need for Peninsula's holding out of this particular common carrier service in view of the apparent absence of any present or prospective request for such service from any public subscribers, i.e., subscribers not directly controlling or controlled by, or under direct or indirect common control with the applicant.

(b) To determine the nature and extent of the interests existing between the applicant, Martin F. Malarkey, Jr., d/b as Eastern Shore Microwave Relay Company, and Delmarva Community Television Corporation.

(c) To determine whether Delmarva Community Television Corporation is a public subscriber, i.e., a subscriber not directly controlling or controlled by, or under direct or indirect common control with the applicant.

(d) To determine, in the event Eastern fails to meet the burden of proof under issue (c), the need for Eastern's holding out of this particular common carrier service in view of the apparent absence of any present or prospective request for such service from any public subscribers, as defined in issue (c).

(e) To determine the comparative facts with respect to the proposed facilities, personnel, rates, regulations, practices, and services of each applicant.

(f) To determine the subscribers who may be expected to receive service from the proposed facilities of Peninsula and Eastern, respectively, and the public need for either or both services.

(g) To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced on the foregoing issues, whether the public interest, convenience, or necessity would be served by a grant of either, or both, of the respective applications.

It is further ordered, That the Chief, Common Carrier Bureau is made a party to the proceeding herein;

It is further ordered, That the parties desiring to participate herein shall file their appearances in accordance with § 1.140 of the Commission's rules.

Adopted: December 28, 1961.

Released: January 3, 1962.

[1] The captioned applications of Peninsula were dismissed by staff action on March 10, 1961, because of Peninsula's failure to timely file information requested in a Commission letter, dated February 21, 1961. The application of Eastern was, on the same date, granted. The Commission, on May 17, 1961, vacated the action dismissing Peninsula's applications, vacated and set aside the grant of Eastern's application, and restored all the applications to pending status.

Assignment for Oral Argument

JANUARY 5, 1962.

Gordons Transports, Inc., et al. v. Strickland Transportation Company, et al.; investigation and suspension Docket No. M-13964 [1], substituted rail service between East St. Louis and New Orleans.

Notice: The above-entitled proceedings are assigned for oral argument on February 6, 1962, at 10:00 o'clock a.m., United States standard time, at the Office of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C., before the Commission.

These proceedings present for consideration issues which may involve certain important general principles governing so-called substituted rail-for-motor operation through the use of trailer-on-flat car service. Among them are whether, or under what conditions, a regular route motor common carrier of general commodities, in the movement of traffic it is certificated to handle from origin to destination, may, under motor carrier billing and rates, use or hold itself out as using in whole or in part the operations performed by a railroad in transporting trailers on flat cars, in a so-called substituted rail-for-motor service, with or without having on file with this Commission, and in effect, specific tariffs providing for such service; or whether such through transportation is actually a joint motor-rail-motor operation by connecting carriers which should be so reflected in the tariffs, and which need not be subject to any of the criteria generally applied in authorizing motor service over alternate routes, but which as to each separate segment of the motor operation must be covered by the carrier's certificate.

Those who are not parties to these proceedings but are interested in a determination of the principles involved may, without intervention, apply for an allotment of time at the oral argument. Requests for allotment of time by those who desire to participate in the oral argument should be addressed to the Secretary of the Commission and mailed so as to reach the Commission at least 10 days before the date of the argument.

SOUTHWEST FOREST INDUSTRIES, INC.

Notice of Application and Opportunity for Hearing

JANUARY 3, 1962.

Notice is hereby given that Southwest Industries, Inc., (the Company) has filed an application pursuant to clause (ii) of section 310(b)(1) of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939 (the Act) for a finding by the Commission that the trusteeship of Bankers Trust Company of New York (Bankers Trust) under an indenture of the Company dated as of June 1, 1960 (1960 Indenture) which was heretofore qualified under the Act, and trusteeship by Bankers Trust under an indenture dated as of August 1, 1961 (New Indenture) which was not qualified under the Act, is not so likely to involve a material conflict of interest as to make it necessary in the public interest or for the protection of investors to disqualify Bankers Trust from acting as Trustee under both indentures.

Section 310(b) of the Act, which is included in the 1960 Indenture, provides in part that if a trustee under an Indenture qualified under the Act has or shall acquire any conflicting interest (as defined therein), it shall within ninety days after ascertaining that it has such conflicting interest, either eliminate such conflicting interest or resign. Subsection (1) of this section provides, with certain exceptions stated therein, that a trustee is deemed to have conflicting interest if it is acting as trustee under a qualified indenture and is trustee under another indenture of the same obligor.

However, an issuer may sustain the burden of proving, on application to the Commission and after opportunity for hearing thereon, that trusteeship under a qualified indenture and such other indenture is not so likely to involve a material conflict of interest as to make it necessary in the public interest or for the protection of investors to disqualify such trustee from acting as trustee under either or both of such indentures.

The application alleges that:

(1) It has outstanding the following two issues of unsecured subordinated debentures which are in equal rank to one another:

(a) $12,000,000 principal amount of its 6½ percent Subordinated Income Debentures due January 1, 1985 (the 1960 Indenture) to Bankers Trust Company of New York (Bankers Trust), as Trustee. These debentures were registered under the Securities Act of 1933 (File No. 2-16079).

(b) $3,000,000 principal amount of its 5½ percent Subordinated Convertible Debentures due August 1, 1981 (the New Indenture) to Bankers Trust Company of New York (Bankers Trust), as Trustee. These debentures were privately placed and not registered under the Securities Act of 1933.

(2) The debentures issued under the New Indenture are convertible into common stock of the Company, whereas the debentures issued under the 1960 Indenture are not.

(3) Interest on the Convertible Debentures must be paid semiannually whether or not earned, whereas interest on the Income Debentures issued under the 1960 Indenture, although cumulative, is paid only if earned in accordance with tests and formulas set forth in the 1960 Indenture. These computations are not made by the Trustee but by independent accountants.

(4) The trusteeship of the Trustee under the 1960 Indenture and the New Indenture is not likely to involve a material conflict of interest as to make it necessary in the public interest or for the protection of investors to disqualify the Trustee from acting as such under one of the Indentures because the differences mentioned above or any other differences in the terms of the Indentures are not of the type or scope which would involve the exercise of discretion on the part of the Trustee so as to result in any conflict of interest.

For a more detailed statement of the matters asserted, all persons are referred to said application which is on file in the offices of the Commission at 425 Second Street NW., Washington, D.C.

Notice is further given that an order granting the application may be issued by the Commission at any time on or after January 19, 1962, unless prior thereto a hearing upon the application is ordered by the Commission, as provided by clause (ii) of Section 310(b)(1) of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939. Any interested person may, not later than January 18, 1962, at 5:30 p.m., e.s.t., in writing, submit to the Commission, his views or any additional facts bearing upon this application or the desirability of a hearing thereon. Any such communications or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street, NW., Washington 25, D.C., and should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person submitting such information or requesting a hearing, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact and law raised by the application which he desires to controvert.

By the Commission.

AUTHORITY: §§ 40.1 to 40.25 issued under secs. 92, 182, 633, 63 Stat. 503, 508, 545; 14 U.S.C. 92, 182, 633.

§ 40.1 Purpose.

Cadets are appointed in the Coast Guard for training to fit them to become commissioned officers in the Service. The Coast Guard Academy, located at New London, Conn., is maintained by the Government for the practical and theoretical training of young men to enable them to enter upon the duties of Ensign in the Coast Guard. Appointments are made through competitive examinations.

§ 40.2 Applications.

The Coast Guard is interested in receiving applications for cadetship from all young men who feel that they meet the requirements outlined in the regulations in this part. Any young man who recognizes in himself no serious deficiency and who is sincerely interested in a Coast Guard career is encouraged to make application.

§ 40.3 General requirements for eligibility.

(a) A candidate must be a citizen of the United States and must have reached his seventeenth but not his twenty-second birthday on July 1 of the calendar year in which he is appointed a cadet. If the candidate has not reached his seventeenth birthday, or if he has reached his twenty-second birthday, on July 1 of the calendar year in which he seeks to be appointed a cadet, he will be ineligible for appointment. If under 21 years of age, he will be required to furnish the written consent of parent or guardian before admission to the Coast Guard Academy.

(b) He must satisfy the Commandant of the Coast Guard as to his good moral character and standing in the community.

(c) He must satisfy the Commandant of the Coast Guard that he has sufficient credits in prescribed subjects to justify his being designated for examination.

(d) He must be unmarried and have never been married. Any cadet who shall marry, or who shall be found to be married, or to have been married before his final graduation, shall be required to resign. Refusal to resign will result in dismissal.

(e) He must be physically sound and not less than 5 feet 4 inches nor more than 6 feet 6 inches in height, stripped.

(f) No person who has been dismissed or compelled to resign from the United States Military Academy, the United States Naval Academy, the United States Air Force Academy, or the United States Coast Guard Academy for improper conduct is eligible for appointment as a cadet in the Coast Guard. No person whose discharge from any branch of the military service was under conditions other than honorable is eligible for appointment as a cadet.

§ 40.4 Specific requirements for eligibility.

(a) No waivers of educational or physical requirements are granted to applicants.

(b) A candidate must be a graduate of an accredited high school or preparatory school or be in actual attendance in his senior year at an accredited preparatory school or high school, and have already completed three (3) years' work at such a school. A candidate indicating prospective graduation from a preparatory school or high school must, as a condition of admission, satisfactorily complete his course not later than June 30. With the exception of courses completed through the United States Armed Forces Institute, for which credit has been granted by an accredited school, correspondence schools do not meet the requirements for "Accredited Schools." Certificates issued by correspondence schools will not be accepted. A total of 15 units obtained in high school, preparatory school, or college must be submitted.

REQUIRED [1]

(1) The subjects listed below, comprising 6 units, are mandatory and are required for eligibility:

Mathematics (1) (algebra to quadratics)	1
Mathematics (2) (quadratics and beyond)	1
Mathematics (3) (plane geometry)	1
English 1, 2, and 3	3
Total	6

OPTIONAL

(2) Further evidence of adequate preparation, amounting to 9 units of optional subjects is required and may be offered from the following groups:

Mathematics.
Fourth Year English.
Social Studies (history, civics, problems of democracy, citizenship, American problems, sociology).
Biological Science (biology, zoology, botany, physiology).
Physical Science (physics, chemistry, general science, geology, astronomy).
Foreign Language (not less than 2 units credit will be allowed in any language. This means the student must complete, successfully, a 2-year course in an accredited school).

(3) A total of not more than 2 units credit will be accepted from any or all of the following groups:

Agriculture.
Commercial Arithmetic.
Commercial History.
Commercial Law.
Driver Education.
Drama.
Fine Arts.
Industrial Problems.
Journalism.
Manual Training.
Mechanical Drawing.
Music.
Occupations.
Public Speaking.

(4) While not required, it is strongly recommended that a candidate include Solid Geometry, Trigonometry, Physics, and Chemistry in his preparation.

(c) Candidates whose high schools offer only 1½ years of Algebra may, at the discretion of the Commandant, be given credit for 1 unit of Algebra 2 on presentation of proof that they have covered the subject matter listed in § 40.7 (a) (2) "Mathematics, quadratics and beyond."

(d) To satisfy the requirements of § 40.3(c), a candidate may submit both high school and college credits. Because of the great variation in academic standards and credit requirements among schools, the Commandant reserves the right to evaluate each academic record submitted on its individual merits. In general, college credits from an accredited institution will be given greater weight than high-school credits for the same amount of work, but in no case will one semester of college work be considered equivalent to more than one unit of high-school work.

[1] A requirement of 4 credits in English, 2 credits in a foreign language, 1 credit in physics or chemistry, and ½ credit in trigonometry may be introduced in future years.

§ 40.5 Rejection of certificate.

The Commandant reserves the right to reject the certificate of any candidate whose assigned grades create doubt as to his ability to pursue successfully the course at the Coast Guard Academy.

§ 40.6 Definition of units.

(a) The definition of a unit and of the ground covered by the designated subjects is as follows: A unit represents a year's study in any subject in a secondary school. A 4-year secondary school curriculum should be regarded as representing not more than 16 units of work. This statement is designed to afford a standard of measurement for the work done in secondary schools. It takes the 4-year high-school course as a basis, and assumes that the length of the school year is from 36 to 40 weeks, that a period is from 40 to 60 minutes in length, and that the study is pursued for 4 or 5 periods a week; but under ordinary circumstances a satisfactory year's work in any subject cannot be accomplished in less than 120 sixty-minute periods or their equivalent. Schools organized on any other than a 4-year basis can, nevertheless, estimate their work in terms of this unit.

§ 40.7 Scope of studies for required subjects.

(a) Mathematics:

(1) Algebra to quadratics. One unit.

(i) The meaning, use, evaluation, and necessary transformations of simple formulas involving ideas with which the pupil is familiar, and the derivation of such formulas from rules expressed in words.

(ii) The graph and graphical representation in general. The construction and interpretation of graphs.

(iii) Negative numbers; their meaning and use.

(iv) Linear equations in one unknown quantity, and simultaneous linear equations involving two unknown quantities, with verification of results. Problems.

(v) Ratio, as a case of simple fractions; proportion, as a case of an equation between two ratios; variation. Problems.

(vi) The essentials of algebraic technic.

(vii) Exponents and radicals.

(2) Quadratics and beyond. One unit.

(i) Numerical and literal quadratic equations in one unknown quantity. Problems.

(ii) The binomial theorem for positive integral exponents, with applications.

(iii) Arithmetic and geometric series.

(iv) Simultaneous linear equations in three unknown quantities.

(v) Simultaneous equations, consisting of one quadratic and one linear equation, or of two quadratic equations of certain types. Graphs.

(vi) Logarithms.

(3) Plane geometry. One unit.

(i) The usual theorems and constructions of good textbooks, including the general properties of plane rectilinear figures; the circle and the measurement of angles; similar polygons; areas; regular polygons; and the measurement of the circle.

(ii) The solutions of numerous original exercises, including loci problems.

(iii) Applications to the mensuration of lines and plane surfaces.

(b) English 1, 2, and 3: Grammar, Composition, and Literature. Three units.

(1) Entrance to the Coast Guard Academy is based on the assumption that each successful candidate will be adequately grounded in the principles of English grammar and composition. The ability to write and speak clearly, correctly, and effectively should be the outgrowth of the candidate's experiences in his secondary-school English courses. There should be, in those courses, special emphasis on spelling, punctuation, and good usage as the normal requirement for successful work in composition. It is taken for granted that all candidates will have some ability to write clear and well-organized paragraphs or short essays, although the entrance examination may not require any such composition. Advantage should be taken of the oral work that is now a recognized part of most secondary English courses.

(2) The candidate's preparation in literature should conform to the standards set up in most States as a minimum for the college preparatory courses. These standards call for the appreciative reading and understanding of a number of Shakespeare's plays, some narrative and descriptive poems, and several of the classic short stories and novels. A survey of American or English literature is essential for the requirements in English. The candidate who has read widely and intelligently will generally be better prepared than the candidate who has limited the scope of his reading to one or two authors or one or two books. Because of the vast extent of the field and because of the wide variation in secondary English courses, no specific list of books or authors can be given. Standard high school texts or course outlines suggested by many of the State educational systems are adequate guides to prepartion in this field.

§ 40.8 Physical requirements.

(a) All candidates for the Coast Guard Academy must meet the physical standards established in this section and in § 40.9 under the heading Physical Standards and Disqualifications.

(b) The physical standards outlined in the succeeding paragraphs in this section and in § 40.9, although not all inclusive, cover general physical requirements which are necessary for an effective career in the Coast Guard. Conditions which are noted as disqualifying and make the applicant unacceptable fall in categories which may endanger the health of other personnel, require repeated admission to the sick list, cause prolonged hospitalization and early retirement for physical disability, or preclude an active general service career.

(c) Two physical examinations are required:

(1) formal physical examination before appointment is tendered;

(2) physical re-examination at the time of reporting to the Academy.

(d) Applicants are encouraged to obtain a preliminary physical examination from a private physician prior to submission of application for cadetship. A preliminary physical examination serves to rule out, at this stage of the potential cadet's processing, those applicants who obviously will not meet the required physical standards for appointment. The private physician should be requested to review the physical requirements set forth in § 40.9 and upon completion of his examination advise the candidate whether or not in his opinion the candidate meets the physical requirements for appointment. Inaccuracy in ascertaining defects and determining the physical status of the candidate at the time of his preliminary physical results in unnecessary work for the Coast Guard and disappointment to the candidate when defects are found later at the time of the formal physical examination.

(e) Candidates and their parents and sponsors are urged to refrain from requesting waivers for medical defects. The Coast Guard bases its decision to disqualify a young man on medical facts revealed in a thorough medical examination. Candidates unable to satisfy the minimum requirements are not suited for commissions in the Regular Coast Guard, and consequently are not eligible for training at the Coast Guard Academy. A request for waiver for a medical defect invariably results in disappointment to all concerned.

(f) Prior to formal physical examination, all applicants are required to execute Standard Form 89, Report of Medical History, furnishing a true account of all injuries, illnesses, operations and treatments since birth and present same to the examining medical officer. False statements or willful omissions in executing Standard Form 89 may result in the separation of the candidate from the service on arrival at the Academy or later in his service career.

(g) Formal physical examinations prior to acceptance of candidates must be performed by a U.S. Public Health Service, Navy, Army, Air Force or Veterans Administration medical officer. All candidates are instructed where to report for such examinations. The results of this formal physical examination must be reported on Standard Form 88, Report of Medical Examination.

(h) The medical officer, prior to the physical examination, will review the data furnished by the candidate on Standard Form 89 as to completeness of the medical history submitted and will then complete item 40, Standard Form 89, and sign same.

§ 40.9 Physical standards and disqualifications.

(a) Physical proportions. The applicant's weight should be well distributed and in proportion to age, height, and skeletal structure. Medical examiners will recommend rejection of individuals who show poor physical development, who appear to be undesirable candidates because of excess fat, or show a definite tendency to obesity regardless of height and weight table ratio. The following Table 40.9(a1) and Table 40.9(a2) are for growing youths and are for the guidance of medical officers in connection with the other data obtained at the examination, a consideration of all of which will determine the candidate's physical eligibility. The applicant's height should be measured in inches to the nearest ½ inch without shoes, and weight measured to the nearest pound without clothes.

(2) All benign tumors which are of sufficient size to interfere with the wearing of military headgear, or subject to chronic irritation.

(3) Imperfect ossification of the cranial bones or persistence of the anterior fontanelle.

(4) Extensive cicatrices, especially such adherent scars as show a tendency to break down and ulcerate.

(5) Depressed fractures or other depressions, or loss of bony substance of the skull, unless the examiner is certain the defect is slight and will cause no future trouble.

(6) Deformities of the skull resulting in any unusual physical appearance or of any degree associated with evidence of disease of the brain, spinal cord, or peripheral nerves.

(7) Hernia of the brain.

(8) Unsightly deformities, such as large birthmarks, large hairy moles, extensive cicatrices, mutilations due to injuries or surgical operations, tumors, ulcerations, fistulae, atrophy of a part of the face, or lack of symmetrical development.

(9) Persistent neuralgia, tic douloureux, or paralysis of central nervous origin.

(10) Ununited fractures of the maxillary bones, deformities of either maxillary bone interfering with mastication or speech, extensive exostosis, necrosis, or osseous cysts.

(11) Chronic arthritis of the temporomandibular articulation, badly reduced or recurrent dislocations of this joint, or ankylosis, complete or partial.

(12) Malignancy or substantiated history thereof, unless successfully removed 5 or more years previously.

(13) Cervical adenitis of other than benign origin, including cancer, Hodgkin's disease, leukemia, tuberculosis, syphilis, etc.

(14) Adherent or disfiguring scars from disease, injuries or burns.

(15) Thyroid adenoma; exophthalmic goiter or thyroid enlargement interfering with breathing or with the wearing of clothing; exophthalmic goiter or thyroid enlargement from any cause associated with toxic symptoms or which is disfiguring.

(16) Torticollis.

(17) Tracheal openings, thyroglossal or cervical fistulae.

(18) Restricted motility sufficient to limit the normal range of motion.

(19) Cervical rib when symptomatic; scalenus anticus syndrome.

(c) The nose and sinuses. The following conditions are causes for rejection:

(1) Loss of the nose, malformation, or deformities thereof that interfere with speech or breathing, or extensive ulcerations.

(2) Perforated nasal septum if considered causative of symptoms or local pathology, or likely to do so.

(3) Nasal obstruction due to septal deviation, hypertrophic rhinitis, or other causes, and particularly if sufficient to produce mouth breathing.

(4) Hay fever if more than mild or if likely to cause more than minimal loss of time from duty or if associated with nasal polyps or hyperplastic sinusitis.

(5) Atrophic rhinitis.

(6) Chronic sinusitis, if more than mild, and if not amenable to therapy.

(d) The mouth and throat. The following conditions are causes for rejection:

(1) Harelip, unless adequately repaired, loss of the whole or a large part of either lip, unsightly mutilation of the lips from wounds, burns, or disease.

(2) Malformation, partial loss, atrophy, or hypertrophy of the tongue, split or bifid tongue, or adhesions of the tongue to the sides of the mouth, provided these conditions interfere with mastication, speech, or swallowing, or appear to be progressive.

(3) Malignant tumors of the tongue, or benign tumors that interfere with its function.

(4) Marked stomatitis, or ulcerations, or severe leukoplakia.

(5) Ranula if at all extensive, or salivary fistula.

(6) Perforation or extensive loss of substance or ulceration of the hard or soft palate, extensive adhesions of the soft palate to the pharynx, or paralysis of the soft palate.

(7) Malformations or deformities of the pharynx of sufficient degree to interfere with function.

(8) Postnasal adenoids interfering with respiration or associated with middle-ear disease.

(9) Marked enlargement of the tonsils or markedly diseased tonsils.

(10) Laryngitis if not amenable to therapy or recurrent.

(11) Paralysis of the vocal cords, or aphonia.

(e) The ears and hearing. The following conditions are causes for rejection:

(1) The total loss of an external ear, marked hypertrophy or atrophy, or disfiguring deformity of the organ.

(2) Atresia of the external auditory canal, or tumors of this part.

(3) Acute or chronic suppurative otitis media, or chronic catarrhal otitis media.

(4) Mastoiditis, acute or chronic.

(5) Existing perforation of either membrana tympani.

(6) Deafness of one or both ears.

(7) Any diminution of auditory acuity in either ear, below 15/15 by whispered voice. If any question of diminuted auditory acuity arises on whispered voice test an audiometric determination should be made. Loss of hearing as determined by the audiometer must not be greater than 15 decibels in any of the frequencies 500, 1000, 2000 nor greater than 45 decibels in either of the frequencies 4000 or 5000. If hearing loss ascertained is not considered completely stabilized, candidate should be rejected.

(8) Any acute or chronic disease of the external, middle, or internal ear.

(f) Eyes and vision. (1) For appointment as a cadet in the Coast Guard a minimum uncorrected visual acuity of 20/30 each eye is acceptable provided that vision is correctible to 20/20 each eye and that refraction by an ophthalmologist reports eye grounds free from disease with no indication of an accelerated progression toward further decreased visual acuity. Refraction is not required where the vision in each eye is 20/20 uncorrected, unless medically indicated.

(2) Disease of the eye grounds shall be cause for rejection.

(3) Contraction of visual field.

(4) Both eyes must be free from any disfiguring or incapacitating abnormality and from acute or chronic disease.

(5) Any cadet in the United States Coast Guard Academy whose vision has dropped below 20/40, correctible to 20/20 in each eye, for any significant period of time shall be reported upon by a Board of Medical Survey.

(6) The requirement as given above is considered necessary in order to graduate cadets with vision sufficiently serviceable to enable them to carry out their duties at sea. During late adolescence it is quite common for developmental myopia to become manifest to such an extent that the resulting myopic visual defect is sufficient to disqualify the cadet. It is therefore imperative that a careful examination for visual acuity be performed.

(7) The following conditions are causes for rejection:

(i) Trachoma.

(ii) Chronic conjunctivitis, or xerophthalmia.

(iii) Pterygium encroaching upon the cornea.

(iv) Complete or extensive destruction of the eyelid, disfiguring cicatrices, adhesions of the lids to each other or to the eyeball.

(vi) Trichiasis, ptosis, blepharospasm, or chronic blepharitis.

(vii) Epiphora, corneal dystrophy, chronic dacryocystitis, or lachrymal fistula.

(viii) Chronic keratitis, ulcers of the cornea, staphyloma, or corneal opacities encroaching on the pupillary area and reducing the acuity of vision below the standard and any corneal distrophy.

(ix) Irregularities in the form of the iris, or anterior or posterior synechiae sufficient to reduce the visual acuity below the standard.

(x) Opacities of the lens or its capsule sufficient to reduce the acuity of vision below the standard, or progressive cataract of any degree.

(xii) Any retinopathy or detachment of the retina, neuroretinitis, optic neuritis, choreoretinopathy, or atrophy of the optic nerve.

(xiii) Loss or disorganization of either eye, or pronounced exophthalmos.

(xiv) Pronounced nystagmus, strabismus, or lack of continuous and complete third degree binocular fusion.

(7) Miscellaneous disorders (tics, spasmodic torticollis, spasms, brain and spinal cord tumors, whether operated upon or not, cerebrovascular disease, congenital malformations, including spina bifida if associated with neurological manifestations and meningocele even if uncomplicated, Meniere's disease).

(p) Psychiatric and personality deviations. The following conditions are causes for rejection:

(1) Psychotic disorders or a substantiated history of psychotic episode.

(3) Character and behavior disorders which have prevented a good adjustment with particular reference to antisocial tendencies, sexual deviation, chronic alcoholism or drug addiction.

(4) Immaturity reactions.

(5) Disorders of intelligence.

(q) Teeth.

(1) All candidates shall be given a type 2 dental examination (mouth mirror and explorer examination; adequate natural or artificial light; posterior bitewing roentgenograms, when indicated)[1] by a dental officer at the time of physical reexamination and, if practicable, at formal physical examination, report of which shall be recorded under item 44, Standard Form 88, Report of Medical Examination.

(2) Candidates must have a minimum of 20 serviceable permanent, natural teeth, of which at least 10 must be in each arch. When third molar teeth have not erupted and are shown by X-ray examination to be present and in normal position for eruption, they may be counted as serviceable teeth in the event candidates do not otherwise meet the minimum requirement of 20 teeth.

(3) Definitions:

(i) Serviceable teeth are permanent, natural teeth which meet all of the following conditions:

(a) Adequately supported by healthy tissue.

(b) In satisfactory occlusion with opposing natural or artificial teeth.

(c) Of sufficient size (crown and/or roots) and without faulty calcification (severe dysplasia).

(d) If carious, capable of being satisfactorily restored.

(f) If nonvital, treated with satisfactory pulp canal fillings.

(ii) A nonserviceable tooth is one that fails to meet any of the above conditions.

(iii) Satisfactory masticatory function exists when a minimum of 3 masticating teeth (bicuspids and/or molars, natural or artificial) are in functional bilateral occlusion.

(4) Prior to the candidates' reporting to the Academy, missing teeth that cause unsatisfactory incisal and/or masticatory function or that result in unsightly spaces must be replaced by well-designed, functional, partial dentures or fixed bridges, and all carious teeth except those with incipient carious lesions must be satisfactorily restored.

(5) The following conditions are causes for rejection:

(i) Loss of teeth in excess of the number specified in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(ii) Nonconformance with subparagraph (4) of this paragraph.

(iii) Malocclusion that interferes with satisfactory incisal and/or masticatory function or proper phonation.

(iv) Unsightly dento-facial deformity.

(v) Chronic subluxation of the mandible associated with pain and not amenable to treatment.

[1] These X-rays are only needed when unerupted third molars must be counted as serviceable permanent teeth to meet requirements of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(vi) Advanced and extensive peridontoclasia.

(vii) Syphilitic lesions, malignant tumors.

(viii) Benign tumors or cysts, which require treatment or may require treatment in the foreseeable future.

(ix) Perforations from the oral cavity into the nasal cavity or maxillary sinus.

(r) Miscellaneous conditions.

(1) The following miscellaneous conditions are causes for rejection:

(ii) Stuttering or other impediment of speech.

(iii) Deficient muscular development or deficient nutrition.

(iv) Evidences of physical characteristics of congential asthenia, such as slender bones, a weak ill-developed thorax, nephroptosis, gastroptosis, constipation, and "drop" heart, with its peculiar attenuation and weak and easily fatigued musculature.

(v) All acute communicable diseases.

(vi) All diseases and conditions which are not easily remediable or that tend physically to incapacitate the individual such as: chronic malaria or malarial cachexia; tuberculosis; leprosy, actinomycosis; rheumatoid arthritis; osteomyelitis; malignant disease of any kind in any location or substantiated history of same unless successfully treated 5 or more years previously; hemophilia; purpura, leukemia of all types; pernicious anemia; sickle cell anemia; trypanosomiasis; filariasis which has produced permanent disability or deformity, history of any acute attack of filariasis within 6 months of date of examination, or the finding of micro-filaria in the blood stream, chronic metallic poisoning, allergic manifestations such as hay fever, if more than mild or if likely to cause more than minimal loss of time from duty or if associated with nasal polyps or hyperplastic sinusitis; allergic conjunctivitis, allergic dermatoses, or allergic rhinitis particularly if there is associated hyperplastic sinusitis or nasal polyps, or a history thereof, when in the opinion of the examiner, the condition is likely to frequently recur, or to cause more than minimal loss of time from duty or otherwise is of present or future clinical significance.

(2) Conditions not enumerated or combinations of conditions which, in the opinion of the medical examiner, will not permit a full productive military career, should be recorded in detail with appropriate recommendations.

(3) If all defects present are recorded on Standard Form 88 and the medical examiner considers all defects in final determination as to qualification of candidate, the Commandant's acceptance or rejection of candidates will be simplified.

§ 40.10 Physical aptitude test.

In addition to the physical requirements in §§ 40.8 and 40.9, candidates are notified that if appointed a cadet in the United States Coast Guard they must, during the preliminary term at the Coast Guard Academy, qualify in physical aptitude as determined by a one-hour examination. This examination measures neuromuscular coordination, muscular power, muscular endurance, cardiovascular endurance, and flexibility. The examination comprises a series of tests involving such activities as running, jumping, throwing, climbing, dodging, pushing, and pulling. The examination will consist of a number of tests such as a vertical jump, standing broad jump, pull-ups, dips, push-ups, 300-yard shuttle run, squat jump, sit-ups, rope climb, etc. All candidates are advised to condition themselves physically by participation in a wide range of physical activities.

§ 40.11 Designation for examination.

A candidate who has been accepted as such will be designated to report for the examination and will be advised of the time and place he should so report.

§ 40.12 Date of examination.

Examinations will be held annually for two successive days, commencing on the third Monday in February, at places where examiners are available. If either of these days falls on Washington's Birthday, the examination will be held on the two days immediately following the holiday. The examiners will be commissioned officers of the Coast Guard, or civil-service examiners. All expenses connected with the candidate's appearance before examiners and medical boards must be borne by the candidate.

§ 40.13 Annual competitive examinations.

(a) Purpose. The annual competitive examination is designed to select, on a fair competitive basis, those candidates who are best qualified and most likely to succeed as cadets and officers in the United States Coast Guard.

(b) Scope and form.

(1) Successful completion of the Academy course and success as an officer depends:

(i) on an adequate educational background,

(ii) on the possession of aptitudes related to both technical and cultural studies,

(iii) on a sincere interest in the Coast Guard as a career, and

(iv) on relevant personality and physical characteristics.

(2) In addition to the essential virtues of honesty, dependability, and perseverance, item of subparagraph (1) (iv) of this paragraph above includes physical stamina, coordination, physical and mental courage, self-confidence, emotional stability, alertness, leadership, and the ability to live and work harmoniously in close contact with others. The complete examination will measure as fairly and accurately as possible the extent to which each candidate meets these four general qualifications.

(c) Achievement tests. The subject matter of the achievement tests will be material within the scope of most high-school curricula, i.e., knowledge ordinarily required for admission to college. In the construction of the tests, allowances will be made for the fact that high-school curricula are not completely uniform throughout the country. The tests are designed to be as fair as possible to students from all varieties of secondary schools, but no candidate can be expected to have had detailed instruction in all the topics covered in the various tests. Any candidate who has taken the required courses listed in § 40.4 can feel that he is qualified to take the tests as far as formal training is concerned. It must be stressed that this examination is competitive, not merely qualifying. Therefore, the examination will be difficult enough to discriminate between candidates of nearly equal educational achievement. Each candidate will be tested for knowledge in all the following subjects:

(1) English (Grammar, Composition, Literature, and Reading Comprehension).

(2) Mathematics (Algebra and Plane Geometry).

(d) Aptitude tests. (1) The examination will include a battery of short tests in the following:

(i) Science Aptitude.
(ii) Verbal Aptitude.
(iii) Spatial Aptitude.
(iv) Quantitative Aptitude.

(2) Because these tests stress ability factors rather than knowledge or achievement, they are comparatively uninfluenced by training and experience. It is not practical to prepare for them, and no specific information on their content will be furnished.

(e) Index of background and activity questionnaire. Each candidate will be given a questionnaire regarding his vocational interest, study habits, background, and personality characteristics.

(f) Personal interview. The examiner before whom the candidate appears will report to the Commandant his appraisal of the candidate's fitness and adaptability for a career as an officer in the Coast Guard. Particular attention will be paid to neatness, cleanliness, physical appearance, bearing, manner of speech, manliness, and qualities of leadership. The examiner will report in detail any defects of character or behavior that may hinder or prevent the development of leadership, any marked inaptitude or aversion for military training, and any evidence of evasion, insincerity, or immaturity.

(g) General adaptability board.

(1) A specially designated board of Coast Guard officers will be charged with the duty of assigning a mark in general adaptability to each candidate who has satisfied minimum requirements in the above written tests. The term "general adaptability" includes all the factors known to influence success as a cadet and officer. The marks will be based on the relative merit of candidates as shown by tests, questionnaires, and the interview reports noted in paragraph (f) of this section. While the term "general adaptability" is very broad, the board's decision will be based on factual objective information such as the following:

(i) The candidate's attitude toward assigned tasks and his willingness to work as shown by the consistency and pattern of his previous school work.

(ii) The candidate's previous extracurricular and athletic interests and experience, with particular attention to evidence of leadership and teamwork.

(iii) The candidate's personal qualities as shown by his reference questionnaire, the interviewer's report, his high-school principal's comments, etc.

(iv) The candidate's physical build, appearance, and his bearing, as shown by the photographs and the interviewer's report.

(v) The candidate's score on one or more tests of emotional stability, social adjustment, vocational interest, study habits, background, and personality characteristics as may be administered for the purpose.

(2) The board will be charged with the duty of obtaining the best possible cadets and officers for the Coast Guard. It is, therefore, to a candidate's interest to cooperate fully in supplying the board with all relevant information on the above factors. The board's judgment will be final and subject to review only by order of the Commandant.

(h) Minimum requirements. To establish a list of eligible candidates and eliminate those who are markedly deficient in one or more parts of the examination, the board will not consider candidates who fail to meet minimum test requirements. All raw scores will be converted to standard scores by the method commonly employed in modern testing techniques. The board will then set minimum standard score requirements. Candidates who have standard scores below the prescribed individual and/or combined test levels will be eliminated from further consideration.

(i) Computation of final mark. The final marks of each candidate will be computed by averaging the following subscores in accordance with the indicated weights:

(1) Achievement Tests:
English	20
Mathematics	20
(2) Aptitude Tests:
Science Aptitude	10
Verbal, Spatial, and Quantitative Aptitudes	10
(3) Index of Background and Activities	15
(4) General Adaptability	25
Total	100

(j) Appointments. A formal physical examination will be given about six weeks after the competitive examination to those candidates who are considered qualified. Candidates will be offered appointments in the order of their final marks until the vacancies for the year have been filled. A candidate who fails to receive an appointment may compete again in subsequent years without prejudice, provided he meets the age and physical qualifications.

§ 40.14 Schedule of examinations.

(a) The schedule of examination will normally be as follows:

(1) First Day:
8 a.m. to 12 noon—Mathematics and Science Aptitude.
1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.—English, Personal Inventory.

(2) Second Day:
8 a.m. to 12 noon—Verbal, Spatial and Quantitative Aptitude Tests; Index of Background and Activities Questionnaire.

(b) All material necessary for taking the examination will be furnished each candidate. Drawing instruments and slide rules will not be permitted.

§ 40.15 Sample questions and answer sheet.

(a) The questions in this section, taken from objective-type examinations, and a sample answer sheet are intended for the information and use of candidates who may be unfamiliar with this type of test. These questions illustrate various kinds of questions used. The questions are answered by marking the answer sheet in accordance with instructions which precede the specific examination questions. You choose the one correct answer and blacken the space beneath the corresponding letter on the answer sheet.

§ 40.16 Appointments.

(a) The number of appointments to be made each year from candidates who have successfully passed the examinations is discretionary, and will depend upon the needs of the Service at the time.

(b) Candidates who are considered eligible for appointment and who have passed the required physical examination will receive appointments as cadets in the United States Coast Guard and will be sent instructions to report to the Coast Guard Academy early in July. A final physical examination is given at the Academy prior to execution of the oath of office.

(c) Having been appointed and having taken the oath of office, a cadet will be reimbursed for the actual mileage from his home to the Academy at the rate of 6 cents per mile.

(d) No person shall become a cadet in the Coast Guard who does not obligate himself, in such manner as the Commandant may prescribe, to serve at least 4 years as an officer in the Service after graduation, if his services be so long required.

§ 40.17 Deposit required.

A cadet, upon admission to the Coast Guard Academy, shall be credited with the sum of $600 to defray the cost of his initial clothing and equipment, this sum to be deducted subsequently from his pay in accordance with the regulations promulgated by the Commandant. In addition each cadet upon appointment shall deposit with the Superintendent of the Academy the sum of $300, this amount to be used to help defray initial clothing and equipment costs which exceed the amount of the $600 credited. The Superintendent of the Academy, in exceptional circumstances, is authorized to waive this requirement in part, but the amount so waived shall be made up by deductions in amounts to be determined by the Superintendent from the cadet's monthly cash allowances. A cadet may use so much of this $300 as may be necessary to defray his traveling expenses to the Academy. The amount thus used will be deposited with the Superintendent of the Academy when the cadet shall have been paid his mileage.

§ 40.18 Pay of cadets.

A cadet in the Coast Guard receives the same pay and allowances as are now or may hereafter be provided by law for midshipmen in the Navy. At present these equal $1,333.80 per annum and commutation one ration per day. Pay commences upon the date the oath of office as a cadet is taken. A cadet's pay is not a wage or salary for services rendered. It is money furnished by the Government for uniforms, equipment, textbooks, and other expenses incidental to his training. A cadet does not receive allowances for dependents. Cadet pay is disbursed and expended only as directed by the Superintendent.

§ 40.19 Expenses of cadets.

Practically all of a cadet's pay will be required to defray his expenses during his cadetship and for deposits that he will be required to make toward a fund which, upon his graduation, will be available to be applied toward the cost of the outfit required for a commissioned officer.

§ 40.20 Contracting of debts.

No cadet may contract any debt or receive any financial assistance from home or elsewhere without the permission of the Superintendent of the Academy. The pay of a cadet is sufficient for his support.

§ 40.21 Practice cruises.

During the months of June, July, and August, cadets are sent to sea in Coast Guard ships for instruction and practical experience in seamanship, navigation, gunnery, and marine engineering. These practice cruises include visits to foreign ports when conditions permit. Underclass cadets are required to perform the duties of seamen and firemen during their basic training. The First and Third Class are assigned the long cruise which lasts about 9 weeks; the Second Class and the new Fourth Class go on a short cruise of about 3 weeks duration at the end of the Summer Term.

§ 40.22 Privileges.

(a) With the approval of the Commandant, the Superintendent may grant leave of absence to cadets meriting it, exclusive of the fourth class, at the termination of the long practice cruise or, for those cadets undergoing summer training ashore, at an appropriate time during the summer months.

(b) Studies and exercises shall be suspended on January 1, February 22, May 30, July 4, the first Monday in September, November 11, Thanksgiving Day, December 25, and on such other days as may be designated by the President as national holidays. On such days the Superintendent may grant liberty to cadets.

(c) The Superintendent may grant leave to cadets meriting it during the period which includes Christmas and New Year.

(d) Liberty and other privileges are granted to cadets meriting the same under regulations prescribed by the Superintendent.

(e) Relatives and friends of cadets may visit them at the Academy at such hours as the Superintendent may prescribe for visitors.

§ 40.23 Uniforms.

Cadet uniforms and equipment are supplied at the Academy in accordance with Academy uniform regulations and as directed by the Superintendent. Most articles must be of uniform design. For that reason it is best to take only those items of clothing which will be needed for the five or six days until you receive your prescribed uniforms. However, the following items need not be of uniform pattern and may be brought from home by a cadet on original entry if he so desires:

Garters, plain.	Shaving kit.
Hairbrush.	Whiskbroom.
Toothbrush.	Shoe-blacking kit.
Comb.	Sewing kit.

§ 40.24 Graduation and promotion.

(a) Upon graduation from the Coast Guard Academy, cadets are awarded degrees of bachelor of science and are eligible, if physically qualified, to be commissioned by the President to fill vacancies in the grade of ensign in the Coast Guard. When so commissioned, they shall have rank with second lieutenants in the Army, Air Force, and Marine Corps and ensigns in the Navy.

(b) Promotions of officers of the Coast Guard are made by seniority through the successive grades—lieutenant (junior grade), lieutenant, lieutenant commander, commander, and captain. When so commissioned, officers of the Coast Guard have parallel rank with officers of the Army, Air Force, Marine Corps and Navy of corresponding rank.

§ 40.25 General requirements for admission of citizens of American Republics.

(a) The Act of Congress approved 24 June 1938, and Executive Order 7964 of 29 August 1938 (3 CFR 1943 Cum. Supp.), provide for the admission of citizens of American Republics (other than the United States) to receive instruction at the United States Coast Guard Academy at New London, Conn. The total number of citizens from American Republics (other than the United States) to be enrolled at any one time shall not exceed twenty (20) and the number enrolled in each class shall not exceed five (5) at any one time. Not more than one (1) person from any such Republic shall receive instructions at the same time. The persons receiving instruction shall receive the same pay, allowances, and emoluments—no more and no less—as do citizens of the United States, to be paid by the respective Republics. The U.S. Government will not provide any funds for travel or maintenance of these students. However, the United States Coast Guard will absorb the cost of instruction. They shall be subject to the same rules and regulations governing admission, attendance, discipline, resignation, discharge, dismissal, and graduation as cadets at the Coast Guard Academy appointed from the United States, subject to such necessary exception as may be determined by the Commandant of the Coast Guard. However, such persons shall not be entitled to appointment to any office or position in the United States Coast Guard by reason of their graduation from the Coast Guard Academy.

(b) The following regulations are established:

(i) United States Coast Guard Academy, New London, Conn., 4-year basic course. Begins in July. Each candidate must:

(i) Be unmarried bona fide male citizen of the country transmitting the request, be not less than 17 years of age and not have reached his 22d birthday on 1 July of the calendar year in which he enters the Coast Guard Academy. (Candidate must not marry during the course of instruction.)

(ii) Possess physical qualifications as specified in this publication. All candidates must undergo a physical examination at the United States Coast Guard Academy. Requests for waivers for minor defects which would in no way prevent the individual from participating in all cadet activities may be submitted to the Commandant, United States Coast Guard.

(iii) Be proficient in reading, writing, and speaking idiomatic English and must demonstrate in the regular annual entrance examination ability to profit by instruction. Due consideration will be given in the English examination to the probable inadequacy of his preparation in English and American literature.

(iv) Be prepared to submit certificates of previous academic credits equivalent to those required of candidates from the United States as set forth in this publication.

(c) Regular examinations for entrance into the United States Coast Guard Academy may be taken either in the United States or in the candidates' respective native countries. In the latter case, the examination will be taken under the supervision of a diplomatic representative of the United States who shall furnish a report as to the candidate's proficiency in the use of idiomatic English.

(d) In lieu of the oath of allegiance to the United States, a substitute oath will be required in substance as follows:

I, _____
a citizen of _____ aged _____ years _____ months, having been appointed a cadet at the United States Coast Guard Academy do solemnly swear to comply with all regulations for the police and discipline of the Academy, and to give my utmost efforts to accomplish satisfactorily the required curriculum: do swear not to divulge any information of military value which I may obtain, directly or indirectly, in consequence of my presence at the United States Coast Guard Academy, to any alien government; and do agree that I shall be withdrawn from the United States Coast Guard Academy if deficient in conduct, health or studies.

Since the only purpose of this proclamation is to announce the results of the referendum, it is hereby found and determined that, with respect to the proclamation, application of the notice and public procedure requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U.S.C. 1003) is unnecessary.

§ 722.556 Proclamation of results of the marketing quota referendum for the 1962 crop of extra long staple cotton.

In a referendum held on December 12, 1961, of farmers engaged in the production of the 1961 crop of extra long staple cotton, 1,175 farmers voted. Of those voting, 1,042, or 88.7 percent, favored the national marketing quota proclaimed by the Secretary for the 1962 crop of extra long staple cotton, and 133, or 11.3 percent, opposed such quota. Therefore, the national marketing quota of 102,800 bales proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture on October 12, 1961, for the 1962 crop of extra long staple cotton shall continue in effect.

(Secs. 342-345, 347, 375, 52 Stat. 56-59, 66, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1342-1345, 1347, 1375)

Effective date: Date of filing with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

Signed at Washington, D.C., on January 8, 1962.

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter III—Federal Aviation Agency

SUBCHAPTER E—AIR NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

[Airspace Docket No. 61-WA-41]

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF CONTROLLED AIRSPACE, REPORTING POINTS, POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL AREAS

Alteration of Federal Airway and Associated Control Areas

On April 25, 1961, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (26 F.R. 3540) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to designate low altitude VOR Federal airway No. 526 from Winslow, Ariz., to Taos, N. Mex., via Crownpoint, N. Mex., and to designate the control areas associated with Victor 526 to extend upward from at least 1200 feet above the surface or, if appropriate, 500 feet below the minimum IFR en route altitude, when established, to the base of the continental control area.

On August 1, 1961, a supplemental notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (26 F.R. 6860) amending the original notice. The supplemental notice proposed that the control areas associated with Victor 526 extend upward from 700 feet above the surface to the base of the continental control area until such time as all control areas associated with the other airways in the vicinity of Winslow and Taos can be altered by applying Amendment 60-21 to Part 60 of the Civil Air Regulations.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendments.

The notice proposed that Victor 526 be designated from Winslow, Ariz., to Taos, N. Mex. The Federal Aviation Agency has re-evaluated this proposal and has determined that this airway segment should be designated as a segment of low altitude VOR Federal airway No. 514 which presently extends from Tobe, Colo., to Russell, Kans. This would simplify the air route structure by adding a segment to an existing airway instead of designating a new airway. Therefore, action is taken herein to designate a segment of Victor 514 from the Winslow VOR to the Taos VOR.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rules herein adopted and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendments having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (25 F.R. 12582) and for the reasons stated herein and in the notices, the following actions are taken:

1. Section 600.6514 (26 F.R. 5) is amended to read:

§ 600.6514 (Winslow, Ariz., to Taos, N. Mex., and Tobe, Colo., to Russell, Kans.).

From the Winslow, Ariz., VOR via the Crown Point, N. Mex., VOR; to the Taos, N. Mex., VOR. From the Tobe, Colo., VORTAC via the Garden City, Kans., VORTAC; to the Russell, Kans., VOR.

2. Section 601.6514 (26 F.R. 5) is amended to read:

§ 601.6514 Control areas (Winslow, Ariz., to Taos, N. Mex., and Tobe, Colo., to Russell, Kans.).

All of VOR Federal airway No. 514.

These amendments shall become effective 0001 e.s.t., March 8, 1962.

(Sec. 307(a), 72 Stat. 749; 49 U.S.C. 1348)

Issued in Washington, D.C. on January 4, 1962.

D. D. THOMAS,
Director, Air Traffic Service.

Subpart B—Standard Samples and Reference Standards With Schedule of Weights and Fees

DESCRIPTIVE LIST

In accordance with the provisions of section 4 (a) and (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act, it has been found that notice and hearing on these schedules of fees are unnecessary for the reason that such procedures, because of the nature of these rules, serve no useful purpose. These amendments are effective from the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Title 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

SUBCHAPTER B—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

PART 121—FOOD ADDITIVES

Subpart D—Food Additives Permitted in Food for Human Consumption

HYDROGEN CYANIDE

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs, having evaluated additional data submitted in a petition filed by the American Cyanamid Company, P.O. Box 400, Princeton, New Jersey, requesting the establishment of a tolerance for residues of hydrogen cyanide in cocoa derived from fumigation of the food, has concluded that the following regulation should issue amending § 121.1072 of the food additive regulations. Scientific information demonstrating rapid dissipation of these residues during and after shipment and loss of residues by heating in preparing cocoa for consumption has been taken into account. Therefore, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 409 (c)(1), 72 Stat. 1786; 21 U.S.C. 348(c)(1)), and under the authority delegated to the Commissioner by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (25 F.R. 8625), § 121.1072(b) (21 CFR 121.1072; 26 F.R. 10476) is amended by adding thereto a new subparagraph (4), reading as follows:

§ 121.1072 Hydrogen cyanide.

• • • • •

(b) • • •.

(4) 200 parts per million (0.02 percent) in cocoa.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D.C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by the order and specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and the grounds for the objections. If a hearing is requested, the objections must state the issues for the hearing. A hearing will be granted if the objections are supported by grounds legally sufficient to justify the relief sought. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall be effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Correction

In F.R. Doc. 61-11276, appearing at page 11242 of the issue for Wednesday, November 29, 1961, only one "1" should appear in the wording of the section heading for § 121.2529, so that the heading reads as follows: "§ 121.2529 3,5-Dimethyl - 1,3,5,2*H* - tetrahydrothiadiazine-2-thione.".

SUBCHAPTER D—HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES

PART 191—HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES; DEFINITIONS AND PROCEDURAL AND INTERPRETATIVE REGULATIONS

Ball-Point Ink Cartridges; Exemption From Labeling Requirements

There has been submitted to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs, pursuant to section 3(c) of the Federal Hazardous Substances Labeling Act and § 191.62 of the hazardous substances regulations, a request to exempt ball-point ink cartridges from the labeling requirements of section 2(p)(1) of the act. The petition deals with viscous liquids which are "toxic" substances as defined in § 191.1(f)(1) having an LD 50 single oral dose between 500 milligrams and 5 grams per kilogram of body weight of the test animals. Individual ball-point pen cartridges and refills are constructed in such a way that, with any reasonably foreseeable handling and use, including use by children, the contents do not present an ingestion hazard. The Commissioner therefore concludes that only a minor hazard is presented and full compliance with the labeling requirements of section 2(p)(1) of the act is not necessary in the case of these articles. Therefore, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Hazardous Substances Labeling Act (sec. 3(c), 74 Stat. 374; 15 U.S.C. 1262) and under the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare and delegated to the Commissioner (25 F.R. 8625), § 191.63 is amended by adding thereto a new paragraph (g), reading as follows:

§ 191.63 Exemptions for small packages, minor hazards, and special circumstances.

* * * * *

(g) Rigid or semirigid ball-point ink cartridges are exempt from the labeling requirements of section 2(p)(1) of the act insofar as such requirements would be necessary because the ink contained therein is a "toxic" substance as defined in § 191.1(f)(1) provided that:

(1) The ball-point ink cartridge is of such construction that the ink will, under any reasonably foreseeable conditions of manipulation or use, emerge only from the ball-point end.

(2) When tested by the method described in § 191.1(f)(1), the ink does not have an LD 50 single oral dose of less than 500 milligrams per kilogram of body weight of the test animal.

(3) The cartridge does not have a capacity of more than 2 grams of ink.

The Commissioner finds that because of the minor hazard involved, all of the labeling statements required by section 2(p)(1) of the act are not necessary for the protection of the public health and therefore notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order.

Effective date. This order shall become effective February 1, 1962.

PART 50-201—GENERAL REGULATIONS

Miscellaneous Amendments

A recent determination published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 26, 1961 (26 F.R. 9042), that $1.15 per hour is the prevailing minimum wage in all those groups of industries currently operating in each locality in which the materials, supplies, articles, or equipment are to be manufactured or furnished under contracts subject to the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (41 U.S.C. 35-45) except those particular or similar industries for which minimum wage determinations higher than $1.15 per hour have been made and the revision at that time of 41 CFR Part 50-202 have rendered obsolete the proviso to paragraph (b) of 41 CFR 50-201.1 and paragraph (a) and the last sentence in paragraph (b) of 41 CFR 50-201.1101. The purpose of these amendments is to delete these obsolete provisions. They shall become effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The procedural requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act are found unnecessary because of the obsolescence of the provisions involved, and good cause is found for affording no delay in the effective date under that section for the same reason.

Accordingly, pursuant to section 4 of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (41 U.S.C. 2038, 41 U.S.C. 38), Part 50-201 of Title 41 of the Code of Federal Regulations is hereby amended in the manner indicated below.

1. The proviso to paragraph (b) of 41 CFR 50-201.1 is deleted. As amended by the deletion, paragraph (b) of that section reads as follows:

§ 50-201.1 Insertion of stipulations.

* * * * *

(b) All persons employed by the contractor in the manufacture or furnishing of the materials, supplies, articles, or equipment used in the performance of the contract will be paid, without subsequent deduction or rebate on any account, not less than the minimum wages as determined by the Secretary of Labor to be the prevailing minimum wages for persons employed on similar work or in the particular or similar industries or groups of industries currently operating in the locality in which the materials, supplies, articles, or equipment are to be manufactured or furnished under the contract.

2. Paragraph (a) and the last sentence in paragraph (b) of 41 CFR 50-201.1101 are hereby deleted. As amended by these deletions, 41 CFR 50-201.1101 reads as follows:

§ 50-201.1101 Minimum wages.

Determinations of prevailing minimum wages or changes therein will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and sent to contracting officers by the Public Contracts Division of the Department of Labor.

(Sec. 4, 49 Stat. 2038; 41 U.S.C. 38)

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 8th day of January 1962.

ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG,
Secretary of Labor.

SUBCHAPTER F—QUARANTINE, INSPECTION, LICENSING

PART 73—BIOLOGICAL PRODUCTS

Sterility Standards and Technical Correction in Blood Standards

On October 26, 1961, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER proposing several amendments to the sterility test provisions for licensed biological products and an editorial correction.

Views and arguments respecting the proposed amendments were invited to be submitted within 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, and notice was given of intention to make any amendments that were adopted effective 30 days after the date of publication of the adopted amendments.

No objections having been submitted, the following amendments to Part 73 of the Public Health Service regulations are hereby adopted to become effective 30 days after the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

A. Amend § 73.73 in the following respects:

1. Amend paragraph (a)(1) by deleting the comma in each of the three instances where a comma precedes the word "fourth" and insert in lieu thereof the word "or". As thus amended paragraph (a)(1) reads as follows:

(a) The test—(1) Using Fluid Thioglycollate Medium. The volume of product, as required by paragraph (d) of this section (hereinafter referred to also as the "inoculum"), from samples of both bulk and final container material, shall be inoculated into test vessels of Fluid Thioglycollate Medium. The inoculum and medium shall be mixed thoroughly and incubated at a temperature of 30° to 32° C. for a test period of no less than seven days and examined visually for evidence of growth on the third or fourth or fifth day and on the seventh or eighth day. If incubation is continued beyond eight days, an additional examination shall be made on the last day of the test period. If the inoculum renders the medium turbid so that the absence of growth cannot be determined reliably by visual examination, portions of this turbid medium in amounts of no less than 1.0 ml. shall be transferred on the third or fourth or fifth day of incubation, from each of the test vessels and inoculated into additional vessels of medium. The material in the additional vessels shall be incubated at a temperature of 30°to 32° C. for no less than seven days. Notwithstanding such transfer of material, examination of the original vessels shall be continued as prescribed above. The additional test vessels shall be examined visually for evidence of growth on the third or fourth or fifth day of incubation and on the seventh or eighth day and if incubation is continued beyond a period of eight days, an additional examination shall be made on the last day of the incubation period. If growth appears, repeat tests may be performed as prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section and interpreted as specified in paragraph (c) of this section.

2. Amend paragraph (a)(2)(iii) by adding the words "or twelfth" between the word "eleventh" and the word "day" and as thus amended paragraph (a)(2)(iii) shall read as follows:

(2) Using Fluid Sabouraud Medium. Except for dried products, a test for fungi and yeast shall be made on final container material, following the procedures prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph except that (i) the medium shall be Fluid Sabouraud Medium; (ii) the incubation shall be at a temperature of 20° to 25° C.; (iii) the period of incubation shall be no less than ten days and an examination shall be made on the tenth or eleventh or twelfth day in lieu of an examination on the seventh or eighth day.

3. Amend paragraph (c) by inserting "(2) or (b)(3), whichever is applicable" after the letter (b) where it appears in the last sentence, and as thus amended paragraph (c) shall read as follows:

(c) Interpretation of test results. The results of all tests performed on a lot shall be considered in determining whether or not the lot meets the requirements for sterility, except that tests may be excluded when demonstrated by adequate controls to be invalid. The lot meets the test requirements if no growth appears in the tests prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section. If repeat tests are performed, the lot meets the test requirements if no growth appears in the tests prescribed in paragraph (b)(2) or (b)(3) of this section, whichever is applicable.

4. Amend paragraph (d) (1) and (2) by deleting the parenthetical sentence at the end of each paragraph and substituting therefor in each instance the following: "(Note exceptions in paragraph (f) of this section)". As amended paragraph (d) reads as follows:

(d) Test samples and volumes—(1) Bulk. Each sample for the bulk sterility test shall be representative of the bulk container material and the volume tested shall be no less than 10 ml. (Note exceptions in paragraph (f) of this section.)

(2) Final containers. The sample for the final container and first repeat final container tests shall be no less than 20 final containers from each filling of each lot, selected to represent all stages of filling from the bulk container. If the amount of material in the final container is 1.0 ml. or less, the entire contents shall be tested. If the amount of material in the final container is more than 1.0 ml., the volume tested shall be the largest single dose recommended by the manufacturer or 1.0 ml., whichever is larger, but no more than 10 ml. of material or the entire contents from a single final container need be tested. (Note exceptions in paragraph (f) of this section.)

5. Amend paragraph (f)(8) by inserting the words "Fibrinogen (Human)" before the word "when" where it appears in the first sentence and as thus amended subparagraph (8) of paragraph (f) shall read as follows:

(8) Samples—large volume of product in final containers. For Normal Serum Albumin (Human), Normal Human Plasma, Antihemophilic Plasma (Human) and Plasma Protein Solution (Human), Fibrinogen (Human), when the volume of product in the final container is 50 ml. or more, the final containers selected as the test sample may contain less than the full volume of product in the final containers of the filling from which the sample is taken: Provided, That the containers and closures of the sample are identical with those used for the filling to which the test applies and the sample represents all stages of that filling.

6. Amend paragraph (f) by adding a new subparagraph (10) to read as follows:

(10) Human immune globulin preparation. For human immune globulin preparations, the test samples from the bulk material and from each final container need be no more than two ml.

B. Amend § 73.304(b) by changing the word "inoculum" to the word "medium" where it appears in the third sentence, and as changed paragraph (b) reads as follows:

(b) Periodic check on sterile technique. Within the 18th to 24th day after collection, at least one container of blood that upon visual examination appears normal, shall be tested each month as a continuing check on technique of blood collection. The test shall be performed with a total sample of no less than 10 ml. of blood and a total volume of fluid thioglycollate or thioglycollate broth medium 10 times the volume of the sample of blood. The test sample shall be inoculated into one or more test vessels in a ratio of blood to medium of 1 to 10 for each vessel, mixed thoroughly, incubated for seven to nine days at a temperature of 30° to 32° C., and examined for evidence of growth of microorganisms every workday throughout the test period. On the third, fourth, or fifth day at least 1 ml. of material from each test vessel shall be subcultured in additional test vessels containing the same culture medium and in such proportion as will permit significant visual inspection, mixed thoroughly, incubated for seven to nine days at a temperature of 30° to 32° C. and examined for evidence of growth of microorganisms every workday throughout the test period. If growth is observed in any test vessel, the test shall be repeated to rule out faulty test procedure, using another sample of blood from either, (1) the container from from which the initial test sample was taken, (2) the residual cells or plasma from that blood, or (3) two different containers of blood, each 18 to 24 days old and each tested separately. The formula for fluid thioglycollate medium shall be as prescribed in § 73.73(e)(1) and the formula for thioglycollate broth medium shall be as prescribed in § 73.73(f)(5). Media and design of container shall meet the requirements prescribed in § 73.73(e)(2)(i). In lieu of performing one test using an incubation temperature of 30° to 32° C., two tests may be performed, each in all respects as prescribed in this paragraph, one at an incubation temperature of 18° to 22° C. and one at an incubation temperature of 35° to 37° C. A different test may be performed provided that prior to the performance of such a test a manufacturer submits data which the Surgeon General finds adequate to establish that the different test is equal or superior to the test herein prescribed as a check on sterile technique and makes the finding a matter of official record.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Division of Public Contracts

[41 CFR Part 50–202]

DRUGS AND MEDICINE INDUSTRY

Tentative Minimum Wage Redetermination

A complete record of proceedings under sections 1 and 10 of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (41 U.S.C. 35 and 43a) to redetermine the prevailing minimum wages for persons employed in the drugs and medicine industry has been certified by the hearing examiner. The whole record has been considered, and it is now appropriate under section 8 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1007) to make a tentative decision, including a statement of findings and conclusions, as well as the reasons therefor, on all material issues of fact, law, and discretion presented on the record, and any appropriate minimum wage redetermination.

DEFINITION

One of the issues set out in the notice of hearing (26 F.R. 8318) was whether any amendments should be made in the definition of the industry contained therein. No amendments were proposed by interested persons.

The noticed definition is the same as that in the present minimum wage determination for this industry except for the addition of the manufacture or packaging of processed botanical drugs and herbs. This addition makes the coverage of the definition the same as that in Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Group 283.

The Wage and Hour economist testifying at the hearing stated that to his knowledge no administrative difficulties had been experienced with the present definition of the industry. He also stated that the noticed definition had been considered at a prehearing conference and had been acceptable to the representatives of labor and management who attended the conference. An economist representing the AFL–CIO and its principal member unions in this industry testified that he had no objection to the noticed definition. No other interested persons submitted evidence on this issue.

Upon the basis of the foregoing, the noticed definition is found appropriate for the purpose of this proceeding.

LOCALITY

The evidence in the record dealing with the geographic scope of any minimum wage determination in this industry consists entirely of that found in Government Exhibit 4. That exhibit shows the origin and destination of shipments of products of the industry under contracts subject to the Act.

From this evidence, the AFL–CIO proposes that an industrywide determination be made. There are no proposals suggesting that the area of competition for any Government contract in this industry is narrower than all of that area in which the plants of the industry are located.

An analysis of Government Exhibit 4 indicates that the competition for Government contracts in this industry is not restricted by regional boundaries. That exhibit shows that plants in the region of origin are awarded Government contracts calling for delivery in each region of destination and that a substantial portion of the contract awards call for delivery at a uniform price anywhere in the United States. Accordingly, I find that an industrywide determination for this industry is appropriate and that the "locality in which the materials, supplies, articles, or equipment are to be manufactured or furnished" under any contract subject to this determination cannot be more narrowly defined than all of that area in which the industry has its plants.

PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGES

The only evidence relating to the issue of what are the prevailing minimum wages in this industry is a survey conducted by the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) for use in these proceedings. The results of the survey are tabulated in Government Exhibit 8. The most significant table in that survey for the purpose of a minimum wage determination is table 3, which contains a frequency distribution of the lowest wage rates actually paid to workers of the type covered by the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act in the payroll period ending nearest March 15, 1961.

No single minimum wage rate in this distribution appears with such frequency that it may be fairly said on that ground alone to be the prevailing minimum wage for persons employed in the industry. There are 66 establishments with 2,107 covered workers which are shown to have paid $1.00 as their minimum wage. However, even if it is assumed that these plants and others in the range of $1.00 through $1.14 are now paying the minimum wage of $1.15 required by the Fair Labor Standards Act, as amended by the 1961 Amendments, such plants would constitute only about 28 percent of all the plants in the industry with less than 10 percent of the covered worker employment. The concentration of covered worker employment at the $1.80 interval (3 plants having a total of 2,713 covered workers with minimum wages of $1.80 and under $1.81) is not regarded as constituting prevailing practice for similar reasons.

Under such circumstances, there is abundant precedent for using a statistical approach giving appropriate weight to the minimum wages paid by about one-half of the establishments or production units and the minimum wages paid by establishments employing about one-half of the workers who would be protected by the determination when engaged on the work to which it would apply.

The spokesman for the AFL–CIO and its member unions in this industry, however, would have me consider the minimum wages of plants weighted by their covered worker employment, and attach little or no significance to the minimum wages paid by plants without such weighting. As a consequence, he proposes that the median minimum wage of establishments weighted by their covered worker employment, which is $1.69, be found to be the prevailing minimum wage as of the survey period.

Neither the terms of the statute nor the evidence in this proceeding compel such a finding. See: Drugs and Medicines Industry—tentative decision (23 F.R. 2863); Paper and Paperboard Containers and Packaging Products Industry—final decision (26 F.R. 7); and Battery Industry—final decision (22 F.R. 3012) and the reasons stated therein. Also, an analysis of the evidence indicates that 79.0 percent of the establishments in the industry employing 47.7 percent of the covered worker employment paid less than $1.69 as a minimum wage. The proposed finding does not give adequate consideration to the minimum wages paid by an overwhelming majority of the establishments. Consequently, I decline to follow the proposal.

In the payroll period covered by the BLS survey, 50.1 percent of the establishments with 80.0 percent of the covered worker employment paid a minimum wage of $1.29 or more, while 21.0 percent of the establishments with 52.3 percent of the covered worker employment paid a minimum wage of $1.69 or more. The most representative minimum wage appears to rest within the range between these medians, rather than at either of them. In this range, $1.42 appears to be the most representative in terms of establishments weighted by their covered employment, as well as establishments not weighted by such employment. There were 36.0 percent of the establishments with 69.1 percent of the covered worker employment paying that minimum wage or more. At this point the deficit in establishments is appropriately overbalanced by the surplus of employment. Therefore, I find $1.42 to be the prevailing minimum wage as of the survey period.

Turning now to the matter of what movements, if any, have occurred in the minimum wage level since the BLS survey period, there is uncontradicted testimony that the movement in average straight-time hourly earnings in this industry since the survey period is indicative of the movement in minimum wages. Government Exhibit 5 shows the movement in average straight-time hourly earnings from the survey period through July 1961. Government Exhibit 6, comparing the median minimum wage levels and average straight-time hourly earnings in August 1956 with those in March 1961, lends support to the testimony referred to above.

Average straight-time hourly earnings increased by 4.6 cents, or 2 percent, from March 1961 through July 1961. Both the Wage and Hour economist and the AFL–CIO economist testified that the comparable movement in minimum wages would be somewhere between the percentage increase and the penny increase, i.e., between 3 and 4.6 cents.

The AFL–CIO proposes a finding that an increase of 4 cents has occurred. The reasons assigned for the proposal are that so-called "across the board" penny increases in wages are common in the industry, and secondly that the BLS earnings data takes no account of advances in earnings which have continued since July 1961. However, there is testimony indicating that percentage increases are also common in the industry. Further, an attempt to assess the extent of advances in earnings since July 1961, for which the record contains no data, would appear to be only speculative.

When both percentage increases and penny increases are common, the amount of increase in median minimum wage levels would not generally be as great as the penny increase in average straight-time hourly earnings. Government Exhibit 6 illustrates this. It also shows that the increase in median minimum wage levels had a closer affinity to the percentage increase in average hourly earnings than to the penny increase in such earnings. Therefore, it appears more reasonable with regard to the period subsequent to the BLS survey to conclude that the amount of the increase in minimum wages rests closer to the extent of the percentage increase in average straight-time hourly earnings than it does to the amount of the penny increase in such earnings. Therefore, I find that the amount of that increase in minimum wages is 3 cents. The resulting prevailing minimum wage is $1.45.

At the hearing it was explained that good cause had been found to make final decisions determining prevailing minimum wages under the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act effective seven days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER in the paper and pulp and manifold business forms industries (26 F.R. 7698, 7699). It was further explained that any evidence or argument why such good cause should not be found in this industry would be considered in these proceedings. None has been offered. Accordingly, for the reasons expressed in the decisions cited above, this tentative decision finds good cause to provide a 7 day delay in the effective date of the final decision.

Accordingly, from the findings and conclusions hereinabove stated and pursuant to section 4 of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (41 U.S.C. 38), I propose to amend 41 CFR 50–202.22 (26 F.R. 9048) to read as follows:

§ 50–202.22 Drugs and medicine industry.

(a) Definition. The drugs and medicine industry is defined as that industry which manufactures (or packages) drugs and medicinal preparations (other than food) intended for internal or external use in the diagnosis, treatment, or prevention of diseases in, or to affect the structure or any functions of, the body of men or other animals, including without limitation the following products: Bulk organic and inorganic medicinal chemicals and their derivatives; processed botanical drugs and herbs; endocrine products; basic vitamins; active medicinal principles, such as alkaloids from botanical drugs and herbs; drugs and medicines in pharmaceutical preparations, such as ampules, tablets, capsules, ointments, solutions, and suspensions for human and veterinary use, including vitamin preparations and galenicals, such as fluid extracts and tinctures; viruses, serums, toxins, and analogous products, such as allergenic extracts, and normal serums and plasmas for human or veterinary use; and bacteriological media.

(b) Minimum wage. The minimum wage for persons employed in the manufacture or furnishing of products of the drugs and medicine industry shall be not less than $1.45 per hour.

Within twenty-one days from the date of publication of this tentative decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER, interested persons may submit written exceptions to the proposed action described therein, together with supporting views. Exceptions shall be addressed to the Secretary of Labor, United States Department of Labor, Washington, D.C.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 8th day of January 1962.

ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG,
Secretary of Labor.

Paper and Paperboard Containers and Packaging Products Industry (26 F.R. 9048; 41 CFR 50–202.23).

It is proposed henceforth to enforce all wage determinations in Alaska and Hawaii. In the event this proposal is adopted, it shall become effective upon the expiration of 30 days after notice of such adoption is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Any person adversely affected or aggrieved by this proposal (who shall be deemed to include any manufacturer of, or regular dealer in, materials, supplies, articles, or equipment purchased or to be purchased by the Government from any source in Alaska or Hawaii, who is in any industry to which this proposal is applicable, and any employee or representative of employees of any such person) may request an opportunity for a hearing upon timely application as hereinafter provided.

Any such hearing would be limited to the following issues: (1) Whether the geographic area or areas of competition for contracts subject to the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act for products of the industry (with which any particular hearing is concerned) is limited to Alaska or Hawaii (or subdivisions thereof) so as to authorize separate wage determinations for these areas; and (2) in the event such area or areas are so limited, what are the prevailing minimum wages in such area or areas.

An application for such a hearing shall be in writing, filed in quadruplicate (original and three copies) with the Administrator of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions at the United States Department of Labor, Constitution Avenue and Fourteenth Street NW., Washington 25, D.C., within 30 days after this notice is filed for publication with the Office of the Federal Register. It shall state each of the applicant's contentions regarding the issues set out in the preceding paragraph. The application, and each copy thereof, shall be accompanied by a copy of expected documentary evidence, an identification of each witness intended to be called, and a summary of the expected testimony of such witness, the name and address of the counsel or other representative selected to present such evidence, and an estimate of the time the presentation may require.

The time and place of any requested hearing will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, if and after, applications are received. The procedure will be governed by sections 7 and 8 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1006 and 1007), and 41 CFR Part 50–203, Subpart C, as recently amended (26 F.R. 8945), and the applicable provisions of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act (41 U.S.C. 35 et seq.).

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 8th day of January 1962.

ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG,
Secretary of Labor.

FEDERAL AVIATION AGENCY

[14 CFR Parts 600, 601, 608]

[Airspace Docket No. 61–WA–188]

SPECIAL USE AIRSPACE, FEDERAL AIRWAYS AND CONTROLLED AIRSPACE

Designation of Restricted Areas and Federal Airways, and Alteration of Federal Airways, Control Areas and Control Zones; Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (14 CFR 409.13), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering amendments to Parts 600, 601, and 608, and §§ 600.6012, 600.6017, 600.6074, 600.6077, 600.6190, 600.6280, 600.6516, 600.1530, 600.1531, 600.1539, 600.1541, 600.1644, 601.1168, 601.1182, 601.1260, 601.2270, and 601.7101 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Department of the Air Force has declared a requirement for their undergraduate pilot training activities to be conducted in segregated airspace surrounding six selected Air Force bases. Since the bulk of this training involves students with little or no actual flight training it is the contention of the Air Force that this activity constitutes a hazard to non-participating aircraft. The Air Training Command has indicated that they require segregated airspace in the amount of 8,000 square miles surrounding each location, to contain this training activity.

In addition to U.S. students, from approximately 50 other nations will undergo flight training in the Undergraduate Pilot Training (UPT) program. Approximately 6,000 student and support missions will be flown monthly in jet trainers with approximately 63 sorties airborne continuously during daylight hours. The majority of the training sorties will consist of acrobatic maneuvers performed at high speeds, which are not adaptable to air traffic control and cannot be conducted on Federal airways. The ability of the student pilot to perform maneuvers while at the same time maintaining the necessary degree of vigilance for other aircraft is problematical, and his reactions are unpredictable.

The UPT program is the consolidation of all phases of undergraduate pilot training and is scheduled in three phases of instruction, preflight, primary flight training and basic flight training. During the primary and basic flight training periods, students perform a considerable amount of solo flight and it is during these phases, considering the type of maneuvers being performed, that the need for positive segregation from other flight activities becomes most apparent.

The effective operating range of the type of aircraft being utilized and the type of training to be performed dictates the outer limits of the flight training areas. In order for the missions to be effectively performed, the training areas must be situated within 75 nautical miles of the base. Training areas presently utilized by the Air Force are situated in a manner to avoid Federal Airways; however, some of these areas are beyond the optimum operating range of jet training aircraft. This decreases the effectiveness of the training mission.

As a result of discussions between representatives of the Federal Aviation Agency and the Air Force, the Administrator has under consideration the designation of restricted airspace as a means of meeting the stated requirement for segregation. The restricted airspace herein being proposed is of lesser dimensions than that requested by the Air Force but is considered sufficient to contain the UPT activity. This notice is concerned with the airspace surrounding the Vance AFB, Enid, Okla.

In order to insure the maximum degree of safety and minimum conflict between student training and other aircraft operations, it is proposed to concurrently designate restricted airspace and to realign certain Low and Intermediate altitude airways, alter others and designate certain alternates, adjacent to and through the proposed area. The airway modifications being proposed would permit the designation of airspace in a sufficiently large block to contain the complete flight profiles of the many types of maneuvers comprising the training syllabus while remaining within the maximum desirable range of 75 miles of the base. Since the flight profiles indicate that certain of the maneuvers can and will be conducted only between certain altitude levels, every opportunity has been taken to propose varying floors in order to make maximum effective use of all the airspace. The airway proposals contained herein would permit uninterrupted flow of non-participating aircraft around the proposed area during times when the area is in use. Low and Intermediate altitude airways which would traverse the proposed restricted area would be used only after obtaining prior approval from the Kansas City Air Route Traffic Control Center. Also, although practice penetrations, approaches and landings are not normally considered to be hazardous operations, the contemplated volume of such activity coupled with the level of training of the students would appear to dictate segregation of this type traffic to the extent practicable at the primary base, Vance, and at the satellite field at Kegelman. In consideration of these factors it is proposed to designate circular restricted areas at these two locations of sufficient size to contain this type activity at least during the phase of the maximum rate of descent. At Vance AFB, where there is both civil and military traffic, it is considered that since there is a full-time federally operated tower in operation the provisions of Amendment 60–24 to Civil Air Regulations will permit the desired segregation without the additional restrictions on other users which a restricted area would impose. Accordingly, at this location the floor of the restricted area would be placed at 2000 feet. At Kegelman, where only a part-time mobile tower with no provisions for Communications with transient aircraft will be in operation, the floor of proposed restricted airspace would be placed at ground level. The configuration of restricted airspace at these two locations would also take into account other existing airsports and existing airways. Further, since the restricted airspace being considered would be joint use airspace, it will be necessary to expand the controlled airspace between Anthony and Ponca City to include those areas not now so designated. Accordingly, the Federal Aviation Agency is considering the designation of the following restricted areas:

1. R–5602A Vance, Okla.

The designation of the foregoing restricted areas would dictate the alteration of Low altitude VOR Federal airways, Intermediate altitude VOR Federal airways, Control area extensions, the Enid, Okla., control zone and the Continental Control Area as follows:

1. Low altitude VOR Federal airway No. 12 extends in part from the Gage, Okla., VOR via the Anthony, Kans., VOR to the Wichita, Kans., VOR including a north alternate from Gage to Wichita via the intersection of the Gage VOR direct radial to the Hutchinson, Kans., VOR with the Anthony VOR direct radial to the Dodge City, Kans., VOR. It is proposed to realign Victor 12 north alternate from Gage to Wichita via the intersection of the Gage VOR 028° and the Wichita VOR 250° True radials.

2. Low altitude VOR Federal airway No. 17 extends in part from the Oklahoma City, Okla., VOR to Gage, Okla., VOR including a west alternate via the intersection of the Oklahoma City VOR 282° and the Gage VOR 133° True radials. It is proposed to realign Victor 17 west alternate from Oklahoma City to Gage via the intersection of the Oklahoma City VOR 282° and the Gage VOR 146° True radials.

3. Low altitude VOR Federal airway No. 74 extends in part from the Anthony, Kans., VOR to the Ponca City, Okla., VOR. It is proposed to alter Victor 74 by designating a north alternate from Anthony to Ponca City via the intersection of the Anthony VOR 085° and the Ponca City VOR 327° True radials.

4. The portions of low altitude VOR Federal airways Nos. 12, 17, 74, 77, 190, 280, and 516 and the portions of intermediate altitude VOR Federal airways Nos. 1530, 1531, 1539, 1541, and 1644 which would coincide with the proposed restricted areas would be used only after obtaining prior approval from appropriate authority.

5. Intermediate altitude VOR Federal airway No. 1539 extends in part as a 10-mile wide airway from the Ponca City, Okla., VOR via the intersection of the Ponca City VOR 328° and the Wichita, Kans., VOR 190° True radials to the Wichita VOR. It is proposed to realign this segment of Victor 1539 as a 10-mile wide airway from the Ponca City VOR via the intersection of the Ponca City VOR 327° and the Wichita VOR 187° True radials to the Wichita VOR.

6. Designate intermediate altitude VOR Federal airway No. 1768 as a 10-mile wide airway from the Gage, Okla., VOR via the intersection of the Gage VOR 146° and the Oklahoma City, Okla., VOR 282° True radials to the Oklahoma City VOR.

7. Designate intermediate altitude VOR Federal airway No. 1770 as a 10-mile wide airway from the Gage VOR via the intersection of the Gage VOR 028° and the Wichita VOR 250° True radials to the Wichita VOR.

8. Designate intermediate altitude VOR Federal airway No. 1772 as a 10-mile wide airway from the Anthony, Kans., VOR via the intersection of the Anthony VOR 085° and the Ponca City VOR 327° True radials to the Ponca City VOR.

9. Designate intermediate altitude VOR Federal airway No. 1774 as a 10-mile wide airway from the Oklahoma City, Okla., VOR to the Ponca City, Okla., VOR via the intersection of the Oklahoma City VOR 040° and the Ponca City VOR 181° True radials.

10. The Ponca City, Okla., control area extension (601.1168) would be expanded to include the airspace bounded on the north and northeast by the proposed low altitude VOR Federal airway No. 74 north alternate between the Anthony VOR and the Ponca City VOR; on the south by low altitude VOR Federal airway No. 190; and on the northwest by low altitude VOR Federal airway No. 12. The portion of this control area extension which would coincide with the proposed restricted areas would be used only after obtaining prior approval from appropriate authority.

11. The portions of the Altus, Okla., control area extension (601.1260), the Enid, Okla., control area extension (601.1182) and the Enid, Okla., control zone (601.2270) which coincide with the proposed restricted areas would be used only after obtaining prior approval from appropriate authority.

12. The continental control area (601.7101) would be altered so as to include proposed Restricted Areas R-5602C and R-5602D.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[47 CFR Part 2]

[Docket No. 14475; FCC 62-5]

RADIO ASTRONOMY SERVICE

Modification of Existing Frequency Allocation Provisions; Notice of Proposed Rule Making

1. On January 25, 1961, the Commission adopted a notice of proposed rule making in Docket No. 13928 wherein, among other things, a number of proposals were made relative to frequency allocations for the radio astronomy service. On the basis of comments received, those proposals were subsequently adopted, without change, by the Commission's second memorandum and order of October 18, 1961, in Docket No. 13928, and became effective December 1, 1961.

2. The Commission has adopted this day, January 3, 1962, a notice of inquiry in Docket No. 14477, wherein the draft preliminary views of the United States are set forth relative to future international frequency allocation changes considered desirable for the radio astronomy service. Although the results of that inquiry are intended for distribution abroad, to elicit the comments and reactions of other Administrations, it appears appropriate to institute rule making at this time to amend our national provisions for radio astronomy to align with the preliminary views.

3. Accordingly, it is proposed to amend the national Table of Frequency Allocations in Part 2 of the rules, as set forth in the Appendix below, for the reasons given below:

(A) Delete the existing allocation of 1003–1005 kc/s to the earth-space and space service in order to keep the band 9995–10005 kc/s free of all transmissions other than those of standard frequency stations.

(B) Delete radio astronomy from the band 20000–20010 kc/s; the band 19990–20000 kc/s will be kept free of all transmissions other than those of standard frequency stations. Delete Space and Earth-Space, 19990–20000.

(C) Delete provisions for industrial, scientific and medical (ISM) devices on 40.68 Mc/s. Although this frequency has been designated for ISM for a number of years, it remains virtually unused for that purpose. Delete ISM footnote No. 236 from Col. 5.

(D) Allocate the band 328.6–335.4 Mc/s to aeronautical radionavigation on a primary basis and to the radio astronomy service on a secondary basis. On a long term basis this band appears to offer the best opportunity for uninterrupted astronomical observations, provided the observatories are not in the vicinity of major airports.

(E) Delete the 404–406 Mc/s secondary allocation to the radio astronomy service. Increased space communication and meteorological aids activities in this band are expected to make it less and less useful for radio astronomy. Additionally, for continuum studies, the bands 328.6–335.4 Mc/s and 404–406 Mc/s are not sufficiently separated to warrant retention of both for radio astronomy.

(F) Re-allocate the band 1660–1670 Mc/s to provide a secondary allocation to the radio astronomy service at 1664.4–1668.4 Mc/s to encourage research on the hydroxyl complex spectral lines.

(G) Delete footnote US68 from Column 6 in the bands 4990–5000 Mc/s and 15350–15400 Mc/s inasmuch as the bands are allocated exclusively to radio astronomy.

(H) Allocate the band 88000–90000 Mc/s (88–90 Gc/s) to the radio astronomy service to permit observations at this "window" in the atmosphere.

4. In view of the foregoing, it is proposed to amend § 2.106, as set forth in the Appendix below, pursuant to the authority contained in sections 303 (c), (f), and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

5. All interested persons are invited to file, on or before February 16, 1962, comments supporting or opposing the proposal set out in the Appendix to this notice, outlining any modifications or counterproposals the parties may wish to submit. Comments in reply thereto may be submitted on or before February 26, 1962. The Commission will consider all comments filed hereunder prior to taking final action in this matter provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of § 1.213 of the rules, the Commission will not be limited solely to the comments filed in this proceeding.

6. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.54 of the Commission's rules and regulations, the original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs or comments filed shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: January 3, 1962.

Released: January 5, 1962.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] BEN F. WAPLE,
Acting Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Commodity Credit Corporation

SALES OF CERTAIN COMMODITIES

January Sales List

Notice to buyers. Pursuant to the policy of Commodity Credit Corporation issued October 12, 1954 (19 F.R. 6669), and subject to the conditions stated therein as well as herein, the commodities listed below are available for sale and, where noted, for redemption of payment-in-kind certificates on the price basis set forth.

The prices at which Commodity Credit Corporation commodity holdings are available for sale during January 1962, were announced today by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The following commodities are available: Butter, cheddar cheese, nonfat dry milk, cotton (upland and extra long staple), peanuts, wheat, rice (rough), corn, oats, barley, rye, grain sorghums, and gum turpentine.

Beginning January 1, CCC will discontinue charging sales of nonstorable corn and grain sorghums against its pool of 1961 Feed Grain Program certificates. Until further notice, all other sales of corn and grain sorghums for unrestricted use (domestic or export) will continue to be in redemption of the pooled certificates.

The CCC Monthly Sales List, which varies from month to month as additional commodities become available or commodities formerly available are dropped, is designed to aid in moving CCC's inventories into domestic or export use through regular commercial channels.

If it becomes necessary during the month to amend this list in any material way—such as by the removal or addition of a commodity in which there is general interest or by a significant change in price or method of sale—an announcement of the change will be sent to all persons currently receiving the list by mail from Washington. To be put on this mailing list, address: Director, Price Division, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D.C.

All commodities except oats currently offered for sale by CCC, plus tobacco from CCC loan stocks, are eligible for special export sale under the CCC Export Credit Sales Program. The following commodities are currently eligible for barter: Nonfat dry milk, butter, cotton, tobacco, rice (Pearl rough), wheat, corn, rye, barley, and grain sorghums. This list is subject to change from time to time.

Interest rates per annum under the CCC Export Credit Sales Program for January 1962 are 3½ percent for periods up to six months, 4 percent for periods from over six and up to 18 months, and 4½ percent for periods from over 18 months up to a maximum of 36 months.

The CCC will entertain offers from responsible buyers for the purchase of any commodity on the current list. Offers accepted by CCC will be subject to the terms and conditions prescribed by the Corporation. These terms include payment by cash or irrevocable letter of credit before delivery of the commodity, and the conditions require removal of the commodity from CCC storage within a reasonable period of time. Where conditions of sale for export differ from those for domestic sale, proof of exportation is also required, and the buyer is responsible for obtaining any required U.S. Government export permit or license. Purchases from CCC shall not constitute any assurance that any such permit or license will be granted by the issuing authority.

Applicable announcements containing all terms and conditions of sale will be furnished upon request. For easy reference a number of these announcements are identified by code number in the following list. Interested persons are invited to communicate with the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, USDA, Washington 25, D.C., with respect to all commodities or—for specified commodities—with the designated ASCS Commodity Office.

Commodity Credit Corporation reserves the right to amend, from time to time, any of its announcements. Such amendments shall be applicable to and be made a part of the sale contracts thereafter entered into.

CCC reserves the right to reject any or all offers placed with it for the purchase of commodities pursuant to such announcements.

If CCC does not have adequate information as to the financial responsibility of a prospective buyer to meet all contract obligations that might arise by acceptance of an offer or if CCC deems such buyer's financial responsibility to be inadequate CCC reserves the right (i) to refuse to consider the offer, (ii) to accept the offer only after submission by the buyer of a certified or cashier's check, bond, letter of credit or other security acceptable to CCC assuring that the buyer will discharge the responsibility under the contract, or (iii) to accept the offer upon condition that the buyer promptly submit to CCC such of the aforementioned security as CCC may direct. If a prospective buyer is in doubt as to whether CCC is acquainted with his financial responsibility he should communicate with the ASCS Office at which the offer is to be placed to determine whether a financial statement or advance financial arrangement will be necessary in his case.

Disposals and other handling of inventory items often result in small quantities at given locations or in qualities not up to specifications. These lots are offered by the appropriate ASCS Office promptly upon appearance and therefore generally they do not appear in the Monthly Sales List.

On sales for which the buyer is required to submit proof to CCC of exportation the buyer shall be regularly engaged in the business of buying or selling commodities and for this purpose shall maintain a bona fide business office in the United States, its territories or possessions, and have a person, principal, or resident agent upon whom service of judicial process may be had.

Prospective buyers for export should note that generally, sales to United States Government agencies, with only minor exceptions, will constitute a domestic unrestricted use of the commodity.

Commodity Credit Corporation reserves the right, before making any sales, to define or limit export areas.

Notice to exporters. The Department of Commerce, Bureau of International Programs (the Bureau of Foreign Commerce until Aug. 9, 1961), pursuant to regulations under the Export Control Act of 1949, prohibits the exportation or re-exportation by anyone of any commodities (except absorbent cotton and sterilized gauze and bandages with respect to Cuba only) under this program to Cuba, the Soviet Bloc, or Communist-controlled areas of the Far East including Communist China, North Korea, and the Communist-controlled area of Vietnam, except under validated license issued by the U.S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of International Programs.

These regulations generally require that exporters, in or in connection with their contracts with foreign purchasers, where the contract involves $10,000 or more and exportation is to be made to a Group R country, obtain from the foreign purchaser a written acknowledgment of his understanding of, (1) U.S. Commerce Department prohibitions (Comprehensive Export Schedule, 15 CFR 371.4 and 371.8) against sales or resale for re-export of said commodities, or any part thereof, without express Commerce Department authorization, to the Soviet Bloc, Communist China, North Korea or the Communist-controlled area of Vietnam or to Cuba, and (2) the sanction of denial of future U.S. export privileges that may be imposed for violation of the Commerce Department regulations. Exporters who have a continuing and regular relationship with a foreign purchaser may obtain a blanket acknowledgment from such purchaser covering all transactions involving surplus agricultural commodities and manufactures thereof purchased from CCC or subsidized for export by the Secretary of Agriculture or CCC. Where commodities are to be exported by a party other than the original purchaser of the commodities from the CCC the original purchaser should inform the exporter in writing of the requirements for obtaining the signed acknowledgment from the foreign purchaser.

For all exportations, one of the destination control statements specified in Commerce Department Regulations (Comprehensive Export Schedule, 15 CFR 379.10(c)) is required to be placed on all copies of the shipper's export declaration, all copies of the bill of lading, and all copies of the commercial invoices. For additional information as to which destination control statement to use, the exporter should communicate with the Bureau of International Programs or one of the field offices of the Department of Commerce.

Exporters should consult the applicable Commerce Department regulations for more detailed information if desired and for any changes that may be made therein.

JANUARY 4, 1962.

The United States Forest Service, Department of Agriculture, has filed an application, Serial No. U-081486, for the withdrawal of lands described below from prospecting location, entry and purchase under the general mining laws, subject to existing valid claims.

The applicant desires the land for management as a scenic, recreational, and archeological area and preservation of scenic, archeological, and geological values contained therein. The lands are in the Manti-LaSal National Forest.

For a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice, persons having cause may present their objections or comments in writing to the State Director for Utah, Bureau of Land Management, Darling Building, P.O. CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket 13327; Order No. E-17914]

AMERICAN AIRLINES, INC., AND BRANIFF AIRWAYS, INC.

Order Tentatively Approving Agreement

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 8th day of January 1962.

In the matter of an agreement between American Airlines, Inc., and Braniff Airways, Inc., et al., Agreement CAB 16012, Docket 13327; filed pursuant to section 412 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended.

On December 1, 1961, eleven trunkline carriers[1] (the carriers) filed with the Board pursuant to section 412 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (the Act), as amended, copies of an agreement entitled "Reservation Service Charge Plan" which is to be applicable wholly within the Continental United States, wherein the parties have agreed upon procedures relating to ticketing time limits, a reservation service charge, and the method of assessment of the service charge. Such agreement which, subject to prior Board approval is to become effective March 1, 1962 and continue in effect for an indefinite period,[2] has been entered into pursuant to discussions held pursuant to Board Order E–17515 dated September 28, 1961.[3] Such discussions were authorized on the Board's own motion in view of the present unsatisfactory financial condition of the domestic trunklines and the need for finding ways and means to reduce carrier costs and increase revenues without undue burden on the traveling public, and the Board's determination that it is in the public interest to authorize the carriers to enter into joint discussions for a limited period regarding, inter alia, the control of "no-shows," subject to certain conditions.

The provisions of the agreement relative to ticketing time limits specify that for reservations confirmed more than 48 hours before scheduled flight departure, tickets must be purchased at least 24 hours before scheduled flight departure;[4] that in cases where the 24 hour ticket pick-up requirement is considered to present undue hardship, and for reservations confirmed within 48 hours of scheduled flight departure, tickets may be purchased at the passenger's convenience only if the customer submits his full name and address at the time reservations are confirmed; that subscribers to the Universal Air Travel Plan (UATP) and all holders of On-Line Credit Plans, "Write-your-own-ticket" books, or Block Ticket Accounts, including Teleticketing or Government Transportation Requests (GTR), will be required to submit their account numbers or GTR numbers at the time their reservations are confirmed; and that tickets will not be accepted for travel over other than the carrier specified on the flight coupon, unless said coupon has been appropriately endorsed by said carrier, or the customer presents written evidence of cancellation.

The proposed reservation service charge rule provides that any ticketed passenger who submits a ticket for voluntary refund or voluntarily for use after the scheduled flight departure for which the first remaining flight coupon was validated, will be assessed a service charge of $5.00 or 50 percent (whichever is greater, except in no case will the service charge exceed $50.00 or the total value of the first remaining flight coupon) of the applicable one-way local fare of the first remaining flight coupon: Unless, the customer is able to present simultaneously written evidence, as provided by the carrier, that he canceled his reservation prior to scheduled flight departure for which the first remaining flight coupon was validated.[5] A like charge will be billed subscribers to credit plans (UATP, "Write-your-own-ticket," On-Line Credit Plans, Block Ticket Accounts, including Teleticketing and Government Transportation Requests) where account numbers have been submitted as applying to customers who held confirmed reservations and did not use the flight for which they held a reservation, and who had not presented or forwarded written proof of cancellation.[6] The carriers have further agreed that travel agents shall be responsible for advising passengers of the reservations service charge and for the collection of such charges (commissionable at the rate of 5 percent).

The Board is cognizant of the inherently complex nature of the reservation and ticketing aspects involved in the sale of air transportation, and of the need to improve further the reservation procedures. The adoption of ticketing time limit standards represents, in the Board's view, a desirable move. The Board was also aware of the long-standing economic and service problem to the airlines and air travelers alike resulting from the failure of ticketed passengers to cancel or use reserved seat space. Thus, a fully booked flight may actually depart with unoccupied seats that could have been used by other passengers, because prior seat reservations were made by persons who failed to use or cancel their reservations. This problem has resulted in a handicap on the earning power of the air carriers and has often resulted in a denial of available air transportation to the public. For these reasons, the Board believes that reservation and no-show controls are desirable. On the basis of the foregoing, the Board has tentatively concluded that the agreement should be approved subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth and the receipt of comments from interested persons.

As noted above, the proposed service charge is $5.00 or 50 percent (whichever is greater) of the applicable one-way local fare of the first remaining validated flight coupon, except that in no case will the charge exceed $50.00 or the total value of such coupon. The Board is concerned that the penalty may be in excess of that necessary to accomplish the desired purpose, and thus be unduly harsh on the passenger. However, absent experience or appropriate guidelines, we are unable to determine what otherwise would be a reasonable service charge. Therefore, while we tentatively have decided to approve the penalty as submitted, we intend to consider further the level of assessment at the end of an experimental period of six months. Toward this end we have concluded that our tentative approval should be conditioned as to require the carriers to report in detail by September 1, 1962, as to their experience under the program, including a specific recommendation as to any desirable changes in the amount of the penalty.

The Board notes that, under the terms of the agreement, application of the service charge is related in part to a ticket for which the first remaining flight coupon was validated (or revalidated). The word "validated" is not defined and hence may be subject to misinterpretation by the public, the carriers and the Board, particularly in view of the different types of tickets now being used in providing air transportation and the various procedures applicable thereto. In order that all concerned may be adequately informed, the Board desires that a definition be adopted or that the matter otherwise be clarified by the parties, both with respect to subscribers to credit plans, as mentioned in the agreement, and all other users of air transportation. In addition, the Board expects that the carriers, individually or collectively, will adopt simplified procedures governing ticket endorsement and the furnishing to ticketed passengers of written notice of cancellation of space.

The Board further proposes that its approval of the agreement will extend to the participation therein of any other certificated route air carrier upon the filing with the Board by such a carrier of a notice of intent to be bound by the terms of the agreement. The Board will also retain jurisdiction over the agreement for the purpose of imposing any other conditions or limitations on the approval which may be justified in the future or of requesting such information as the Board or its staff may deem appropriate.

The imposition of a reservations service charge on no-show passengers raises the related question of the procedures which should obtain in any instance where a passenger, who presents himself for carriage at the appropriate time and place, is not transported on a flight that operated and for which he held a proper ticket because of insufficient seats on the aircraft.[7]

The overbooking practices of the trunkline carriers have been the basis for numerous complaints to the Board and on August 4, 1960, by Order E–15614, the Board directed its staff to undertake a comprehensive investigation of this problem. The staff issued a report on July 28, 1961 setting forth its tentative findings and conclusions in the overbooking investigation (Overbooking Practices of Trunkline Carriers, Docket 11683). Facts developed in the investigation indicate that substantial overbooking, either inadvertent or intentional, does occur and while the percentage of oversales is not large in relation to the total volume of traffic handled, the number of persons inconvenienced by oversales is not insignificant.[8] Therefore, the Board concludes that any program directed to a resolution of the no-show problem must consider also the oversale aspect of the reservations process and give weight to the carrier's, as well as the passenger's, responsibility in confirming a reservation.

Implementation of the no-show agreement will necessitate a filing by the carriers of appropriate tariff rules. However, the Board does not intend to permit such rules to become effective in advance of the submission by the carriers of a program, and such tariff revisions as may be necessary, establishing reciprocal payment to passengers in the event of oversales.[9] In this connection, it appears to the Board that a reasonable minimum payment by the carrier should be $25.00 or 50 percent, whichever is greater, of the applicable one-way local fare of the first remaining validated flight coupon of the ticket.[10] It is to be noted that such payment by a carrier would be higher than the service charge to be borne by a no-show passenger. However, a no-show passenger will be subject to the service charge irrespective of whether his failure to use the seat has, in fact, "injured" the carrier,[11] whereas the proposed payment by the carrier to the passenger would be made only if the passenger is not transported.

Because of the consequences of the foregoing proposals on the traveling public, the carriers and the Board, the Board will allow a period of twenty days for the filing of comments by interested persons and for the accomplishment of the other matters discussed above. For the duration of such period the Board also will authorize the air carrier parties to the agreement and any other certificated route air carrier to engage in discussions concerning the no-show and oversale programs.[12]

Accordingly, it is ordered:

1. That action on Agreement CAB 16012 be and it hereby is deferred for a period of twenty days to permit the filing of comments by interested persons[13] relative to the Board's tentative decision herein and the accomplishment of other matters discussed above;

2. That during the same period the air carrier parties to the agreement and any other certificated route air carrier may engage in discussions of the no-show and oversale programs, subject to terms and conditions of Order E–17515; and

3. That this order shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[SEAL] HAROLD R. SANDERSON,
Secretary.

[F.R. Doc. 62–330; Filed, Jan. 10, 1962; 8:51 a.m.]

[2] The parties have agreed that no carrier will withdraw from the agreement prior to September 1, 1962, and then only with 30 days written notice, and that any early termination of the agreement would be only by unanimous agreement of the parties.

[3] As amended by Orders E–17657 and E–17784, dated October 31, 1961, and November 30, 1961, respectively.

[4] The ticketing time limit requirements are met by the issuance of a ticket which indicates at least the reserved space of the first flight segment held by the passenger, or the revalidation of a previously issued ticket to indicate at least that reserved space.

[5] In instances where the ticket is presented for use, the penalty will be assessed before the ticket is either revalidated or reissued.

[6] In cases where the names and addresses of passengers requesting reservations pursuant to any of the credit plans are given, instead of an account number, the resolution provides that the person (rather than the account) will be billed the service charge.

[7] The Board gave recognition to the dual nature of this problem in its order instituting an investigation of overbooking practices in stating: "It is, on the one hand, obvious that in overbooking on the assumption that there will be a calculated number of persons holding reservations who fail to appear, the carrier is imposing on the overbooked passengers the risk that reserved space will not be available when the aircraft takes off • • • It is, on the other hand, also apparent that failure to use reserved space, for whatever reason, presents real economic problems for the carriers." Order E–15614, Aug. 4, 1960, p. 4.

[8] The experienced oversale incidence to passengers enplaned of .07 percent for the two sample surveys, conducted in accordance with the staff's investigation, applied to passenger enplanements for 1960, would produce an estimated total of 33,600 oversales for an annual period.

[9] A passenger holding a valid ticket, or for whom the carrier's records show space was reserved, and who has complied with carrier requirements as to ticketing procedures, and who was not accommodated at flight departure, shall be deemed an oversold passenger.

Passengers holding first class space but provided space in the coach section of a flight shall be considered as accommodated, but shall be due the difference between the applicable first-class and coach fare in accordance with existing tariff provisions.

Passengers holding confirmed coach or tourist space or other reduced-fare space, but accommodated in the first-class section shall be considered as accommodated, but without liability for any additional collection. This shall not apply to coach stand-by passengers who are boarded in the first-class section.

[10] Where such minimum payment would not fully compensate the passenger for damages sustained as a result of the oversale, he would be free to claim and the carrier would be free to pay, such additional amount as the circumstances would warrant.

[11] E.g., if the aircraft never was fully reserved or if it otherwise departed fully loaded despite the no-show, the carrier was not injured.

[12] The Board anticipates that, following final action by it on the matters reviewed herein, the carriers would take all appropriate steps to advise those concerned of the details of the programs well in advance of their implementation.

[13] Such comments should be submitted in triplicate, addressed to the Docket Section, Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington 25, D.C.

FEDERAL AVIATION AGENCY

[OE Docket No. 61-CE-68]

PROPOSED TELEVISION ANTENNA STRUCTURE

Determination of No Hazard to Air Navigation

The Federal Aviation Agency has circularized the following proposal to interested persons for aeronautical comment and has conducted a study to determine its effect upon the safe and efficient utilization of airspace: Station WKBT-TV, La Crosse, Wisconsin, proposes to construct a television antenna structure near Galesville, Wisconsin, at latitude 44°05'28" north, longitude 91°20'15" west. The overall height of the structure would be 2,449 feet above mean sea level (1,629 feet above ground).

This is the third proposal for a structure in the vicinity of La Crosse, Wisconsin, which has been submitted by the sponsor. Two prior proposals were withdrawn by the sponsor because of objections received. An objection to this proposal was made by the State of Wisconsin Aeronautics Commission on the basis that the proposed structure would require an increase in the procedure turn altitude for the VOR instrument approach procedure to Runway 18 at the La Crosse Airport and it would be a hazard to VFR operations. This proposal was discussed at the FAA Kansas City Informal Airspace Meeting and no objection was made. The State of Wisconsin Aeronautics Commission was not represented at this meeting.

The proposed structure would be located approximately 15.5 statute miles north of the La Crosse, Wisconsin, Airport and would require an increase from 2,400 feet MSL to 3,400 feet MSL in the procedure turn altitude for standard instrument approach procedure AL-219-VOR-RWY 18 to this airport. However, if the proposed structure is constructed, this approach procedure would be modified so that this approach could be effected without requiring an excessive rate of descent. The Agency study disclosed that this increase in the procedure turn altitude would have no substantial adverse effect upon this approach procedure. This increase in the procedure turn altitude would also have the side effect of precluding the use of 4,000 feet MSL on VOR Federal Airways Nos. 129, 170, and 2-97-171 during such time as this instrument approach procedure would be used. However, there are four instrument approach procedures established to this airport and instrument approach procedure AL-219-VOR-RWY 18 is least used. The study disclosed that this side effect would have no substantial adverse effect upon these operations.

The proposed structure would require an increase from 2,600 feet MSL to 2,800 feet MSL in the minimum en route altitude on VOR Federal Airway No. 129 from the Nodine, Minnesota, VORTAC to the Arcadia Intersection. The lowest Instrument Flight Rules cardinal en route altitude along this segment of airway is 3,000 feet MSL. The study disclosed that this increase would have no substantial adverse effect upon these operations. The study further disclosed that the proposed structure would not be located in close proximity to specific known routes generally used by VFR operations.

No other aeronautical operations, procedures or minimum flight altitudes would be affected by the proposed structure.

Therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (14 CFR 626.33; 26 F.R. 5292) it is concluded that the proposed structure, at the location and mean sea level elevation specified herein, would have no substantial adverse effect upon aeronautical operations, procedures or minimum flight altitudes; and it is hereby determined that this structure would not be a hazard to air navigation provided that the structure be obstruction marked and lighted in accordance with applicable Federal Communications Commission rules.

This determination is effective as of the date of issuance and will become final 30 days thereafter, provided that no appeal herefrom under § 626.34 (26 F.R. 5292) is granted. Unless otherwise revised or terminated a final determination hereunder will expire 18 months after its effective date or upon earlier abandonment of the construction proposal (§ 626.35; 26 F.R. 5292).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on January 2, 1962.

Chief, Obstruction Evaluation Branch.

[8] Also subject to orders in docket Nos. G-15651 and G-11883.
[9] Redetermined increase by contract.
[10] Also subject to orders in docket No. G-19645.
[11] Correction to tax reimbursement.
[12] Subject to 0.5 cent per Mcf for compression (where applicable) deducted by purchaser.
[13] Also subject to orders in docket Nos. G-18564, G-15071, and G-12635, inter alia.
[14] Oklahoma production.
[15] Periodic increase plus applicable tax reimbursement.
[16] Texas production.

The proposed rate increases of J. C. Trahan, Drilling Contractor, Inc., The Superior Oil Company, Edwin L. Cox, Texaco Inc. (Operator), et al., Amerada Petroleum Corporation and Shell Oil Company exceed the applicable area price levels established by the Commission's Statement of General Policy No. 61-1, as amended (18 CFR, Chapter I, Part 2, § 2.56).

The proposed increased rates of Harway Producers, Inc., and Crescent Production Company, Inc., et al. are below the applicable area price level, but include questionable reimbursement of the Louisiana Severance tax.[2] However, the suspension periods of these proposed increases and the tax correction of F. A. Callery, Inc., et al., may be shortened to one day.

The increased rates and charges so proposed may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon hearings concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed changes and that the above-designated supplements be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR, Ch. I), public hearings shall be held upon dates to be fixed by notices from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed increased rates and charges contained in the above-designated supplements.

(B) Pending hearings and decisions thereon, the above-designated rate supplements are hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until the date indicated in the above "Date Suspended Until" column, and thereafter until such further time as they are made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act: Provided, however, That the supplements to the rate schedules filed by Harway Producers, Inc., Crescent Production Company, Inc., et al., and F. A. Callery, Inc., et al., as set forth above, shall become effective subject to refund on the date and in the manner herein prescribed if within 20 days from the date of issuance of this order Respondents shall each execute and file under its above-designated docket number with the Secretary of the Commission its agreement and undertaking to comply with the refunding and reporting procedure required by the Natural Gas Act and § 154.102 of the regulations thereunder, accompanied by a certificate showing service of copies thereof upon all purchasers under the rate schedule involved. Unless Respondents are advised to the contrary within 15 days after the filing of their respective agreement and undertaking, such agreement and undertaking shall be deemed to have been accepted.

(C) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until these proceedings have been disposed of or until the periods of suspension have expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37) on or before February 19, 1962.

By the Commission.

GORDON M. GRANT,
Acting Secretary.

[F.R. Doc. 62-297; Filed, Jan. 10, 1962; 8:46 a.m.]

[1] This order does not provide for the consolidation for hearing or disposition of the several matters covered herein, nor should it be so construed.

[2] Only the tax portion of the increased rate shall be subject to refund.

[Docket No. CP62–107]

TRANSCONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE CORP.

Notice of Application and Date of Hearing

JANUARY 4, 1962.

Take notice that on October 27, 1961, as supplemented on November 27, 1961, Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transco), P.O. Box 296, Houston 1, Texas, filed in Docket No. CP62–107 an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of natural gas facilities and the sale of natural gas, as hereinafter described, all as more fully described in the application, as supplemented, which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Transco seeks authority to construct and operate a sales meter station and appurtenant facilities in Hudson County, New Jersey, near Transco's Central Manhattan meter station on the west bank of the Hudson River. The application states that the proposed meter station will be used as an additional delivery point to provide gas service to Public Service Electric and Gas Company (Public Service), an existing customer, for resale.

Transco states that Public Service has requested the proposed new delivery point in order that it might serve a new industrial customer, Lever Brothers Company (Lever Brothers), on a firm basis, which service Public Service would be unable to render from its existing facilities. Public Service will construct and operate the required facilities between the proposed meter station and Lever Brothers' plant, and such service will be rendered from authorized allocations of gas from Transco.

The proposed facilities are estimated to cost approximately $22,000 and will be financed initially by Transco from its general funds. Public Service has agreed to reimburse Transco in full for the cost of the facilities.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regualtions and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on February 6, 1962, at 9:30 a.m., e.s.t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30(c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before January 26, 1962. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

GORDON M. GRANT,
Acting Secretary.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 812–1436]

ALLIED CAPITAL CORP.

Notice of Filing of Application for Order Exempting Transaction Between Affiliates

JANUARY 3, 1962.

Notice is hereby given that Allied Capital Corporation, formerly Allied Small Business Investment Corporation ("Applicant") 7720 Wisconsin Ave., Bethesda, Md., a closed-end nondiversified investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act"), which company is also a small business investment company licensed as such under the Small Business Investment Act of 1958 ("SBIA"), has filed an amended application pursuant to section 17(b) of the Act for an order exempting from section 17(a) thereof the proposed sale by Applicant of a 6 percent, 20-year convertible debenture ("Debenture") in the principal amount of $25,000 and four shares of Common Stock issued by Ritchie Market Corporation ("Ritchie") to Berens Real Estate Investment Corporation ("Berens").

The application makes the following representations:

On June 15, 1960, Applicant, acting as a co-lender, invested $25,400 in Ritchie through the purchase of its Debenture in the principal amount of $25,400. At that time a similar investment in the amount of $50,800 was made in Ritchie by the Small Business Investment Company of Pennsylvania. Thereafter, on January 24, 1961, Applicant converted $400 of its Debenture into four shares of the Common Stock issued by Ritchie; and the Small Business Investment Company of Pennsylvania converted $800 of its Debenture into eight shares of such Common Stock. These twelve shares constitute all of Ritchie's outstanding Common Stock. Ritchie invested $75,000 of the proceeds from the Debenture issue in the Ritchie Market partnership ("Partnership") which in turn organized and now holds all the outstanding stock of an operating company known as Ritchie Highway Farmers' Market, Inc. ("Operating Company") located in Glen Burnie, Maryland.

The Partnership consists of four general partners and 24.5 limited partnership units, or a total of 28.5 partnership units. The investment Applicant proposes to sell to Berens constitutes, in effect, one such unit. The combined net worth of the Operating Company and the Partnership as of May 14, 1961 was $623,890, or approximately $21,891 for each of the 28.5 partnership units. In the period from December 2, 1960 to May 14, 1961, net operating profits of the Operating Company, before income taxes and depreciation of $19,735.49, amounted to $68,382.62, and in the same period the net income of Ritchie amounted to $7,197.95 or $2,399.39 for each of the three partnership units it owns. On an annual basis, Allied's original investment of $25,400 would thus yield approximately 20 percent before depreciation and 14 percent after depreciation, but before income taxes.

In July 1961, the Small Business Administration advised Applicant that the formation of Ritchie as a financing vehicle through which Applicant and another licensee provided capital to a partnership was inconsistent with section 304 of the SBIA and violated §§ 107.308–9(a) and 107.304–1 of the rules and regulations promulgated under that Act which limit a small business investment company to investments in corporations and The Small Business Administration directed Applicant to correct such violations by making a bona fide disposal of all of its investment in Ritchie.

Pursuant to such advice and directions, Applicant's Board of Directors determined to offer its investment to Applicant's directors and to certain other persons familiar with the investment, including the 24 persons who owned the four general, and the other limited interests in the Partnership. Three bids were received, one in the amount of $25,000 plus adjustments for accrued earnings, from a director, one for $27,500 from a limited partner, and the other from Berens in the amount of $30,100 in cash plus accrued earnings to the date the transaction is consummated. Berens was awarded the bid subject to the approval of the Small Business Administration and subject to the compliance with the requirements of the Investment Company Act of 1940.

Berens is a publicly-held corporation with approximately forty-one percent of its stock owned, directly or indirectly, by George W. DeFranceaux, its President, and the various affiliated Berens companies of which Mr. DeFranceaux is the controlling stockholder. Mr. DeFranceaux is also President, Director and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Applicant. He and Berens are affiliates of each other by reason of his stock holdings in Berens and he is an affiliate of Applicant by reason of his positions with the Applicant. The sale of the investment by Applicant and the purchase by Berens is therefore prohibited by section 17(a)(2) of the Act unless exempted therefrom pursuant to section 17(b).

Section 17(a) of the Act with certain exceptions not here relevant, prohibits an affiliated person (Mr. DeFranceaux) of a registered investment company (Applicant) or an affiliated person (Berens) of such a person from selling to, or purchasing from such registered company, any securities or other property. Section 17(b) provides, in pertinent part, that the Commission shall grant an exemption from the provisions of section 17(a) if it finds that the terms of the proposed transaction, including the consideration to be paid, are reasonable and fair and do not involve overreaching on the part of any person concerned, that the proposed transaction is consistent with the policy of any registered investment company concerned as recited in its registration statement and reports filed under the Act, and is consistent with the general purposes of the Act.

The application states that on the date Applicant's Board of Directors decided to dispose of the Ritchie investment, there was no public market for the securities issued by Ritchie and the investment was, accordingly, valued by Applicant at its cost of $25,400; and it further states that the proposed transaction, including the price of $30,100 plus adjustments for earnings to be paid by Berens meets the standards contained in section 17(b) of the Act.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than January 23, 1962, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such a request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (air mail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon Applicant. Proof of such service (by affidavit or in case of an attorney-at-law by certificate) should be filed contemporaneously with the request. At any after said date, as provided by Rule O–5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the showing contained in said application, unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

APEX MINERALS CORP.

Order Summarily Suspending Trading

JANUARY 5, 1962.

The common stock, $1.00 par value, of Apex Minerals Corporation, being listed and registered on the San Francisco Mining Exchange, a national securities exchange; and

The Commission being of the opinion that the public interest requires the summary suspension of trading in such security on such Exchange and that such action is necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors; and

The Commission being of the opinion further that such suspension is necessary in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative acts or practices, with the result that it will be unlawful under section 15(c)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Commission's Rule 15c2–2 thereunder for any broker or dealer to make use of the mails or of any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce to effect any transaction in, or to induce or attempt to induce the purchase or sale of such security, otherwise than on a national securities exchange;

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 19(a)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that trading in said security on the San Francisco Mining Exchange be summarily suspended in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative acts or practices, this order to be effective for a period of ten (10) days, January 6, 1962, to January 15, 1962, both dates inclusive.

By the Commission.

Title 3—THE PRESIDENT

Proclamation 3444

HOMESTEAD CENTENNIAL YEAR

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

WHEREAS May 20, 1962, marks the centennial of the enactment of the Homestead Act (12 Stat. 392), approved by President Lincoln, inducing settlement and cultivation of the undeveloped public lands and the establishment of homes thereon; and

WHEREAS the granting of patents to more than 270 million acres of public domain lands has promoted the economic, social, and political development of this country through the establishment of farms, ranches, and communities and has provided the foundation for our highly productive agricultural economy; and

WHEREAS the Homestead Act and supplemental acts of Congress, which are unique and distinctively American, stand as a tribute to the wisdom of those responsible for their enactment, in providing for the settlement of the public lands and thereby contributing to our free enterprise system by offering landless and laboring people an opportunity to acquire lands to provide for the needs of their families; and

WHEREAS the Homestead Act and supplemental acts provide for the further recognition of those who have served in the armed forces of the United States; and

WHEREAS specific Federal administration of the lands of the public domain began one hundred and fifty years ago with the establishment on April 25, 1812, of the General Land Office, now the Bureau of Land Management in the Department of the Interior, and the development of the West has been coextensive with, and based substantially upon, the acquisition, use, and disposal of these lands; and

WHEREAS the Nation's public lands have contributed to the development and maintenance of the land-grant colleges and universities and the transcontinental and other railroads, and constitute the resource from which our national forest and park systems have been created; and

WHEREAS the approximately 477 million acres of public domain, under the administration of the Department of the Interior, constitute a vital and necessary national land reserve, a trust dedicated to the greatest use and benefit of the public; and

WHEREAS the Congress, by a joint resolution approved September 22, 1961 (75 Stat. 571), has requested the President to issue a proclamation designating the calendar year 1962 as the centennial of the enactment of the Homestead Act:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOHN F. KENNEDY, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate the year 1962 as Homestead Centennial Year.

I call upon the Governors of the States, mayors of cities, and other public officials, as well as other persons, organizations, and groups, particularly in the States most directly affected by the Homestead Act, to observe such centennial by appropriate celebrations and ceremonies.

I request the Department of the Interior to plan and participate in appropriate commemorative activities recognizing the centennial of the enactment of the Homestead Act and the sesquicentennial of the establishment of the General Land Office; and I also request the Department of the Interior and other Federal agencies to cooperate fully with State and local governments during 1962 in commemorating these events.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this fifth day of January in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-two, and of the [SEAL] Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-sixth.

JOHN F. KENNEDY

By the President:

DEAN RUSK,
Secretary of State.

SUBCHAPTER B—SUGAR REQUIREMENTS AND QUOTAS

[Sugar Reg. 820, Amdt. 1]

PART 820—REQUIREMENTS RELATING TO NON-QUOTA PURCHASE SUGAR FOR THE SIX-MONTH PERIOD ENDING JUNE 30, 1962

Non-Quota Purchases of Sugar Authorized

For the purpose of increasing the quantity of non-quota sugar authorized for purchase from 869,013 short tons, raw value, to 1,185,000 short tons, raw value, and to delete the reference in paragraph (b) to withholding of authorization for purchase of the proration for the Dominican Republic amounting to 315,987 tons, paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 820.22 of Part 820 are hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 820.22 Non-quota purchases of sugar authorized.

* * * * *

(b) Pursuant to section 408(b) of the Act, the President by Proclamation No. 3440 (26 F.R. 11714) established the amount of the quotas for sugar and for liquid sugar for Cuba for the 6-month period ending June 30, 1962, at zero. At a level of consumption requirements for consumers in the United States of 9,500,000 short tons, raw value of sugar for 1962, the amount of the quotas that otherwise would have been provided for Cuba under the terms of Title II of the Act for the 6-month period ending June 30, 1962, are 1,574,622 short tons, raw value of sugar and 3,985,279 wine gallons of liquid sugar, 72 per centum total sugar content, which represent the quantities that may be caused or permitted to be brought or imported into or marketed in the United States during the 6-month period ending June 30, 1962, pursuant to section 408(b) of the Act. In paragraph (c) of this section a total of 1,185,000 short tons, raw value of non-quota purchase sugar is authorized for purchase from foreign countries with which the United States is in diplomatic relations. This authorized quantity is based upon a proration, in accordance with section 408(b)(2) of the Act, of 1,185,000 short tons, raw value, to foreign countries for which quotas have been established pursuant to section 202 of the Act. Of the 1,185,000 short tons, raw value, authorized for purchase, 1,085,000 tons are authorized for purchase from countries for which quotas have been established pursuant to section 202 of the Act. Peru and Nicaragua will be unable to supply 85,096 and 10,691 short tons, raw value, respectively, of their prorations. The prorations for Canada of 2,311 tons, for the United Kingdom of 1,887 tons and for Hong Kong of 15 tons may not be authorized for the reasons set forth in § 820.20(c). A total of 100,000 short tons, raw value, which represents the sum of the prorations for Canada, the United Kingdom and Hong Kong and the portions of the prorations which Peru and Nicaragua will be unable to supply is authorized for purchase from India, Brazil and the Republic of China in accordance with the proviso in section 408(b)(2)(iii) of the Act. In accordance with the proviso in section 408(b)(2)(iii) of the Act, in authorizing the purchase of non-quota sugar from Brazil, the Republic of China and India, special consideration was given to countries of the Western Hemisphere and to those countries purchasing United States agricultural commodities. Of the total 1,574,622 short tons, raw value, which may be authorized for purchase during the 6-month period ending June 30, 1962, 389,622 short tons, raw value, is not prorated or authorized for purchase at this time. Also, the 3,985,279 wine gallons of liquid sugar are not allocated or authorized for purchase at this time.

(c) The amounts of non-quota purchase sugar permitted to be imported into the continental United States for consumption therein from individual foreign countries during the period January 1, 1962, through June 30, 1962, are as follows:

Country:	Short tons, raw value
Haiti	1,388
Netherlands	3,100
Republic of China	23,158
Panama	3,158
Costa Rica	3,163
Republic of the Philippines	175,655
Dominican Republic	315,987
Peru	280,070
Mexico	255,648
Nicaragua	42,700
Belgium	666
British Guiana	307
Brazil	30,000
India	50,000
Total	1,185,000

The regulation can be amended from time to time to increase or decrease the quantities of sugar authorized for purchase from any of the countries named herein as is necessary to meet United States consumption and market requirements, or to reflect each such country's ability to supply sugar consistent with United States market requirements. Also, quantities may be established for countries or groups of countries which are not named herein if it later appears that supplies from any country or countries named herein will not be forthcoming at any time in a manner that meets market requirements or if additional supplies are needed to meet consumption and market requirements.

Statement of bases and considerations. In view of the resumption of diplomatic relations between the United States and the Dominican Republic, the proration of non-quota sugar for the Dominican Republic under section 408(b) of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended, amounting to 315,987 short tons, raw value, is herein authorized for purchase and importation during the first 6 months of 1962. The authorization to purchase such quantity previously had been withheld while the United States was not in diplomatic relations with the Dominican Republic.

(Sec. 403, 61 Stat. 932; 7 U.S.C. 1153. Interprets or applies secs. 101, 408; 61 Stat. 922, as amended, 933, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1101, 1158; Public Law 87-15, approved March 31, 1961. Presidential Proclamation 3440 (26 F.R. 11714))

Effective date. To permit the non-quota sugar herein authorized for purchase to be marketed in an orderly manner it is essential that the amendments made herein be made effective immediately. Therefore, it is hereby determined and found that compliance with the notice, procedure, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary, impracticable, and contrary to the public interest, and this amendment to the regulations shall become effective when published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D.C., this 9th day of January 1962.

ORVILLE L. FREEMAN,
Secretary.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[970.302 Amdt. 1]

PART 970—CARROTS GROWN IN SOUTH TEXAS

Limitation of Shipments

Findings. (a) Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 142 and Order No. 970 (7 CFR Part 970), regulating the handling of carrots grown in designated counties in South Texas, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (Secs. 1-19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601-674), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the South Texas Carrot Committee, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the amendment to the limitation of shipments hereinafter set forth will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(b) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, or engage in public rule making procedure, and that good cause exists for not postponing the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) in that (1) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, (2) more orderly marketing in the public interest than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the handling of carrots in the manner set forth below, on and after the effective date of this amendment, (3) compliance with this amendment will not require any special preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date, (4) reasonable time is permitted under the circumstances, for such preparation, and (5) information regarding the committee's recommendation has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area.

Order as amended. In § 970.302 (26 F.R. 10124) delete paragraphs (b), (d) (2) (ii), and (e), and in lieu thereof substitute new paragraphs (b), (d) (2) (ii), and (e), as set forth below.

§ 970.302 Limitation of shipments.

* * * * *

(b) Sizing requirements — (1) Medium-to-large: 7/8 inch minimum diameter to 1½ inches maximum diameter, 6 inches minimum length;

(2) Jumbos: 1 inch minimum diameter to 3 inches maximum diameter and 6 inches minimum length.

(b) Over 1-pound and including 2-pound packages, 15 percent.

(c) Over 2-pound packages, 10 percent.

* * * * *

(e) Minimum quantities. Pursuant to § 970.52(c) (2) of this part any person subject to these regulations may handle, except for export, up to but not to exceed 100 pounds of carrots per calendar month without regard to the requirements of this section or to the inspection and assessment requirements of this part, but this exception may not apply to any portion of a shipment of over 100 pounds of carrots.

PART 74—SCABIES IN SHEEP

Interstate Movement

On October 31, 1961, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (26 F.R. 10173), a notice with respect to a proposal to amend § 74.3(a), Part 74, Subchapter C, Chapter I, Title 9, Code of Federal Regulations. After due consideration of all relevant material and pursuant to the provisions of sections 1 through 4 of the Act of March 3, 1905, as amended, sections 1 and 2 of the Act of February 2, 1903, as amended, and sections 4 through 7 of the Act of May 29, 1884, as amended (21 U.S.C. 111–113, 115, 117, 120, 121, 123–126), § 74.3(a) of said Part 74 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 71.3 Designation of eradication areas.

(a) Notice is hereby given that sheep in the following States, Territories, and parts thereof as specified, are being handled systematically to eradicate scabies in sheep and such States, Territories, and parts thereof, are hereby designated as eradication areas:

(1) Arkansas, Hawaii, Illinois, New Jersey, New York, Tennessee, and Wisconsin;

(2) That portion of South Dakota lying east of the Missouri River;

(3) The following Counties in Kansas: Barber, Barton, Cloud, Ellsworth, Harper, Harvey, Kingman, Lincoln, McPherson, Mitchell, Osborne, Ottawa, Pratt, Reno, Republic, Rice, Russell, Sedgwick, Smith, Stafford, and Sumner Counties;

(4) All Counties in Nebraska except Banner, Box Butte, Cheyenne, Dawes, Deuel, Garden, Kimball, Morrill, Sheridan, Sioux, and Scottsbluff;

(5) That portion of Eddy County in New Mexico bounded on the north by the Chaves-Eddy County line road (FAS 1215), on the south by State Highway 83 (FAS 1200), on the east by U.S. Highway 285, and on the west by Range Line 24E; and that portion of Chaves County in New Mexico bounded on the north by Township 15S, on the south by the Chaves-Eddy County line road (FAS 1215), on the east by U.S. Highway 285, and on the west by Range Line 24E;

(6) All of the State of North Dakota except that area lying west of the Missouri River and State Highway No. 8, beginning at a point where said river intersects the South Dakota boundary line and continuing along said river to a point on the Garrison Dam Reservoir directly south of the intersection of State Highways Nos. 23 and 8; thence, directly north to the intersection of State Highways Nos. 23 and 8; thence, north along State Highway No. 8 to the North Dakota-Canadian boundary; and

(7) The following Counties in Michigan: Alger, Baraga, Chippewa, Delta, Dickinson, Gogebic, Houghton, Iron, Keweenaw, Luce, Mackinac, Marquette, Menominee, Ontonagon, and Schoolcraft Counties.

(Secs. 4–7, 23 Stat. 32, as amended, secs. 1, 2, 32 Stat. 791–792, as amended, secs. 1–4, 33 Stat. 1264, as amended, 1265, as amended; 21 U.S.C. 111–113, 115, 117, 120, 121, 123–126; 19 F.R. 74, as amended)

Effective date. The foregoing amendment shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The amendment adds the counties of Alger, Baraga, Chippewa, Delta, Dickinson, Gogebic, Houghton, Iron, Keweenaw, Luce, Mackinac, Marquette, Menominee, Ontonagon, and Schoolcraft, in Michigan, to the list of eradication areas since the cooperative sheep scabies eradication program is now being conducted in the specified counties. These counties are presently included in the infected areas as sheep scabies is known to exist in such counties. Hereafter, the restrictions pertaining to the interstate movement of sheep from or into infected and eradication areas as contained in 9 CFR Part 74, as amended, will apply to the specified counties.

The amendment imposes certain restrictions necessary to prevent the spread of scabies, a communicable disease of sheep, and must be made effective promptly in order to accomplish its purpose in the public interest. Accordingly, under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003), good cause is found for making the amendment effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D.C., this 9th day of January 1962.

Acting Administrator, Agricultural Research Service.

Chapter III—Federal Aviation Agency

SUBCHAPTER C—AIRCRAFT REGULATIONS

[Reg. Docket No. 908; Amdt. 53]

PART 514—TECHNICAL STANDARD ORDERS FOR AIRCRAFT MATERIALS, PARTS, PROCESSES, AND APPLIANCES

TSO–C61a Portable Aircraft Emergency Communications Equipment; for Air Carrier Aircraft

A proposed amendment to § 514.66, Portable Aircraft Emergency Communications Equipment (for Air Carrier Aircraft) was published in 26 F.R. 9347.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the amendment. One manufacturer recommended two changes: (1) The effective radiated power (ERP) from the antenna be at least 500 milliwatts instead of the proposed 225 milliwatts; and (2) the transmitter output carrier be capable of being tone modulated to a depth of 90 percent by an audio frequency signal between 900 and 1600 c.p.s. and by a 1000 c.p.s. signal applied to the microphone, if voice modulation is provided. These recommendations are not accepted for the following reasons: (1) The 225 milliwatt minimum ERP has been shown by test to be adequate for an operational range of 100 miles which is required for search and rescue equipment. (2) The recommended modulation capability is more restrictive than the standard specified for equipment which has performed satisfactorily in military service, and is more restrictive than that which we believe to be necessary for such equipment used on air carrier aircraft.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (25 F.R. 6489), Part 514 of the regulations of the Administrator (14 CFR Part 514) is hereby amended by revising § 514.66 to read as follows:

§ 514.66 Portable aircraft emergency communications equipment (for air carrier aircraft)—TSO–C61a.

(a) Applicability—(1) Minimum performance standards. Minimum performance standards are hereby established for portable aircraft emergency communications equipment which specifically is required to be carried on civil aircraft of the United States engaged in particular air carrier operations. The radio frequencies to be utilized by such equipment shall be selected from 500 kc., 8364 kc., or 121.5 mc. A single frequency or a combination of the above frequencies may be used. New models of portable aircraft emergency communications equipment manufactured for use on air carrier aircraft on or after the effective date of this section shall meet the standards in the following Radio Technical Commission for Aeronautics Papers:

49–59/DO–95[1] dated March 10, 1959, for 500 or 8364 kc. equipment; 26–59/DO–94[1] dated February 10, 1959, for 121.5 mc. equipment; 100–54/DO–60[1] dated April 13, 1954, Environmental Test Procedures; 256–58/EC–366[1] dated November 13, 1958, Amendment to 100–54/DO–60.

Exceptions, additions, and substitutions to these standards are listed in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) Exceptions. (i) Radio Technical Commission for Aeronautics Paper 100–54/DO–60, and Amendment Paper 256–58/EC–366 dated November 13, 1958, outline environmental test procedures for equipment designed to operate under three environmental test conditions as specified therein under Procedures A, B, and C. Only equipment which meets the operating requirements as outlined under Procedure A or Procedure B of Paper 100–54/DO–60, as amended, is eligible under this section.

(ii) (a) The vibration values specified below may be used in lieu of those specified in Paper 100–54/DO–60, as amended. If these values are used, no external shock mounting shall be used during the conduct of the test.

(b) Constant total excursion of 0.020" from 10 to 55 c.p.s. with a maximum acceleration of 3g.

(iii) Paper 26–59/DO–94, Paragraph 2.1, Operating Life. The capacity of the power supply shall be sufficient to provide continuous operation for at least 24 hours under the condition of maximum power consumption. At the end of the 24-hour period, the radiated power output shall not have deteriorated by more than 3 db from that specified in paragraph 2.2.1, as amended by subdivision (iv) of this subparagraph. These values also apply to the test procedures contained in Paragraph T–1, Appendix A.

(iv) Paper 26–59/DO–94, Paragraph 2.2.1, Radiated Power. The effective radiated power (ERP) from the antenna shall be at least 225 milliwatts. This value also applies to the test procedures contained in Paragraph T–2, Appendix A.

(v) Paper 26–59/DO–94, Paragraph 2.2.2, Modulation Capability. The transmitter output carrier shall be capable of being tone amplitude modulated a minimum of 90 percent downward and 10 percent upward by an audiofrequency signal between 900 and 1600 c.p.s. and by a 1000 c.p.s. signal applied to the microphone, if voice modulation is provided.

(vi) Paper 49–59/DO–95, Paragraph 2.1, Operating Life. The capacity of the power supply shall be sufficient to provide continuous operation for at least 24 hours under the condition of maximum power consumption. At the end of the 24-hour period, the radiated power output shall not have deteriorated by more than 3 db from that specified in paragraph 2.2.1. These values also apply to the test procedures contained in Paragraph T–1, Appendix A.

(b) Marking. In addition to the markings specified in § 514.3, equipment which has been designed to operate over the environmental conditions outlined in Procedure A of RTCA Paper 100–54/DO–60, as amended, shall be marked as Category A equipment. Equipment which has been designed to operate over the environmental conditions outlined in Procedure B of this same paper shall be marked as Category B equipment.

(c) Data requirements. (1) The manufacturer shall maintain a current file of complete design data.

(2) The manufacturer shall maintain a current file of complete data describing the inspection and test procedures applicable to his product. (See paragraph (d) of this section.)

(3) Six copies each, except where noted, of the following shall be furnished to the Chief, Engineering and Manufacturing Division, Flight Standards Service, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C.

(i) Manufacturer's operating instructions and equipment limitations.

(ii) Installation procedures with applicable schematic drawings, wiring diagrams, and specifications. Indicate any limitations, restrictions, or other conditions pertinent to installation.

(iii) One copy of the manufacturer's test report.

(d) Quality control. Portable aircraft emergency communications equipment shall be produced under a quality control system, established by the manufacturer, which will assure that each equipment is in conformity with the requirements of this section and is in a condition for safe operation. This system shall be described in the data required under paragraph (c) (2) of this section. A representative of the Administrator shall be permitted to make such inspections and tests at the manufacturer's facility as may be necessary to determine compliance with the requirements of this section.

(e) Previously approved equipment. Portable aircraft emergency communications equipment approved prior to the effective date of this section may continue to be manufactured under the provisions of its original approval.

(f) Effective date. February 15, 1962.

SUBCHAPTER E—AIR NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

[Airspace Docket No. 61–LA–131]

PART 602—DESIGNATION OF JET ROUTES, JET ADVISORY AREAS AND HIGH ALTITUDE NAVIGATIONAL AIDS

Alteration of Jet Advisory Areas

The purpose of these amendments to § 602.200 of the regulations of the Administrator is to alter the enroute jet advisory areas associated with Jet Routes Nos. 9, 58, 60, 80, and 107.

At the present time nonradar jet advisory areas exist between flight levels 270 and 310, inclusive, and 370 and 390, inclusive, on the portions of J–9, J–58, J–60, J–80, and J–107 in the vicinity of Milford, Utah, which restricts civil turbojet air carrier aircraft to the use of these flight levels. The Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) is commissioning the secondary radar portion of the Milford Air Route Surveillance Radar (ARSR) on or about January 31, 1962, which will permit the use of flight levels 240 to 390, inclusive, for civil turbojet air carrier aircraft within the area of radar coverage of the Milford ARSR.

J–60 and J–80 are two of the most heavily used transcontinental routes. The FAA Enroute IFR Peak Day Survey for fiscal year 1961 shows a total of 41 aircraft movements on J–60 between Las Vegas, Nev., and Grand Junction, Colo., and a total of 25 aircraft movements on J-80 between Tonopah, Nev., and Grand Junction.

In addition there are numerous direct flights operating between the Salt Lake City, Utah, Metropolitan area and terminals to the south and southwest which traverse the nonradar advisory areas in the vicinity of Milford and add to the complexity of the air traffic service. The utilization of the Milford ARSR would alleviate this complexity. The FAA has contacted the principal users, the Air Force, the Navy, and the Air Transport Association, to ascertain their views toward the conversion of these nonradar advisory areas to radar advisory areas and has received their concurrence.

Therefore, in order to provide increased safety and improved service in this heavily congested area of high-speed aircraft, the FAA is altering the jet advisory areas associated with the following jet route segments, from nonradar to radar:

J-9 From 40 nautical miles southwest of Milford, Utah, to 30 nautical miles northeast of Milford.

J-58 From 140 nautical miles east of Tonopah, Nev., to 20 nautical miles southeast of Bryce Canyon, Utah.

J-60 From 25 nautical miles southwest of Bryce Canyon, Utah, to 65 nautical miles southwest of Grand Junction, Colo.

J-80 From 145 nautical miles east of Tonopah, Nev., to 65 nautical miles southwest of Grand Junction, Colo.

J-107 From 40 nautical miles southwest of Milford, Utah, to 50 nautical miles northeast of Milford.

In addition, action is taken herein to delete the exclusion below flight level 290 from 20 nautical miles southeast of Bryce Canyon to 105 nautical miles southeast of Bryce Canyon presently appearing in the description of the jet advisory areas associated with J-58.

In view of the foregoing, the Administrator finds that a condition exists which requires expeditious action in the interest of safety and that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable and contrary to the public interest and that good cause exists for making this amendment effective on less than 30 days notice.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (25 F.R. 12582), the following actions are taken:

In § 602.200 Enroute jet advisory areas (26 F.R. 7082, 9131), the jet advisory areas associated with Jet Routes Nos. 9, 58, 60, 80 and 107 are amended to read:

1. Jet Route No. 9 jet advisory area. Radar—Los Angeles, Calif., to Salt Lake City, Utah.

2. Jet Route No. 58 jet advisory area. Radar—Oakland, Calif., to New Orleans, La., excluding the portion below FL 290 from 105 nmi SE of Bryce Canyon, Utah, to Farmington, N. Mex.

3. Jet Route No. 60 jet advisory area. Radar—Los Angeles, Calif., to 65 nmi SW of Grand Junction, Colo.; from 70 nmi WSW of Denver, Colo., to 160 nmi ENE of Denver; from 50 nmi WSW of Wolbach, Nebr., to Idlewild, N.Y. Nonradar—From 65 nmi SW of Grand Junction, Colo., to 70 nmi WSW of Denver, Colo.; from 160 nmi ENE of Denver to 50 nmi WSW of Wolbach, Nebr.

4. Jet Route No. 80 jet advisory area. Radar—Oakland, Calif., to 65 nmi SW of Grand Junction, Colo.; from 70 nmi WSW of Denver, Colo., to 120 nmi ESE of Denver; from 25 nmi W of Hill City, Kans., to Idlewild, N.Y. Nonradar—From 65 nmi SW of Grand Junction, Colo., to 70 nmi WSW of Denver, Colo.; from 120 nmi ESE of Denver to 25 nmi W of Hill City, Kans.

5. Jet Route No. 107 jet advisory area. Radar—From Los Angeles, Calif., to 40 nmi NE of Rock Springs, Wyo.; from 10 nmi NE of Crazy Woman, Wyo., to the United States/Canadian Border. Nonradar—From 40 nmi NE of Rock Springs, Wyo.; to 10 nmi NE of Crazy Woman, Wyo.

These amendments shall become effective 0001 e.s.t., February 8, 1962.

SUBCHAPTER B—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

PART 17—BAKERY PRODUCTS; DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY

Bread, Enriched Bread, Milk Bread, Raisin Bread, Whole Wheat Bread; Effective Date of Order Amending Standards of Identity

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 401, 701, 52 Stat. 1046, 1055, as amended 70 Stat. 919, 72 Stat. 948; 21 U.S.C. 341, 371) and in accordance with the authority delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (25 F.R. 8625), notice is given that no objections were filed to the order published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of November 9, 1961 (26 F.R. 10550) amending the identity standards applicable to the above-listed breads so as to provide the same status for hydroxylated lecithin that has heretofore been provided for lecithin and to delete "(except lauric acid)" from the mono- and diglyceride designation. Accordingly, the amendments promulgated by that order will become effective January 8, 1962.

Dated: January 4, 1962.

PART 120—TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

Tolerances for Residues of Ronnel

A petition was filed with the Food and Drug Administration by The Dow Chemical Company, Midland, Michigan, requesting the establishment of tolerances for residues of ronnel (O,o-dimethyl O-(2,4,5-trichlorophenyl) phosphorothioate) in or on bananas, at 0.5 part per million in or on banana skins and zero in the pulp of bananas.

The Secretary of Agriculture has certified that this pesticide chemical is useful for the purposes for which tolerances are being established.

After consideration of the data submitted in the petition and other relevant material which show that the tolerances established in this order will protect the public health, and by virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408(d)(2), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U.S.C. 346a(d)(2)) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (25 F.R. 8625), the regulations for tolerances for pesticide chemicals in or on raw agricultural commodities (21 CFR 120.177) are amended by changing this section to read as follows:

§ 120.177 Tolerances for residues of ronnel.

Tolerances for residues of ronnel (O,o-dimethyl O-(2,4,5-trichlorophenyl) phosphorothioate) in or on raw agricultural commodities are established as follows:

0.5 part per million on bananas (of which residue, zero shall be in the pulp after peel is removed and discarded).

Zero in or on the uncooked meat and meat byproducts from cattle.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D.C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by the order and specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and the grounds for the objections. If a hearing is requested, the objections must state the issues for the hearing. A hearing will be granted if the objections are supported by grounds legally sufficient to justify the relief sought. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall be effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 121—FOOD ADDITIVES

Subpart F—Food Additives Resulting From Contact With Containers or Equipment and Food Additives Otherwise Affecting Food

CHELATING AGENTS

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs, having evaluated the data submitted in a petition filed by Stein, Hall and Company, Inc., 285 Madison Avenue, New York 17, New York, and other relevant material has concluded that the food additive regulations should be amended to broaden the use of chelating agents in the manufacture of paper and paperboard and to add disodium ethylenediamine tetraacetate as a chelating agent. Therefore, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 409(c)(1), 72 Stat. 1786; 21 U.S.C. 348(c)(1)), and under the authority delegated to the Commissioner by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (25 F.R. 8625), the food additive regulations (21 CFR 121.2515 (26 F.R. 2515)) are amended as follows:

1. In § 121.2515 Chelating agents used in the manufacture of paper and paperboard, paragraph (a) is amended by inserting in the "List of substances", preceding "Sodium glucoheptonate" the item "Disodium ethylenediamine tetraacetate."

2. Section 121.2515(c) is changed to read:

(c) The substances are added in an amount not greater than that required to accomplish the intended technical effect nor greater than any specific limitation, where such is provided.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D.C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by the order and specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and the grounds for the objections. If a hearing is requested, the objections must state the issues for the hearing. A hearing will be granted if the objections are supported by grounds legally sufficient to justify the relief sought. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall be effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Chapter XVI—Selective Service System

[Amdt. 89]

PART 1617—REGISTRATION CERTIFICATE

Issuing of Duplicate Certificate

Sections 1617.11 and 1617.12 of the Selective Service Regulations are amended to read as follows:

§ 1617.11 Issuing of duplicate registration certificate.

(a) Upon receipt of a request for a duplicate Registration Certificate (SSS Form No. 2), made by letter or on a Request for Duplicate Registration Certificate or Notice of Classification (SSS Form No. 6), from a registrant who has been separated from active duty in the Armed Forces, the local board with which the registrant is registered shall issue a duplicate Registration Certificate (SSS Form No. 2) to such registrant. The local board shall not issue more than one duplicate certificate to a registrant under this paragraph after each time he is separated from active duty in the Armed Forces.

(b) A duplicate Registration Certificate (SSS Form No. 2) shall be issued to a registrant by the local board with which he is registered upon receipt of his request therefor made by letter or on a Request for Duplicate Registration Certificate or Notice of Classification (SSS Form No. 6) and the presentation of satisfactory proof to the local board that the Registration Certificate (SSS Form No. 2) of the registrant has been lost, destroyed, mislaid, or stolen. Whenever the request for a duplicate certificate is made by a letter which does not indicate whether the certificate previously issued has been lost, destroyed, mislaid, or stolen, the local board shall mail to the registrant a copy of Request for Duplicate Registration Certificate or Notice of Classification (SSS Form No. 6) and direct him to complete thereon the request for the duplicate certificate and return it to the local board.

(c) When the local board issues a duplicate Registration Certificate (SSS Form No. 2), it shall mark it "Duplicate" and note the issuance of the duplicate certificate upon the request which shall be filed in the registrant's Cover Sheet (SSS Form No. 101).

§ 1617.12 Action by local boards when request for duplicate registration certificate is filed.

A registrant may complete and file a request for a duplicate Registration Certificate (SSS Form No. 2) made on a Request for Duplicate Registration Certificate or Notice of Classification (SSS Form No. 6) at his own or any other local board. When he makes such request by letter he may file it only at his own local board. If the registrant files a request made on Request for Duplicate Registration Certificate or Notice of Classification (SSS Form No. 6) at any local board other than the local board with which he is registered and the registrant's own local board or the place of residence of the registrant at the time of registration is within its State, the local board with which the request is filed shall immediately mail the request to the local board having jurisdiction of the registrant. If the local board with which the request is filed has any doubt as to which other local board in its State has jurisdiction or if the registrant's own local board or his place of residence at the time of registration is not within its State, it shall mail the request to the State Director of Selective Service for transmission to the proper local board. Upon receipt of the request, the local board with which the registrant is registered shall issue a duplicate Registration Certificate (SSS Form No. 2) to the registrant. If the registrant has appeared in person at his local board to file the request, the local board shall deliver the duplicate Registration Certificate (SSS Form No. 2) to him. If the registrant has filed the request through another local board or by letter, the duplicate Registration Certificate (SSS Form No. 2) shall be mailed to him at his mailing address.

(Sec. 10, 62 Stat. 618, as amended; 50 U.S.C. App. 460; E.O. 9979, July 20, 1948, 13 F.R. 4177; 3 CFR, 1943-1948 Comp.)

The foregoing amendments to the Selective Service Regulations shall become effective upon filing with the Office of the Federal Register.

Cancellation of Duplicate Registration

Section 1619.15 of the Selective Service Regulations is amended to read as follows:

§ 1619.15 Cancellation of duplicate registration when registrant found not qualified for service.

If a registrant who is registered with two or more local boards has responded to an order to report for armed forces physical examination or for induction from one of such local boards and has been found not qualified for service in the Armed Forces, the other local board or local boards with which he is registered, upon learning that he has been found not qualified for service, shall cancel his registration and write across the face of his Registration Card (SSS Form No. 1) "Canceled—Duplicate Registration—Delivered Local Board No. _____ (identify the local board which delivered him) and found not qualified for service. Date _____."

(Sec. 10, 62 Stat. 618, as amended; 50 U.S.C. App. 460; E.O. 9979, July 20, 1948, 13 F.R. 4177; 3 CFR, 1943–1948 Comp.)

Title 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans Administration

PART 3—ADJUDICATION

Subpart A—Pension, Compensation, and Dependency and Indemnity Compensation

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. In § 3.701, paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.701 Elections of pension or compensation.

(a) General. Except as otherwise provided, a person entitled to receive pension or compensation under more than one law or sections of a law administered by the Veterans Administration may elect which benefit to receive regardless of whether it is the greater or lesser benefit and even though his election results in reducing the benefits of his dependents. This person may at any time elect or reelect the other benefit. An election by a veteran controls the rights of all dependents in that case and an election by a widow controls not only her claim but those of the children as well, including children over the age of 18 and children not in the widow's custody.

2. Section 3.711 is added to read as follows:

§ 3.711 Public Law 86–211.

(a) Right to elect. Effective July 1, 1960, any person receiving or entitled to receive pension based on service in World War I, World War II or the Korean conflict under laws in effect on June 30, 1960, may elect to receive pension under Title 38, United States Code as amended by Public Law 86–211. Effective September 1, 1960, veterans of the Indian Wars who meet the service requirements of 38 U.S.C. 511(b) and veterans of the Spanish American War who meet the service requirements of 38 U.S.C. 512(a) may elect to receive pension under this law. (Public Law 86–670)

(b) Finality of election. An election of pension under this law is final when the payee (or his fiduciary) has negotiated one check for this benefit. There is no right of reelection.

3. A new cross reference is added immediately following § 3.956:

CROSS REFERENCE: Concurrent benefits and elections, Public Law 86–211. See § 3.711.

Title 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 13766 (RM-101); FCC 62-39]

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

FM and TV Broadcast Stations

1. On September 12, 1960, the Commission released a notice of proposed rule making in the above-captioned matter. Time for filing comments and reply comments expired on October 14 and October 24, 1960, respectively.

2. Comments in this proceeding were filed by Electronic Industries Association (EIA), Columbia Broadcasting System, Inc. (CBS), Radio Corporation of America (RCA), and General Electric. No reply comments were filed.

3. The commenting parties join in requesting that the proposed standards relating to transmitter response for color transmissions be relaxed slightly to provide that, at a modulating frequency of 4.18 Mc, the response may be down 4 db below its value at 3.58 Mc. It was suggested that the proposed standard, which specified a ±2 db tolerance for modulating frequencies between 2.1 and 4.18 Mc, be changed to provide that the ±2 db tolerance be restricted to modulating frequencies between 2.1 and 4.1 Mc and a −4 db tolerance be specified for a modulating frequency of 4.18 Mc. It is submitted that the requested modification will avoid placing an unduly severe requirement on the transmitter and is consistent with the color transmission standards submitted to the Commission by the National Television Systems Committee (NTSC).

4. All parties additionally request that the proposed standard specifying the accuracy tolerance for power output determinations be modified to reflect performance capabilities of available power measuring equipment. It is noted that, in the existing state of the art, commercially available equipment for measuring transmitter output power has an overall accuracy guarantee of ±5 percent.

5. CBS further suggests that the proposed rule amendment which would require installation of an output monitoring meter for stations electing to determine FM and TV aural transmitter power by the indirect method would tend to impose an unnecessary burden on such stations. Since the indirect method of determining power output is based upon values of the plate voltage and plate current of the last radio stage of the transmitter, and since the Commission's rules require that these same parameters be logged every 30 minutes, the operating power is automatically monitored.

6. The Commission has carefully considered the comments and concludes that the suggested modifications to the proposed rule amendments are in keeping with acceptable engineering practice and procedures and are consistent with public interest considerations.

7. Accordingly, it is ordered, This 3d day of January 1962, that, effective February 13, 1962, and pursuant to the authority contained in section 303 (e) and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the Commission's rules are amended as set forth below.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U.S.C. 154. Interprets or applies sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U.S.C. 303)

Released: January 8, 1962.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] BEN F. WAPLE,
Acting Secretary.

1. Section 3.267 is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.267 Operating power: determination and maintenance of.

(a) Determination. The operating power of each station shall be determined by either the direct or indirect method.

(1) Using the direct method, the power shall be measured at the output terminals of the transmitter while operating into a dummy load of substantially zero reactance and a resistance equal to the transmission line characteristic impedance. The transmitter shall be unmodulated during this measurement. If electrical devices are used to determine the power output, such devices shall permit determination of this power to within an accuracy of ±5 percent of the power indicated by the full scale reading of the electrical indicating instrument of the device. If temperature and coolant flow indicating devices are used to determine the power output, such devices shall permit determination of this power to within an accuracy of 4 percent of measured average power output. During this measurement the direct plate voltage and current of the last radio stage and the transmission line meter shall be read and compared with similar readings taken with the dummy load replaced by the antenna. These readings shall be in substantial agreement.

(2) Using the indirect method, the operating power is the product of the plate voltage (E_p) and the plate current (I_p) of the last radio stage, and an efficiency factor, F, as follows:

$$\text{Operating power} = E_p \times I_p \times F$$

(3) The efficiency factor, F, shall be established by the transmitter manufacturer for each type of transmitter for which he submits data to the Commission, and shall be shown in the instruction books supplied to the customer with each transmitter. In the case of composite equipment, the factor F shall be furnished to the Commission with a statement of the basis used in determining such factor.

(b) Maintenance. (1) The operating power shall be maintained as near as practicable to the authorized power and shall not be less than 90 percent nor greater than 105 percent of authorized power except as indicated in paragraph (c) of this section.

(2) When determined by the direct method, the operating power of the transmitter shall be monitored by a transmission line meter which reads proportional to the voltage, current, or power at the output terminals of the transmitter, the meter to be calibrated at intervals not exceeding 6 months. The calibration shall cover, as a minimum, the range from 90 to 105 percent of authorized power and the meter shall provide clear indications which will permit maintaining the operating power within the prescribed tolerance or the meter shall be calibrated to read directly in power units.

(c) Reduced power. In the event it becomes technically impossible to operate with authorized power, the station may be operated with reduced power for a period of 10 days or less without further authority of the Commission: Provided, That the Commission and the Engineer in Charge of the radio district in which the station is located shall be immediately notified in writing if the station is unable to maintain the minimum operating schedule (specified in § 3.261) with authorized power and shall be subsequently notified upon resumption of operation with authorized power.

2. Section 3.567 is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.567 Operating power: determination and maintenance of.

(a) Determination. The operating power of each station shall be determined by either the direct or indirect method.

(1) Using the direct method, the power shall be measured at the output terminals of the transmitter while operating into a dummy load of substantially zero reactance and a resistance equal to the transmission line characteristic impedance. The transmitter shall be unmodulated during this measurement. If electrical devices are used to determine the power output, such devices shall permit determination of this power to within an accuracy of ±5 percent of the power indicated by the full scale reading of the electrical indicating instrument of the device. If temperature and coolant flow indicating devices are used to determine the power output, such devices shall permit determination of this power to within an accuracy of 4 percent of measured average power output. During this measurement the direct plate voltage and current of the last radio stage and the transmission line meter shall be read and compared with similar readings taken with the dummy load replaced by the antenna. These readings shall be in substantial agreement.

(2) Using the indirect method, the operating power is the product of the plate voltage (E_p) and the plate current (I_p) of the last radio stage, and an efficiency factor, F, as follows:

$$\text{Operating power} = E_p \times I_p \times F$$

(3) The efficiency factor, F, shall be established by the transmitter manufacturer for each type of transmitter for which he submits data to the Commission, and shall be shown in the instruction books supplied to the customer with each transmitter. In the case of composite equipment, the factor F shall be furnished to the Commission with a statement of the basis used in determining such factor.

(b) Maintenance. The operating power of stations licensed for transmitter power output greater than 10 watts shall be maintained in accordance with subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and the operating power of stations licensed for transmitter output power of 10 watts or less shall be maintained in accordance with subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(1) The operating power of stations licensed for transmitter output power greater than 10 watts shall be maintained as near as practicable to the authorized power and shall not be less than 90 percent nor greater than 105 percent of authorized power except as indicated in paragraph (c) of this section.

(i) When determined by the direct method, the operating power of the transmitter shall be monitored by a transmission line meter which reads proportional to the voltage, current, or power at the output terminals of the transmitter, the meter to be calibrated at intervals not exceeding 6 months. The calibration shall cover, as a minimum, the range from 90 to 105 percent of authorized power and the meter shall provide clear indications which will permit maintaining the operating power within the prescribed tolerance or the meter shall be calibrated to read directly in power units.

(2) Stations licensed to operate with a transmitter output power of 10 watts or less may be operated at less than authorized power but in no event shall the operating power be greater than 5 percent above the authorized power. The transmitter of each such station shall be so maintained as to be capable of operation at maximum licensed power.

(c) Reduced power. If a station licensed for transmitter power output greater than 10 watts finds it impossible to operate with authorized power, the station may operate with reduced power for a period not to exceed 10 days. In the event the period of reduced power operation exceeds 10 days, the Commission and the Engineer in Charge of the radio district in which the station is located shall be notified in writing on the eleventh day and shall also be notified when operation with authorized power is resumed.

3. Section 3.687(a)(2) is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.687 Transmitters and associated equipment.

(a) Visual transmitter. • • •

(2) For color transmission, the standard given by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph applies except as modified by the following: A sine wave of 3.58 Mc/s introduced at those terminals of the transmitter which are normally fed the composite color picture signal shall produce a radiated signal having an amplitude (as measured with a diode on the R.F. transmission line supplying power to the antenna) which is down 6±2 db with respect to a signal produced by a sine wave of 200 kc/s. In addition, between the modulating frequencies of 2.1 and 4.1 Mc/s, the amplitude of the radiated signal shall not vary by more than ±2 db from its value at 3.58 Mc/s. At the modulating frequency of 4.18 Mc/s, the amplitude of the radiated signal shall not be down more than 4 db below its value at 3.58 Mc/s.

4. Section 3.689 is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.689 Operating power.

(a) Determination—(1) Visual transmitter. The operating power of the visual transmitter shall be determined at the output terminals of the transmitter, which includes any vestigial sideband and harmonic filters which may be used during normal operation. For this determination the average power output shall be measured while operating into a dummy load of substantially zero reactance and a resistance equal to the transmission line characteristic impedance. During this measurement the transmitter shall be modulated only by a standard synchronizing signal with blanking level set at 75 percent of peak amplitude as observed in an output monitor, and with this blanking level amplitude maintained throughout the time interval between synchronizing pulses. If electrical devices are used to determine the output power, such devices shall permit determination of this power to within an accuracy of ±5 percent of the power indicated by the full scale reading of the electrical indicating instrument of the device. If temperature and coolant flow indicating devices are used to determine the power output, such devices shall permit determination of this power to within an accuracy of 4 percent of measured average power output. The peak power output shall be the power so measured in the dummy load multiplied by the factor 1.68. During this measurement the direct plate voltage and current of the last radio stage and the transmission line meter shall be read and compared with similar readings taken with the dummy load replaced by the antenna. These readings shall be in substantial agreement.

(2) Aural transmitter. The operating power of the aural transmitter shall be determined by either the direct or indirect method.

(i) Using the direct method, the power shall be measured at the output terminals of the transmitter while operating into a dummy load of substantially zero reactance and a resistance equal to the transmission line characteristic impedance. The transmitter shall be unmodulated during this measurement. If electrical devices are used to determine the output power, such devices shall permit determination of this power to within an accuracy of ±5 percent of the power indicated by the full scale reading of the electrical indicating instrument of the device. If temperature and coolant flow indicating devices are used to determine the power output, such devices shall permit determination of this power to within an accuracy of 4 percent of measured average power output. During this measurement the direct plate voltage and current of the last radio stage and the transmission line meter shall be read and compared with similar readings taken with the dummy load replaced by the antenna. These readings shall be in substantial agreement.

(ii) Using the indirect method, the operating power is the product of the plate voltage (E_p) and the plate current (I_p) of the last radio stage, and an efficiency factor, F, as follows:

$$\text{Operating power} = E_p \times I_p \times F$$

(iii) The efficiency factor, F, shall originally be established by the transmitter manufacturer for each type of transmitter for which he submits data to the Commission, and shall be shown in the instruction books supplied to the customer with each transmitter. In the case of composite equipment, the factor F shall be furnished to the Commission by the applicant along with a statement of the basis used in determining such factor.

(b) Maintenance—(1) Visual transmitter. The peak power shall be monitored by a peak reading meter which reads proportional to voltage, current, or power at the output terminals of the transmitter, this meter to be calibrated at intervals not exceeding 6 months. The meter shall cover, as a minimum, the range from 80 to 110 percent of authorized power and it shall be of sufficient accuracy and clarity of indication to permit maintaining the operating power within the prescribed tolerance or the meter shall be calibrated to read directly in power units. The operating power so monitored shall be maintained as near as practicable to the authorized power and shall not be less than 80 percent nor greater than 110 percent of authorized power except as indicated in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

(2) Aural transmitter. (i) The operating power shall be maintained as near as practicable to the authorized power and shall not be less than 80 percent nor greater than 110 percent of authorized power except as indicated in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

(ii) When determined by the direct method, the operating power of the transmitter shall be monitored using a transmission line meter which reads proportional to the voltage, current, or power at the output terminals of the transmitter, the meter to be calibrated at intervals not exceeding 6 months. The calibration shall cover, as a minimum, the range from 80 to 110 percent of authorized power and the meter shall provide clear indications which will permit maintaining the operating power within the prescribed tolerance or the meter shall be calibrated to read directly in power units.

(3) Reduced power. In the event it becomes technically impossible to operate with the authorized power, the station may be operated with reduced power for a period of 10 days or less without further authority of the Commission: Provided, That the Commission and the Engineer in Charge of the radio district in which the station is located shall be immediately notified in writing if the station is unable to maintain the minimum operating schedule (specified in § 3.651) with authorized power and shall be subsequently notified upon resumption of operation with authorized power.

PART 7—STATIONS ON LAND IN THE MARITIME SERVICES

PART 11—INDUSTRIAL RADIO SERVICES

PART 16—LAND TRANSPORTATION RADIO SERVICES

Eligibility Rules for Authorizations in Certain Safety and Special Radio Services

1. Notice of proposed rule making in the above-captioned matter was released on October 23, 1961, and it was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on October 26, 1961 (26 F.R. 10075). With the notice, the Commission invited comments on a proposal to amend its rules governing eligibility for authorizations for Power, Petroleum, Forest Products, Motion Pictures, Relay Press, Motor Carrier, Railroad radio stations, Limited coast stations using telegraphy, Limited coast stations using telephony, and Fixed stations associated with the Maritime Mobile Service, to extend the eligibility for such authorizations to a subsidiary corporation proposing to furnish a non-profit radiocommunication service to its parent corporation or to another subsidiary of the same parent corporation where the party to be served is engaged in one or more of the activities which establish the basic eligibility in the particular radio service. The Commission also proposed to amend § 16.3 to cover the parent-subsidiary arrangement, and to delete from §§ 7.203 and 7.351 of the rules the provisions contained in paragraphs (a)(2) of these sections. Comments were invited by November 15, 1961, and reply comments by November 25, 1961.

2. Timely comments were filed by The National Committee for Utilities Radio (NCUR), the Central Committee on Communications Facilities of the American Petroleum Institute (Central Committee), Forest Industries Radio Communications (FIRC), Humble Communications Company (Humble), and by The Association of American Railroads (AAR). No reply comments have been filed. All comments supported the Commission's proposed amendments; however, Central Committee conditioned its support of the Commission's proposed amendment of § 11.301 upon the retention of the provisions now contained in paragraphs (a) and (b) of that section. The notice of proposed rule making did not suggest that the Commission would consider other changes in the Rules beyond those specifically described therein. Accordingly, no other changes have been contemplated, nor are any undertaken herein.

3. Humble, in addition to supporting adoption of the proposed amendments, requested the Commission to expand or interpret the amendments to permit a licensee thereunder to furnish radiocommunication service to affiliates of the licensee in addition to its parent or to another subsidiary of the same parent. Humble's proposal to include affiliates into the arrangements adopted herein goes beyond the scope of the notice of proposed rule making. Furthermore, the term "affiliate" is not well defined and its adoption into our rules might cause serious problems of interpretation. Accordingly, Humble's request is denied.

4. As stated in the notice of proposed rule making, the purpose of the amendments is to incorporate into the eligibility rules of the various Safety and Special Radio Services the parent-subsidiary arrangement which is now found in the eligibility rules for certain other Safety and Special Radio Services; i.e., Special Industrial, Business, Telephone Maintenance and Citizens Radio Services, because this provision has been shown to have worked satisfactorily in these services in that it enables a group of corporations, under common ownership or control, having similar radiocommunication needs to meet these needs by operating one radio system. We adhere to that view.

5. In accordance with the policy contained in § 16.3, the same requirements are imposed upon applicants and licensees in the Motor Carrier and Railroad Radio Services under the parent-subsidiary arrangement adopted herein as those imposed in § 16.3(c) upon users of the other cooperative arrangements under Part 16 of the rules. The AAR, the only organization representing licensees under Part 16 which filed comments, stated that it did not oppose the imposition of this requirement.

6. The provision contained in paragraphs (a)(2) of §§ 7.203 and 7.351 are deleted. Persons who might conceivably be eligible under these provisions would be eligible, as far as it can be foreseen, under the parent-subsidiary arrangement or under the provisions of §§ 7.203(a)(3) or 7.351(a)(5).

7. Authority for the amendments ordered herein is found in sections 4(i) and 303 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

8. It is ordered, This 3d day of January 1962, that effective February 13, 1962, Parts 7, 11, and 16 of the Commission's rules are amended as set forth below.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U.S.C. 154. Interprets or applies sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U.S.C. 303)

Released: January 8, 1962.

Title 22—FOREIGN RELATIONS

Chapter I—Department of State

[Dept. Reg. 108.475]

PART 51—PASSPORTS

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Paragraph 126 of Executive Order No. 7856 dated March 31, 1938, issued under the authority of section 1 of the Act of Congress approved July 3, 1926, 44 Stat. 887 (22 U.S.C. 211a) and section 4 of the Act of May 26, 1949, 63 Stat. 111 (5 U.S.C. 151c) I hereby revise §§ 51.135 to 51.170 inclusive of Part 51 of Title 22 of the Code of Federal Regulations to read as follows:

(a) A person whose application for a passport or renewal of a passport has been tentatively denied in accordance with § 51.135 or § 51.136 shall be entitled, upon request, and before the denial becomes final, to present to the Passport Office any information he deems relevant to support his application. He shall be entitled to appear in person before a Hearing Officer in the Passport Office; to be represented by counsel; to present evidence; to be informed of the evidence upon which the Passport Office relied as a basis for the tentative denial; to be informed of the source of such evidence; and to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses.

(b) The applicant shall, upon request by the Hearing Officer, confirm his oral statements in an affidavit for the record. After the applicant has presented his case, the Passport Office shall review the record and advise the applicant of its decision. In making its decision, the Passport Office shall not take into consideration confidential security information that is not made available to the applicant in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section. If the decision is adverse to the applicant, he shall be notified in writing, and the notification shall state the reasons for the decision. Such notification shall also inform the applicant of his right to appeal to the Board of Passport Appeals under § 51.139.

It shall be the duty of the Board, on the basis of the evidence on the record, to advise the Secretary of the action it finds necessary and proper to the disposition of the cases appealed to it, and to this end the Board may first call for clarification of the record; make further investigation; or take other action consistent with its duties.

§ 51.156 Basis for findings of fact by the Board.

In making or reviewing findings of fact, the Board, and all others with responsibility for so doing under §§ 51.135 to 51.154 shall be convinced by a preponderance of the evidence, as would a trial court in a civil case. In determining whether there is a preponderance of evidence supporting the denial of a passport, the Board shall consider the entire record before it. The Board shall not take into consideration any confidential security information which is not part of the record.

§ 51.157 Decisions of the Board.

Decisions shall be by majority vote. Voting may be either in open or closed session on any question except recommendations under § 51.155 which shall be in closed session. Decisions under § 51.155 shall be in writing and shall be signed by all participating members of the Board.

§ 51.162 Hearings.

The record of proceedings held under § 51.138 shall be made available to the applicant in connection with his appeal to the Board. The applicant may appear and testify in his own behalf, be represented by counsel, present witnesses and offer other evidence in his own behalf. The Passport Office may also present witnesses and offer other evidence. The applicant and witnesses may be examined by any member of the Board or by counsel. If any witness whom the applicant wishes to call is unable to appear personally, the Board may, in its discretion, accept an affidavit by him or order evidence to be taken by deposition. Such deposition may be taken before any person designated by the Board and such designee is hereby authorized to administer oaths and affirmations for purposes of the depositions. The applicant shall be entitled to be informed of all the evidence before the Board and of the source of such evidence, and shall be entitled to confront and cross-examine any adverse witness.

§ 51.163 Admissability.

The Passport Office and the applicant may introduce such evidence as the Board deems proper. Formal rules of evidence shall not apply, but reasonable restrictions shall be imposed as to the relevancy, competency and materiality of evidence presented.

§ 51.164 Privacy of hearings.

Hearings shall be private. There shall be present at the hearing only the applicant, his counsel, the members of the Board, Board's Counsel, official stenographers, Departmental employees and the witnesses. Witnesses shall be present at the hearing only while actually giving testimony, or when otherwise directed by the Board.

Withdrawal of Proposal to Alter Control Zone

In a notice of proposed rule making published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as Airspace Docket No. 61-FW-17 on June 21, 1961 (26 F.R. 5527), it was stated that the Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) proposed the alteration of the Wink, Texas, control zone.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[47 CFR Part 3]

[Docket No. 12946]

TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS

Table of Assignments, San Francisco and Sacramento, Calif., and Reno, Nev.; Order Extending Time to Respond to Petition for Reconsideration

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606, Table of Assignments, television broadcast stations (San Francisco and Sacramento, California and Reno, Nevada), Docket No. 12946.

1. Golden Empire Broadcasting Co., licensee of Station KHSL-TV, Chico, California, and a party to the above-entitled proceeding, requests, by motion filed January 3, 1962, that the time for responding to the petition for reconsideration of the Commission's Further Report and Order of November 15, 1961, in this proceeding, filed on December 22, 1961, by S. H. Patterson, holder of a permit for UHF Station KSAN-TV at San Francisco, be extended from January 2, 1962, to January 19, 1962.

2. Golden Empire states that it did not receive a copy of the Patterson petition for reconsideration until December 28, 1961, and needs additional time to complete its study of it. Petitioner further states that Metropolitan Broadcasting Corporation of California, licensee of Station KOVR at Stockton, California, and also a party to the proceeding, also did not receive a copy of the Patterson petition until that date and joins in its instant motion. Golden Empire advises that counsel for S. H. Patterson has indicated that he has no objection to the immediate consideration and grant of the subject motion.

3. The requested extension of time will not delay the Commission's disposition of the petition for reconsideration or prejudice any party. Moreover, it is desirable that the Commission have before it the benefit of the views of other parties. We, therefore, believe that extending the time to January 19, 1962, for filing responses to the Patterson petition for reconsideration is warranted in the public interest.

4. Accordingly, it is ordered, This 5th day of January, 1962, That the aforesaid motion of Golden Empire Broadcasting Co. is granted; and that the time for filing responses to the above-mentioned petition for reconsideration of S. H. Patterson is extended from January 2, 1962, to January 19, 1962.

5. This action is taken pursuant to authority found in sections 4(i), 5(d)(1) and 303(r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 0.241(d)(8) of the Commission's rules.

Released: January 8, 1962.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] BEN F. WAPLE,
Acting Secretary.

[Public Announcement No. 34]

COLUMBIA BASIN PROJECT, WASHINGTON

Public Announcement of the Sale of Full-Time Farm Units

LANDS COVERED

DECEMBER 27, 1961.

SECTION 1. Offer of farm units for sale. It is hereby announced that certain farm units in the Columbia Basin Project, Washington, will be sold to qualified applicants in accordance with the provisions of this announcement. Applications for certificates of qualification to purchase farm units may be submitted beginning at 2:00 p.m., January 12, 1962.

In order to permit the continued orderly development and settlement of project lands, this public announcement is issued irrespective of there being pending applications for exchange pursuant to the Act of August 13, 1953 (67 Stat. 566).

a. Farm units presently owned. The farm units which are presently owned by the United States and hereby offered for sale are described as follows:

b. Additional farm units. If, through the operation of its land acquisition program, the United States should, following the date of this announcement and prior to the date on which the first farm unit is offered for selection to an applicant under the provisions hereof, own additional farm units in the Columbia Basin Project which are scheduled to receive water before the close of the 1962 irrigation season, such farm units may be offered for sale under the provisions of this announcement.

The official plats of these irrigation blocks are on file in the offices of the Bureau of Reclamation at Ephrata, Washington, and Boise, Idaho. The prices of the farm units are subject to minor changes which may result from adjustments in the irrigable acreages due to changes in rights of way or other causes.

SEC. 2. Limit of acreage which may be purchased. The lands covered by this announcement have been divided into farm units. Each of the farm units represents the acreage which, in the opinion of the Regional Director, Region 1, Bureau of Reclamation, will support an average size family at a suitable level of living. The law provides that no application for a certificate of qualification shall be received from (1) anyone who then has outstanding a certificate of qualification to select a farm unit on the Columbia Basin Project, (2) anyone who owns another farm unit on that project, or (3) any person who, or a member of whose family, has theretofore purchased or entered into a contract to purchase a farm unit under the Columbia Basin Project Act, except those whose farm units have been acquired by the United States for exchange purposes. A family is defined as comprising husband or wife, or both, together with their children under 18 years of age, or all of such children if both parents are dead.

PREFERENCE OF APPLICANTS

SEC. 3. Nature of preference. Except for a prior preference given applicants for exchange under the provisions of the Act of August 13, 1953 (67 Stat. 566), who are hereinafter called "exchange applicants", preference right to purchase the farm units described above will be given to persons who submit applications during a 45-day period beginning at 2:00 p.m., January 12, 1962, and endings at 2:00 p.m., February 26, 1962.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED OF PURCHASERS

SEC. 4. Examining board. An examining board of three members has been appointed by the Regional Director to determine the qualifications and fitness of applicants to undertake the purchase, development, and operation of a farm on the Columbia Basin Project. The Board will make careful investigations to verify the statements and representations made by applicants. Any false statements may constitute grounds for rejection of an application and cancellation of the applicant's right to purchase a farm unit.

SEC. 5. Minimum qualifications. Certain minimum qualifications have been established which are considered necessary for the successful development of farm units. Applicants, unless qualified exchange applicants, must, in the judgment of the examining board, meet these qualifications in order to be eligible for the purchase of farm units. Failure to meet them in any single respect will be sufficient cause for rejection of an application. No credit will be given for qualifications in excess of the required minimum. The minimum qualifications are as follows:

a. Character and industry. An applicant must be possessed of honesty, temperate habits, thrift, industry, seriousness of purpose, record of good moral conduct, and a bona fide intent to engage in farming as an occupation.

b. Farm experience. Except as otherwise provided in this subjection, an applicant must have had a minimum of two years (24 months) of full-time farm experience, which shall consist of participation in actual farming operations after reaching the age of 17 years. At least one year of such full-time farm experience must have been obtained after a date five years prior to the date of this announcement, except as provided in Section 12. Except for the above-mentioned one year of recent farm experience, time spent in agricultural courses in an accredited agricultural college or time spent in work closely associated with farming, such as teaching vocational agriculture, agricultural extension work, or field work in the production or marketing of farm products, which in the opinion of the Board will be of value to an applicant in operating a farm, may be substituted for full-time experience. Such substitution shall be on the basis of one year (academic year of at least nine months) of agricultural college courses or one year (twelve months) of work closely associated with farming for six months of full-time farm experience. Not more than one year of full-time experience of this type will be allowed.

Applicants who have acquired their experience on an irrigated farm will not be given preference over those whose experience was acquired on a non-irrigated farm, but all applicants must have had farm experience of such nature as in the judgment of the examining board will qualify the applicant to undertake the development and operation of an irrigated farm by modern methods.

c. Health. An applicant must be in such physical condition as will enable him to engage in normal farm labor.

d. Capital. To be eligible for a certificate of qualification for farms listed in Section 1, applicants must possess in excess of liabilities either (1) at least $7,500 in cash or (2) various assets amounting to at least $8,500. No value will be allowed for a passenger car or household goods. At the time he moves to the Project to take possession of the farm unit selected, the applicant must re-establish to the satisfaction of the Project Manager that he possesses in excess of liabilities either (1) at least $7,500 in cash or (2) at least $5,000 in cash plus $3,500 in property such as livestock, farm machinery, or equipment which, in the opinion of the Board and the Project Manager, will be useful in the development and operation of a new, irrigated farm on the Columbia Basin Project. Before executing a land sale contract and acquiring the right of possession of the farm unit, the purchaser must establish, to the satisfaction of the Project Manager, that he has moved to the Project to take possession of the farm unit selected and re-establish his net worth as required above, except that the amount paid as an earnest money deposit can be credited as part of the assets making up the applicant's net worth.

SEC. 6. Other qualifications required. Each applicant must meet the following requirements:

a. Be a citizen of the United States or have declared an intention to become a citizen of the United States.

b. In addition to the limitations in section 2, not own outright, or be acquiring under a contract to purchase, more than 10 acres of crop land or a total of 160 acres of land at the time of execution of a purchase contract for a farm unit.

c. Not previously have purchased a farm unit from the United States under provisions of the Reclamation Law, excepting therefrom actions under the Act of August 13, 1953.

d. Not have outstanding a certificate of qualification for the purchase of a farm unit on the Columbia Basin Project.

e. Not own outright, or be acquiring under a contract to purchase, a farm unit on the Columbia Basin Project.

f. If a married woman or a person under 21 years of age who is not a veteran with acceptable service, be the head of a family. The head of a family is ordinarily the husband, but a wife or a minor child who is obliged to assume major responsibility for the support of a family may be the head of a family.

WHERE AND HOW TO SUBMIT AN APPLICATION

SEC. 7. Filing application blanks. Any person desiring to apply for a certificate of qualification to purchase a farm unit offered for sale by this announcement must fill out the attached application blank and file it with the Bureau of Reclamation, Ephrata, Washington, in person or by mail. Additional application blanks may be obtained from the office of the Bureau of Reclamation at Ephrata, Washington; Boise, Idaho; or Washington, D.C. No advantage will accrue to an applicant who presents an application in person. Each application submitted, including the evidence of qualification to be submitted following the public drawing, will become a part of the records of the Bureau of Reclamation and cannot be returned to the applicant.

SELECTION OF QUALIFIED APPLICANTS

SEC. 8. Priority of applications. All applications, except those received from qualified exchange applicants prior to 2:00 p.m., February 26, 1962, which shall be given prior preference, will be classified for priority purposes as follows:

a. First Group. All complete applications filed prior to 2:00 p.m., February 26, 1962. Such applications will be treated as simultaneously filed.

b. Second Group. All complete applications filed after 2:00 p.m., February 26, 1962. Such applications will be considered in the order in which they are filed if any farm units are available for sale to applicants within this group.

SEC. 9. Public drawing. After the priority classification, the Board will conduct a public drawing of the names of the applicants in the First Group as defined in subsection 8.a. of this announcement. Applicants need not be present at the drawing to participate therein. The names of a sufficient number of applicants (not less than four times the number of farm units offered for sale) shall be drawn and numbered in the order drawn for the purpose of establishing the order in which the applications drawn will be examined by the Board to determine whether the applicants meet the minimum qualifications prescribed in this announcement and to establish the priority of qualified applicants for the selection of farm units. After such drawing, the Board will notify each applicant of his respective standing as a result of the drawing.

SEC. 10. Submission of evidence of qualification. After the drawing, a sufficient number of applicants, in the order of their priority as established by the drawing, will be supplied with forms on which to submit evidence of qualification showing that they meet the qualifications set forth in Sections 5 and 6 of this announcement. Full and accurate answers must be made to all questions. The completed form, together with any attachments required, must be mailed or delivered to the Bureau of Reclamation, Ephrata, Washington, within 20 days of the date the form is mailed to the last address furnished by the applicant. Failure of an applicant to furnish all of the information requested or to see that information is furnished by his references within the time period specified will subject his application to rejection.

SEC. 11. Examination and interview. After the information outlined in section 10 of this announcement has been received or the time for submitting such statements has expired, the Board shall examine in the order drawn a sufficient number of applications, together with the evidence of qualification submitted, to determine the applicants who will be permitted to purchase farm units. This examination will determine the sufficiency, authenticity, and reliability of the information and evidence submitted by the applicants. If the applicant fails to supply any of the information required or the Board finds that the applicant's qualifications do not meet the requirements prescribed in this announcement, the applicant shall be disqualified and shall be notified by the Board, by certified mail, of such disqualification and the reasons therefor and of the right to appeal to the Regional Director, Region 1, Bureau of Reclamation. All appeals must be received in the office of the Project Manager, Bureau of Reclamation, Ephrata, Washington, within 15 days of the applicant's receipt of such notice or, in any event, within 30 days from the date when the notice is mailed to the last address furnished by the applicant. The Project Manager will promptly forward the appeal to the Regional Director.

If the examination indicates that an applicant is qualified, the applicant may be required to appear for a personal interview with the Board for the purposes of: (1) Affording the Board any additional information it may desire relative to his qualifications; (2) affording the applicant any information desired relative to conditions in the area and the problems and obligations relative to development of a farm unit; and (3) affording the applicant an opportunity to examine the farm units.

If an applicant fails to appear before the Board for a personal interview on the date requested, he will thereby forfeit his priority position as determined by the drawing. If the Board finds that an applicant's qualifications fulfill the requirements prescribed in this announcement, such applicant shall be notified, in person or by certified mail, that he is a qualified applicant and shall be given an opportunity to select one of the farm units available then for purchase. Such notice will require the applicant to make a field examination of the farm units available to him and in which he is interested, to select a farm unit, and to notify the Board of such selection within the time specified in the notice.

SELECTION OF FARM UNITS

SEC. 12. Order of selection. The applicants who have been notified of their qualification for the purchase of a farm unit will successively exercise the right to select a farm unit in accordance with the priority established by the drawing. If a farm unit becomes available through failure of a qualified applicant to exercise his right of selection or failure to complete his purchase, it will be offered to the next qualified applicant who has not made a selection at the time the unit is again available. An applicant who is considered to be disqualified as a result of the personal interview will be permitted to exercise his right to select, notwithstanding his disqualification, unless he voluntarily surrenders this right in writing. If, on appeal, the action of the Board in disqualifying an applicant as a result of the personal interview is reversed by the Regional Director, the applicant's selection shall be effective, but if such action of the Board is upheld by the Regional Director, the farm unit selected by this applicant will become available for selection by qualified applicants who have not exercised their right to select.

If any of the farm units listed in this announcement remain unselected after all qualified applicants whose names were selected in the drawing have had an opportunity to select a farm unit and if additional applicants remain in the First Group, all said remaining applicants will be advised by the Board as to the number and nature of the unsold units. If any of the applicants so advised wish to be considered for the possible purchase of one of the remaining units, they must so advise the Board in writing within 20 days of the date of the notice. The Board will consider, in the order of their selection priority as established by drawing, only those applicants who make affirmative reply within the period stipulated.

Any farm units remaining unselected after all qualified applicants in the First Group have had an opportunity to select a farm unit will be offered to applicants in the Second Group in the order in which their applications are filed, subject to the determination of the Board, made in accordance with the procedure prescribed herein, that such applicants meet the minimum qualifications prescribed in this announcement. In considering the qualifications of applicants in the Second Group, the Board of Examiners may waive the requirement that one year of the two years' fulltime farm experience be obtained after a date five years prior to the date of this announcement if in the opinion of the Board the applicant has sufficient capital or outside income to make the required real estate improvements largely with his own resources.

If any farm units offered by or under this announcement remain unsold for a period of two years following the date of this announcement, the Project Manager may sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of such units to qualified applicants without regard to the provisions of section 9 of this announcement.

SEC. 13. Failure to select. If any applicant, except a qualified exchange applicant, refuses to select a farm unit or fails to do so within the time specified by the Board, such applicant shall forfeit his position in his priority group and his name shall be placed last in that group.

PURCHASE OF SELECTED UNIT

SEC. 14. Execution of earnest money agreement and land sale contract. When a farm unit is selected by an applicant as provided in section 12 of this announcement, the Project Manager will promptly give the applicant a written notice confirming the availability to him of the unit selected and will furnish an earnest money agreement together with instructions concerning its execution and return. In that notice, the Project Manager will inform the applicant of the amount of his down payment and the amount of the irrigation charges assessed by the irrigation district or, if such charges have not been assessed, of an estimate of the amount of the charges for the first year of the development period, to be deposited with the irrigation district.

The earnest money agreement will require the applicant to deposit $200 or 5 percent of the purchase price of the farm, whichever amount is greater, with the Project Manager. The amount deposited with the earnest money agreement will be applied to the down payment if the applicant (1) submits proof that he has moved to the Columbia Basin Project before March 1 of the year water is first declared available to the irrigation block in which the farm unit is located or within six months of the earnest money agreement, whichever is later, and possesses the minimum capital assets required under subsection 5.d., (2) pays the real or estimated amount of the irrigation charges which will be required by the irrigation district for the first year of the development period following the date of contract, (3) pays the remainder of the required down payment on the purchase price of the farm unit, and (4) executes a land sale contract in accordance with the Project Manager's instructions. If the applicant fails to comply with any of the four requirements described in this paragraph, he will forfeit his right to purchase the farm unit and the amount he has deposited as earnest money will be retained by the United States as liquidated damages.

When the applicant submits proof to the Project Manager or his representative that he has moved to the Project to take possession of the farm unit and that he possesses the minimum capital assets required under subsection 5.d., the Project Manager will promptly furnish the applicant the necessary land sale contract, together with instructions concerning its execution and return. Such proof shall be in the form of an affidavit that he has actually moved to the Project area, a current financial statement, and where appropriate, a personal inspection of farm equipment by a representative of the Project Manager.

If the purchase is made subsequent to July 1 of any year during the development period, a deposit may be required to cover payment of water charges for the balance of that year as well as for the year following the purchase.

SEC. 15. Terms of sale. Contracts for the sale of farm units pursuant to this announcement will contain, among others, the following principal provisions:

a. Down payment. An initial or down payment of $400 or 10 percent of the purchase price of the lands being purchased from the United States, whichever is larger, will be required. Larger proportions or the entire amount of the price may be paid initially at the purchaser's option.

b. Schedule for payment of balance; Interest rate. If only a portion of the purchase price is paid initially, the remainder will be payable within a period of 20 years following the date of the contract. No payments on the principal, except the down payment, will be required during the first three years, and the Project Manager may postpone such payments for as long as the first five years of the contract. Interest on the unpaid balance at the rate of three percent per annum, however, will be payable annually. When payments on the principal are resumed, they will be payable each year. The schedule of principal payments, which will be established by the Project Manager, will provide for relatively small payments during the first years and larger payments during the later years of the contract period. Payment of any or all installments, or any portion thereof, may be made before their due dates at the purchaser's option.

c. Development requirements. In order that the irrigable area of the entire farm unit shall be developed with reasonable dispatch, each purchaser will be required, as a minimum, to clear, level, irrigate, and plant to crops by the end of each of the calendar years indicated below and to maintain in crops thereafter the following percentages of irrigable land as tentatively or finally classified:

Size of farm unit in irrigable acres	Percentage of land classified tentatively or finally as irrigable to be developed by end of each year. (Period will begin with year of purchase if contract is executed and water is available on or before May 1 of that year; otherwise period will begin with the next calendar year.)
	2d year	3d year	4th year	5th year
61–80	50	65	75
81–100	40	60	65	75

d. Residence requirements. A major objective of the settlement program for the Columbia Basin Project is to assist and encourage the permanent settlement of farm families. In keeping with this objective, each purchaser will be required to do the following with respect to residence: (1) Within one year from the date of his contract or by March 1 of the year water is first declared available to the irrigation block in which the farm unit is located, whichever is later, he must initiate residence by actually moving onto the unit, such residence to be maintained by living thereon for not less than 12 months within an 18-month period following the initial date of residence, and (2) before receiving title to the unit under the land sale contract, to establish a permanent and habitable dwelling on the unit. The time for compliance with the initiation of residence may be extended by the Project Manager for periods of as long as six months, upon his determination that an extension is necessary to avoid undue hardship to the purchaser and that it will not be detrimental to the orderly development of the irrigation block. The latest permissible date for initiating residence, however, will not be extended for more than one year in addition to the one-year period specified above.

e. Speculation and landholding limitations. Land sale contracts and deeds covering farm units offered by this announcement will include provisions governing (1) maximum permissible sizes of holdings of irrigable lands; (2) continued conformance of land to the area and boundaries of the farm unit plat for the block; (3) prices at which land can be resold during a period of five years following the date on which water is made available to the irrigation block; (4) disposal of land should it become excess at any time; and (5) limitations as to total area that may be operated on the Project, whether as lessee or as owner or both.

f. Possession. The purchaser may take possession of the lands being purchased when he has complied with the requirements described in section 14 and the land sale contract has been executed by the Project Manager for the United States, except that if a farm unit is under lease when sold possession may not be taken until the end of the period for which the unit is leased. Such leases occur infrequently and are of not more than one year's duration.

g. Sales, assignments, leases. Each purchaser shall be required to agree that he, his heirs, and assigns will not, except with the approval of the Project Manager, sell, assign, lease, or otherwise dispose of, or contract to sell, assign, lease, or otherwise dispose of, his land during a period ending five years from the date of his purchase contract.

h. Copies of contract form. The terms listed above and all other standard contract provisions are contained in the land sale contract form, copies of which may be obtained by writing to the Bureau of Reclamation, Ephrata, Washington.

IRRIGATION CHARGES

SEC. 16. Water rental charges. In Irrigation Block 80 some construction activities will be continuing and the system will be tested during the irrigation season of 1962. However, it is expected that water will be furnished on a temporary rental basis to those desiring it. The terms of payment, which will be at a fixed rate per acre-foot of water used, will be announced by the Project Manager before the beginning of the irrigation season.

SEC. 17. Development period charges. Pursuant to the provisions of the repayment contracts of October 9, 1945, between the United States and the three irrigation districts of the Columbia Basin Project, the Secretary of the Interior will establish a development period, normally ten years, for each irrigation block, during which time payment of construction charge installments will not be required. The Secretary will announce the development period for Irrigation Block 80 when the testing of the irrigation facilities gives assurance that the development period can begin. The development period began in 1959 for Irrigation Block 18, in 1960 for Irrigation Block 20, and will begin in 1962 for Irrigation Block 201.

During the development period, water rental charges, except as pointed out later in this section, will average an estimated $6.40 per year for each irrigable acre as tentatively or finally classified. This figure is an estimate and is subject to adjustment when the actual costs are determined. In any event, there will be a minimum charge per farm unit each year whether or not water is used. A notice establishing the details of the plan to be followed and announcing charges and governing provisions for the first year of the development period will be issued prior to January 1 of that year by the Project Manager.

The present plans are: (1) To vary the minimum charge according to the anticipated relative repayment ability of the various land classes; (2) to increase the minimum charge from 70 percent of the estimated cost for the first year to about 115 percent for the later years of the development period; and (3) to charge for water in excess of the amount furnished for the minimum charge on an acre-foot basis. The minimum charge will entitle each user to a quantity of water, to be specified by the Project Manager, varying with the water requirement classification of the land and the size of the farm unit. In addition to the water rental charges, the irrigation district will levy a charge to cover administrative costs and probable delinquencies in collections and to accumulate reserve funds.

SEC. 18. Construction period repayment charges—a. Operation and maintenance charges. After the development period has ended, water users will pay a charge for operation and maintenance of the Project irrigation system which will be uniform for the irrigation blocks throughout the Project. These charges may be graduated among land classes. Assessment procedure will be left for the Irrigation District Board of Directors to determine, but, in any case, there will be an annual minimum charge per acre. In order to encourage careful use of water, this annual minimum charge will entitle the water user to one-half acre-foot of water per acre less than the amount of water normally required. The normal requirements for the various classes of land will be determined and announced as provided in the repayment contracts with the irrigation districts. Water in excess of the quantity covered by the minimum charge will be paid for on an ascending, graduated scale.

b. Construction charges. The existing repayment contracts between the United States and the irrigation districts require the payment of construction charges for the Project irrigation system during the forty years following the end of the development period. Under the present repayment contracts, the average construction charge per irrigable acre for the entire Project is $2.12 per year. Thus, the total construction repayment obligation averages $85 per irrigable acre. However, that amount is predicated on an estimated total direct investment in irrigation works costing not to exceed $280,782,180, most of which has already been made. If the existing repayment contracts are amended to increase this amount, the construction repayment obligation of the districts will be increased, as will the average construction charge per irrigable acre. The present contracts further provide that construction charges shall be graduated according to the relative repayment ability of the land; consequently, the charge per irrigable acre will be larger for the better lands than for the poorer lands. This allocation of construction charges by classes of land will be made as soon as practicable.

SEC. 19. Drainage charges. In addition to the charges described in sections 17 and 18 above, a charge will be assessed to provide for the construction of drainage facilities. This charge could reach $3.50 per acre per year in addition to the annual water rental charge or the annual operation and maintenance charge. However, the drainage construction costs would be removed from the annual water rental charge or the annual operation and maintenance charge if the repayment contracts with the irrigation districts were amended to allow these costs to be capitalized and returned as part of the cost of construction of the project irrigation system.

Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

WOODFORD B. MCCOOL,
Secretary.

Agreement Proposed by the State of California Pursuant to Section 274 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, for the Assumption of Certain of the AEC's Regulatory Authority

Whereas, the United States Atomic Energy Commission (hereinafter referred to as the Commission) is authorized under section 274b. of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, to enter into an agreement with the Governor of any State providing for discontinuance of the regulatory authority of the Commission under Chapters 6, 7, and 8 and section 161 of that Act with respect to any or all of the following materials within the State: namely, byproduct materials, source materials, and special nuclear materials in quantities not sufficient to form a critical mass (hereinafter referred to as agreement materials); and

Whereas, the Governor of the State of California (hereinafter referred to as the State) is authorized under section 25830 of the California Health and Safety Code to enter into such an agreement, which agreement shall become effective when ratified by the State Legislature; and

Whereas, the Governor of the State has certified on December 15, 1961, that the State has a program for the control of radiation hazards adequate to protect the public health and safety with respect to agreement materials within the State, and that the State desires to assume the regulatory responsibility discontinued by the Commission for such materials; and

Whereas, the Commission has found on _____ that the State program is compatible with the Commission's program for the regulation of agreement materials, and that the State program is adequate to protect the public health and safety with respect to such materials; and

Whereas, the Commission and the State recognize the desirability and importance of maintaining compatibility between their respective programs for the control of agreement materials with respect to public health and safety; and

Whereas, the Commission and the State agree that reciprocal recognition of licenses issued by the Commission and by all States which enter into agreements with the Commission similar to this agreement (hereinafter referred to as agreement States) is of great importance for the development of the uses of agreement materials and that such reciprocal recognition must be based upon continuing compatibility of the programs of the Commission and such States for the control of agreement materials;

Now, therefore, it is hereby agreed between the Commission and the Governor of the State, acting in behalf of the State, as follows:

Article I. For purposes of this agreement:

A. "Byproduct materials," "critical mass," and "ocean or sea" have the meanings given to such terms in Part 150 of the Commission's regulations in effect on the ratification date of this agreement.

B. "Source material," "special nuclear material," "production facility," and "utilization facility" have the meanings given to such terms in those parts of the Commission's regulations that are incorporated by reference in Part 150 and that are in effect on the ratification date.

C. "Ratification date" means the date on which the California Legislature transmits to the Governor for signature a bill ratifying this agreement.

Article II. Subject to the exceptions stated in Article III, the Commission shall discontinue, as of the effective date of this agreement, the regulatory authority of the Commission under Chapters 6, 7, and 8 and section 161 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, with respect to the following materials within the State:

A. Byproduct materials;

B. Source materials;

C. Special nuclear materials in quantities such that the amount authorized for possession at any one time under any one license is not sufficient to form a critical mass.

Article III. This agreement does not provide for discontinuance of any Commission responsibility and authority with respect to regulation of:

A. The construction and operation of any production or utilization facility;

B. The export from or import into the United States of byproduct, source, or special nuclear material, or of any production or utilization facility;

C. The disposal into the ocean or sea of byproduct, source, or special nuclear waste materials;

D. The disposal of such other byproduct, source, or special nuclear material as the Commission determines by regulation or order should, because of the hazards or potential hazards thereof, not be so disposed of without a license from the Commission.

Article IV. Notwithstanding this agreement, the Commission is authorized:

A. By rule, regulation, or order to require that the manufacturer, processor, or producer of any equipment, device, commodity, or other product containing source, byproduct, or special nuclear material shall not transfer possession or control of such product except pursuant to a license issued by the Commission; and

B. To issue rules, regulations, or orders under subsection 161 b. or i. of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, to protect the common defense and security, to protect restricted data, or to guard against the loss or diversion of special nuclear material.

Article V. Each party to this agreement will:

A. Use its best efforts to maintain compatibility between its program for the control of agreement materials and the programs of the other party and of other agreement States. To this end, each party will consult with the other and with all agreement States prior to any modification of its regulations for the control of agreement materials and will seek to arrive at a common solution of differences, to be incorporated insofar as practicable into the regulations of both parties and all agreement States concurrently.

B. Provide for reciprocal recognition of licenses for agreement materials issued by the other party or by any agreement State, subject to such conditions as to duration of such recognition of each license, reporting of information, and compliance with regulations as are deemed necessary to protect the health and safety of the public. Such recognition is conditioned upon the continuance of program compatibility in accordance with paragraph A of this article.

Article VI. This agreement, upon acceptance by the Commission and the Governor of the State and ratification by law of the State, shall become effective on July 1, 1962.

Article VII. The Commission, upon its own initiative, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing to the State, or upon request of the Governor of the State, may terminate or suspend this agreement and reassert the licensing and regulatory authority vested in it under the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, if the Commission finds that such termination or suspension is required to protect the public health and safety.

APPENDIX A

Summary of California's Proposed Policies and Procedures for the Licensing and Regulation of Byproduct, Source, and Special Nuclear Materials

State policy and courses of action with respect to atomic energy development and radiation protection have been the subject of California legislative consideration for a number of years. Public hearings by the Assembly Interim Committee on Public Health in 1958 led to the enactment of the Atomic Energy Development and Radiation Protection Law in 1959, which:

1. Declared it to be State policy to "encourage the constructive development of industries producing or utilizing atomic energy and radiation and to eliminate unnecessary exposure of the public to ionizing radiation."

2. Established the position of Coordinator of Atomic Energy Development and Radiation Protection in the Governor's Office.

3. Directed the Department of Public Health to institute a program for the registration of sources of radiation.

The Congress, also in 1959, amended the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 to permit for the first time a transfer of certain regulatory authority from the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission to qualified states in accordance with negotiated agreements.

In implementation of the State statute and with a view toward appraising the desirability or necessity for a broad system of radiation control, including assumption of authority from the AEC, the registration program was so designed as to obtain a maximum of information regarding radiation use in California. The Assembly Interim Committee on Public Health, following public hearings on these subjects in 1960, concluded that a comprehensive program of radiation control should be instituted promptly and that the state should prepare to enter into agreement with the Atomic Energy Commission, subject to approval of such an agreement by the Legislature. The Coordinator of Atomic Energy Development and Radiation Protection, after consultation with the Advisory Council and the Departmental Coordinating Committee of his Office, and with representatives of industry and the professional groups that use atomic energy and radiation, made a similar recommendation in his annual report to the Governor and the Legislature in January 1961.

As a result of these recommendations, Assembly Bill 1975 was introduced in the 1961 session of the Legislature, providing the framework for such a program, including enabling provisions to permit the Governor to enter into agreement with the Atomic Energy Commission. The bill was derived in large measure from suggested legislation of the Council of State Governments. It was widely circulated and critically reviewed by a number of interested and affected persons and groups, and was revised to take into account appropriate comments. After extensive consideration by Committees of the Legislature, including several public hearings at which all interested parties were afforded opportunity to be heard, the measure was enacted as the Radiation Control Law (Chapter 1711, Laws of 1961).

The statute directed the State Department of Public Health to adopt regulations for effectuating the purposes of this legislation. In drafting regulations, the Department was guided by the statutory provision for compatibility with the standards and regulatory programs of the Federal government, an integrated effective system of regulation within the State, and a system consonant insofar as possible with those of other states. The regulations were drawn largely from models developed jointly by the Atomic Energy Commission, the U.S. Public Health Service, and the Council of State Governments; and from recommendations of the National Committee on Radiation Protection and Measurement.

Assistance in drafting the regulations was obtained from a number of individuals, agencies, and groups, including the Atomic Energy Commission, the U.S. Public Health Service, the California Coordinator of Atomic Energy Development and Radiation Protection, several California state and local agencies, and a distinguished twelve-member Advisory Committee. This Advisory Committee included representation from industry, labor, medicine, dentistry, medical physics, and local health departments.

Two public meetings were held under the auspices of the Department of Public Health to permit interested persons to present their views on the proposed regulations. These meetings were publicized in advance through regular news media. In addition, notices of the meetings, together with copies of the proposed regulations, were sent to some 500 persons and groups known to be concerned. Such notices were mailed to all persons who had previously requested notifications of this sort; known leaders of affected groups; leading industries, distributors, manufacturers, and insurance carriers; leading universities and colleges; major hospitals; the California Manufacturers' Association;' the California Medical Association; and others.

The first such meeting was held in Los Angeles on October 17, 1961, and 56 persons attended. The second meeting was held in Berkeley on October 20, with 64 persons in attendance. Each meeting lasted more than five hours and the proposed regulations were considered in detail. The notice announcing the meetings stated that written comments would also be welcomed. This was reiterated to those in attendance at the meetings. A number of written comments were received and given full consideration.

Following the public meetings, the Advisory Committee met to consider suggestions made at the meetings and in correspondence. This led to a final redrafting of the regulations. Copies were sent to all persons and groups that had received the initial draft.

In accordance with section 25734 of the Health and Safety Code, this final draft was submitted for review by the Coordinator of Atomic Energy Development and Radiation Protection and was approved for public notice of a hearing to be held before the State Board of Public Health. Such notice was published thirty days in advance of the hearing date in accordance with section 11423 of the Government Code, and notice of the hearing was also mailed to all persons and groups to whom copies of the proposed regulations had been sent. At the hearing on December 8, 1961, full opportunity was given to all interested persons to be heard before action was taken. The Board adopted the regulations and they constitute Title 17, Chapter 5, Subchapter 4, sections 30100 to 30397, inclusive, of the Administrative Code of California.

SECTION 1. The Radiation Control Program. The radiation control program of the State is designed to regulate all sources of radiation other than those for which regulatory responsibility is to be retained by the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission. As the term "radiation sources" is used hereinafter in this narrative, it is intended to mean those sources under the control of the State. The sources are divided into two major categories: radioactive materials and radiation machines. Radioactive materials are to be regulated under a licensing program similar to the existing program of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, requiring possession of a license prior to acquisition or use of such materials. Radiation machines and certain generally licensed radioactive materials will be subject to a registration program involving the reporting of information by the registrant and the right of inspection by the State for compliance with prescribed safety standards. Each of these two major segments of the program is to be supported by a schedule of fees which relates to that specific part of the program. The agency charged with the responsibility of promulgating regulations and issuing licenses is the State Department of Public Health. A portion of the inspection and enforcement activities will be delegated by specific agreement to the Division of Industrial Safety of the State Department of Industrial Relations and may be delegated to local health agencies of cities and counties as the latter develop and demonstrate competence.

The regulations adopted by the State Department of Public Health will be controlling in this program throughout the State. As agreements for the delegation of responsibility for inspection and enforcement by other agencies are developed, it is planned to insure that no duplication or overlapping or jurisdiction occurs.

SEC. 2. Licensing. Provision is made for the issuance of both specific and general licenses comparable to those issued by the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission. Such licenses are required for the possession of radioactive materials above exempt amounts or concentrations, regardless of the mode of formation of such materials.

The responsibility for licensing of radioactive materials has been assigned by statute to the State Department of Public Health. The statute requires that Department to enter into agreement with the Division of Industrial Safety of the Department of Industrial Relations for the performance of certain inspection and enforcement activities. When such an agreement is concluded, it will allocate to that Division, among other duties, the responsibility for technical evaluations of license applications relating to industrial uses in general, prior to issuance of such licenses by the Department of Public Health. The Department of Public Health will itself conduct such technical evaluations with respect to other uses. As authorized by the Statute, the Department of Public Health plans to enter into agreement with such local health agencies as demonstrate adequate competence, authorizing them to conduct technical evaluations of license applications.

It is planned to make pre-licensing inspection a part of the evaluation procedure in general. In connection with licensing procedures, provision is made to give opportunity for all interested persons to be heard. With respect to human use of radioactive materials, the Department of Public Health will appoint a committee of not less than three qualified physicians to review license applications and make recommendations thereon. The Department will also have on its staff one or more physicians with special competence in radiological health who will review the recommendations of this committee.

SEC. 3. Inspection. Inspection for compliance with regulations and with license conditions will be carried on by the Department of Public Health, the Division of Industrial Safety, and any local health agencies with which agreements have been made as described in section 2—Licensing. Each license will be assigned to a single agency for such purposes.

Based upon the existing number and kind of the specific licenses, a priority system will be established under which inspection of the most hazardous activities will be conducted at least once each six months, and the remainder on a less frequent basis, depending upon the relative hazard. Initial priorities will be established on the basis of the pre-licensing evaluation and may be modified in accordance with subsequent inspections. It is expected that all licensed activities will be inspected at least once in two years.

Most inspections will be scheduled visits; a significant number may be on an unannounced basis. Inspection visits will usually entail a comprehensive review by the inspector of the licensee's equipment, facilities, in the handling or storage of radioactive material, the procedures in effect, including actual operation, and interviewing the personnel directly involved. The inspector will review the licensee's survey methods and results, personnel monitoring practices and results, the posting and labeling used, the instructions to personnel, and the methods and apparent effectiveness of maintaining control of people in the restricted area. He will review the licensee's records of receipts, transfers, and inventory of licensed material. He may physically check the inventory. He will examine records concerning disposal to the sewerage system and burial in the soil, if pertinent. He may make measurements of radiation levels. Prior to leaving the licensee's premises, he will meet with management to discuss the results of his inspection. During this meeting, he will attempt to answer questions concerning the regulatory program.

The inspector will prepare a report in sufficient detail to inform his supervisor of the facts and circumstances observed during the inspection. These reports will provide the basis for any necessary enforcement action. Appropriate elements of this information will be filed in the various agencies as needed. The Department of Public Health will review the operation of this system to insure that timely and adequate inspections are performed and that appropriate actions are taken.

In addition, there will be investigations of incidents and complaints involving licensed materials and operations to determine the cause, the steps taken by the licensee to cope with the incident, whether or not there was noncompliance with a regulation, and the steps the licensee is taking to avoid recurrence of the incident.

Licensees will be informed of the results of all inspections, first orally at the time of the inspection, and by letter or notice from the inspecting agency.

SEC. 4. Enforcement. Reports of inspections of licensees' activities will be evaluated by the inspecting agency to determine the status of compliance of the licensees with license conditions and regulations. If no item of noncompliance is observed, the licensee is so informed. If only minor matters of noncompliance, such as improper signs, failure to label, etc., are involved, which, at the time of the inspection, the licensee agrees to correct, the licensee will be informed in writing of the items of noncompliance and that corrective action will be reviewed during the next inspection. If the inspection reveals a noncompliance of a more serious nature, the licensee will be required to inform the inspecting agency in writing, usually within 15 to 30 days, as to corrective action taken and the date completed. In these cases, the inspecting agency representative will either conduct a prompt follow-up inspection or the matter will be reviewed during a regular inspection to insure that corrective action has, in fact, been accomplished. If the reply does not satisfactorily explain the noncompliance and assure that further violations will be prevented, the inspecting agency will take such administrative actions as are available to them.

It is expected that most of the enforcement functions will be administratively consummated by the inspecting agency. In cases where this is not successful, the inspecting agency will refer the matter to the State Department of Public Health, which may issue an order to show cause why the license should not be modified or terminated. In that event, there is provision for formal hearing in accordance with the California Administrative Procedures Act, and for judicial review of the final order resulting from such hearing. There is also provision for emergency action without notice or hearing, but such emergency action is subject to a prompt hearing upon request of the licensee. Among the enforcement procedures available to the State Department of Public Health are modification, suspension, or revocation of licenses, injunctive relief, and criminal sanctions afforded in the courts.

SEC. 5. Participation by other agencies. The statute provides for participation in the radiation control program by the State Division of Industrial Safety and by local health agencies in accordance with agreements that may be made between such agencies and the State Department of Public Health, subject to review by the Coordinator of Atomic Energy Development and Radiation Protection. Such agreements will permit the technical evaluation of license applications, the conducting of inspections for compliance with licenses and regulations, and such enforcement activities as may be administratively consummated within the agency. When further enforcement proceedings are required, involving formal hearings upon the suspension or revocation of licenses, such hearings will be conducted by the State Department of Public Health. Participating agencies will be required to maintain equivalent standards to those maintained by the State Department of Public Health with respect to educational and experience requirements of technical personnel engaged in the program, numbers of personnel in proportion to numbers of assigned licenses, adequacy of kinds and amounts of equipment and facilities, and procedures followed in inspection and enforcement. Inspecting agencies will be required to insure compliance by licensees with the license conditions and with the rules and regulations promulgated under the Radiation Control Law.

The statute permits the existence of local ordinances and regulations that are consistent with State Law and regulations. It provides that only the State shall assess a fee and that the proceeds from such fees shall be equitably distributed between the participating agencies. These provisions will be incorporated in agreements for the participation of such agencies in the program.

SEC. 6. Organization and Personnel. The radiation control program will be established in the Bureau of Radiological Health, an existing organizational unit of the State Department of Public Health. Technical positions in the existing program of this bureau are listed below. Personnel will be utilized in the control program to the degree required.

Acting Chief.
Senior Health Physicist.
Senior Engineer.
4 Associate Health Physicists—One position unfilled.
Associate Statistician.
2 Consultant Physicians—One position unfilled.
Consultant Engineer.

Upon consummation of an agreement with the AEC, the following additional personnel will be employed, as available, to perform license evaluations and to provide supervision over the inspection program:

1 Supervising Health Physicist.
2 Senior Health Physicists.
1 Associate Health Physicist.

The Department expects to maintain as inspectors qualified personnel trained in health physics in the approximate ratio of one for each 175 licenses. During the initial phases, the equivalent number of man-years is planned to be devoted to these purposes by the existing staff. This ratio of inspectors to licenses will also apply to other agencies having inspectional responsibilities.

The educational and experience requirements for the position categories directly related to the licensing program are as follows:

Supervising Health Physicist: Bachelor's degree in physical or life sciences, including or supplemented by courses in health physics or radiation biology. Seven years of responsible professional experience in health physics or a closely related field, at least three years of which must have included principal responsibility for a major program of radiological health.

Senior Health Physicist: Graduation from college with major work in the applied or life sciences and including or supplemented by at least four courses in nuclear or health physics or radiation biology. Five years of responsible professional experience in health physics or a closely related field, at least two years of which must have included responsibility for a major program in radiological health. (Master's degree or equivalent academic work in health physics or closely related fields may be substitutes for two years of experience; one year of Atomic Energy Commission fellowship training may be substituted for one year of experience.) As an alternate to these requirements, two years of experience as an Associate Health Physicist in the California State service will be acceptable.

Associate Health Physicist: Equivalent of college graduation with major work in physical or life sciences, including or supplemented by at least two courses in nuclear or health physics or radiation biology. Three years of responsible professional experience (excluding routine radiation monitoring and surveys) in health physics or closely related fields. (One year of full time graduate work in health physics or closely related fields, or completion of one-year Atomic Energy Commission health physics fellowship may be substituted for one year of required experience.)

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket 13329 etc.; Order No. E-17917]

EASTERN AIR LINES INC., ET AL.

Order of Investigation and Consolidation

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 9th day of January 1962.

In the matter of the "bus" type fares of Eastern Air Lines, Inc., National Airlines, Inc., Northeast Airlines, Inc., Docket 13329; In the matter of the complaints of Eastern Air Lines, Inc., National Airlines, Inc., Dockets 13248, 13297, and requests for suspension and investigation of Northeast Airlines, Inc. Local Sunliner Bus Tariff, C.A.B. No. 26; In the matter of the "Air-Bus" fares of Eastern Air Lines, Inc., Docket 12364.

By tariff filed to become effective January 3, 1962, Northeast Airlines, Inc., has proposed to introduce local "bus" type fares, rules, and regulations for travel between Boston and Miami/Tampa and between Miami and Tampa.[1] The more significant features of the tariff are that the fares between the Florida points and Boston will average 13 percent less than the applicable day coach fares; the fares will apply only on flights designated "Sunliner Bus" flights in Northeast's schedules operated with DC-6B aircraft having 76 or more seats; no food or alcoholic beverages will be served;[2] tentative reservations will not be made; purchase of a ticket for a specific flight on a specific date shall constitute a confirmed reservation on such flight and date; tickets may not be purchased more than 90 days before the date on which transportation is to commence; tickets must be purchased at designated points and will be valid only on the date and flight designated; if no portion of the ticket has been used a refund will be made if presented at a designated Northeast office at least 24 hours prior to scheduled departure time of the flight covered by the ticket; and no refund will be made on lost tickets. The tariff is marked to expire April 29, 1962.

Eastern Air Lines, Inc. and National Airlines, Inc., have filed complaints requesting suspension and investigation of Northeast's "bus" type tariff, contending that Northeast's proposed fares are unjust, unreasonable, unduly preferential, discriminatory, and otherwise unlawful. The carriers state that Northeast's "bus" tariff is an attempt to imitate their "bus" tariffs without providing high density seating; that Northeast's tariff, which provides service in 76-seat DC-6B aircraft having two-abreast seating configuration, will utilize the same configuration aircraft which Northeast is using in its coach service over competitive segments and in first class service over noncompetitive segments; that use of such aircraft for "bus" service is discriminating against coach and first class passengers who are required by Northeast to pay higher fares for like and contemporaneous acommodations and services; and that the use of such comparatively low density aircraft at the low "bus" fares is unreasonably and unjustly uneconomic. Eastern alleges, furthermore, that Northeast has not adopted pertinent baggage rules and beverage rules[3] pertaining to "bus" type service; and that the circumstances and conditions under which Northeast's services are offered result in a break-even load factor of 74.5 percent as compared to Eastern's break-even load factors varying between 51.4 and 62.6 percent.

In answer to Eastern's complaint, Northeast alleges that its DC-6B aircraft meet the Board's standards for coach service; that its tariff is substantially comparable to Eastern's "bus" tariff and that it is nearly identical to National's tariff; that the only difference between its tariff and Eastern's is that beverages may be sold[3] and baggage will be checked; that the sale of beverages is a profitable business which decreases the cost of service; that the data on break-even load factors submitted by Eastern fail to take into account savings in indirect cost; that Northeast's tariff has been filed as a defensive measure; and that the proposed service will be limited to weekend operations since the DC-6B aircraft to be used in the proposed service are used on week days in Northeast's commuter services in other areas.

The Board has permitted "bus" tariffs of Eastern and National to become effective between points in Florida and Boston, over objection of Northeast.[4] It was felt that these proposals were consistent with the Board's policy of encouraging the offering of "no frill" services at reduced fares designed to promote air travel, particularly the low fare type of service designed to enable air transportation to penetrate more effectively into a larger market. Northeast's proposed "bus" tariff is defensive in nature, for it competes with the "bus" service of both Eastern and National between Boston-Miami, and with Eastern's "bus" service between Boston-Tampa. Northeast's proposed "bus" tariff is substantially similar in fares, rules, regulations, and provisions to that of its competitors. The major complaint made against Northeast's "bus" tariff is that the aircraft it will utilize in this service are of comparatively low density.

Since Northeast proposes to provide "bus" type service with DC-6B aircraft with two-and-two abreast configuration and a total of only 76 seats, a question is raised concerning the reasonableness of the proposed fares for such service. In view of the questions of the lawfulness of the "bus" fares proposed by Northeast, it is found that an investigation is required. The Board will include in such investigation the domestic "bus" tariffs of Eastern and National because of their close relationship to that of Northeast and the necessity for uniform treatment thereof. The Board will also consolidate in such investigation the previous investigation instituted in Docket 12364, by Order E-16729, adopted April 27, 1961, with respect to certain refund rules contained in Eastern's "bus" tariff.[5]

The Board has concluded, however, not to suspend Northeast's proposed "bus" type tariff pending investigation. Although Northeast will provide "bus" type [2] The original tariff did not prohibit the serving of alcoholic beverages. On Jan. 2, 1962, by special tariff permission, Northeast revised its "bus" tariff to prohibit service of alcoholic beverages.

[3] The beverage provision was subsequently revised. See footnote 2, supra.

[4] Order E-17808, adopted Dec. 7, 1961, and Order E-17834, adopted Dec. 13, 1961.

[5] By motion dated Aug. 16, 1961, supplemented Oct. 18, 1961, Eastern requests that the Board dismiss the investigation in Docket 12364. As reason therefor, Eastern states that experience under its "bus" tariff demonstrates that the refund problem has been minimal. The Board believes, however, that if investigation is held herein, opportunity should be provided for any party or interested person to present evidence on this issue. Accordingly, Eastern's motion to dismiss will be denied.

service in aircraft having two-and-two abreast seating, the seat pitch will be less than that of Eastern and National. Also, Northeast has stated to the Board that it will refrain from advertising its "bus" type service in any manner which may represent to the public that it is offering "bus" type service in two-and-two abreast or "luxury" type seats during the pendency of this investigation. This will minimize any competitive advantage Northeast may otherwise have due to the configuration of its aircraft. In light of these considerations, the Board has decided to permit Northeast's tariff to become effective pending investigation.

In permitting the "bus" type tariffs of Eastern and National to become effective, the Board directed these carriers to file certain statistical data each month. Northeast will be directed to file similar data. Also, Eastern and National were required to give adequate notice to ticket holders of the effect of the "bus" type refund rules which impose penalties on the traveling public. Northeast will be required to give similar notice. The ticket or ticket folder should contain a special notice printed in large bold face type which clearly informs the holder that no refund will be made unless the ticket is presented at least 24 hours prior to scheduled departure time. The Board will not require liberalization of the refund rule at this time as a condition to permitting the tariff to become effective. Northeast, however, is expected to retain sufficient records of tickets which are sold, used, and refunded, refunds denied, and complaints received, so that such data will be available to the Board during the investigation ordered herein.

The Board finds that its action herein is necessary and appropriate in order to carry out the provisions and objectives of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, particularly sections 204(a), 403, 404, 407, and 1002 thereof.

Accordingly, it is ordered, That:

1. An investigation is instituted to determine whether the fares and provisions in Eastern Air Lines, Inc., C.A.B. No. 78; National Airlines, Inc., C.A.B. No. 65; and Northeast Airlines, Inc., C.A.B. No. 26, including subsequent revisions and reissues thereof, are, or will be, unjust or unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, unduly preferential, unduly prejudicial, or otherwise unlawful, and if found to be unlawful, to determine and prescribe the lawful fares and provisions.

2. Except to the extent granted herein, the complaints of Eastern Air Lines, Inc., in Docket 13248, and National Airlines, Inc., in Docket 13297, are dismissed.

3. The complaints in Dockets 13248 and 13297, to the extent granted, are consolidated herein.

4. The investigation instituted in Docket 12364 by Order E–16729, adopted April 27, 1961, is consolidated herein.

5. The motion of Eastern Air Lines, Inc., to dismiss the investigation in Docket 12364 is denied.

6. The proceeding ordered herein be assigned for hearing before an examiner of the Board at a time and place hereafter to be designated.

7. Northeast Airlines, Inc., is directed to report the following information for all "bus" flights operated in each of the months of January through April 1962:

"Bus" segment	Southbound			Northbound
	Passengers	Seats	Load factor	Passengers	Seats	Load factor
Boston-Miami
Boston-Tampa

8. Northeast Airlines, Inc., is directed to file such reports in ten copies with the Docket Section of the Board not later than 20 days after the close of the month covered by the report.

9. Copies of this order shall be served upon Eastern Air Lines, Inc., National Airlines, Inc., and Northeast Airlines, Inc., which are made parties to this proceeding.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[Docket No. 14482; FCC 62–31]

ASHEBORO BROADCASTING CO. (WGWR)

Order Designating Application for Hearing on Stated Issues

In re application of Asheboro Broadcasting Company (WGWR), Asheboro, North Carolina, Docket No. 14482, File No. BP–14051, Has: 1260 kc, 1 kw, D. Requests: 1260 kc, 500 w, 5 kw–LS, DA–2, U; for construction permit.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D.C., on the 3d day of January 1962;

1. The Commission having before it for consideration the above-captioned application to improve the facilities of standard broadcast Station WGWR, Asheboro, North Carolina. Apart from the matters and issues set forth below, the applicant appears to possess the requisite qualifications to construct and operate the subject proposal.

2. The following matters are to be considered in connection with the issues set forth below:

(a) According to data submitted by the applicant, 566 persons reside within the 1000 mv/m contour of the proposed daytime operation. Since this total (3 percent of population within the 25 mv/m contour) exceeds that permitted by § 3.24(g) of the Commission's rules, it will be necessary to determine whether circumstances warrant a waiver of the rule.

(b) The applicant's proposed operation would be limited, nighttime, to its 21.3 mv/m contour. Area and population losses within the normally protected 4 mv/m contour would, according to the applicant's data, be 84.4 percent and 43.5 percent, respectively. Although the subject proposal would provide a first local nighttime service to the city of Asheboro—and would therefore fall within an express exception to § 3.28(d)(3) of the rules—it cannot be determined, on the basis of data submitted, that the WGWR nighttime proposal would represent an efficient utilization of the requested channel, in accordance with § 3.24(b) of the Commission's rules.

(c) It appears that the proposed antenna system is in the immediate vicinity of a large tank situated approximately 700 feet north northeast of the proposed site. It will be necessary to determine whether this structure would prevent satisfactory adjustment of the proposed array.

3. In view of the foregoing, the Commission is unable to make the statutory finding that a grant of the subject application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity, and is of the opinion that the application must be designated for hearing on the issues set forth below. Accordingly, it is ordered, Pursuant to section 309(e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that the instant application is designated for hearing at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the proposed operation of Station WGWR and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of § 3.24(g) of the Commission's rules, with respect to the subject application.

3. To determine whether, because of interference received, the proposed nighttime operation of Station WGWR would be consistent with § 3.24(b) of the Commission's rules.

4. To determine whether the transmitter site proposed by the applicant is satisfactory with particular regard to any conditions that may exist in the vicinity of the antenna system which would distort the proposed antenna radiation pattern.

5. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether a grant of the instant application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

It is further ordered, That to avail itself of the opportunity to be heard, the applicant herein, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of the order, file with the Commission in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

It is further ordered, That the applicant herein shall, pursuant to section 311(a)(2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 1.362(b) of the Commission's rules, give notice of the hearing, within the time and in the manner prescribed in such Rule, and shall advise the Commission of the publication of such notice as required by § 1.362(g) of the rules.

Released: January 8, 1962.

DeKALB BROADCASTING CO.

Order Designating Application for Hearing on Stated Issues

In re application of Samuel C. Chafin and N. W. Griffin d/b as DeKalb Broadcasting Co., Decatur, Georgia, Docket No. 14479, File No. BP–14133, requests 1310 kc, 500 w, Day; for construction permit.

1. The Commission has before it for consideration the above captioned application; a "Petition to Deny" filed August 31, 1961, by Telerad, Inc., licensee of standard broadcast Station WHIE, Griffin, Georgia; an opposition to the petition filed November 13, 1961 by the subject applicant; and a reply to the opposition filed December 6, 1961.[1]

2. Telerad asserts that the DeKalb 1310 kc proposal would involve an overlap of the 0.5 mv/m contours with the existing 1320 kc operation of WHIE and that the resulting interference would involve a prospective population loss of 6,376 persons within the WHIE normally protected contour. In support of its assertion, Telerad submits an engineering affidavit containing field measurement data taken on a radial from WHIE to a point north of the proposed Decatur site. Telerad locates the existing WHIE 0.5 mv/m contour through use of this measurement data and further asserts that the measurements indicate a higher conductivity in the area than that shown in Figure M–3 of the Commission's technical standards. Petitioner locates the 0.5 mv/m contour of the proposed DeKalb operation by employing this higher conductivity.

3. In its opposition, DeKalb objects to Telerad's attempt to depict the proposed DeKalb 0.5 mv/m contour as noted above and contends that in the absence of measurement data taken from the proposed DeKalb site, the proposed DeKalb contour must be located on the basis of Figure M–3 of the technical standards. DeKalb also submits its own measurement data taken on WHIE and, on the basis of this measurement data, concludes that the WHIE 0.5 mv/m contour falls short of the proposed DeKalb contour by approximately one-half mile.

4. Telerad, in reply, questions the accuracy of the DeKalb measurement data and asserts that even if M–3 conductivity were used to locate the proposed DeKalb 0.5 mv/m contour, that contour would overlap the WHIE normally protected contour as determined by Telerad's measurements. Thus, asserts petitioner, the question of whether or not the conductivity from the proposed DeKalb site towards WHIE is greater than shown by M–3 is relevant only to determining the magnitude of prospective interference to WHIE, and not to the question of whether or not such interference will in fact, occur.

5. It appears that neither petitioner nor the applicant has properly depicted both relevant 0.5 mv/m contours and, therefore, a substantial question exists as to whether the DeKalb proposal will cause objectionable interference to the existing operation of WHIE. Petitioner, Telerad, has apparently utilized measurement data taken on WHIE to establish the proposed DeKalb contour. Since reciprocity in the use of measurement data does not always depict the same attenuation in signal characteristics, it must be concluded that Telerad has not properly depicted the DeKalb contour. The applicant, in opposition, has submitted measurement data which were not taken in accordance with § 3.186 of the rules. No on radial measurements were taken within the first mile; therefore, the inverse field has not been adequately established. Additionally, the applicant's analysis of its measurement data does not appear to have accurately depicted the extent of the WHIE 0.5 mv/m contour. Finally, a substantial number of measurements (located at the area of alleged interference), were not made on the pertinent radial.

6. In view of the foregoing, the Commission is unable to make the statutory finding that a grant of the subject application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity, and is of the opinion that the application must be designated for hearing on the issues set forth below. Accordingly, it is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309(e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the instant application is designated for hearing at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

(a) To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from the proposed operation and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

(b) To determine whether the instant proposal would cause objectionable interference to Station WHIE, Griffin, Georgia, or any other existing standard broadcast stations, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

(c) To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether a grant of the instant application would serve the public interest, convenience and necessity.

It is further ordered, That Telerad, Inc., licensee of Station WHIE, Griffin, Georgia, is made a party to the proceeding.

It is further ordered, That, in the event of a grant of the application of the DeKalb Broadcasting Co., the construction permit will include the following condition: Program tests will not be authorized until the permittee has submitted evidence to prove that Samuel C. Chafin and N. W. Griffin have severed their connections with Station WSB, Atlanta, Georgia.

It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicant and party respondent herein, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

It is further ordered, That the applicant herein shall, pursuant to section 311(a)(2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 1.362(b) of the Commission's rules, give notice of the hearing, within the time and in the manner prescribed in such rule, and shall advise the Commission of the publication of such notice as required by § 1.362(g) of the rules.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D.C., on the 3d day of January 1962;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned and described applications;

It appearing, that except as indicated by the issues specified below, Simon Geller possesses the necessary qualifications to construct and operate his proposed station; and

It further appearing, that the Commission makes no finding at this time regarding the qualifications of Richmond Brothers, Inc. to operate either the present or proposed facilities of WMEX and will make no finding in the evidentiary hearing ordered herein, except to the extent indicated by the issues set forth below; and

It further appearing, that in the event it is concluded, pursuant to the issues set forth below, that the application of Richmond Brothers, Inc. should not be denied, the application will be held without final grant until such time as dispositive action is taken with respect to the WMEX license renewal application, deferred since April 1960, and, at that time, the subject WMEX proposal shall be granted or dismissed, as appropriate; and

1. The transmitter sites of the subject proposals are separated by 28.4 miles, but due to the salt water path involved the proposed 25 mv/m contours involve substantial overlap on land areas in contravention of § 3.37 of the Commission rules.

2. By petition filed October 23, 1961, Newton Broadcasting Company, applicant for a new station on 1550 kc, at Newton, Massachusetts (BP-12884), has requested that the application of Simon Geller be denied. (The Geller application was not timely filed to be considered concurrently with the Newton application, currently in hearing status.) In substance, Newton claims standing on the ground that its proposal would receive interference from the Geller proposal and argues that the latter should be denied for this reason and for other alleged defects in the application. The Commission has considered the Newton Petition, responsive pleadings filed by Geller, and further pleadings filed by petitioner, and finds the only substantial issue raised to be that of prospective interference to the Newton proposal. An appropriate issue is included below and Newton Broadcasting Company is made a party respondent in this proceeding.

3. A substantial question exists as to whether the Geller proposal would receive interference in excess of 10 percent population loss, in contravention of § 3.28(d)(3) of the Commission's rules.

It further appearing, That, in view of the foregoing, the Commission is unable to make the statutory finding that a grant of the subject applications would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity, and is of the opinion that the applications must be designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding on the issues set forth below:

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309(e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the instant applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from the proposed operation of Simon Geller and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the proposed operation of Station WMEX and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine whether the instant proposal of Simon Geller would cause objectionable interference to the proposed operation of Newton Broadcasting Company, BP-12884, or any other existing standard broadcast stations, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

4. To determine whether interference received from existing and proposed operations would affect more than ten percent of the population within the normally protected primary service area of the instant proposal of Simon Geller, in contravention of § 3.28(d)(3) of the Commission rules, and, if so, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section.

5. To determine whether the 25 mv/m contours of the two subject applications would overlap in contravention of § 3.37 of the Commission rules, and, if so, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section.

6. To determine, in the light of section 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the instant proposals would better provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service.

7. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether the application of Simon Geller should be granted.

8. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues, whether the application of Richmond Brothers, Inc. should be denied.

It is further ordered, That Newton Broadcasting Company, applicant for a new standard broadcast station at Newton, Mass. (BP-12884), is made a party to the proceeding.

It is further ordered, That should the application of Richmond Brothers, Inc. not be denied, final action with respect to the application shall be withheld until dispositive action is taken with respect to the WMEX license renewal application.

It is further ordered, That in the event of a grant of the Simon Geller application, the construction permit shall contain a condition that permittee must use approved frequency and modulation monitors.

It is further ordered, That in the event the application of Richmond Brothers, Inc. should be granted, the construction permit shall contain the following conditions:

(1) Permittee shall assume responsibility for the installation of suitable filter circuits, or other equipment that may be necessary, to prevent excessive internal or external cross-modulation or the radiation of extraneous emissions resulting from the proximity of the proposed operation to Station WEZE, Boston, Massachusetts or any other station.

(2) Permittee shall submit new common point impedance measurements and sufficient field intensity measurements to establish that the new tower construction has not adversely affected the nighttime radiation pattern.

It is further ordered, That to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants and the respondent herein, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this Order.

It is further ordered, That the applicants herein shall, pursuant to section 311(a)(2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 1.362(b) of the Commission's rules, give notice of the hearing, either individually or, if feasible, jointly, within the time and in the manner prescribed in such rule, and shall advise the Commission of the publication of such notice as required by § 1.362(g) of the rules.

It is further ordered, That the issues in the above-captioned proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding, and upon sufficient allegations of fact in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue: To determine whether the funds available to the applicant will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

LORD BERKELEY BROADCASTING CO., INC., AND GRAND STRAND BROADCASTING CO.

Order Designating Applications for Consolidated Hearing on Stated Issues

In re applications of Lord Berkeley Broadcasting Company, Inc., Moncks Corner, South Carolina, Docket No. 14480, File No. BP-14123, requests: 950 kc, 500 w, Day; Frank P. Larson, Jr., Charles T. Tilghman and John H. Nye, d/b as Grand Strand Broadcasting Company, Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, Docket No. 14481, File No. BP-14403, requests: 950 kc, 500 w, DA, Day; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D.C., on the 3d day of January 1962;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned and described applications;

It appearing, that except for matters involved in the issues set forth below, each of the subject applicants possesses the requisite qualifications to construct and operate its proposal; and

It further appearing, that the following matters are to be considered in connection with the aforementioned issues specified below:

1. Simultaneous operation of the instant proposals would result, in each case, in extensive mutual interference greater than 10 percent of the population within the normally protected service contour.

2. By letter dated August 17, 1961, Grand Strand Broadcasting Company was advised by the Federal Aviation Agency that substantial aeronautical objections to the applicant's proposed antenna system would be withdrawn if the applicant agreed to reduce its proposed tower height by one foot. By letter of August 21, 1961, the applicant's attorney advised the Chief of Airspace Utilization Branch, F.A.A., that the subject application would be amended to reduce tower height by the necessary one foot. However, no such amendment has been submitted to the Commission.

3. The Lord Berkeley Broadcasting Company, Inc., indicates that deferred credit will be available for the purchase of equipment but did not submit evidence that such credit is, in fact, available. In addition, the Lord Berkeley Broadcasting Company stockholders indicate that they will purchase additional shares of stock to provide funds for the construction and initial operation of the proposed station. However, the balance sheets of said stockholders indicate that the bulk of their assets consist of corporate stocks, but the type of the stocks is not shown and it cannot be determined whether the stocks are readily convertible.

It further appearing, that, in view of the foregoing, the Commission is unable to make the statutory finding that a grant of the subject applications would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity and is of the opinion that the applications must be designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding on the issues set forth below:

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309(e), of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the instant applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from each of the proposed operations and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine the nature and extent of the interference, if any, that each of the instant proposals would cause to and receive from each other and the interference that each of the instant proposals would receive from all other existing standard broadcast stations, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to the areas and populations affected by interference from either of the instant proposals.

3. To determine whether the interference received by each instant proposal from the other proposal herein and any existing stations would affect more than ten percent of the population within its normally protected primary service area in contravention of § 3.28 (d)(3) of the Commission rules and, if so, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section.

4. To determine whether there is a reasonable possibility that the tower height and location proposed by Grand Strand Broadcasting Company would constitute a menace to air navigation.

5. To determine whether the Lord Berkeley Broadcasting Company, Inc., is financially qualified to contruct and operate its proposed station.

6. To determine, in the light of section 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the instant proposals would better provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service.

7. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues which, if either, of the instant applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That the Federal Aviation Agency is made a party to the proceeding.

It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants and party respondent, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

It is further ordered, That the applicants herein shall, pursuant to section 311(a)(2) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and § 1.362(b) of the Commission's rules, give notice of the hearing, either individually or, if feasible, jointly, within the time and in the manner prescribed in such Rule, and shall advise the Commission of the publication of such notice as required by § 1.362(c) of the rules.

It is further ordered, That, the issues in the above-captioned proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding, and upon sufficient allegations of fact in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue: To determine whether the funds available to the applicant will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

PUBLIX TELEVISION CORP. ET AL.

Memorandum Opinion and Order

In re applications of Publix Television Corporation, Perrine, Florida, Docket No. 12666, File No. BPCT-2392; South Florida Amusement Co., Inc., Perrine, Florida, Docket No. 12667, File No. BPCT-2410; Coral Television Corporation, South Miami, Florida, Docket No. 12668, File No. BPCT-2493; for construction permits for television broadcast stations.

1. The Commission has before it for consideration (a) the Initial Decision of Hearing Examiner Forest L. McClenning, released September 12, 1960 (FCC 60D-113; Mimeo 93495); (b) Memorandum Opinion and Order, September 14, 1961 (FCC 61-1057; Mimeo No. 8477) and the pleadings recited in paragraph 1 thereof; (c) Petition for Reconsideration, filed by Broadcast Bureau, October 9, 1961; (d) Response of Coral Television Corporation, filed October 19, 1961; (e) Opposition of South Florida Amusement Co., Inc., filed October 20, 1961; (f) Reply to Opposition of South Florida by Broadcast Bureau, filed November 3, 1961; (g) response to Opposition of South Florida by Coral Television Corp., filed November 3, 1961; (h) Motion by South Florida Amusement Co., Inc. for Leave to File Pleading, filed November 21, 1961; (i) Response by South Florida Amusement Co., Inc. to Broadcast Bureau Reply ((f), supra), lodged November 21, 1961.

2. The pleading filed by Coral Television Corp. (par. 1, (g), supra) is an unauthorized pleading, leave to file which was neither sought of nor granted by proper authority under 47 CFR 1.13. It will be stricken and the ordering clause, infra, will so provide. The Motion for Leave to File Pleading, by South Florida (par. 1(h), supra) has been examined and, as the gravity of the situation is deemed to require it, the same will be granted. The Secretary is authorized and directed to file the pleading described in par 1(i), supra. Subject to these actions, all documents described in par. 1, supra, are incorporated by reference as fully as if set forth herein.

3. The relief sought by Broadcast Bureau's petition herein is reopening of the record and remand to the examiner for adduction of evidence bearing on and related to a charge more fully described in pars. 4(1), and 6 of the order cited in par. 1(b), supra, to wit: that Sherwin Grossman 50.5 percent owner of South Florida did, while participating in the operation of WBUF-TV, Buffalo, New York, aid, abet or connive at the faking of certain letters to the Commission requesting that an additional VHF channel be assigned to Buffalo and that it be awarded to (then) UHF WBUF-TV. Our examination of the conflicting affidavits and arguments submitted by the parties appears to indicate that, while a judgment that such letters were outright fakes (i.e. prepared, signed and submitted without authority from or knowledge by their purported authors) could not be justified, neither were the statements by Sherwin Grossman, and the other statements which he submitted in the document described in par. 1(c) of the order described in par. 1(b), supra, to the effect that neither he nor any other WBUF-TV personnel had anything to do with or knowledge of subject letters, the absolute truth either. We emphasize that the foregoing is in no way to be construed as a preliminary judgment on our part but is merely our effort to analyze the matters in dispute. We are of the opinion that an evidentiary hearing to explore more fully the truth of the conflicting claims is warranted.

4. On its own motion the Commission has turned to and reexamined the charge of log-concealment more fully described in pars. 3 and 8-11 of the order described in par. 1(b), supra. This may be briefly described for present purposes as a charge that Sherwin Grossman, at the time of the transfer of WBUF-TV to National Broadcasting Company in 1955 concealed the station logs rather than turning them over to NBC, but, upon a request for their production in this proceeding, falsely stated that they had been so turned over and hence were not available. Upon such reexamination, the Commission is of the opinion that further exploration of the questions presented is warranted.

Accordingly, it is ordered, This 3d day of January 1962, that the document described in par. 1(g), supra, is stricken; and

It is further ordered, That the Motion for Leave to File Pleading (par. 1(h), supra), is granted; and the Secretary is authorized and directed to file the pleading described in par. 1(i), supra; and

It is further ordered, That the Petition for Reconsideration of the Broadcast Bureau is granted, the Initial Decision in this proceeding is vacated, the record is reopened and the case is remanded to the Examiner for further hearing. Said hearing shall be upon the following issues:

1. To determine whether, during the preliminary stages of this proceeding, a request was made by Coral Television Corporation for production of the logs of WBUF-TV for the period of time that Sherwin Grossman was associated with that station.

2. In the event that Issue 1 be answered affirmatively, to determine whether a reply was made by South Florida Amusement Co., Inc. stating, in part: "All of the logs • • • of the station were transferred to NBC."

3. In the event that Issues 1 and 2 be answered affirmatively, to determine whether such reply is ascribable to and the responsibility of Sherwin Grossman.

4. To determine if the statement in the biography of Sherwin Grossman (South Florida Exhibit 2) in this proceeding, to wit: "The records of WBUF-TV are not available to applicant since they were transferred to the National Broadcasting Company when it purchased the station. Mr. Grossman attempted to secure them from NBC for the period covered by Mr. Grossman's presidency but was advised they had been destroyed." was ratified and adopted by the said Sherwin Grossman in his testimony in this proceeding at Tr. 357, Lines 15-20, inclusive.

5. To determine if the statement of Sherwin Grossman on page 2 of his affidavit attached to the pleading described in par. 1(c) of the order described in par. 1(b), supra, to wit: "To the best of my knowledge everything belonging to NBC was turned over to them. I have never seen the station logs since the date of transfer." when read in conjunction with the material on page 3 of the pleading described in par. 1(b) of the order described in par. 1(b), supra, was intended to and did constitute a statement by the said Sherwin Grossman that the logs in question were turned over to National Broadcasting Company.

6. To determine, in the event that under Issues 3 and/or 4 and/or 5 determinations are made that the statements therein were the statements of Sherwin Grossman, whether any or all such statements were false, in whole or in part.

7. To determine whether the affidavit of Sherwin Grossman appended to the pleading described in par. 1(c) of the order described in par. 1(b), supra, which reads in part: "6. • • • an affidavit by Betty Lou Paupst • • • (b) • • • the statement that for weeks toward the termination of her employment either Gary Cohen or I ordered her and other girls in our employ to compose letters to the FCC petitioning for a VHF channel. The letters were written allegedly on business letter head stationery of other companies and were signed either by myself or Gary Cohen or by the secretaries at our direction. This is not so • • • I can personally state that to my knowledge, neither I nor any other person at WBUF-TV to my knowledge authorized, directed or condoned the typing of letters to the FCC on other companies' stationery for signature by WBUF personnel." is false in whole or in part.

8. To conclude in the light of determinations made under Issues 1-7, supra, whether Sherwin Grossman possesses the necessary character qualifications to be a licensee of the Federal Communications Commission.

It is further ordered, That the Examiner, after a hearing pursuant to the foregoing, issue a Cumulative Initial Decision.

Released: January 9, 1962.

1. The Commission has before it for consideration the petition of Onondaga Broadcasting, Inc., concerning waiver of § 3.613 of the rules, filed November 22, 1961. No responsive pleadings have been filed.

2. Three of the applicants in this proceeding requested in their applications waiver of Rule 47 CFR 3.613 to permit the location of their proposed main studios outside the city limits of Syracuse, New York. The designation order, released November 15, 1961 (FCC 61-1336, Mimeo No. 11921), granted the waivers as to two of the applicants. The requested waiver as to the third applicant, present petitioner, was not mentioned in the designation order. Petitioner requests that the designation order be amended to include a waiver of the rule with regard to it. Our review of the matter indicates that the omission in question was inadvertent and that good cause for waiver of the rule has been shown by petitioner.

Accordingly, it is ordered, This 3d day of January 1962, that the petition of Onondaga Broadcasting, Inc., filed November 22, 1961, is granted, and that the order of the Commission released November 15, 1961 (FCC 61-1336, Mimeo No. 11921), is hereby amended by the addition of the words "Onondaga Broadcasting, Inc.," immediately after the words "Syracuse Television, Inc.," in the third "Appearing" paragraph of that Order.

[Docket No. 13596 (RM-156); FCC 62-37]

STANDARD BROADCAST STATIONS

Permit To Operate With Full Carrier and Single Sideband; Memorandum Opinion and Order

1. The Commission has before it a petition for rule making (RM-156) by the Kahn Research Laboratories, Inc. (Kahn), to amend Part 3 of the Commission's rules to permit standard broadcast stations to operate with a "compatible single sideband system of modulation" known as CSSB. It also has before it the comments and data filed in response to the Notice of Inquiry issued in this proceeding on June 20, 1960 (FCC 60-699). In this inquiry we raised certain issues which we felt were necessary in making a determination as to whether rule making would be warranted on the Kahn proposal.

2. Comments were filed by Kahn, Electronics Industries Association (EIA), Collins Radio Company, Westinghouse Broadcasting Co., Inc., Cleveland Broadcasting, Inc., General Electric Company, Gates Radio Co., WPAT, Inc. (WPAT), Paterson, N.J. and RKO General, Inc. Letters were also received from eight broadcasters which support the Kahn proposal but offer no data which would be of help to the Commission in making a determination in the matter.[1] GE and Gates submitted statements which said that they believe their transmitters will operate satisfactorily with the equipment proposed by Kahn.

3. Proponent's comments on advantages of the system. Kahn urges that the CSSB system has a number of advantages to both the broadcasters and the listening public and should be authorized on a permissive basis. The advantages of the system are claimed to be as follows:

(a) Provides two-to-one signal-to-noise power gain for a given signal fidelity.

(b) Improves audio fidelity.

(c) Reduces co- and adjacent channel interference.

(d) Provides a means for reducing interference produced by radiation from improperly shielded television receivers.

(e) Minimizes selective fading distortion.

4. Proponent's suggested amendments of rules. Kahn proposes several changes in the rules as follows:

Section 3.3: Should be amended to include single-sideband as well as double-sideband operation.

Section 3.14: The following definition of CSSB should be included: A single-sideband transmission will be considered compatible if it can be received on the existing conventional double-sideband receivers without any modifications whatsoever and with satisfactory quality of reception.

Technical Standards: Standards should be included in the rules requiring that the high frequency audio response should be limited to 8 kilocycles and the level should be down from 1 kc reference at least 20 db at 9 kc and 30 db at 10 kc and above. The average rejection of the undesired sideband for all frequencies above 500 cycles should be at least 20 db below the desired sideband. The radiation of the undesired sideband should be measured so as to include all sources of undesired sideband radiation such as odd order intermodulation products and noise.

Section 3.111: A provision should be inserted requiring a station utilizing CSSB to make log entries indicating whether CSSB or double-sideband transmissions are utilized.

5. Kahn submits that conversion of a transmitter to single-sideband operation can be made by the use of a simple adaptor without any major modification of the transmitter and that the resulting signals can be received on all existing AM receivers. No detailed description of the system or the equipment employed are given but references are made in the literature to articles by Kahn and others on such systems.

6. Description of CSSB. Briefly, the radiated signal produced by a standard broadcast transmitter incorporating the Kahn "compatible single sideband" adaptor comprises a full carrier which is both amplitude- and phase-modulated. The amplitude modulation is produced in the same manner as in the conventional double sideband AM transmitters. As a result, the envelope of the radio frequency output voltage has the same shape as the audio waveform being transmitted and may be received with a conventional linear detector, without inherent distortion. The phase modulation (PM) is adjusted in magnitude and waveform so that the sidebands produced by the PM cancel (approximately) the sidebands produced by the AM, either above or below the carrier frequency. The PM also produces sidebands which add to the AM sidebands on the other side of the carrier frequency. Thus, the spectrum of the complete signal consists principally of a full carrier and first and second order sidebands on one side of the carrier frequency. The second order components of the transmitted sideband are those sidebands which are situated from the carrier by twice the modulating frequency. Transmission and reception of the second order sideband components as well as the carrier and first order components are necessary in order to obtain approximately the distortion-free performance attributed to this system by Kahn. The second order component of the transmitted sideband is often called the "anti-distortion" component because this component approximately compensates for the waveform distortion which occurs if only the carrier plus the first order single sideband are received. The undesired sideband is estimated to be about 30 db below the desired sideband and the desired sideband has a level approximately 6 db higher than in the standard AM system. The CSSB adaptor contains two outputs which must be connected to the associated transmitter. The first contains the PM wave centered at the carrier frequency and is connected to a low-level point in the radio-frequency section of the transmitter. The second is the audio output of the adaptor which is connected to the audio system of the transmitter. Several methods of synthesizing the proposed signal have been suggested in the literature.

7. Signal to noise improvement. With respect to the claimed advantage on improved signal-to-noise ratio for CSSB, Kahn submits that there would be an improvement of 3 db or better for random noise and 6 db for impulse noise when perfect receivers are considered and even greater gains for typical home receivers, depending on the response characteristics of the receivers and the amount of detuning needed or used.

8. Audio fidelity improvement. The alleged improvement in audio fidelity occurs because of the narrow pass bands employed in typical receivers. These receivers have a response that is down 6 db at about 3.75 kc above and below the carrier frequency. Thus, using the CSSB system and tuning the receiver to favor the transmitted sideband makes more effective use of the pass band characteristic and is said to result in greater audio fidelity.

9. Co-channel improvement. Various combinations of side-band co-channel operation are possible. The greatest gain occurs when two stations utilize the CSSB system and select opposite sidebands. Under such conditions it is claimed that gains in the desired to undesired signal ratios up to a theoretical maximum of 30 db may be realized if it is assumed that perfect receivers are used and that the ratio of the desired to undesired sidebands of 30 db is maintained. The worst situation is obtained when the two stations transmit on the same sideband in which case no improvement is realized, although Kahn claims that the other advantages of the system will be realized. The listener to a conventional double-sideband AM station, it is alleged, could realize a gain in the presence of a CSSB station, but with some distortion, by detuning his receiver. No improvement would result if the listener tunes precisely to the AM carrier. Laboratory measurements were submitted to show verification of the theoretical results of two situations, one in which the desired station operated with CSSB and the interfering station with conventional AM and the other with two stations operating CSSB one on the lower sideband and the other on the upper sideband (optimum conditions).

10. Adjacent channel interference. Four conditions of adjacent channel operation are possible. Here again Kahn suggests that the optimum arrangement would be for the stations to operate on opposite sidebands and the worst situation would be for the stations to operate on adjacent sidebands. Kahn states that the theoretical improvement for the various combinations ranges from 43 db for the optimum to none for the poorest arrangement where one station uses the upper sideband and the other the lower. In the latter case, Kahn concedes that the advantage which might be realized by the proposed limitation of the high frequency components of the signal to 8 kc would be offset by the fact that the level of the sidebands in each case would be raised by 6 db. Laboratory measurements are also presented for operation under the various adjacent channel arrangements which purport to show close agreement with the theoretical calculations.

11. Reduction of interference from TV receivers. Kahn submits that the radiation from television receivers at harmonics of the 15.75 kc horizontal sweep frequency is a serious problem. CSSB, by permitting the broadcast station to operate on the sideband removed from the offending radiation, can reduce this type of interference as much as 16 db. It is assumed, of course, that the receivers are tuned to the desired sideband.

12. Minimizing selective fading distortion. Kahn states that laboratory tests on this type of interference are unwieldy and insufficient and that further proof would require extensive field testing under actual station operating conditions. He argues that time, expense, and the lack of available facilities make further tests on this condition impossible at this time. However, he does claim that CSSB is less sensitive to phase differences between the carrier and the sidebands and therefore should be more free of this type of distortion.

13. Experimental results. Kahn submits that the results of experimental operations in this country (KDKA, Pittsburgh, WBZ, Boston, WGBB, Freeport, L.I., WMGM, New York, WABC, New York, and WSM, Nashville) and in others substantiate the claims he makes for the system. In the case of WGBB a listener survey solicited by the station resulted in 118 favorable comments, 26 noting no difference and 7 stating that reception was poorer with CSSB.

14. Petitioner's response to issues raised in notice of inquiry. In response to the specific questions asked in the Notice of Inquiry Kahn states there has been an active interest by broadcasters and engineers in CSSB as witnessed by articles in technical journals, books, and elsewhere; that as far as petitioner is aware the proposed system is the only practical method for obtaining CSSB without undue distortion; that there is no greater interference potential to existing stations; and that no burdens are placed on existing receivers. Kahn further states that no changes are required in the co-channel and adjacent channel ratios; that no changes would occur in the signal intensity contours of a station when it uses CSSB; and that only minor changes are needed in the broadcast rules to provide for this type of operation on a permissive basis. As for parameters Kahn recommends that the high frequency audio response of the transmitter should be limited to 8 kc and that the level should be down from the 1 kc reference at least 20 db at 9 kc and 30 db at 10 kc and above; that the average rejection of the undesired sideband for all frequencies above 500 cycles should be at least 20 db below the desired sideband; and that the radiation of the undesired sideband should be measured so as to include all sources of undesired sideband radiation such as odd order intermodulation products and noise.

15. Other comments. Westinghouse, RKO General, Inc., Cleveland Broadcasting, Inc., and WPAT, Inc. support the proposal and urge the adoption of rules. Westinghouse cites its own knowledge of the system as a result of over 2600 hours of experimental operation with the Kahn-CSSB adaptor over the facilities of Station KDKA. It substantially agrees with the claimed advantages and supports the proposed parameters. Westinghouse contends that the petitioner went to "considerable effort to arrive at laboratory test conditions which produce data as close as possible to that likely to occur in the field under normal operating conditions". It urges that the principal advantage to the system is in the area of controlling and reducing interference but admits that, with respect to the reduction of selective fading, the tests at KDKA were inconclusive. EIA submits that it does not have enough information concerning the Kahn and other methods for obtaining single-sideband operation to comment. It raises some questions concerning the possibility of interference to other stations operating with CSSB and points out that data and measurements cannot be obtained until the system proposed is fully disclosed.

16. Opposition. Collins opposes the proposal urging that the Kahn CSSB is not a single sideband system but rather is basically a hybrid AM system and that the major advantages of SSB are not achieved to a significant degree. It urges that there is no available SSB system which is truly compatible with the present AM system and that authorization of the Kahn system would place a burden on receiver and transmitter manufacturers to produce equipment that will perform better with that system. Collins questions the ability of CSSB to reduce emission beyond 10 kc from the carrier as effectively as in conventional AM. Collins questions some of the other claims of the proponents of CSSB but presents no data to support these views. It alleges that equipment failures would double due to the number of added tubes and components.

17. Reply of proponent. In reply to Collins, Kahn submits that the definition he uses for CSSB is the same as that adopted by the CCIR and others.[2] He states that he has never claimed that all the benefits of SSB are obtained by his system; rather, that a comparison must be made with practical home receivers and not the more expensive receivers needed for SSB. He contests the argument that CSSB would place any burden on receiver or transmitter manufacturers by pointing out that such manufacturers as RCA, GE, and Gates have stated that their transmitters can be operated satisfactorily with CSSB equipment. As to receiver compatibility Kahn notes that during a five month period of experimental operation and tests of CSSB at KDKA no complaints were received by that station. With regard to the argument that the addition of CSSB equipment would increase the possibility of failures at broadcast stations, Kahn admits that this is so but points out that the CSSB equipment will include a device which will allow it to be automatically switched out in case of failure.

[2] In the IXth Plenary Assembly Meeting in 1959 at Los Angeles the CCIR defined CSSB as follows: "A single-sideband transmission is considered to be compatible if it can be received on the existing conventional double-sideband receivers without any modification whatsoever and with satisfactory quality of reception."

18. Discussion and conclusions. After careful review of the comments and data submitted we are of the view that the proponents of the permissive use of CSSB by standard broadcast stations have not made a sufficient showing to warrant the institution of rule making in this matter. First, it does not appear that there is sufficient interest on the part of the broadcasters or the public to warrant rule making. As a result of our Notice of Inquiry issued in this proceeding only ten broadcasters responded to the effect that they support the Kahn proposal. Two parties filed oppositions. This response in a service which includes over 3500 stations indicates very little interest in the proposal on the part of the standard broadcast industry. Only two of the parties supporting the proposal (one was the petitioner) submited data. Only one of the six broadcasters (Westinghouse) which conducted experimental operations with the Kahn system offered any comments in this proceeding.

19. Interference potential. Our greatest concern with the proposed system is the possibility of causing interference to other stations. This is especially important in a service such as standard broadcasting with millions of receivers in the hands of the public and long established listening habits. In the proposed system the transmitted sideband power is equal to the carrier power, whereas in the conventional AM system each sideband is only one-fourth of the carrier power. Thus the proposed system sideband contains four times as much power as is present in either sideband of the conventional AM system for the same carrier power and modulation percentage. This raises the question of possible increased interference to other stations. In this connection we find the showing made by Kahn to be lacking. There is no detailed explanation of how the co-channel and adjacent channel tests were conducted, what signals were changed, how the ratios of desired to undesired signals were determined, and to what extent listeners were involved in the tests in the event the tests were subjective. In all the tests the desired signal was modulated by a single tone at a low level of modulation. Thus, we do not have any assurance that operation of one or more stations with CSSB will not cause any more interference to other stations than they would receive under the present system.

20. Effect on NARBA. Kahn states that the proposed operation would not violate the spirit or letter of the NARBA since no increased interference would be created. Annex 2, Broadcast Regulations, Section B. 6. under the term Modulation reads as follows: "The form of modulation for broadcasting stations is amplitude modulation of an unsuppressed carrier of constant amplitude yielding two symmetrical sidebands."

In view of the fact that the proposed system does not conform to the NARBA definition, this agreement would require an understanding with the signatories to NARBA before CSSB operation could be approved in the United States.

21. Claimed advantages of the proposed system. Some of the advantages claimed for the proposed system could be obtained with conventional AM transmitters in view of the fact that they occur in the proposed system only because of the increased sideband power and such things as the proposed limitation of the transmitted audio frequency. Similar increase in power for standard stations and similar reductions in audio transmissions could result in increased signal to noise ratios and reduced adjacent channel interference. The proponents concede that measurements on the reduction of selective fading are inconclusive.

22. Order. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, That the petition of Kahn Research Laboratories, Inc., is denied, and that this proceeding is terminated.

YANKEE ATOMIC ELECTRIC CO.

Notice of Filing Regarding Acquisition by Public-Utility Subsidiary Company of its Capital Stock

JANUARY 5, 1962.

Notice is hereby given that Yankee Atomic Electric Company ("Yankee") (441 Stuart Street, Boston 16, Mass.), a public-utility subsidiary company of New England Electric System, a registered holding company, has filed a declaration and an amendment thereto pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act") seeking Commission authorization to acquire 46,600 shares of its outstanding capital stock, $100 par value, upon the concurrent payment in cash to its stockholder companies of an amount equal to the par value of the shares to be acquired, cancelled, and retired. Yankee has designated section 12(c) of the Act and Rules 42 and 46 promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions. All interested persons are referred to the declaration, as amended, on file in the office of the Commission for a statement of the proposed transaction which is summarized as follows:

Yankee was organized in 1954 by certain New England public-utility companies to construct and operate a nuclear power plant. These public-utility companies are Yankee's stockholders owning all of its outstanding capital stock in specified percentages. During the period from November 25, 1955, to June 12, 1959, the Commission authorized Yankee to issue and sell solely for the purpose of financing its business as a public-utility company $20,000,000 par amount of common stock, $17,000,000 face amount of 4¾ percent promissory notes, and $20,000,000 principal amount of 5 percent first mortgage bonds. This financing program was designed to provide funds equal to Yankee's capital requirements estimated at $57,000,000 and the senior security financing was arranged to permit the issuance and sale of the bonds and notes from time to time as needed and on the condition that the entire $20,000,000 of capital stock be first issued to and paid for by the stockholder companies.

Yankee's plant has been completed and was placed in regular commercial operation on July 1, 1961. The cost of construction proved to be less than the amount originally estimated. The aggregate amount of securities issued and sold by Yankee is $48,361,000, consisting of $15,330,000 principal amount of bonds, $13,031,000 face amount of notes, and $20,000,000 par amount of common stock. Further, of the proceeds from the sale of the bonds and notes $4,670,000 was not needed for construction purposes and under the terms of the bond indenture and the note agreement became "Excess Cash". Such excess cash has been paid over to and will be used by Yankee (to the extent of $4,660,000) for the proposed acquisition of 46,600 shares of its outstanding common stock. After consummation of the proposed transaction, Yankee's capitalization ratios will be restored to those originally contemplated under the financing program.

[1] Commissioner Cross dissenting.
[2] This order does not provide for the consolidation for hearing or disposition of the several matters covered herein, nor should it be so construed.

In the declaration, as amended, Yankee states that Old Colony Trust Company, as trustee under the indenture securing the outstanding bonds, and The First National Bank of Boston, as holder of the outstanding notes, have been informed of the proposed reduction of capital and that both institutions regard the transaction as fully in accord with the provisions of the governing instruments. Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities has been informed by Yankee of the proposed transaction. The declaration states that approval thereof by the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities is not required.

The declaration, as amended, further states that New England Power Service Company, an affiliated service company, will perform incidental services in connection with the proposed transaction and that such services will be performed at the actual cost thereof estimated not to exceed $4,600. It is further stated that no State commission and no Federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction with respect to the proposed transaction.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than January 24, 1962, request in writing that a hearing be held in respect of the declaration, as amended, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law which he desires to controvert; or he may request that he be notified should the Commission order a hearing in respect thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington 25, D.C. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (air mail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon declarant. Proof of such service (by affidavit or in case of an attorney-at-law by certificate) should be filed contemporaneously with the request. At any time after such date the declaration, as filed or as it may be further amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule 23 promulgated under the Act; or the Commission may grant exemption from its rules under the Act as provided by Rules 20(a) and 100 thereof or take such other action as is deemed appropriate.

By the Commission.

Title 10—ATOMIC ENERGY

Chapter I—Atomic Energy Commission

PART 2—RULES OF PRACTICE

PART 3—RULES OF PROCEDURE IN CONTRACT APPEALS

Revision of Rules

The Commission has adopted a revised 10 CFR Part 2, "Rules of Practice", governing procedure in all proceedings under the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, for granting, sustaining, revoking, or amending any license, authorization or construction permit, or application to transfer control of a licensed facility; public rule making; the disposition of appeals from decisions of contracting officers in disputes under contracts or subcontracts of the Atomic Energy Commission; and declaring a patent to be affected with the public interest or granting a patent license.

Part 2, which has been in effect since March, 1956, has been amended from time to time. On February 1, 1961, the Commission adopted "A Report on the Regulatory Program of the Atomic Energy Commission", which was the basis of a recent reorganization of its regulatory staff and functions. That Report recommended further action directed toward development of the Commission's procedural as well as substantive regulations.

In order to expedite and improve the performance of its regulatory functions, the Commission has adopted the following amendments to its regulations. The amendments are designed to expedite proceedings without sacrificing the fair and impartial consideration and adjudication of issues, and to embody the results of experience gained under the existing rules while incorporating useful provisions of the rules of practice or other regulatory agencies and of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

The existing 10 CFR Part 3, "Rules of Procedure in Contract Appeals", largely incorporates by reference pertinent provisions of Part 2. The revision of Part 2 now incorporates the substance of Part 3 as a new Subpart D.

Inasmuch as this amendment relates to agency procedure and practice, the Commission has found that general notice of proposed rule making and public procedure thereon are unnecessary, and that good cause exists why this amendment should be made effective forty-five (45) days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The Commission will continue to study the problems involved in these rules with a view to making such further changes as may from time to time appear desirable. Members of the bar, commission contractors, and others are invited to submit comments and suggestions to the Commission. Comments and suggestions should be addressed to the Secretary, United States Atomic Energy Commission, Washington 25, D.C., and will be reviewed by the Commission prior to the effective date of these rules.

Pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act and the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, the following rules are published as a document subject to codification, to be effective forty-five (45) days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

On the effective date of these rules, 10 CFR Part 3, "Rules of Practice in Contract Appeals" is repealed.

Dated at Germantown, Md., this 8th day of January 1962.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

WOODFORD B. McCOOL,
Secretary.

Subpart B—Procedure for Imposing Requirements by Order, or for Modification, Suspension, or Revocation of a License

§ 2.200 Scope of subpart.

This subpart prescribes the procedure in cases initiated by the regulatory staff to impose requirements by order on a licensee or to modify, suspend, or revoke a license, or for such other action as may be proper.

§ 2.201 Notice of violation.

(a) Before instituting any proceeding to modify, suspend, or revoke a license or to take other action for alleged violation of any provision of the Act or this chapter or the conditions of the license the Director of Regulation will serve on the licensee a written notice of violation, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section. The notice of violation will concisely state the alleged violation and will require that the licensee submit, within twenty (20) days of the date of the notice or other specified time, a written reply including a statement as to:

(1) Whether the licensee admits or denies the violation;

(2) The reasons for the violation, if admitted;

(3) Corrective steps which have been taken by the licensee, and the results achieved;

(4) Corrective steps which will be taken; and

(5) The date when full compliance will be achieved.

(b) The notice will provide that, if an adequate reply is not received within the time specified in the notice, the Director of Regulation may issue an order to show cause why the license should not be modified, suspended, or revoked or such other action be taken as may be proper.

(c) When the Director of Regulation finds that the public health, safety, or interest so requires, or that the violation is willful, the notice of violation may be omitted and an order to show cause issued.

§ 2.202 Order to show cause.

(a) The Director of Regulation may institute a proceeding to modify, suspend, or revoke a license or for such other action as may be proper by serving on the licensee an order to show cause which will:

(1) Concisely allege the violations with which the licensee is charged;

(2) Provide that the licensee may file a written answer to the order under oath or affirmation within twenty (20) days of its date, or such other time as may be specified in the order;

(3) Inform the licensee of his right, within twenty (20) days of that date of the order, or such other time as may be specified in the order, to demand a hearing;

(4) Specify the issues; and

(5) State the effective date of the order.

(b) A licensee may respond to an order to show cause by filing a written answer under oath or affirmation. The answer shall specifically admit or deny each allegation or charge made in the order to show cause, and may set forth the matters of fact and law on which the licensee relies. The answer may demand a hearing.

(c) If the answer demands a hearing, the Commission will issue an order designating the time and place of hearing.

(d) An answer may consent to the entry of an order in substantially the form proposed in the order to show cause.

(e) The consent of the licensee to the entry of an order shall constitute a waiver by the licensee of a hearing, findings of fact and conclusions of law, and of all right to seek Commission and judicial review or to contest the validity of the order in any forum. The order shall have the same force and effect as an order made after hearing by a presiding officer or the Commission.

(f) When the Director of Regulation finds that the public health, safety, or interest so requires or that the violation is willful, the order to show cause may provide, for stated reasons, that the proposed action be temporarily effective pending further order.

§ 2.203 Settlement.

At any time after the issuance of an order designating the time and place of hearing in a proceeding to modify, suspend or revoke a license or for other action the regulatory staff and a licensee may enter into a stipulation for the settlement of the proceeding. The stipulation shall be subject to approval by the designated presiding officer or, if none has been designated, by the Chief Hearing Examiner, according due weight to the position of the regulatory staff. The presiding officer, or if none has been designated, the Chief Hearing Examiner, may order such adjudication of the issues as he may deem to be required in the public interest to dispose of the proceeding. If approved, the terms of the settlement shall be embodied in a decision and order settling and discontinuing the proceeding.

§ 2.306 Request for hearing.

If either the applicant or the patent owner demands a hearing within the time specified in the notice, the Secretary will issue a notice of hearing. Failure of the applicant to demand a hearing within the time specified may result in a denial of the request for a license, and failure of the patent owner to demand a hearing within the time specified may result in the issuance of a license.

The Secretary will maintain a docket of each proceeding subject to this part, commencing with the issuance of the initial notice of hearing or order to show cause or, in the case of a contract appeal, receipt of the notice of appeal. The Secretary will maintain all files and records, including the transcripts of testimony and exhibits and all papers, correspondence, decisions and orders filed or issued.

§ 2.703 Notice of hearing.

(a) In a proceeding in which the terms of a notice of hearing are not otherwise prescribed by this part, the order or notice of hearing will state:

The motion shall be supported by affidavits setting forth the alleged grounds for disqualification. If the presiding officer does not grant the motion he will refer it to the Commission, which will determine the sufficiency of the grounds alleged.

(d) If a presiding officer becomes unavailable during the course of a hearing, the Commission will designate another presiding officer. If he becomes unavailable after the hearing has been concluded, the Commission may:

(1) Designate another presiding officer to make the decision;

(2) Direct that the record be certified to it for decision; or

(3) Designate another presiding officer.

(e) In the event of substitution of a presiding officer for the one originally designated, any motion predicated upon the substitution shall be made within five (5) days thereafter.

§ 2.705 Answer.

(a) Within twenty (20) days after service of the notice of hearing, or such other time as may be specified in the notice of hearing, a party may file an answer which shall concisely state (1) the nature of his defense or other position; (2) the items of the specification of issues he controverts and those he does not controvert, and (3) whether he proposes to appear and present evidence.

(b) If facts are alleged in the specification of issues, the answer shall admit or deny specifically each material allegation of fact; or, where the party has no knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief, the answer may so state and the statement shall have the effect of a denial. Material allegations of fact not denied shall be deemed to be admitted. Matters alleged as affirmative defenses or positions shall be separately stated and identified and, in the absence of a reply, shall be deemed to be controverted.

(c) If a party does not oppose an order or proposed action embodied in or accompanying the notice of hearing, or does not wish to appear and present evidence at the hearing, the answer shall so state. In lieu of appearing at the hearing, a party may request leave to file a statement under oath or affirmation of reasons why the proposed order or action should not be issued or should differ from that proposed. Such a statement, if accepted, will be accorded whatever weight is deemed proper.

§ 2.706 Reply.

A party may file a reply to an answer within five (5) days after it is served.

§ 2.707 Default.

On failure of a party to file an answer within the time prescribed in this part or as specified in a notice of hearing or pleading, or to appear at a hearing or prehearing conference, the Commission may:

(a) Find the facts as alleged and enter such findings or order as may be appropriate without further notice; or

(b) Proceed without further notice to take proof on the issues specified.

§ 2.708 Formal requirements for documents.

(a) Each document filed in an adjudication subject to this part to which a docket number has been assigned shall bear the docket number and title of the proceeding.

(b) Each document shall be bound on the left side and typewritten, printed or otherwise reproduced in permanent form on good unglazed paper of standard letterhead size. Each page shall begin not less than one and one-quarter inches from the top, with side and bottom margins of not less than one and one-quarter inches. Text shall be double-spaced, except that quotations may be single-spaced and indented. The requirements of this paragraph do not apply to original documents or admissible copies offered as exhibits, or to specially prepared exhibits.

(c) The original of each document shall be signed in ink by an attorney of record for the party or, in the case of a party not represented by counsel, by the party or his authorized representative. The capacity of the person signing, his address, and the date shall be stated. The signature of a person signing in a representative capacity is a representation that the document has been subscribed in the capacity specified with full authority, that he has read it and knows the contents, that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief the statements made in it are true, and that it is not interposed for delay. If a document is not signed, or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this section, it may be stricken.

(d) Except as otherwise provided by this part or by order, a pleading or other document other than correspondence shall be filed in an original and fifteen conformed copies.

(e) The first document filed by any person in a proceeding shall designate the name and address of a person on whom service may be made.

§ 2.709 Acceptance for filing.

A document which fails to conform to the requirements of § 2.708 may be refused acceptance for filing and may be returned with an indication of the reason for nonacceptance. Any matter so tendered but not accepted for filing shall not be entered on the Commission's docket.

§ 2.710 Computation of time.

In computing any period of time, the day of the act, event, or default after which the designated period of time begins to run is not included. The last day of the period so computed is included unless it is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is neither a Saturday, Sunday, nor holiday. When the period of time is less than seven (7) days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays are excluded. Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceeding within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon him and the notice or paper is served upon him by mail, three (3) days shall be added to the prescribed period.

§ 2.711 Extension of time.

Except as otherwise provided by law, whenever an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the time fixed or the period of time prescribed may for good cause be extended or shortened by the Commission or the presiding officer.

§ 2.712 Service of papers, methods, proof.

(a) Who may make service. Except for subpoenas, service of which is governed by § 2.720, the Commission will serve all orders, decisions, notices, and other papers issued by it upon all parties.

(b) Who may be served. Any paper required to be served upon a party shall be served upon him or upon the representative designated by him or by law to receive service of papers. When a party has appeared by attorney, service may be made upon the attorney of record.

(c) How service may be made. Service may be made by personal delivery, by first class, certified or registered mail including air mail, by telegraph, or as otherwise authorized by law. Where there are numerous parties to a proceeding, the Commission may make special provision regarding the service of papers.

(d) When service complete. Service upon a party is complete:

(1) By personal delivery, on handing the paper to the individual, or leaving it at his office with his clerk or other person in charge or, if there is no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein or, if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at his usual place of residence with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing there;

(2) By telegraph, when deposited with a telegraph company, properly addressed and with charges prepaid;

(3) By mail, on deposit in the United States mail, properly stamped and addressed; or

(4) When service cannot be effected in a manner provided by subparagraphs (1) to (3) inclusive of this paragraph, in any other manner authorized by law.

(e) Proof of service. Proof of service, stating the name and address of the person on whom served and the manner and date of service, shall be shown for each document filed, and may be made by:

(1) Written acknowledgment of the party served or his counsel;

(2) The certificate of counsel if he has made the service; or

(3) The affidavit of the person making the service.

§ 2.713 Appearance and practice before the Commission in Adjudicatory Proceedings.

(a) Representation. A person may appear in an adjudication on his own behalf or by an attorney-at-law in good standing admitted to practice before any court of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the highest court of any State, territory, or possession of the United States. An attorney appearing in a representative capacity shall file with the Commission a written notice of appearance which shall state his name, address, and telephone number; the basis of his eligibility; and the name and address of the person on whose behalf he appears.

(b) Standards of conduct. An attorney shall conform to the standards of conduct required in the courts of the United States.

(c) Suspension of attorneys. A presiding officer may, by order for good cause stated on the record, suspend or bar from participation in a proceeding any attorney who engages in dilatory tactics or disorderly or contemptuous conduct in the course of a proceeding. An appeal from such an order by a presiding officer may be taken to the Commission.

§ 2.714 Intervention.

(a) Any person whose interest may be affected by a proceeding and who desires to participate as a party shall file a written petition under oath or affirmation for leave to intervene not later than five (5) days before the commencement of the hearing or within such other time as may be specified in the notice, or as permitted by the presiding officer. The petition shall set forth the interest of the petitioner in the proceeding, how that interest may be affected by Commission action, and the contentions of the petitioner. A petition for leave to intervene which is not timely filed will be dismissed unless the petitioner shows good cause for failure to file it on time.

(b) Any party to a proceeding may file an answer to a petition to intervene within five (5) days after the petition is filed.

(c) The Commission or, in the event a presiding officer has been designated, the presiding officer will rule on the petition.

(d) An order permitting intervention may be conditioned on such terms as the Commission or presiding officer may direct. A person permitted to intervene becomes a party to the proceeding. The granting of a petition to intervene does not change or enlarge the issues specified in a notice of hearing unless otherwise expressly provided in the order allowing intervention.

§ 2.715 Participation by a person not a party.

(a) A person who is not a party may, in the discretion of the presiding officer, be permitted to make a limited appearance by making oral or written statement of his position on the issues within such limits and on such conditions as may be fixed by the presiding officer, but he may not otherwise participate in the proceeding.

(b) The Commission will give notice of a hearing to any person who requests it. When a communication bears more than one signature, the Commission will give the notice to the person first signing unless the communication clearly indicates otherwise.

(c) The presiding officer will afford a representative of an interested State which is not a party a reasonable opportunity to participate and to introduce evidence, interrogate witnesses, and advise the Commission without requiring the representative to take a position with respect to the issues.

§ 2.716 Consolidation.

On motion and for good cause shown or on its own initiative, the Commission may consolidate for hearing or for other purposes two or more proceedings if it finds that such action will be conducive to the proper dispatch of its business and to the ends of justice .

§ 2.717 Commencement and termination of jurisdiction of presiding officer.

(a) Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, the presiding officer designated to conduct a hearing has jurisdiction over the proceeding, including motions and procedural matters, from the time when the proceeding commences until the initial decision is rendered. If no presiding officer has been designated, the Chief Hearing Examiner has such jurisdiction or, if he is unavailable, another hearing examiner has such jurisdiction. A proceeding is deemed to commence when a notice of hearing is issued or, in the case of a contract appeal subject to Subpart D, when a notice of appeal is filed. When a notice of hearing provides that the presiding officer is to be a hearing examiner, the Chief Hearing Examiner will designate by order the hearing examiner who is to preside.

(b) Administrative actions affecting persons or matters involved in a proceeding before a presiding officer may be taken by Commission officers authorized to act, subject to such modification as may be determined by the presiding officer to be appropriate to the purposes of the pending proceeding.

§ 2.718 Power of presiding officer.

A presiding officer has the duty to conduct a fair and impartial hearing according to law, to take appropriate action to avoid delay, and to maintain order. He has all powers necessary to those ends, including the powers to:

(a) Administer oaths and affirmations.

(b) Issue subpoenas authorized by law.

(c) Rule on offers of proof, and receive evidence.

(d) Order depositions to be taken.

(e) Regulate the course of the hearing and the conduct of the participants.

(f) Dispose of procedural requests or similar matters.

(g) Examine witnesses.

(h) Hold conferences before or during the hearing for settlement, simplification of the issues, or any other proper purpose.

(i) Certify questions to the Commission for its determination, either in his discretion or on direction of the Commission.

(j) Reopen a proceeding for the reception of further evidence at any time prior to initial decision.

(k) Issue initial decisions; and

(l) Take any other action consistent with the Act, this chapter, and the Administrative Procedure Act of 1946.

§ 2.719 Separation of functions.

(a) presiding officer shall perform no duties inconsistent with his responsibilities as a presiding officer, and will not be responsible to or subject to the supervision or direction of any officer or employee engaged in the performance of investigative or prosecuting functions.

(b) In any adjudication, the presiding officer may not consult any person other than a member of his staff on any fact in issue unless on notice and opportunity for all parties to participate, except as required for the disposition of ex parte matters as authorized by law.

(c) In any case of adjudication, no officer or employee of the Commission who has engaged in the performance of any investigative or prosecuting function in the case or a factually related case may participate or advise in the initial or final decision, except as a witness or counsel in the proceeding.

§ 2.720 Subpoenas.

(a) On application by any party, the designated presiding officer or, if he is not available, the Chief Hearing Examiner or other designated officer will issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses or the production of evidence. The officer to whom application is made may require a showing of general relevance of the testimony or evidence sought, and may withhold the subpoena if such a showing is not made; but he shall not attempt to determine the admissibility of evidence.

(b) Every subpoena will bear the name of the Commission, the name and office of the issuing officer and the title of the hearing, and will command the person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony or produce specified documents or other things at a designated time and place. The subpoena will also advise of the quashing procedure provided in paragraph (f) of this section.

(c) Unless the service of a subpoena is acknowledged on its face by the witness or is served by an officer or employee of the Commission, it shall be served by a person who is not a party to the hearing and is not less than eighteen (18) years of age. Service of a subpoena shall be made by delivery of a copy of the subpoena to the person named in it and tendering him the fees for one day's attendance and the mileage allowed by law. When the subpoena is issued on behalf of the Commission, fees and mileage need not be tendered, and the subpoena may be served by registered mail.

(d) Witnesses summoned by subpoena shall be paid, by the party at whose instance they appear, the fees and mileage paid to witnesses in the district courts of the United States.

(e) The person serving the subpoena shall make proof of service by filing the subpoena and affidavit or acknowledgment of service with the officer before whom the witness is required to testify or produce evidence or with the Secretary. Failure to make proof of service shall not affect the validity of the service.

(f) On motion made promptly, and in any event at or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance by the person to whom the subpoena is directed, and on notice to the party at whose instance the subpoena was issued, the presiding officer or, if he is unavailable, the Commission may (1) quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable or requires evidence not relevant to any matter in issue, or (2) condition denial of the motion on just and reasonable terms.

(g) On application and for good cause shown, the Commission will seek judicial enforcement of a subpoena issued to a party and which has not been quashed.

MOTIONS

§ 2.730 Motions.

(a) Presentation and disposition. All motions shall be addressed to the Commission. All written motions shall be filed with the Secretary and served on all parties to the proceeding. During the time when a proceeding is before the Commission, a motion for an extension of time which would ordinarily be granted as of course, and to which all parties consent, may be acted upon by the Chief Hearing Examiner.

(b) Form and content. Unless made orally on the record during a hearing, or the presiding officer directs otherwise, a motion shall be in writing, shall state with particularity the grounds and the relief sought, and shall be accompanied by any affidavits or other evidence relied on, and, as appropriate, a proposed form of order.

(c) Answers to motions. Within five (5) days after service of a written motion, or such other period as the Commission or presiding officer may prescribe, a party may file an answer in support of or in opposition to the motion, accompanied by affidavits or other evidence. If no answer is filed, the parties shall be deemed to have consented to the granting of the motion. The moving party shall have no right to reply, except as permitted by the presiding officer or the Commission.

(d) Oral arguments; briefs. No oral argument will be heard on a motion unless the presiding officer or the Commission directs otherwise. A written brief may be filed with a motion or an answer to a motion, stating the arguments and authorities relied on.

(e) Disposition of motion. A written motion will be disposed of by written order and on notice to all parties.

(f) Interlocutory appeals to the Commission. No interlocutory appeal may be taken to the Commission from a ruling of the presiding officer. When in the judgment of the presiding officer prompt decision is necessary to prevent detriment to the public interest or unusual delay or expense, the presiding officer may refer the ruling promptly to the Commission, and notify the parties either by announcement on the record or by written notice if the hearing is not in session.

(g) Effect of filing a motion or allowance of an interlocutory appeal. Unless otherwise ordered, neither the filing of a motion nor the allowance of an interlocutory appeal shall stay the proceeding or extend the time for the performance of any act.

§ 2.731 Order of procedure.

The presiding officer or the Commission will designate the order of procedure at a hearing. The proponent of an order will ordinarily open and close.

§ 2.732 Burden of proof.

Unless otherwise ordered by the presiding officer, the applicant or the proponent of an order has the burden of proof.

§ 2.733 Examination by experts.

At the request of a party, a presiding officer may permit a qualified individual who has scientific or technical training or experience to participate on behalf of that party in the examination and cross-examination of expert witnesses.

DEPOSITIONS AND WRITTEN INTERROGATORIES; DISCOVERY; ADMISSION; EVIDENCE

§ 2.740 Depositions and Written Interrogatories.

(a) On motion and for good cause shown, the Commission may order that the testimony of any party or other person be taken by deposition on oral examination or written interrogatories. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by subpoena.

(b) The motion shall give reasonable notice of the proposed time and place of taking the deposition; the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, or, if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the class or group to which he belongs; and the reasons why the deposition should be taken. If good cause is shown, an order will be issued authorizing the deposition and imposing any proper limitations for the benefit of witnesses or parties. The order shall be served on all parties by the person proposing to take the deposition a reasonable time in advance of the time fixed for taking testimony.

(c) Within the United States, a deposition may be taken before any officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States or of the place where the examination is held. Outside of the United States, a deposition may be taken before a secretary of an embassy or legation, a consul general, vice consul or consular agent of the United States, or a person authorized to administer oaths designated by the Commission.

(d) Unless the order provides otherwise, the deponent may be examined regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the hearing. He shall be sworn or shall affirm before any questions are put to him. Examination and cross-examination shall proceed as at a hearing. Except as the parties otherwise agree, the deposition upon written interrogatories shall be taken with only parties and counsel, the deponent, the officer, and the reporter or stenographer present during the interrogation, and the officer shall certify to that fact. Each question propounded shall be recorded and the answer taken down in the words of the witness. Objections on questions of evidence shall be noted in short form without the arguments. The officer shall not decide on the competency, materiality, or relevancy of evidence but shall record the evidence subject to objection. Objections to questions of evidence not made before the officer shall not be deemed waived unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

(e) When the testimony is fully transcribed, the deposition shall be submitted to the deponent for examination and signature unless he is ill or cannot be found or refuses to sign. The officer shall certify the deposition or, if the deposition is not signed by the deponent, shall certify the reasons for the failure to sign, and shall promptly forward the deposition by registered mail to the Commission.

(f) Where the deposition is to be taken on written interrogatories, the party proposing the deposition shall file a copy of the proposed interrogatories showing each interrogatory separately and consecutively numbered, the name and address of the person who is to answer them, and the name, description, title, and address of the officer before whom they are to be taken. Within seven (7) days after filing, any other party may serve cross-interrogatories. Objections to interrogatories or cross-interrogatories shall be made promptly and will be ruled upon by the presiding officer. Objections to form, unless made before the order for taking the deposition is issued, shall be deemed waived. The interrogatories, cross-interrogatories, and answers shall be recorded and signed, and the deposition certified, returned, and filed as in the case of a deposition on oral examination.

(g) A deposition will not become a part of the record in the hearing unless received in evidence. If only part of a deposition is offered in evidence by a party, any other party may introduce any other parts. A party shall not be deemed to make a person his own witness for any purpose by taking his deposition.

(h) A deponent whose deposition is taken and the officer taking a deposition shall be entitled to the same fees as are paid for like services in the district courts of the United States, to be paid by the party at whose instance the deposition is taken.

(i) The witness may be accompanied, represented, and advised by legal counsel.

§ 2.741 Discovery and production of documents and things for inspection, copying, or photographing.

(a) Order to produce. On motion of any party showing good cause and on notice to all other parties, the Commission may:

(1) Order any party to produce and permit the inspection and copying or photographing, by and on behalf of the moving party, of any designated documents, papers, books, accounts, letters, photographs, objects or tangible things in his or its possession, custody, or control, which are not determined to be privileged, and which constitute or contain evidence (including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of relevant facts) regarding any matter that is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the examining party or to the claim or defense of any party; or

(2) Order any party to permit entry upon designated land or other property in his or its possession or control for the purpose of inspecting, measuring, surveying, or photographing the property or any designated object or operation which is relevant within subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(b) Relation to admissible evidence. It is not ground for objection to the motion that the evidence will be inadmissible if the evidence sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

(c) Scope of order. The order shall specify the time, place, and manner of making the inspection and taking the copies and photographing, and may prescribe such terms and conditions as are just. The Commission may make an order that the inspection, copying, measuring, surveying, or photographing shall be limited to certain matters or that secret processes, developments, or research need not be disclosed and any other order which justice requires to protect the party from annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression.

§ 2.742 Admissions.

(a) At any time after his answer has been filed, a party may file a written request for the admission of the genuineness and authenticity of any relevant document described in or attached to the request, or for the admission of the truth of any specified relevant matter of fact. A copy of the document shall be delivered with the request unless a copy has already been furnished.

(b) Each requested admission shall be deemed made unless, within a time designated by the presiding officer or the Commission, and not less than ten (10) days after service of the request or such further time as may be allowed on motion, the party to whom the request is directed serves on the requesting party either (1) a sworn statement denying specifically the relevant matters of which an admission is requested or setting forth in detail the reasons why he can neither truthfully admit nor deny them, or (2) written objections on the ground that some or all of the matters involved are privileged or irrelevant or that the request is otherwise improper in whole or in part. Answers on matters to which such objections are made may be deferred until the objections are determined. If written objections are made to only a part of a request, the remainder of the request shall be answered within the time designated.

(c) Admissions obtained pursuant to the procedure in this section may be used in evidence to the same extent and subject to the same objections as other admissions.

§ 2.743 Evidence.

(a) General. Every party to a proceeding shall have the right to present such oral or documentary evidence and rebuttal evidence and conduct such cross-examination as may be required for full and true disclosure of the facts.

(b) Written testimony. Where the interest of any party will not be prejudiced, it is expected that each party will submit all or part of the direct testimony of his witnesses in written form, unless objections are presented and as otherwise ordered by the presiding officer. Unless otherwise ordered by the presiding officer, a party may: Serve copies of proposed written testimony on all parties at least five (5) days in advance of the session of the hearing at which such testimony is to be presented, unless all parties agree that all or any part of such five (5) days' prior service be waived; the presiding officer may permit the introduction of written testimony after having given all parties present a reasonable opportunity to examine it. Whenever it is deemed necessary or desirable, the Commission or the presiding officer may direct that proposed testimony be reduced to written form and be served and offered in the manner described in this paragraph, allowing a reasonable time for the preparation of the written testimony.

(c) Admissibility. Only relevant, material, and reliable evidence which is not unduly repetitious will be admitted. Immaterial or irrelevant parts of an admissible document will be segregated and excluded so far as is practicable.

(d) Objections. An objection to evidence shall briefly state the grounds of objection. The transcript shall include the objection, the grounds, and the ruling. Exception to an adverse ruling is preserved without notation on the record.

(e) Offer of proof. An offer of proof made in connection with an objection to a ruling of the presiding officer excluding or rejecting proffered oral testimony shall consist of a statement of the substance of the proffered evidence. If the excluded evidence is written, a copy shall be marked for identification. Rejected exhibits, adequately marked for identification, shall be retained in the record.

(f) Exhibits. A written exhibit will not be received in evidence unless the original and two copies are offered and a copy furnished to each party, or the parties have previously been furnished with copies or the presiding officer directs otherwise. The presiding officer may permit a party to replace with a true copy an original document admitted in evidence.

(g) Record of the application. In any proceeding involving an application, there shall be offered in evidence the record of the application, including the application, amendments, correspondence related to the application, reports if any of the ACRS, and any other documents except as limited by section 181 of the Act or order of the Commission.

(h) Official record. An official record of a government agency or entry in an official record may be evidenced by an official publication or by a copy attested by the officer having legal custody of the record and accompanied by a certificate of his custody.

(i) Official notice. Official notice may be taken of any fact of which judicial notice might be taken by the courts of the United States and of any technical or scientific fact within the knowledge of the Commission as an expert body, if (1) the fact is specified in the record or is brought to the attention of the parties before final decision, and (2) every party adversely affected by the decision is afforded an opportunity to controvert the fact. Any party may oppose a request that official notice be taken of a fact. If a decision is stated to rest in whole or in part on official notice of a fact which the parties have not had a prior opportunity to controvert, a party may controvert the fact by filing a petition for review of an initial decision or a petition for reconsideration of a final decision, clearly and concisely setting forth the information relied on to show the contrary.

§ 2.750 Official reporter; transcript.

(a) A hearing will be reported under the supervision of the presiding officer, stenographically or by other means, by an official reporter who may be designated from time to time by the Commission or may be a regular employee of the Commission. The transcript prepared by the reporter shall be the sole official transcript of the proceeding. Except as limited pursuant to Section 181 of the Act or order of the Commission, the transcript will be open for inspection at the Public Document Room. Copies of transcripts are available to parties and to the public from the official reporter on payment of the charges fixed therefor.

(b) Transcript corrections: Corrections of the official transcript may be made only in the manner provided by this paragraph. Corrections ordered or approved by the presiding officer shall be included in the record as an appendix, and when so incorporated the Secretary shall make the necessary physical corrections in the official transcript so that it will incorporate the changes ordered. In making corrections there shall be no substitution of pages but, to the extent practicable, corrections shall be made by running a line through the matter to be changed without obliteration and writing the matter as changed immediately above. Where the correction consists of an insertion, it shall be added by rider or interlineation as near as possible to the text which is intended to precede and follow it.

§ 2.751 Hearings to be public.

Except as may be requested pursuant to Section 181 of the Act, all hearings will be public unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

§ 2.752 Prehearing conference.

(a) The Commission or the presiding officer may direct the parties or their counsel to appear at a specified time and place for a conference to consider:

(1) Simplification and clarification of the issues;

(2) The necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;

(3) The possibility of obtaining stipulations and admissions of fact and of the contents and authenticity of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof;

(4) The limitation of the number of expert witnesses, and other steps to expedite the presentation of evidence, including the preparation of written testimony; and

(5) Such other matters as may aid in the orderly disposition of the proceeding.

(b) Prehearing conferences may be stenographically reported.

(c) The Commission or the presiding officer may enter an order which recites the action taken at the conference, the amendments allowed to the pleadings, and agreements by the parties, and which limits the issues. The order shall control the subsequent course of the proceeding unless modified for good cause.

§ 2.753 Stipulations.

The parties may stipulate in writing or orally on the record during a hearing as to matters of fact or procedure. Such a stipulation may be received in evidence.

§ 2.754 Proposed findings and conclusions.

(a) Within twenty (20) days after the record is closed, or within such reasonable additional time as may be allowed by the presiding officer, any party to the proceeding may, or if so directed by the presiding officer, shall file proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, briefs and a proposed form of order or decision. Failure to file proposed findings of fact, conclusions of law or briefs when directed to do so may be deemed a default, and an order or initial decision may be entered accordingly.

(b) Except as otherwise ordered by the presiding officer:

(1) The party who has the burden of proof shall initially file proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law and briefs, and a proposed form of order or decision;

(2) Other parties may file proposed findings, conclusions of law and briefs within twenty (20) days thereafter;

(3) A party who has the burden of proof may reply within ten (10) days after service of proposed findings and conclusions of law and briefs by other parties.

(c) Proposed findings of fact shall be clearly and concisely set forth in numbered paragraphs and shall be confined to the material issues of fact presented on the record, with exact citations to the transcript of record and exhibits in support of each proposed finding. Proposed conclusions of law shall be set forth in numbered paragraphs as to all material issues of law or discretion presented on the record. Proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law submitted by a person who does not have the burden of proof and who has only a limited interest in the proceeding may be confined to matters which affect his interests.

§ 2.755 Oral argument before presiding officer.

When, in the opinion of the presiding officer, time permits and the nature of the proceeding and the public interest warrant, he may allow and fix a time for the presentation of oral argument. He will impose appropriate limits of time on the argument. The transcript of the argument shall be a part of the record.

INITIAL DECISION AND COMMISSION REVIEW

§ 2.760 Initial decision and its effect.

(a) After hearing, the presiding officer will render an initial decision which will constitute the final action of the Commission thirty (30) days after its date unless a party files a petition for review within twenty (20) days of its date or the Commission directs that the record be certified to it for final decision.

(b) Where the public interest so requires, the Commission may direct that the presiding officer certify the record to it without an initial decision, and may:

(1) Prepare its own initial decision, which will become final unless exceptions are filed; or

(2) Omit an initial decision on a finding that due and timely execution of its functions imperatively and unavoidably so requires.

(c) An initial decision will be in writing and will be based on the whole record and supported by reliable, probative, and substantial evidence. The initial decision will include:

(1) Findings, conclusions and rulings, with the reasons or basis for them, on all material issues of fact, law, or discretion presented on the record;

(2) All facts officially noticed and relied on in making the decision;

(3) The appropriate ruling, order or denial of relief with the effective date, and the time within which a petition for review may be filed;

(4) In the case of an initial decision which may become final in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section, the date when it may become final.

§ 2.761 Expedited decisional procedure.

(a) The presiding officer may determine a proceeding by an order after the conclusion of a hearing without issuing an initial decision, when:

(1) All parties stipulate that the initial decision may be omitted and waive their rights to file a petition for review, to request oral argument, and to seek judicial review;

(2) No unresolved substantial issue of fact, law, or discretion remains, and the record clearly warrants granting the relief requested; and

(3) The presiding officer finds that dispensing with the issuance of the initial decision is in the public interest.

(b) An order entered pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall be subject to review by the Commission on its own motion within thirty (30) days after its date.

(c) An initial decision may be made effective immediately, subject to review by the Commission on its own motion within thirty (30) days after its date, when:

(1) All parties stipulate that the initial decision may be made effective immediately and waive their rights to file a petition for review, to request oral argument, and to seek judicial review;

(2) No unresolved substantial issue of fact, law, or discretion remains and the record clearly warrants granting the relief requested; and

(3) The presiding officer finds that it is in the public interest to make the initial decision effective immediately.

§ 2.762 Petition for review.

(a) Who may file. A party may within twenty (20) days after the date of an initial decision file a petition for review of the initial decision by the Commission, and a brief in support of the petition.

(b) Content. The petition for review shall plainly and concisely state the facts, and the brief shall plainly and concisely state the legal grounds, on which the petitioner bases his claim that he has been aggrieved by the decision of the presiding officer, or that review is required in the public interest, and the relief which the petitioner seeks by review. Ten (10) copies of the petition and brief shall be filed.

(c) Answer. Within ten (10) days after the filing of the petition and brief a respondent may file ten (10) copies of an opposing brief.

(d) Granting of petition. The petition for review may be granted in the discretion of the Commission, giving due weight to the existence of a substantial question with respect to such considerations as the following:

(1) A finding of a material fact is clearly erroneous;

(2) A necessary legal conclusion is without governing precedent or is a departure from or contrary to established law;

(3) A substantial and important question of law, policy or discretion has been raised;

(4) The conduct of the proceeding involved a prejudicial procedural error; or

(5) Any other consideration which the Commission may deem to be in the public interest.

(e) Effect of denial. If the Commission denies the petition, the decision of the presiding officer will thereupon become the final action of the Commission.

(f) Effect of granting petition. If the Commission grants the petition, the petitioner shall file exceptions and a brief in support of them within twenty (20) days after service of the order granting the petition. Each party may file an opposing brief within ten (10) days after the service of the exceptions and brief. Ten (10) copies of the exceptions and brief and of each opposing brief shall be filed.

(g) Exceptions. Each exception shall relate only to an important procedural or substantive matter presented by the record as limited by the Commission's order granting review; shall be separately numbered; shall identify the part of the decision to which objection is made; and shall specify precisely the portions of the record relied upon. The brief shall state the grounds of the exception, including citation of authorities. Any objection to a ruling, finding, or conclusion which is not made a part of the exceptions will be deemed to be waived.

(h) Reason for denying relief. The failure of a petitioner to present clearly, concisely, and accurately whatever is essential to a ready and adequate understanding of his exceptions and arguments will be sufficient reason for denying relief.

§ 2.763 Oral argument.

Oral argument will not be allowed on a petition for review. The Commission may allow oral argument of an appeal after granting a petition for review.

FINAL DECISION

§ 2.770 Final decision.

(a) The Commission will ordinarily consider the whole record on review, but may limit the issues to be reviewed and consider only findings and conclusions to which exceptions have been filed.

(b) The Commission may adopt, modify, or set aside the findings, conclusions and order in the initial decision, and will state the basis of its action. The final decision will be in writing and will include:

(1) A statement of findings and conclusions, with the basis for them on all material issues of fact, law or discretion presented;

(2) All facts officially noticed;

(3) The ruling on each material exception;

(4) The appropriate ruling, order, or denial of relief, with the effective date.

§ 2.771 Petition for reconsideration.

(a) A petition for reconsideration of a final decision may be filed by a party within ten (10) days after the date of the decision. No petition may be filed with respect to an initial decision which has become final through failure to file a petition for review.

(b) The petition for reconsideration shall state specifically the respects in which the final decision is claimed to be erroneous, the grounds of the petition, and the relief sought. Within seven (7) days after a petition for reconsideration has been filed, any other party may file an answer in opposition to or in support of the petition.

(c) Neither the filing nor the granting of the petition shall stay the decision unless the Commission orders otherwise.

EX PARTE COMMUNICATIONS

§ 2.780 Ex parte communications.

(a) Neither (1) Commissioners, members of their immediate staffs, or other AEC officials and employees who advise the Commissioners in the exercise of their quasi-judicial functions will request or entertain off the record except from each other, nor (2) any applicant for or holder of an AEC license or permit, or any officer, employee, representative, or other person directly or indirectly acting in behalf thereof, shall submit off the record to Commissioners or such staff members, officials, and employees, any evidence, explanation, analysis, or advice, whether written or oral, regarding any substantive matter at issue in a proceeding on the record then pending before the AEC for the issuance, denial, amendment, transfer, renewal, modification, suspension, or revocation of a license or permit. For the purposes of this section, the term "proceeding on the record then pending before the AEC" shall include any application or matter which has been noticed for hearing or concerning which a hearing has been requested pursuant to this part.

(b) Copies of written communications covered by paragraph (a) of this section shall be placed in the AEC public document room and served by the Secretary on the communicator and the parties to the proceeding involved.

(c) A Commissioner, member of his immediate staff, or other AEC official or employee advising the Commissioners in the exercise of their quasi-judicial functions, to whom is attempted any oral communication concerning any substantive matter at issue in a proceeding on the record as described in paragraph (a) of this section, will decline to listen to such communication and will explain that the matter is pending for determination. If unsuccessful in preventing such communication, the recipient thereof will advise the communicator that a written summary of the conversation will be delivered to the AEC public document room and a copy served by the Secretary of the Commission on the communicator and the parties to the proceeding involved. The recipient of the oral communication thereupon will make a fair, written summary of such communication and deliver such summary to the AEC public document room and serve copies thereof upon the communicator and the parties to the proceeding involved.

(d) This section does not apply to the disposition of ex parte matters authorized by law, or to communications requested by the Commission concerning:

(1) Its proprietary functions.

(2) General health and safety problems and responsibilities of the Commission; or

(3) The status of proceedings

Subpart H—Rule Making

§ 2.800 Scope of rule making.

This subpart governs the issuance, amendment and repeal of regulations in which participation by interested persons is prescribed under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act.

§ 2.801 Initiation of rule making.

Rule making may be initiated by the Commission at its own instance, on the recommendation of another agency of the United States, or on the petition of any other interested person.

§ 2.802 Petition for rule making.

Any interested person may petition the Commission to issue, amend, or rescind any regulation. The petition shall state the substance or text of any proposed regulation or amendment, or shall specify the regulation the rescission or amendment of which is desired, and shall state the basis for the request. The Secretary will assign a docket number to the petition, deposit a copy in the Public Document Room, and cause notice of the filing of the petition to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Publication will be limited by the requirements of section 181 of the Act and may be limited by order of the Commission.

§ 2.803 Determination of petition.

No hearing will be held on the petition unless the Commission deems it advisable. If the Commission determines that sufficient reason exists, it will publish a notice of proposed rule making. In any other case, it will deny the petition and will notify the petitioner with a simple statement of the grounds of denial.

§ 2.804 Notice of proposed rule making.

(a) When the Commission proposes to adopt, amend, or repeal a regulation it will cause to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER a notice of proposed rule making, unless all persons subject to the notice are named and either are personally served or otherwise have actual notice in accordance with law.

(b) The notice will include:

(1) Either the terms or substance of the proposed rule, or a specification of the subjects and issues involved;

(2) The manner and time within which interested members of the public may comment, and a statement that copies of comments may be examined in the Public Document Room;

(3) The authority under which the regulation is proposed;

(4) The time, place, and nature of the public hearing, if any;

(5) If a hearing is to be held, designation of the presiding officer and any special directions for the conduct of the hearing; and

(6) Such explanatory statement as the Commission may consider appropriate.

(c) The publication or service of notice will be made not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the time fixed for hearing, if any, unless the Commission for good cause stated in the notice provides otherwise.

§ 2.805 Participation by interested persons.

(a) The Commission will afford interested persons an opportunity to participate in rule making through the submission of statements, information, opinions, and arguments in the manner stated in the notice. The Commission may grant additional reasonable opportunity for the submission of comments.

(b) The Commission may hold informal hearings at which interested persons may be heard, adopting procedures which in its judgment will best serve the purpose of the hearing.

§ 2.806 Commission action.

The Commission will incorporate in the notice of adoption of a regulation a concise general statement of its basis and purpose, and will cause the notice and regulation to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER or served upon affected persons.

§ 2.807 Effective date.

The notice of adoption of a regulation will specify the effective date. Publication or service of the notice and regulation, other than one granting or recognizing exemptions or relieving from restrictions, will be made not less than thirty (30) days prior to the effective date unless the Commission directs otherwise on good cause found and published in the notice of rule making.

AVAILABILITY OF OFFICIAL RECORDS

§ 2.810 Public inspection, exceptions, requests for withholding.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, all records of a proceeding subject to this part, and related documents which constitute public records of the Commission as defined in Part 9 of this chapter, will be made available for public inspection at the Public Document Room.

(b) A person who proposes that a document or a part be withheld in whole or in part from public disclosure shall at the time of filing it submit an application for withholding or make timely application thereafter identifying the document or part, and stating reasons why it should be withheld. He shall, as far as possible, incorporate in a separate paper any part sought to be withheld. The Commission may withhold any document or part from public inspection if disclosure of its contents is not required in the public interest and would adversely affect the interest of a person concerned. Withholding from public inspection shall not, however, affect the right, if any, of persons properly and directly concerned to inspect the document. If the applicant fails to comply with the requirements of this paragraph, the Commission will inform him that it intends to deny his application unless he complies with those requirements within the time stated in the notice.

(c) If a request is denied, the Commission will notify an applicant of the denial with a statement of reasons. The notice of denial will specify a time, not less than thirty (30) days after the date of the notice, when the document will be placed in the Public Document Room. If, within the time specified in the notice, the applicant requests withdrawal of his application, the document will not be placed in the Public Document Room.

Subpart I—Special Procedures Applicable to Adjudicatory Proceedings Involving Restricted Data

§ 2.900 Purpose.

This subpart is issued pursuant to section 181 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, to provide such procedures in proceedings subject to this part as will effectively safeguard and prevent disclosure of Restricted Data to unauthorized persons, with minimum impairment of procedural rights.

§ 2.901 Scope.

This subpart applies to all proceedings subject to this part.

§ 2.902 Definitions.

As used in this subpart:

(a) "Government agency" means any executive department, commission, independent establishment, corporation, wholly or partly owned by the United States of America, which is an instrumentality of the United States, or any board, bureau, division, service, office, officer, authority, administration, or other establishment in the executive branch of the Government.

(b) "Interested party" means a party having an interest in the issue or issues to which particular Restricted Data is relevant. Normally the interest of a party in an issue may be determined by examination of the notice of hearing, the answers and replies.

(c) The phrase "introduced into a proceeding" refers to the introduction or incorporation of testimony or documentary matter into any part of the official record of a proceeding subject to this part.

§ 2.903 Protection of Restricted Data.

Nothing in this subpart shall relieve any person from safeguarding Restricted Data in accordance with the applicable provisions of laws of the United States and rules, regulations or orders of any Government Agency.

§ 2.904 Classification assistance.

On request of any party to a proceeding or of the presiding officer, the Commission will designate a representative to advise and assist the presiding officer and the parties with respect to security classification of information and the safeguards to be observed.

§ 2.905 Access to Restricted Data for parties; security clearances.

(a) Access to Restricted Data introduced into proceedings. (1) Restricted Data which is within a category specified in Appendix A, Part 25 of this chapter, and which is introduced into a proceeding subject to this part, will be made available to any party to the proceeding, to counsel and to such other individuals as a party intends to use in connection with the preparation and presentation of his case, provided that each such person has the required security clearance.

(2) Other Restricted Data introduced into a proceeding subject to this part will be made available to any interested party having the required security clearance; to counsel for an interested party provided the counsel has the required security clearance; and to such additional persons having the required security clearance as the Commission or the presiding officer determines are needed by such party for adequate preparation or presentation of his case. Where the interest of such party will not be prejudiced, the Commission or presiding officer may postpone action upon an application for access under this subparagraph until after a notice of hearing, answers and replies have been filed.

(3) Any party desiring access to Restricted Data introduced into the record of a proceeding subject to this part should file an application for order granting access pursuant to this section.

(b) Access to Restricted Data not introduced into proceedings. (1) On application showing that access to Restricted Data may be required for the preparation of a party's case, and except as provided in paragraph (h) of this section, the Commission or the presiding officer will issue an order granting access to such Restricted Data to the party upon his obtaining the required security clearance, to counsel for the party upon their obtaining the required security clearance, and to such other individuals as may be needed by the party for the preparation and presentation of his case upon their obtaining the required clearance.

(2) Where the interest of the party applying for access will not be prejudiced, the Commission or presiding officer may postpone action on an application pursuant to this paragraph until after a notice of hearing, answers and replies have been filed.

(c) The Commission will consider requests for appropriate security clearances in reasonable numbers pursuant to this section. A reasonable charge will be made by the Commission for costs of security clearance pursuant to this Section.

(d) The presiding officer may certify to the Commission for its consideration and determination any questions relating to access to Restricted Data arising under this section. Any party affected by a determination or order of the presiding officer under this section may appeal forthwith to the Commission from the determination or order. The filing by the regulatory staff of an appeal from an order of a presiding officer granting access to Restricted Data shall stay the order pending determination of the appeal by the Commission.

(e) An application under this section for orders granting access to Restricted Data within a category specified in Appendix A, Part 25 of this chapter, will normally be acted upon by the presiding officer, or if a proceeding is not before a presiding officer, by the Commission. An application for an order granting access to Restricted Data which is not within such a category will be acted upon by the Commission.

(f) To the extent practicable, an application for an order granting access under this section shall describe the subjects of Restricted Data to which access is desired and the level of classification (confidential, secret or other) of the information; the reasons why access to the information is requested; the names of individuals for whom clearances are requested; and the reasons why security clearances are being requested for those individuals.

(g) On the conclusion of a proceeding, the Commission will terminate all orders issued in the proceeding for access to Restricted Data and all security clearances granted pursuant to them; and may issue such orders requiring the disposal of classified matter received pursuant to them or requiring the observance of other procedures to safeguard such classified matter as it deems necessary to protect Restricted Data.

(h) The Commission may refuse to grant access to Restricted Data which is not within a category specified in Appendix A to Part 25 of this chapter on a determination that the granting of access will be inimical to the common defense and security.

§ 2.906 Obligation of parties to avoid introduction of Restricted Data.

It is the obligation of all parties in a proceeding subject to this part to avoid, where practicable, the introduction of Restricted Data into the proceeding. This obligation rests on each party whether or not all other parties have the required security clearance.

§ 2.907 Notice of intent to introduce Restricted Data.

(a) If, at the time of publication of a notice of hearing, it appears to the regulatory staff that it will be impracticable for it to avoid the introduction of Restricted Data into the proceeding, it will file a notice of intent to introduce Restricted Data.

(b) If, at the time of filing of an answer to the notice of hearing it appears to the party filing that it will be impracticable for the party to avoid the introduction of Restricted Data into the proceeding, the party shall state in the answer a notice of intent to introduce Restricted Data into the proceeding.

(c) If, at any later stage of a proceeding, it appears to any party that it will be impracticable to avoid the introduction of Restricted Data into the proceeding, the party shall give to the other parties prompt written notice of intent to introduce Restricted Data into the proceeding.

(d) Restricted Data shall not be introduced into a proceeding after publication of a notice of hearing unless a notice of intent has been filed in accordance with § 2.908, except as permitted in the discretion of the presiding officer when it is clear that no party or the public interest will be prejudiced.

§ 2.908 Contents of notice of intent to introduce Restricted Data.

(a) A party who intends to introduce Restricted Data shall file a notice of intent with the Secretary. The notice shall be unclassified and, to the extent consistent with classification requirements, shall include the following:

(1) The subject matter of the Restricted Data which it is anticipated will be involved;

(2) The highest level of classification of the information (confidential, secret, or other);

(3) The stage of the proceeding at which he anticipates a need to introduce the information; and

(4) The relevance and materiality of the information to the issues on the proceeding.

(b) In the discretion of the presiding officer, such notice, when required by § 2.907(c), may be given orally on the record.

§ 2.909 Rearrangement or suspension of proceedings.

In any proceeding subject to this part where a party gives a notice of intent to introduce Restricted Data, and the presiding officer determines that any other interested party does not have required security clearances, the presiding officer may in his discretion:

(a) Rearrange the normal order of the proceeding in a manner which gives such interested parties an opportunity to obtain required security clearances with minimum delay in the conduct of the proceeding.

(b) Suspend the proceeding or any portion of it until all interested parties have had opportunity to obtain required security clearances. No proceeding shall be suspended for such reasons for more than 100 days except with the consent of all parties or on a determination by the presiding officer that further suspension of the proceeding would not be contrary to the public interest.

(c) Take such other action as he determines to be in the best interest of all parties and the public.

§ 2.910 Unclassified statements required.

(a) Whenever Restricted Data is offered in evidence in a proceeding, the party offering it shall submit to the presiding officer and to all parties to the proceeding an unclassified statement setting forth the information in the classified matter as accurately and completely as possible.

(b) In accordance with such procedures as may be agreed upon by the parties or prescribed by the presiding officer, and after notice to all parties and opportunity to be heard thereon, the presiding officer shall determine whether the unclassified statement or any portion of it, together with any appropriate modifications suggested by any party, may be substituted for the classified matter or any portion of it without prejudice to the interest of any party or to the public interest.

(c) If the presiding officer determines that the unclassified statement, together with such unclassified modifications as he finds are necessary or appropriate to protect the interest of other parties and the public interest, adequately sets forth information in the classified matter which is relevant and material to the issues in the proceeding, he shall direct that the classified matter be excluded from the record of the proceeding. His determination will be considered by the Commission as a part of the decision in the event of review.

(d) If the presiding officer determines that an unclassified statement does not adequately present the information contained in the classified matter which is relevant and material to the issues in the proceeding, he shall include his reasons in his determination. This determination shall be included as part of the record and will be considered by the Commission in the event of review of the determination.

(e) The presiding officer may postpone all or part of the procedures established in this section until the reception of all other evidence has been completed. Service of the unclassified statement required in paragraph (a) of this section shall not be postponed if any party does not have access to Restricted Data.

§ 2.911 Admissibility of Restricted Data.

A presiding officer shall not receive any Restricted Data in evidence unless:

(a) The relevance and materiality of the Restricted Data to the issues in the proceeding, and its competence, are clearly established; and

(b) The exclusion of the Restricted Data would prejudice the interests of a party or the public interest.

§ 2.912 Weight to be attached to classified evidence.

In considering the weight and effect of any Restricted Data received in evidence to which an interested party has not had opportunity to receive access, the presiding officer and the Commission shall give to such evidence such weight as is appropriate under the circumstances, taking into consideration any lack of opportunity to rebut or impeach the evidence.

§ 2.913 Review of Restricted Data received in evidence.

At the close of the reception of evidence, the presiding officer shall review the record and shall direct that any Restricted Data be expunged from the record where such expunction would not prejudice the interests of a party or the public interest. Such directions by the presiding officer will be considered by the Commission in the event of review of the determinations of the presiding officer.

§ 2.914 Access under Part 25 of this chapter not affected.

Nothing in this subpart or any order issued in a proceeding pursuant to the regulations in this subpart shall be deemed to abridge access to Restricted Data to which any person may be entitled under the regulations in Part 25 of this chapter.

Title 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Navel Orange Reg. 2]

PART 907—NAVEL ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

Limitation of Handling

§ 907.302 Navel Orange Regulation 2.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 907, as amended (7 CFR Part 907), regulating the handling of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Navel Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such navel oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act by tending to establish and maintain such orderly marketing conditions for such oranges as will provide, in the interests of producers and consumers, an orderly flow of the supply thereof to market throughout the normal marketing season to avoid unreasonable fluctuations in supplies and prices, and is not for the purpose of maintaining prices to farmers above the level which it is declared to be the policy of Congress to establish under the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001-1011) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for navel oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such navel oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on January 11, 1962.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., January 14, 1962, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., January 21, 1962, are hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 300,000 cartons;

(ii) District 2: 300,000 cartons;

(iii) District 3: unlimited movement;

(iv) District 4: unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," "District 4," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order.

[Grapefruit Reg. 1]

PART 909—GRAPEFRUIT GROWN IN ARIZONA; IN IMPERIAL COUNTY, CALIF., AND IN THAT PART OF RIVERSIDE COUNTY, CALIF., SITUATED SOUTH AND EAST OF WHITE WATER, CALIF.

Limitation of Shipments

§ 909.301 Grapefruit Regulation 1.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 909, as amended (7 CFR Part 909), regulating the handling of grapefruit grown in the State of Arizona; in Imperial County, California; and in that part of Riverside County, California, situated south and east of White Water, California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Administrative Committee (established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order), and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of grapefruit, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001-1011) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective date. The Administrative Committee held an open meeting on January 4, 1962, to consider recommendations for a regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such open meeting; necessary supplemental economic and statistical information upon which this recommended regulation is based were received by the Fruit Branch on January 9, 1962; information regarding the provisions of the regulation recommended by the committee has been disseminated to shippers of grapefruit, grown as aforesaid, and this section, including the effective time thereof, is identical with the recommendation of the committee; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective on the date hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of grapefruit; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., January 14, 1962, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., February 11, 1962, no handler shall handle:

(i) From the State of California or the State of Arizona to any point outside thereof any grapefruit of any variety grown in the State of Arizona; in Imperial County, California; or in that part of Riverside County, California, situated south and east of White Water, California, unless (a) such grapefruit grade at least U.S. No. 2: Provided, That included in the tolerances for defects permitted by such grade not more than 5 percent, by count, shall be allowed for grapefruit having peel more than one inch in thickness at the stem end, measured from the flesh to the highest point of the peel, and (b) not less than 50 percent, by count, of such grapefruit in any lot, and not less than 40 percent, by count, of such grapefruit in any individual container in such lot are well formed; or

(ii) From the State of California or the State of Arizona to any point outside thereof in the United States, any grapefruit, grown as aforesaid, which measure less than $3^{11}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, except that a tolerance of 5 percent, by count, of grapefruit smaller than the foregoing minimum size shall be permitted which tolerance shall be applied in accordance with the provisions for the application of tolerance, specified in the revised United States Standards for Grapefruit (California and Arizona), 7 CFR 51.925–51.955: Provided, That, in determining the percentage of grapefruit in any lot which are smaller than $3^{11}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, such percentage shall be based only on the grapefruit in such lot which are of a size $4^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter and smaller.

(2) As used herein, "handler," "variety," "grapefruit," and "handle" shall have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; the terms "U.S. No. 2" and "well formed" shall each have the same meaning as when used in the aforesaid revised United States Standards for Grapefruit; and "diameter" shall mean the greatest dimension measured at right angles to a line from the stem to blossom end of the fruit.

[Lemon Reg. 2]

PART 910—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

Limitation of Handling

§ 910.302 Lemon Regulation 2.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 910, as amended (7 CFR Part 910), regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such lemons as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011), because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for lemons and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on January 9, 1962.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of lemons grown in California and Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., January 14, 1962, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., January 21, 1962, are hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: 18,600 cartons;

(ii) District 2: 148,800 cartons;

(iii) District 3: unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

Title 12—BANKS AND BANKING

Chapter II—Federal Reserve System

SUBCHAPTER A—BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

[Reg. Q]

PART 217—PAYMENT OF INTEREST ON DEPOSITS

Conversion of 6-months Time Certificate of Deposit Into 12-Months Certificate

§ 217.123 Conversion of 6-months time certificate of deposit into 12-months certificate.

(a) The Board of Governors has been requested to give its opinion on the question whether, under the current Supplement to the Board's Regulation Q, a 6-months certificate of deposit may be converted to a 12-months certificate bearing interest at the new maximum rate of 4 percent.

(b) In 1951, the Board took the position that where a time deposit subject to withdrawal upon 30 days' notice and bearing interest at 1 percent was amended so as to provide for 90 days' notice of withdrawal and interest at 1¼ percent, such action did not constitute payment before maturity in violation of Regulation Q, since the amendment made the deposit subject to more severe restriction as to withdrawal and did not result in payment to the depositor. (12 CFR 217.102) Similarly, conversion of an outstanding 6-months certificate, prior to its maturity, to a 12-months certificate would not constitute payment before maturity, since it would not cause the bank to pay out any funds to the depositor before the maturity date fixed by the original certificate. Consequently, as far as payment before maturity is concerned and without regard to maximum rate of interest, an outstanding certificate may be amended to extend its maturity either to a date 12 months after its original issue date or 12 months after the date of the amendment, or the same results may be accomplished by exchange of the outstanding certificate for a new certificate maturing either 12 months after the issue date of the original certificate or 12 months after the date of such exchange. However, the payment of the maximum rate of 4 percent in any such case presents a different question.

(c) In the 1951 case above mentioned, the more restrictive withdrawal provision became effective at the time of the amendment, and the Board therefore held that the higher maximum rate applicable to the more restrictive withdrawal provision could be paid on the deposit after the date of such amendment. Applying the same principle to the conversion of a certificate with a specified maturity to one to which a higher maximum rate is applicable, the condition precedent to payment of the higher rate will exist only if the amended or new certificate will have a maturity to which such higher rate is applicable, computed from the date of such conversion. Accordingly, where a 6-months certificate is converted to a 12-months certificate, the presently permissible maximum rate of 4 percent applicable to a 12-months certificate may be paid from the date of the conversion (whether by amendment or exchange of certificate) only if the certificate will have at least 12 months to run after the conversion before the new maturity date.

(d) For example, if a 6-months certificate issued on October 1, 1961, should be amended or exchanged on February 1, 1962, so that the amended or new certificate would mature on February 1, 1963, a maximum rate of 4 percent could be paid for the period following the date of such amendment or exchange. If, however, the outstanding certificate should be amended or exchanged on February 1, 1962, so as to mature on October 1, 1962, the deposit would never have been effectively "tied up" for more than 8 months, and the maximum permissible rate would continue to be that applicable to a certificate with a maturity of more than 6 but less than 12 months. Without a restriction of this kind, the maturity of an outstanding certificate could be extended so as to enable the depositor to obtain interest at a rate higher than that allowed for the additional time the funds are on deposit and thus faciiitate evasions of the limitations on maximum rates prescribed by the Board. For example, if a 12-months certificate could be amended to extend its maturity for an additional month, successive such amendments would make it possible for the depositor after 12 months to continue to obtain the maximum rate of 4 percent while in effect being able at all times to withdraw his deposit at the end of each additional month.

SUBCHAPTER D—FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN INSURANCE CORPORATION

[No. FSLIC–1, 265]

PART 563—OPERATIONS

Change of State-Chartered Mutual Insured Institution to a Guaranty or Permanent Stock Institution

JANUARY 9, 1962.

Resolved that the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, upon the basis of consideration by it of the advisability of amendment of Part 563 of the rules and regulations for Insurance of Accounts (12 CFR Part 563) for the purpose of establishing minimum requirements for conversion from a State-chartered mutual institution to a guaranty or permanent stock type institution by the addition of a new section to said Part 563 setting out such minimum requirements, and notice and public procedure having been duly afforded (26 F.R. 11217), and for the purpose of effecting such amendment, hereby amends said Part 563, effective February 12, 1962, as follows:

Part 563 aforesaid is hereby amended by adding thereto, immediately after § 563.22, the following new section:

§ 563.22–1 Change of State-chartered mutual institution to a guaranty or permanent stock type institution.

No State-chartered mutual insured institution may change from that type of institution to a guaranty or permanent stock type institution, or an institution of a type having stock of a similar nature, unless the following minimum requirements are complied with:

(a) The change may be effected only in accordance with a written plan approved by the Corporation, and in passing upon any such plan the Corporation may give consideration to any element of good-will value.

(b) All requirements of or under State law shall have been complied with.

(c) The plan shall be submitted to the Corporation by action of the board of directors of such mutual institution prior to the giving of notice as hereinafter provided.

(d) The plan shall contain provisions which, in the judgment of the Corporation, are adequate to assure that each shareholder of record at such date as the plan shall fix with the approval of the Corporation will be entitled to receive, without any payment, a withdrawable account or accounts in the changed type of institution equal in withdrawable amount to the withdrawable amount of such shareholder's account or accounts in the mutual institution plus the full equivalent in cash of the value of such shareholder's interest in the excess of the net worth of the mutual institution over the withdrawable amount of all accounts in such institution, as determined by the Corporation at the expense of the institution. The issuance and amount of such stock shall be as required by the Corporation, provided that full payment for such proposed stock will be made of a sum which shall be at least equal to the minimum amount required by or under the laws of the State or 5 percent of total withdrawable accounts, whichever is more.

(e) The plan shall include appropriate provisions to prevent reduction of the Federal insurance reserve as a result of action under the plan.

(f) The institution shall give formal notice of a special meeting called to vote on the plan, which notice shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Corporation and shall be mailed, postage prepaid, at least 15 and not more than 30 days prior to the date of such meeting, and shall set forth the terms of the plan, the rights of the members, and such other matters as the Corporation may require.

(g) The plan shall be approved by a vote of those representing at least two-thirds in withdrawable amounts of the outstanding shares of the mutual institution as of the end of the month next preceding the date of such meeting and by not less than two-thirds in number of the eligible votes cast at such meeting. Voting by proxy shall be subject to such requirements and restrictions as the Corporation may prescribe.

(Secs. 402, 403, 48 Stat. 1256, 1257, as amended; 12 U.S.C. 1725, 1726. Reorg. Plan No. 3 of 1947, 12 F.R. 4981, 3 CFR, 1947 Supp.)

Title 25—INDIANS

Chapter I—Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior

SUBCHAPTER T—OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE

PART 221—OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE CHARGES

Colorado River Indian Irrigation Project, Arizona

There was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on November 8, 1961 (26 F.R. 10516) a notice of intention to amend §§ 221.6 and 221.7 of 25 CFR to provide for an increase of the annual operation and maintenance assessment rate from $8.50 to $9.00 per acre on the Colorado River Indian Irrigation Project, Arizona, and for an increase of the assessment rate for excess water from $1.75 to $2.00 per acre-foot.

Interested persons were given an opportunity to submit their comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to the proposed amendments to the Phoenix Area Director within thirty days of the date of publication of the notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Only one objection was received. Its contents have been considered. However, in the opinion of the Area Director the increases in assessment rates are necessary.

1. Section 221.6 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 221.6 Charges.

Pursuant to the provisions of the acts of Congress approved August 1, 1914, and March 7, 1928 (38 Stat. 583, 45 Stat. 210; 25 U.S.C. 386–387), the annual basic charge against the land to which water can be delivered under the Colorado River Indian Irrigation Project in Arizona, for the operation and maintenance of that project, is hereby fixed at $9.00 per irrigable acre, whether water is used or not. Payment of this charge will entitle the water user to but not in excess of, eight acre-feet of water per acre per annum on certain sandy areas as described in a schedule on file at the Colorado River Indian Agency, and available for inspection by interested parties, and to five acre-feet of water per annum per irrigable acre on all other lands. With the approval of the Superintendent, additional water, reasonably sufficient to carry away alkali salts, may be allowed on certain alkali tracts at no additional charge for the purpose of reclaiming lands by the usual methods, such as flooding and leaching. The foregoing charges and allotments of water shall become effective for the calendar year 1962 and continue in effect thereafter, until further notice.

2. Section 221.7 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 221.7 Excess water charges.

Additional water, if and when available, in excess of basic allowances, may be delivered upon written request to the Superintendent by landowners or users at the rate of $2.00 per acre-foot, or fraction thereof.

This Part 288 designates certain types of common services relating to copying, certification and search of records that are rendered by the Department of Defense for which a prescribed fee shall be collected. § 288.4 Review of schedule of fees.

PART 289—USER CHARGES AND USER CHARGES REPORT

The Deputy Secretary of Defense approved the following:

Sec.
289.1 Purpose.
289.2 Background.
289.3 Applicability.
289.4 Policies.
289.5 Responsibilities.
289.6 Costs.
289.7 Fees.
289.8 Disposition of collections.
289.9 Legislative proposals.
289.10 Annual report on user charges.

AUTHORITY: §§ 289.1 to 289.10 issued under Title V, Independent Officers Appropriation Act of 1950 (5 U.S.C. 140) as amended.

§ 289.1 Purpose.

This part prescribes Department of Defense policies and procedures for developing an equitable and uniform system of charges for services and/or property which convey special benefits to recipients above and beyond those accruing to the public at large and prescribes the submission of annual reports (Standard Form No. 4) to the Bureau of the Budget as required by BOB Circular No. A-25, dated September 23, 1959, Subject: "User Charges."

§ 289.2 Background.

Title V of the Independent Officers Appropriation Act of 1952 (5 U.S.C. 140), as amended, provides that it is the sense of Congress that fees shall be charged for services rendered by Federal Agencies in order that such services shall be performed on a self-sustaining basis to the fullest extent possible. This Act further provides that the President shall prescribe policies to insure uniform application of this objective within the Executive Branch. The general policies and implementing instructions for the Executive Branch of the Government are prescribed in BOB Circular No. A-25 referred to in § 289.1.

§ 289.3 Applicability.

(a) This part applies to all DoD activities which convey special benefits to recipients above and beyond those accruing to the public at large.

(b) The provisions of this part do not apply in the following areas which are governed by separate policies:

(1) Fringe benefits for military personnel and civilian employees.

(2) Sale or disposal under approved programs of surplus property.

(c) The provisions of this part are not to be construed in such a way as to reduce or eliminate fees and charges presently in effect.

§ 289.4 Policies.

Except for the specific exclusions and exemptions listed in this part, a reasonable charge, as prescribed below, will be made to each identifiable recipient for a measurable unit or amount of Government service or property from which a special benefit is derived.

(a) Special services. Where a service (or privilege) provides special benefits to an identifiable recipient above and beyond those which accrue to the public at large, a charge should be imposed to recover full costs of rendering the service. For example, a special benefit will be considered to accrue and a charge should be imposed when the service rendered:

(1) enables the recipient to obtain more immediate or substantial gain or values (which may or may not be measurable in monetary terms) than those which accrue to the general public, or

(2) is performed at the request of the recipient and is above and beyond the services regularly received by or available to the general public.

(b) Lease or sale. Where Federally-owned resources or property are leased or sold, a fair market value should be obtained. So far as practicable and feasible, charges should be based upon costs determined in accordance with comparable commercial practices. However, charges need not be limited to the recovery of costs—they may produce net revenues to the Government.

§ 289.5 Responsibilities.

The Secretaries of the military departments are responsible for initiating, developing, and adopting schedules of fees and charges consistent with the provisions of this part, except when fees or charges are prescribed by other Department of Defense issuances covering specific subject areas. Each military department shall:

(a) Identify each service or activity covered by this part;

(b) Determine the extent of the special benefit provided;

(c) Determine applicable costs;

(d) Establish appropriate charges;

(e) Prepare and submit to the Bureau of the Budget, annual reports as outlined in Appendixes A and B.[1]

[1] Filed as part of original document.

§ 289.6 Costs.

Costs shall be determined or estimated from the best available records. Cost accounting systems will not be established solely for this purpose. Cost determinations shall include both direct and indirect costs, including but not limited to:

(a) Salaries, employee leave, travel expenses, cost of fee collection, postage, materials and supplies used, operation and maintenance of buildings and equipment (including depreciation when appropriate), and personnel costs other than direct salaries (e.g., retirement and employee insurance).

(b) A proportionate share of the management and supervisory costs.

(c) A proportionate share of military pay and allowances, where applicable.

(d) The cost of research, establishing standards and regulations to the extent they are determined to be properly chargeable.

§ 289.7 Fees.

(a) The maximum fees for a special service will be governed by its total cost and not the value of the service to the recipient. If the amount of the fee can be determined in advance, normally it should be collected prior to rendering the service. In establishing new fees and increasing existing fees, exceptions to the policies outlined in this part may be made when:

(1) The cost of collecting the fees would be an unduly large part of the receipts from the activity;

(2) The furnishing of the service without charge is an appropriate courtesy to a foreign country or international organization, or comparable fees are set on a reciprocal basis with a foreign country;

(3) The recipient is engaged in a nonprofit activity designed for the public safety, health, or welfare;

(4) The payment of full fee by a State, local government, or nonprofit group would not be in the interest of the program.

(b) All fees and charges shall be reviewed whenever significant changes in costs occur, and at least once a year, to determine whether a fee should be collected for any additional services rendered.

§ 289.8 Disposition of collections.

Disposition of fees or charges collected as a result of the provisions of this part for services financed by working capital funds shall be made in accordance with regulations governing the use of working capital funds. In all other cases all fees or charges collected should be deposited in the General Fund of the Treasury as Miscellaneous Receipts unless other disposition is specifically authorized by law.

§ 289.9 Legislative proposals.

In cases where collection of fees and charges for services or property is limited or restricted by provisions of existing law, each military department concerned will submit appropriate remedial legislative proposals under applicable legislative procedures.

§ 289.10 Annual report on user charges.

(a) As a result of the annual review specified in § 289.7(b), a report (Standard Form No. 4) covering all changes in fees or charges shall be made and submitted to the Bureau of the Budget by December 31 of each year. Each report will cover the situation as of the preceding June 30 and shall be prepared in accordance with the instructions set forth in Appendixes A and B[1] of this part.

(b) When one military department has the responsibility for the sale or lease of property or equipment belonging to two or more military departments, the military department having the responsibility will report such activity on its "User Charges" report.

Administrative Secretary.

Subpart 9–15.50 is amended as follows:

§ 9–15.5001 [Amendment]

Section 9–15.5001 Definitions, is amended by adding the following to paragraph (e):

(1) "Off-site architect-engineer contract" is a contract where the design work is performed in the contractor's central or branch office.

(2) "On-site architect-engineer contract" is a contract where relatively complete staffing is required for the design work at an office other than a central or branch office of the contractor, and where a minimum of support is required from the contractor's central or branch office staff. The office where the design work is performed may be at the construction site or any other location.

Section 9–15.5002 is deleted and the following is inserted in lieu thereof:

§ 9–15.5002 Responsibilities.

(a) The Controller is responsible for developing and revising the policy and procedures for the determination of allowable costs, and for seeing that they are properly coordinated with the General Counsel, the Division of Contracts, and with other Divisions and Offices having joint interests.

(b) Directors of Headquarters Divisions and Offices negotiating contracts, and Managers of Field Offices are responsible for following the policy, principles and standards set forth herein in establishing the compensation provisions of contracts and subcontracts and for submission of deviations for Headquarters consideration.

(c) The General Counsel is responsible for the preparation and interpretation of contracts.

Section 9–15.5003 is deleted and the following is inserted in lieu thereof:

§ 9–15.5003 Deviation.

Deviations from the policy and principles set forth in this subpart shall not be made unless such action is authorized by the Headquarters Division Director concerned, after consultation with the Controller, General Counsel, and the Director, Division of Contracts, on the basis of a written justification stating clearly the special circumstances involved. Where appropriate, any approved deviation shall be reflected in the compensation provisions of the contract.

Section 9–15.5005–2 is deleted and the following is inserted in lieu thereof:

§ 9–15.5005–2 Compensation through fee.

(a) AEC compensates operating, construction and on-site architect-engineer contractors through the fixed fee for general and administrative expenses incurred in the general management and administration of the contractor's business as a whole by the contractor's home, divisional or branch offices.

(b) AEC generally compensates construction contractors through the fixed fee for the salary (and associated payroll costs, taxes, etc., related to such salary) of the contractor's responsible supervising representative in charge of the contract work. Accordingly, the salary of the supervising representative is generally not reimbursable as an allowable cost under construction contracts.

(c) In a particular case, the contractor may be compensated on the basis of allowable cost, rather than through the fixed fee for some or all of the expenses described in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section if the appropriate Headquarters Division Director, the Manager of the Field Office, or a representative having the authority to approve the contract, authorizes use of this alternative approach and determines that the negotiated fixed fee reflects proper downward adjustment from that which would otherwise have been established. In the case of no-fee contracts (including contracts providing for nominal or token fees) these categories of expenses may be either reimbursed on the basis of actual costs or compensated through a predetermined fixed amount.

(d) The above-stated policy does not preclude the payment of expenses merely because they are incurred or accounted for at or by the contractor's home, divisional or branch offices; where expenses of a type typically incurred at construction or operation sites in support of the contract work, are, by reason of a particular contractor's greater centralization, incurred at such offices, rather than at the operation site, such expenses may be reimbursed.

(e) In the case of on-site architect-engineer contracts, the Contracting Officer may approve performance of some of the work in the contractor's central or branch office location. The direct costs of such work and an equitable portion of such indirect costs at the central office or branch office location as are properly applicable and apportionable to such work are allowable. In such cases, the indirect costs attributable to the performance at a central office or branch office location of work related directly and solely to individual contracts shall be distinguished with care from general and administrative expenses incurred by the contractor's home or branch offices in the general management, supervision, and conduct of its business, since these general administrative expenses are usually compensated for through fee and, in any event, where allowable, are related to and apportionable over all work under the supervision of the office concerned.

(f) As to work performed by an operating contractor in its own facilities, see § 9–15.5007–3.

§ 9–15.5005–3 [Amendment]

Section 9–15.5005–3 is amended by deleting the note at the end thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

NOTE: For examples of allowable and unallowable costs see §§ 9–7.5006–9 through 9–7.5006–12.

§ 9–15.5005–4 [Amendment]

Section 9–15.5005–4 is amended by deleting paragraph (b) and inserting the following in lieu thereof:

(b) Audit by other Federal agencies. Where the amount of cost-type work to be performed for AEC in a particular facility is less than that being performed at the same facility for other Federal agencies, arrangements may be made to have the cognizant agency perform the audit of the AEC contract or subcontract. These arrangements shall be made administratively between AEC and the other agency involved, and wherever possible shall provide for the cognizant agency to audit against the AEC cost principles. In no case, however, shall the arrangements preclude determination by the AEC contracting officer of the allowable and unallowable costs in accordance with AEC cost principles set forth in §§ 9–7.5006–9 through 9–7.5006–12. Steps appropriate in the light of the magnitude and nature of the costs shall be taken by the contracting officer to ascertain that the audit results properly reflect the application of AEC cost principles (particularly as to types and amounts of items of cost including incidence, allocability, and equitable distribution thereof).

§ 9–15.5007–2 [Amendment]

Section 9–15.5007–2 is amended by deleting paragraph (a) and inserting the following in lieu thereof:

(a) The contractor's indirect costs, which must be appropriately identified and supported by adequate documentation, must be carefully examined with the objective of excluding for reimbursement purposes all types of indirect costs that are either unallowable in nature (see list of examples in Standard Cost Articles §§ 9–7.5006–9 through 9–7.5006–12) or not properly allocable to performance of work under the AEC contract. It may be that only a portion of a given pool of indirect costs will fail to meet these tests and require such exclusion. After excluding all such expenses, the remaining indirect costs require allocation by an acceptable method or methods that result in equitable charges to the AEC contract. Any item or items of indirect cost that are so excluded in whole or in part shall include an amount for absorption of their appropriate share of other related indirect and administrative expenses. Some examples of indirect costs that should include a fair share of other indirect and administrative expenses are: research and development costs, selling expenses, and bidding and proposal costs.

Section 9–15.5007–3 is deleted and the following is inserted in lieu thereof:

§ 9–15.5007–3 Company general and administrative expenses.

Although the AEC generally compensates operating, construction and on-site architect-engineer contractors through fee for company general and administrative expenses (see § 9–15.5005–2), it allows such company general and administrative expenses under off-site architect-engineer, supply, and research contracts with commercial contractors performing the work in their own facilities. Contractor's general and administrative expenses may, however, be included for reimbursement under AEC off-site architect-engineer, supply, and research contracts only to the extent that they are established, after careful examination, to be allowable in nature and properly allocable to the work. Work performed in a contractor's own facilities under an operating or construction contract may likewise be allowed to bear the properly allocable portion of allowable company general and administrative expense.

Section 9–15.5008–2 is deleted and the following is inserted in lieu thereof:

§ 9–15.5008–2 Cost data.

Where the use of cost data is required by § 9–15.5008–1, the cost principles outlined in this subpart including the items listed as unallowable costs in the Standard Cost Articles §§ 9–7.5006–9 through 9–7.5006–12 shall be applicable in the accounting reviews of contractor's proposals for pricing and in the preparation of the advisory accounting reports which are to be used as a guide by the Contracting Officer in negotiating the final price. An exception to this is the treatment of contingency reserves or allowances in connection with estimates of future costs. If contingencies are known to exist in such cases and the effects may be gauged within reasonable limits (such as anticipated costs of defective work), consideration thereof may be included in the estimates. Where conditions are known that may give rise to a contingency but the effects cannot be reasonably estimated (such as general business risks), the contingency should not be included as a cost factor but should be disclosed as a separate item for the consideration of the Contracting Officer.

The following are a few examples of expenses which, although not unallowable because of their basic nature, are not incident to the performance of an AEC contract:

§ 9–15.5009–5 [Amendment]

Section 9–15.5009–5 is amended by deleting the first two sentences of paragraph (a) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(a) Allowability. As indicated in § 9–15.5005–3, a contractor's general and administrative expenses may be accepted for apportionment to work under an AEC off-site architect-engineer, supply, or research contract only to the extent that they are established, after careful examination, to be allowable in nature and, on the basis of incidence to its performance, properly allocable to the work.

§ 9–15.5010–14 [Amendment]

Section 9–15.5010–14 is amended by deleting paragraph (c) and inserting in lieu thereof:

(c) Bonuses and incentive compensation paid to employees other than those whose pay is directly reimbursed will not be allowed in on-site architect-engineer, construction, and operating contracts where home office general and administrative expense is unallowable.

Section 9–15.5010–14 is amended by deleting paragraph (j) and inserting in lieu thereof:

(j) Training and education expenses. See §§ 9–7.5006–9(d)(8)(v), 9–7.5006–10(d)(8)(v), and 9–7.5006–12(d)(8)(v).

Effective date: These regulations are effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.
